Living Church.

A Weekly Record of its News, its Work, and its Thought.

Vol. III. No. 9.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1881.

WHOLE No. 115.

A Peep at the Old World. By a Stay-at-Home Traveller.

Excelsior-Greece vs. Turkey-Corsica-The Russian Army—An Emperor in advance of his time—A Bishop in the Dock.

They have lately been celebrating, in Vienna, the centenary of Joseph the Second, the man who had the greatest desire in the world to do good and to improve his people, and yet was hated by them, and accomplished nothing. He was over-hasty. He wanted people to do things for which they were not at all ready. Now, after a hundred years, things have changed. When he was asked to sanction the erection at Buda of a statue in his honor, he replied that the time to erect such a statue would only have come when law and religion worked together, and the people had been made happy. Instead of a statue, he has a centenary festival; and, could the other day; a Bishop was in the dock, inhe see what is now going on, he might be content to own that the time he anticipated had arrived, and that Austria had in a hundred years got most of the good things which he had tried intention of insulting, and said that he never ex to force on her in ten.

Now it comes out, that neither Greece nor Turkey wants arbitration. They want to negotiate with each other directly; and for the rest of to be fighting, and mean business, and will listen to nobody. Greece will either beat Turkey, or will itself get beaten, till England and Russia. allies for once, and other governments, probably, interfere in its behalf. If war ensues, Greece will get by it not only what it now claims, but he had no offensive intentions. what it claimed at Berlin, the whole of Thessaly, Epirus, and Crete. Yet the Sultan cannot yield except to force without practically abdicating all his sovereignly in Europe. This does not open up a very cheerful prospect for European governments. No one of them is willing to let any other one have Constantinople, and a general fight seems imminent.

Corsica is a place but little known. Our theatres play the "Corsican Brothers," but that s not give one a very clear id as she and two other women travelled alone all over it, we must give up the brigands which we have always associated with it. There are no beggars either; and the people do not cheat. They are very polite, excepting the street boys; but then, we do not consider three English old maids very good judges of boy-manners. The hotels are poor. One good meal a day can be got, our author says, even in the tiniest village-namely, a unner at sunset; but for breakfast the traveller can get nothing but sour bread and coffee, and for lunch, sour bread and cheese. Neither tea-spoons nor saucers are supplied; but, on the other hand, in the poorest inns there are perfectly clean napkins. We wish the same could be said of every Chicago eatinghouse. When dinner is finished, it is always the custom in the smaller inns for the guest to have a friendly chat with the landlord and his wife. "The reserved Briton who would decline the after-dinner chat with his host or hostess, would be considered a very churlish individual."

One of our American army officers has been writing a very readable book about army life in Russia. He likes Russians, as all Americans do: one great reason probably being that Englishmen dislike them. He confirms the generally received idea of the Russian soldier, both as to his good qualities and his defects. He has great tenacity and endurance, but very little elan. He has neither capacity of initiative nor self-reliance. It is but slowly and by deadly experience that he learns the elementary principles of his business, such as taking advantage of any point of shelter when moving forward against the enemy in open order. But he goes into battle with genuine enthusiasm, and is slow to realize when he is beaten and must retreat. Our author paints a very lifelike portrait of Gen. Skobeleff, whom he considers a great military genius, and he says about twenty years more, he will be commander-inchief in the next war about the Eastern question; and history will then speak of him as one of the great soldiers of the century, side by side with may be said that, with Skobeleff's practice of risking his life, the odds are against his surviving, should he continue to see much service in the field. In the meantime we may anticipate campaign against the Tekhé-Turkomans.

Mr. Whymper, the great climber, has been stretching his legs up the slope of Chimborazo, a peak which hitherto has escaped the climbing where the next day was spent in looking about. fiend. It took much longer time than ordinary and making some calls. In the evening, an in-Alpine excursions. Nine days in all were consumed in the task, and the party suffered very held at the Hotel. Some twenty-five persons greatly trom the rarity of the air. The reaching were present, and the Bishop expounded to them silla is the old river bed, and just on the other the summit had better be told in his own words. the parable of the Sower. About midnight, the side is a ditch for irrigating purposes, having He says: "At 11 A. M. we were nearly 20,000 feet train was taken again for San Marcial, some 30 quite a high embankment. As the coach pulled high, and up to that time had experienced fine miles south, but as passengers are privileged to up out of the river, it got up on that embankment, the parish, on Sunday 8th inst. Church people weather, with a good deal of sunshine. The sky occupy their sleeping berths till morning, there and was felt to be about to turn over. The "outnow became clouded all over, the wind rose, and was not much hardship to be encountered. we entered upon a large tract of exceedingly soft | On Wednesday morning, after a very nice it was stopped in time, and the passengers were marked ability and earnestness at this point.

enough to read the barometers, and left at 5:20 over just as the last gleam of daylight disapfeet-arriving at the camp about 9 P. M.

The Paris Police Court saw a queer sight, dicted for giving impudence to the Minister of Public Worship. The Bishop was Monseigneur Cotton, Bishop of Valence. He disclaimed any pected that the Minister would see his letters. This was considered by all parties to be what our street boys call in their vernacular "a stiff;" and the President of the Court told the Bishop they can do without any third party. The Greeks his Jesuit professors, and was told that unless have sharpened all their swords, and they want he did so, the allowances to the Universities would be stopped. Monseigneur wrote back that he did not care, that he could not be bought nor bribed: "Let you and your friends gorge themselves with money," and so on, in that polite way. He was acquitted, on the ground that Bishop Dunlop's Experiences.

Las Vegas-Sante Fe-Albuquerque-Socorro —The Mesilla Valley—Las Cruces—The Ups and Downs of Travelling in New Mexico—

Correspondence of the Living Church. LAS VEGAS, NEW MEXICO, Jan. 4, 1881.

the Church families, and some others, were visited, and a number of persons paid their respects which was reasonably well attended, and the close to town. "Two miles more," said the old sta-Bishop spoke a few earnest words of encourage- | ger. "It can't be, we have come five miles now," ment and counsel. On Saturday, he visited the said somebody. "You will see," was the reply; Forrester shall have charge of the Rio Grande Hot Springs, six miles distant. It was one of The Rev. F. B. Cossitt, of Central New Yorkthe employ of the Railroad Co. here-and the Missionary in charge, took part in the Services. The Bishop preached, both morning and evening, without notes, and most acceptably.

On Monday, the Bishop went to Santa Fe. where he was met by the Rev. Mr. Sanford, who change of clothes, made the world look brighter; introduced him to the people there. He was the and three or four hours of sleep did much to reguest of the Hon. W. G. Ritch, Secretary of the Territory, at whose house a very pleasant reception was given. A Service was held on Tuesday evening, which was very well attended.

On Thursday, the Bishop went to Albuquerque, the Missionary in charge there meeting him at Galisteo Junction. Friday and Saturday matters at Mesilla. The Mission property eswere spent in calling on the people, a number of pecially pleased him, as did also the faithful laywhom paid their respects to the Bishop, at the residence of Judge Hazledine, on Friday even- four years past. All the families, and most of ing. The little Service-room was well filled on the business men were called on; Las Cruces Sunday morning, and many had to go away, in was visited; and on Sunday, two Services were him: "I firmly believe that, should he live the evening, because there was no room for them. The Holy Communion was administered. The house. They were both very well attended. The Bishop preached without notes, as at Las Vegas. Holy Communion was celebrated in the morning. The Mission has increased so much in strength The Bishop's sermons were without notes, and since last summer, that it was deemed advisable made a good impression. There was found to Napoleon, Wellington, Grant, and Moltke." It to have a Mission organization at once. A number no need, as yet, of an organization at Mesilla, ber of gentlemen interested, met at the Bishop's but the people were called upon to pledge somecall, and, after due consideration, a Committee thing toward the support of a minister who was appointed to take the necessary canonical should give them regular Services as soon as the steps, and to inquire into the expediency of railroad reaches there, which will probably be that his taleuts, with his energy, will go far building a chapel. The Bishop was delighted towards deciding in favor of Russia his coming with the prospect at Albuquerque, and has great hopes for the future of the Church there.

On Monday night, the Bishop and the Missionary in charge took the train for Socorro, formal Service—a sort of Cottage-Lecture—was snow which could not be traversed in the ordinary breakfast at a railroad restaurant, costing only gotten out. The upset was not prevented, how-tant. The track-layers, on the railroad, were mules. Everyone got out, and the coach was put passed some fourteen miles farther on, and the in the road again, but in a muddy place, so they supper station, nineteen miles from Mesilla, was had to walk a short distance to dry ground. Bereached in good time. A little rain began to fall fore the coach got that far, that fatal bank, about this time, but even the "outsides" were seeming to have a magnetic power, attracted it of the journey was being rapidly shortened, when Mesilla, at once, on foot, but as there was a comsuddenly there was a tremendous jolt, confused petent driver in the party, and also a man familtalking outside, and a stop. The lead-bars were iar with the road, it was determined to depose they could not be hitched to the coach; and, as useless and would be worse for him, so he sub-The First Stages in the Life of a Missionary til soon the earth became slippery, and then muldy. Some of the passengers began to manfarther it was to Las Cruces. There were vari-holders. The driver was a new man on the road, as in the night of Wednesday, Dec. 2d, and and knew as little as anybody else. One old emained until the following Monday. Most of stager, who had often been over the road, said, "Gentlemen, it is four miles." They did not want to believe that, so it was decided that he to the Bishop at the parsonage, on Friday. On must be mistaken. When half the distance was that day there was a Communicants' meeting, completed, an enthusiast cried that they were and they did see. Some determined to push on valley, from Albuquerque to the Texas line. the windiest days ever seen even in this windy shead, and among them was the Bishop. Others Whether he will reside at that place or at Mesilla region. It seemed, at one time, as if the buggy thought it safest to stay with the coach, and it has not yet been determined. A good man will must be blown over, and only the letting down of was well they did; for shoulders had to be put to be placed at Las Vegas, to work that place and the top prevented it. The Bishop thought him- the wheels two or three times, and once the self well repaid for the exposure, however, by a coach would certainty have been upset, had there home view of the Springs and the improvements going been nobody but the driver, and the lady who on there. On Sunday, two Services were held was inside. "All things come to an end." and so and the Sunday School was visited. The Holy did that walk. Las Cruces was, indeed, a haven Communion was administered in the morning. of refuge. The advance party reached there about ten minutes before the coach, but they who is suffering from throat trouble, and is in had not succeeded in getting anybody up. The passengers were all wet to the skin, and most of them determined to remain in Las Cruces till morning, rather than risk an attack of pneumonia by riding three miles farther in that condition. A good fire, a thorough rubbing, and a cruit exhausted energies. Friends in Mesilla. learning, in the morning, of the events of the night, sent a carriage for the Bishon, and so the journey ended, on Thursday morning.

The Bishop was very much pleased with the Mesilla valley, and with the condition of Church work that has been carried on there for nearly held in the little chapel fitted up in the Missionsome time in February.

On Monday evening, about half-past six o'clock, the coach drove up to Col. Jones', where the Bishop and his companion had been entertained. It was full, inside, but there were two vacant seats beside the driver. The evening was dark, as the moon had not risen. The Bishop was given the middle seat, and the journey northward was begun. A half-mile from Me-way; and it was found necessary to flog every yard 35 cents each, the construction train was taken ever, for as soon as the mules moved, over went of it down and then to crawl over it on all fours. for the end of the track. The "bob-tail," as the the coach. It came uncoupled (being constructed Deaf Mutes.—A new Santa Claus.—New Year's The ascent of the last 1,000 feet occupied more half passenger and half baggage car that runs on with a view to that end), and the mules went off than five hours, and it was 5 P. M. before we the construction train is called, was quite a dif- with the fore-wheels. The driver held on to the reached the summit of the higher of the two ferent thing from the regular passenger car—to reins, like a man, shouting for somebody to help domes of Chimborazo (21,424 feet). On the im- say nothing of the Pullman-but it was not un. him. When he was overtaken, he was found flat mediate summit the snow was not so extremely comfortable, and the journey was made in a on his back with his arms over his head, holding soft, and it was possible to stand up upon it. The short time. It was found, however, that the fast to the lines; one wheel on the ground and the wind, however, was furious, and the temperature train did not run to the end of the track, but other up in the air, and the lead-mules with a fell to 21 deg. Fahr. We remained only long dropped its passengers at a switch six miles tree between them. After he was released and north of the celebrated "Martine's Well" or "Ale- found to be unhurt, and the mules were un-P. M.; by great exertions succeeding in crossing man." There the coach was in waiting; and hitched, the next thing was to unload and right the most difficult rocks, which had to be passed after what appeared to be the impossible feat of the coach, get the front wheels under it, and months in Europe, during which he attended an loading all the passengers and all the baggage load up again. The Bishop, as the ranking offipeared; but we were then benighted, and took had been successfully accomplished, it did not cer, took command, and in an hour everything more than two hours in descending the last 1,000 take long to reach the "oasis" of the once form- was ready for another start. The passengers reidable Jornada del Muerto, where a kind welcome sumed their places, the whip cracked, and-beand a good dinner awaited the now hungry trav- fore a hundred yards had been made the coach was on that bank again! The passengers, two of and Bishop Potter was present and said grace. After dinner, there was a re-packing for the whom were ladies, began to complain of the Letters of regret were read from Senator Conktwelve hours journey to Mesilla, sixty miles dis- driver, and he blamed the darkness and the ling and others. not uneasy about it, in this dry country. Sup- the third time, and the passengers broke out the world to let them alone, until they see what so. The Bishop had been directed to dismiss per broke the monotony of the ride, and the rest into open war. Some were for going back to The whole work, as a parish and a Mission in broken, and the lead-mules gone! The mules the driver and go on. The driver objected, of were caught and brought back, after a time, but course, but was soon made to see that it was the other two mules could not pull everything, mitted with as good a grace as could be expected. the passengers had to walk. That, though not Las Cruces was reached in a short time, and, as pleasant, was not very serious, as it was only the old driver seemed to have recovered his five miles to Las Cruces, where the damage senses, and the moon was getting up, he was could be repaired. The passengers trudged permitted to drive into town and out again. The cheerily along in the sand, but it was not many crushed lamp on one side told a story, but the minutes before the rain began to fall again. This passengers evaded questions, and the Cruces was "a damper," and it got worse and worse, un- people did not find out what had occurred. The driver did so well, and took everything in so good a spirit that he was permitted to keep the ifest a most earnest desire to know how much lines, and everything went right during the rest of the journey. The construction train was duly Bishop Dunlop has made a rectial visitation ous opinions on that subject some of them evil boarded, next morning, and, late in the evening,

> The Bishop went to Sante Fé, where he spent Christmas Day and the Sunday following. On Monday, he took the train for Kirkwood, Mo., where he left his family, which he expects to bring back with him early in February. He will make Santa Fé his home for the present, but will, himself, be absent the greater part of the time. He expects to make a visitation of Arizona in March. It has been decided that the Rev. H. Santa Fé, with the Bishop's help when he is at > Bishop Dunlop made a most favorable impression in his new field. There is no doubt, here, that he is "the right man in the right place." He is a very good extempore preacher, is able to meet and mix with our people in the right manner: can stand the discomforts and hardships of the work in a manly way; is large-hearted, broadminded, wise, and practical; and it may be safely predicted, that, with the blessing of God, he will do a great work in this jurisdiction. Laus Deo! N. M.

MINNESOTA.—The Rev. E. S. Peake, of Deroit, in this diocese, writing Jan. 7th, says: Yesterday (the Feast of the Epiphany) I visited the new Station of Perham, and celebrated Divine Service, with Baptism and the Holy Communion, at the residence of Dr. D. Newcomb, formerly of Chicago and Kenosha. The child baptized was brought seven miles, and five communicants were present.

Though the thermometer indicated 16 below zero at 4 P. M., the heartiness of the Service and the warm hospitality of the good Doctor and his estimable wife made us forget the cold without.

A visit for a week day Service will now be made to this point, by the Missionary, once a CENTRAL NEW YORK .- Christmas Day was celebrated in St. James' Church, Pulaski, with the usual festival Services and music. Large congregations were present both morning and evening, it being found necessary to place seats in the aisle for their accommodation at the children's Service. Among the presents at the Christmas tree, was a remembrance for the Rector, the Rev. Robt. Paul, in the shape of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. The decoration of the interior of the church—the work of the ladies under the superintendence of Capt. Molther -was very tasteful and elaborate; in fact, it is spoken of as unprecedentedly fine.

SPRINGFIELD.-Rev Thos. W. Haskins has accepted the call to the Rectorship of St. Paul's, Alton, and preached his first sermon as rector of here feel greatly indebted to our noble Bishop sides" shouted "stop!" and jumped. Fortunately for his successful efforts in placing a man of Architect's office, Whitehall, S. W., for further

Our New York Letter.

Calls.—New Year's Eve at St. Ann's, Brooklyn.—New York Bible Society.—Another Sermon from Dr. Ewer.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5, 1881. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, manager of the Church Mission to Deaf-mutes, whose kindly and earnest face is known in your Western cities only less familiarly than here, where he calls it "home," has just returned from an absence of several International Congress of teachers of deafmutes, at Milan, Italy. Last Thursday evening, his deaf-mute friends here gave him a quiet" complimentary dinner and reception. John Carlin, the artist, presided as Master of Ceremonies,

During Dr. Gallaudet's absence, St. Ann's Church for Deaf-mutes, in Eighteenth Street, near Fifth Avenue, has been under the charge of the two assistants, the Rev. Messrs. Chamberlain and Kraus. Service is said there twice daily, some deaf-mutes always being present. the Church, has grown out of a deaf-mute Bible class, begun when Dr. Gallaudet was a deacon.

The Rev. Y. Peyton Morgan, for some time pastor of the Reformed Episcopal Church of the Atonement, Brooklyn, has just resigned, and, it is understood, intends entering the Church. Your readers will join us in bidding him a welcome home.

Something new has turned up in New Jersey. The children of various Sunday schools, at Orange, were asked, during Christmas week, to contribute discarded toys, garments, edibles, etc., to "give away" trees, which were to be sent to orphan asylumns, hospitals, and charitable societies, for distribution among the poor. There were about fifteen of these "give away" trees, the children-with some assistance from their elders-furnishing thousands of packages which were piled up around their base. Some of these groupings presented a motley appearance chickens, turkies, canned fruits, dilapidated and new tops, flowers and garments. The notion is not bad-this turning the little folks themselves into Santa Claus.

New Year's day seems to have been less generally observed than usual. The custom of mailing cards instead of calling in person obtained to an exceptional degree. We know of one lady who received 185 calls by such proxy. The actual calling began late and ended early. and received.

In Brooklyn, the annual New Year's Eve Service at St. Ann's was attended by a large congregation. The chimes began ringing at 11 P. M.; among the airs rendered being "O God our help in ages past," and "While with ceasless course the sun." After a processional by Lambellotte, special opening sentences were read, followed by the Creed, Confession, Absolution and Lord's Prayer, Anthems and Collects. Hymn 258, "Lord let me know my end," was then sung, followed by a brief and very impressive period of silent prayer. Slowly the bells in the tower struck twelve, and then, instantly, rang out upon the night air a merry peal. The Rector, the Rev. Dr. Schenck, made a short and earnest New Year's Salutation, after which, the congregation joined in the Gloria in Excelsis. Collects were said and the blessings given.

The forty-sixth annual meeting of the New York Bible Society was held Sunday evening, at the Church of the Holy Trinity. Several addresses were made. Dr. Tyng said that during the year the Society had distributed 116,388 Bibles, an increase of 16,000 over the previous year. An important department of the work is among the immigrants arriving at Castle Garden, and the sailors of the port.

Dr. Ewer has spoken out again in defence of the imprisoned clergy of England; this time from the pulpit, not of his own parish, but of Trinity Chapel. That "the policy of imprisonment" won't work, is clear enough. We can't help risking a possible encroachment upon the domain of your English correspondent, to give your readers a squib which has come to us from over the sea, creating some merriment here. It is a mock advertisement, originally put by some wag into an English paper under the heading: 'Tenders for a new jail for the clergy," and reads as follows:

"By the advice of Lord Penzance, the new Protestant Pope, the judicial authorities are about to issue a precept for tenders for ground space, and also for architectural plans for the new Ecclesiastical prison for cofitumacious clergymen. Accommodation required for not less than 500. Competitors should visit cells at the Lollard's Tower, Lambath Palace; and also at the Tower of London. At the latter place, may be seen specimens of the rack and other ancient instruments of torture about to be revived, with modern improvements, and for which a large order has been committed by the Government to Christmas at St. Ann's, Brooklyn.

The Christmas festival of the Sundays School of St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn, was held on the evening of the Feast of the Holy Innocents. The attendance was very large. Several Christmas hymns and carols were sung by the children, and appropriate addresses made by the Rector, the Rev. Dr. Schenck, by the assistant minister, the Rev. W. A. Holbrook, and by Mr. Seth Low. A magnificent banner, made by Geissler, of New York, was presented to the Infant Class, by Mrs. Waterbury. The Rector, in the course of the presentation address, paid a very high compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Camp, who have had charge of the class, since its formation in 1869. A large number of books were presented to scholars who had earned them in various ways. In the school-room below, fine Christmas trees were prepared, laden with presents; and the children were more delighted than frightened to see Mr. Camp, personifying Santa Claus, emerge from the fire-place, bearing with him sleigh-loads of gifts, which were speedily distributed among the little ones. Neither the assistant minister nor the talented young organist of the church (Mr. Archibald Archer) was forgotten. After a very pleasant evening, the happy gathering was dismissed with the benediction of the Rector.

At the Service on Christmas day, at St. Ann's Dr. Schenck mentioned two magnificent gifts which had been made to the church that morning. One was a massive silver alms-bason, presented by Mrs. Chauncey Waterbury, in memory of her late husband. The other was an envelope from a parishioner who was unable to be present, enclosing a cheque for $500 for the general purposes of the church. The reverend doctor spoke in terms of great encouragement of the pro spects of the parish, and of the active religious spirit which was increasingly manifested by his flock. He referred to the good work accomplished by the Brotherhood connected with the church. On Christmas eve sixty Christmas dinners were given out in baskets, to the poor of the parish and neighborhood.

Christmas Among the Missions.

Correspondence of the Living Church. SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

To be in love with Mission-work, one must visit the missions on the outskirts of Springfield. At the junction of the Wabash, and the Chicago & Alton roads, about two miles south of town, hard by what is called the South shaft, work has for several years been carried on among the coal miners and their children.

The Mission is not easy of access; and oftentimes in bad weather can only be reached by a long cold walk on the railroad ties. Nevertheless a faithful band of teachers (with one exception, women), carry on a Sunday School at this point the whole year round. A school house which stands in the midst of a group of miners' cabins is used for the purpose. On the evening of Christmas Day itself, the children of the South Mission had their festival. Ordinarily, a stranger would have difficulty in finding his way. without the aid of gaslights, over railroad tracks, ditches and "slack" to the not pretentious school To the Editor of the Living Church: house. But, on this night there could be no mistake. Mr. E. H. Ayer, the superintendent, well to remember that at the last meeting it was with his faithful assistants, had been engaged the unanimous sentiment that the women of the during the afternoon in putting things in readi- Church have as good a right as the men to be ness. When all was prepared, the signal was members at Deanery meetings. The clergy pregiven, by lighting the candles which had been sent then proposed to encourage such attendance grouped in each window. And, as the rays on the part of the women. The bishop has sanc- building at this place should be immediately spread out with cheer in every direction from tioned this move, and also approves the proposal the little school house, one must have thought that the women at the Deanery meetings should of Bethlehem and the light which guided the Magi.

It was well worth a long walk, to hear the genmine carol-singing, and to see the sweet bright in order to organize a diocesan branch of the faces of these miners' children; to watch the silent and open-eyed wonder of some little girl, as the prettily dressed dolly with real hair came down from the tree and was put in her hand. Above all, it was worth many a long and cold walk, to see what had been done for these children by the gentle and refining influence of these tion, and that next May our Convention will be women. One would have looked in vain for any sign of roughness or ill behavior. Gentle and well behaved lads, simple and unconscious girls, at the South shaft.

ST. JOHN'S MISSION CHAPEL.

On the evening of St. Stephen's Day, the children of St. Stephen's Chapel, at the North coal-shaft, had their festival Even-song, and their Christmas tree. The chapel was well filled notwithstanding the bitterly cold night. Some evening, they were not forgotten, and their Christmas presents were laid by for them.

The Service was entirely choral. It is not often that one hears anything sweeter than the Christmas carols, as sung by the children at St. John's. A strain taken up as a solo by some rich young girlish voice, is carried through with feeling (rare for its very naturalness), until all unite with a will in the hearty chorus.

Since last Sept., Mr. R. P. Johnson, who has long had charge of this work has been assisted in the journal with any "general" contribution, by Mr. Clendenin. The chapel is filled every while in the Spirit of Missions, as above, it is set Sunday, for Even-song; and the faithful workers, who, in the face of many discouragements. have sustained Services here every Sunday, see already abundant fruit of their labors and prayers, and the promise of even better things in the given $1,448.07 to the General Missions, instead near future.

denin, on behalf of the Mission Congregation, requested the superintendent to present to the Bishop, the Rector of the parish, and the workers in the Mission, the presents with which each had been remembered, and finally to accept for Missions, and two subscriptions, one for General himself a very handsome Reference Bible, as a token of the love and esteem with which he is of one for each of these three departments, reregarded throughout the Mission district.

gifts among the scholars.

AT THE WEST MISSION (ST. MARKS).

The Childrens' festival was held on the afternoon of Christmas Eve. About forty-five children receive Church teaching at this point, through the unflagging devotion and the faithful and persevering efforts of Mr. John Richardson. The Rev. Mr. Waldo is, so far as the infirmities of age will allow, a most valued and willing helper in this work; and the Sunday school is maintained throughout the year. A happy lot of children met in the school room, on Christmas Eve. After a brief welcome from the Rev. Mr. Waldo, the children sang their carols, in which they were kindly assisted by Mr. H. D. Moss, remembered; after which the merry company was dismissed the waiting-room of the Wabash depot. We have no detailed account of the Christmas festival, but the goodness of heart of the superinenough that the children under his charge came the ministry of John, which was chiefly a minisnothing short of a very merry Christmas.

Christmas at Mankato, Minn.

Correspondence of the Living Church. The Services at St. John's Church, Mankato, during Christmas tide, were very bright and ineresting. On Christmas eve, the Sunday School assembled for their usual Christmas tree, which was loaded with presents for scholars and teachers; the Rector and his wife not being forgotten. Several weeks had been spent in practising carols for the occasion, which were sung with great spirit and accuracy, and listened to with intense interest by the large numbers assembled to witness the happiness of the children. The music on Christmas day, and on the following Sunday, was of a high order and well rendered. We must particularly notice the Te Deum, by Gutterson; the Benedictus, by Millard; the hymn-"Hark the Herald Angels Sing." by Ryder; and the authem-"And there were Shepherds, etc.," by Danks; the several solos being extremely well carried by very sweet young voices. This choir has long labored under disadvantages, from the lack of a good organist, and the full amount of voices; a defect which is now happily removed by the addition of an excellent bass, and a good tenor, and last, though by no means least, an organist who is without a rival Ladies at Deanery Meetings.

All interested in the Bloomington Deanery do consult together with a view of bringing together to our Dioceson Convention in May a good representation of the women of the entire diocese, Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society. Vermont and Long Island have done such noble work by their diocesan organizations. We have many persons admirably qualified to work up and sustain such as enterprise. It is hoped that the three deaneries will act in concert in this direcsupplemented by a worthy representation from the daughters of the Church. Such a work would sympathetically harmonize with the Sister-

To the Editor of the Living Church:

The list of contributing parishes, on page 526 of the Spirit of Missions for November and December, reports not one cent from the seven other than our general missions. But it seems hardly likely that so many of the stronger congregations ignored the claims of this latter cause. There is at the best, however, but a small sum reported so "general," in the convention summary, viz. $162. This, however, is not quite correct. The mission at ---- is not credited down for $28 (over one-third of the sum there given as from the entire diocese).

If all the rest had given in proportion to the whole amount raised, this diocese would have of the $87.51 credited in the Spirit of Missions In a few beautiful and loving words, Mr. Clen- or the $162 reported in the Convention Journal. Could this have been done? We believe it could; because where Bishop Neely's plan of systematic subscription is worked, that proportion is reached. With mite chests for the General Domestic and one for Diocesan Missions, and a committee of one for each of these three departments, reporting at a quarterly missionary meeting of the laddressed at Wilmington, N. C.

The Rev. George Patterson, D. D., is agent to 96 built in Maine and 110 in New York. The tonnage built in the whole country in 1880 is produced; being one for each year required to produced; being one for each year required to addressed at Wilmington, N. C.

The Bishop spoke to the children a few words, congregation, the contribution for the most imwhich were well calculated to win the love of portant part of our Church work would be greatly every boy and girl present. He assured them of increased, with but very little trouble on the part the joy it was to be with them, that evening, and of the clergy. Is it not worth while to try that said that as he looked around upon the happy plan? Taking the Convention Journal's figures, faces of children, and saw before him those who this might have increased the general missionary were devoting themselves so faithfully to the contribution about ninefold, and if the figures in work, he felt that in all he saw he had a real the Spirit of Missions be correct, we might Christmas present. Col. G. H. Harlon and have raised upwards of sixteen dollars where we others present made brief addresses, and the raised one! The clergy need only adopt this evening closed merrily, in the distribution of simple plan everywhere, and at the less figure, raise $2,946,213. Or, at the greater figure, raise $4,582,998, instead af the $327,357 that we did raise last year for the two departments of the general work. Think of it! An annual loss to the mission cause of either $2,618,856, or $4,-255,641, or thereabouts, merely from the lack of systematic, personal subscriptions. What clergyman would wish to bear his share of responsibility for this loss?

Ordinations in New Jersey.

Correspondence of the Living Church. In St. Mary's Church, Keyport, on the 16th ultimo., being Thursday in Ember-week, the Rev. C. J. Peace was advanced to the Holy Order the organist of St. John's chapel. The Christ- of Priests, by the Right Rev. John Scarborough, mas gifts were then distributed, every child being Bishop of New Jersey. Many clergymen had been invited; but owing to the fact that this was Ember-week, the sacred duty of their Office Divines of different communions. And to all is Work at the East Mission is still carried on in prevented most of them from taking trains early enough to be present.

The sermon was by the Bishop, who, taking as a text the words in reference to John Baptist tendent, Mr. J. H. H. Bennett, is assurance that "he did no miracle," drew a contrast between try of warning to repentance, and that of the Christian Priesthood, which is a supernatural ministry. The mission of John was to cry "prepare ye the way of the Lord!" The ministry of Fourth Century. the Priesthood is by the power of the Holy Ghost to bring a Christ present to the peoplepresent in Baptism, in the Holy Eucharist, in all declare Christ, above all, through all, and in you | rimitive Catholick Church." all: not a historic Christ of eighteen hundred years ago, but Christ present in an Apostically-ordained Ministry, fulfilling His promise "Lo! I union among all Christian Churches. am with you, always, even to the end of the

The candidate was presented by the Rev. Dr. Franklin, of Christ Church, Shrewsbury; and hands, received the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God. At the Holy Communion, the Bishop was the Celebrant, the Rev. Dr. Franklin, Deacon, and the Rev. T. H. Cullen, of St. Peter's Church, Freehold, the Statescon.

The music was well and spiritedly rendered by the choir; among whom were some ladies and a gentleman from Trinity Church, Matawan.

The Altar was vested in white, and bright with flowers and the Eucharistic tapers. The ceremony was very solemn, and remarkable, as being the only Ordination to the Priesthood that has ever taken place in Keyport.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, Dec. 24th, 1880. To the Editor of the Living Church:

New Mexico having at last a resident Bishop, who naturally will live in Santa Fe, makes it even more important than before that the church erected, and that it should be creditable in its appearance as the representative of the American Church in this great Territory.

Through the help of friends abroad, and by the efforts of the few Church-people here, we have raised for this purpose, about $2,700, besides having purchased a very eligible plot of land. This would suffice to build an adobe church sufficient perhaps for present purposes of worship; but to be such as will be creditable to the Church at large, and make any proper impression on the public, it should not cost less than $5,000. This is not a very enormous sum, and a well-known gentleman of Philadelphia has promised the last $250 when $4,750 is raised. So we propose to make one more effort and hope are the reward and the result of Church teaching hood already planted in Springfield, and open up for generous aid. This is not unreasonable, as new and widening avenues for zeal in every most of our people here are temporary residents, while the church will remain for those who come after. As there are many who would be glad to aid, but cannot afford to send money, the ladies propose to hold a bazar late in February, at which all kinds of goods will be sold, and for this, contributions of articles of suitable character, purof the boys were obliged to be at work in the largest parishes in this diocese, and yet those chased or home-made, are earnestly asked. Will shaft; but, though they missed the joy of the parishes all gave to objects called "general," ac- not the faithful women of the Church send of cording to the summary of reports in the last the work of their hands, and will you not, Messrs. Convention journals. The explanation might Editors, kindly give place to this application for be, that the objects classed as "general" were their aid. Articles can be directed to Mrs. L. B. L. BRADFORD PRINCE.

Another Note on Genesis 49. 10.

To the Editor of the Living Church: I would like to call attention to the remarks of Canon Liddon on this passage of Holy Scripture. He says, "The characteristics of this personal Messiah emerge gradually in successsive predictions. The dying Jacob looks forward to a Shiloh as One to whom of right belongs the legal and legislative authority, and to whom the obedient nations will be gathered.

"On the reading 'Shiloh', see Pusey, Daniel the Prophet, p. 252. The sense given in the text is supported by Targum Onkelos, Jerusalem Targum, the Syriac and Arabic versions, those of Aquila and Symmachus, and substantially by the LXX, and Vulgate."-Bampton Lectures, 1866, T. J. BROOKES. page 78.

PONTIAC, MICH., Jan. 1, 1881.

Enrichment of the Liturgy.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

In these days, in which the enrichment of our Service-Book is at last mooted, and not unlikely, thank God, to be carried into effect before many years, it may interest a large circle of the readers of the LIVING CHURCH, perhaps, to have some account of a curious book, nearly 150 years old, which I met with last summer, while on my travels. I subjoin a transcript of its Title-page:

"A Compleat Collection of Devotions, both Publick and Private: Taken from the Apostolical Constitutions, the Ancient Liturgies, and the Common Prayer Book of the Church of England. In two parts.

Part 1. Comprehending the Publick Offices of the Church, Humbly offered to the consideration of the present Churches of Christendom, Greek, Roman, English, and all others.

Part 2. Being a Primitive Method of daily private prayer, containing devotions for the morning and evening, and for the Ancient hours of Prayer (nine, twelve, and three); together with Hymns and Thanksgivings for the Lord's Day and Sabbath, and Prayers for Fasting Days; as also Devotions for the Altar, and Graces before and after Meat: All taken from the Apostolical Constitutions and the Ancient Liturgies, with some additions: And recom-mended to the practice of all private Christians of every communion. To which is added, an appendix in justification of this undertaking, consisting of extracts and observations, taken from the writings of very eminent and learned subjoined, in a supplement, an Essay to procure Catholic communion upon Catholic principles.

London: Printed for the Author; and sold by the booksellers of London and Westminster. 1734. Price, bound in calf, 6s.

In the preface to the reader, we are informed that the work is founded upon two principles.

1st. The adoption of all the doctrines, practices, worship, and discipline of the Ancient and Universal Church of Cnrist, to the end of the Intention, was-to teach, that (a) the Minister

2d. That the Liturgy in the Apostolical Constitutions is the most Ancient Christian Liturgy extant; pure, and free from interpolation; and that meanwhile from betraying, by any word, sign, or the Sacraments and Sacramental Rites of Holy the book itself, for divers reasons which are ad- act of his, any intention hostile to that of the Church. The mission, then, of the Christian duced, "ought to be received, submitted to, and Church, (See Pellavicini's Hist. Conc. Trid. priest, is not to discuss Darwinism and systems allowed its due authority," wherever, at least, "it Lib. ix, cap. 7. No. 3, 4.) of science, and schools of philosophy, but to does not disagree with the Tradition of the terest of the restoration of "a truly Catholick sonal intention, on the part of the minister, can

The author says that, in the course of his researches, he has "omitted no practice or ceremony that appears to be supported by Antiquity, Universality, and Consent." At the same time, afterwards, by the imposition of the Bishop's he says that he has herein "included such parts of the Common Prayer Book of the Church of weight to his testimony. See "Salmeron's Com-England, as were necessary to complete the design." The above is a mere summary of the preface,

1. The now celebrated "Ornaments Rubric" finds a place.

2. "The posture for the Faithful in prayer, and at the reception of the Eucharist, is Kneeling, on all days but the Lord's Days, and all the scribed by our Lord. days between Easter and Pentecost; on which it s Standing, in respect to and remembrance of our Saviour's Resurrection."

3. The people, during Divine Service, "always to have their faces turned towards the Altar; the stand, except when it is otherwise ordered."

4. "The men and women are to sit separate in the public assemblies."

5. Daily public Morning and Evening Prayers are ordered. "The time for the Holy Liturgy or solemn Communion Service is between nine in the morning and noon, except those days on which the Penitential office is appointed, which is to be used about that time; and the Communion Service (if the Eucharist be celebrated), about 2 of the clock."

6. On Mondays, the Bishop, with as many of the Clergy as conveniently can, are to meet together for the exercise of discipline, accordingto the laws of the gospel and the ecclesiastical canons. Any of the Faithful may also be present, if they please.

By the last "Rubrick," doubts or diversities that may arise concerning matters of use and practice, are to be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese. And if he "be in doubt, he must apply to the Metropolitan and College of Bishops in of that Puritanical school of Theology is prac-Provincial Synod assembled."

As the task that I have undertaken, will involve a considerable amount of labor, in the transcription, I shall not proceed with it, unless I have reason to believe that there are many of your readers, to whom it will afford interest. A postal card addressed to you by those who desire to Rome teach, that the priest is the efficient cause learn something of the various Offices (involv- of the Sacrament he confers. She simply reing a great deal of "Enrichment"), and of the exercises for Catechumens, Energumens, and Penitents, will suffice. But it must be a general and not a partial response, in order to induce me to undertake the necessary labor. If such a response should come, the labor will be cheer-FRATER FIDELIUM. fully given, by

The year 1881 will be a mathematical curiosity. From left to right and from right to left it reads the same; 18 divided by 2 gives 9 as a quotient; 81 divided by 9 gives 9; if divided by 9, the quotient contains a 9; if multiplied by 9, the product contains two 9s; 1 and 8 are 9; 8 and 1 are 9. If the 18 be placed under the 81 and added, the sum is 99. If the figures be added thus, 1, 8, 8, 1, it will give 18, and reading from left to right it is 18, and reading from right to left it is 18, and 18 is two-ninths of 81. By add-

The Doctrine of Intention.

Correspondence of the Living Church. The following letter, with reference to Dr Ewer's recently published article upon the Tri-dentine dogma named above, was addressed to me by a gentleman, who, until within a few years, was a Priest of the Church of Rome. Thinking that it may be of interest to your readers, I place it at your service.

A CONSTANT READER.

REVEREND SIR:-I have devoted a few hours of leisure to a careful perusal of the critical Paper to which you called my attention a few weeks since. And I found it to be in strict accordance with the letter, but totally at variance with the spirit of the doctrine of "Intention," as defined by the Council of Trent. For example: the words of the Tridentine definition do, seemingly, imply that "the minister must intend to baptize, when he christens an infant, or the child remains unbaptized; and intend to absolve, in Penance, or the penitent arises unabsolved; and that, in the Sacrament of Orders, there must be an Intention to Ordain or to Consecrate, otherwise, no Ordination or Consecration has occurred." Yet. such pernicious errors have never found their way into the Faith of the R. C. Church. Nay, they have been repeatedly repudiated and condemned by the vast majority of her theologians, from St. Thomas, Suarez, and Liguori, down to Liebermann, Schouppe, and Perrone. That such was not the meaning which the Fathers of Trent intended to convey, through the vexatious phraseology of their dogmatic decisions on that point—we have positive and irrefragable evidence. Pellaricini, whose "History of the Council of Trent" was written, as is well known, under Papal inspiration, avers that the sole aim of the aforesaid council, in defining the doctrine of should make use, with at least outward seriousness, of the Sacramental Matter and Form instituted by our Blessed Saviour, and (b) refrain

These two essential conditions being complied with, no amount of dishonesty, or infidelity, or These two principles are asserted, in the in- even downright Atheism, coupled with bad per--in any least way-affect the validity of the Sacrament.

The learned Jesuit theologian, Salmeron, testifies that the above is the correct interpretation of the Tridentine decree, and the fact that he was present at the famous council, imparts great ment in Paul's epist. 111 parte part 2.)

Moreover, the constant practice of the Roman Church, in these matters, is her best and most but contains all that is essential to my present reliable interpreter. She forbids, under pain of The "Germal Rubrics" which follow, are of valid, of any Sacrament, the administration of considerable interest, especially at the present which-by the proper minister, of course-has crisis. I will refer to the most important of been accompanied by the two conditions already mentioned. For instance; Rome would consider it a sacrilege to re-baptize a child already christened by an infidel, a Jew, an idolator, or even an atheist; provided these had acquitted themselves seriously of the Sacramental rites pre-

In a word, no truly-ordained priest, however destitute of faith, can fail to effect the Sacra ment, if he will only perform, in an outwardly serious manner, the Sacramental Ordinance; and abstain, meanwhile, from manifesting opposition same is supposed of the Priest and Deacon to the Intention of the Church. Bossuet has whenever they kneel, and likewise when they thrown the dazzling light of his own wonderful genius on that vexed question, and vouchsafed the luminous exposition which follows; I quote the Latin text:

"Ea controversia non modo facile componi poest; verum etiam composita jam est, cum sit communissuna sententia inter Catholicos, etiam intentionem quæ sit necessaria ad valorem Sacramenti, ea in re consistere, ut Minister velit actos externos, ab ecclesia prescriptos, serio peragere, nec quidquam facere, quod contrariam intentineme prodat, quam intentionem nea ipse irritam facere, quacunque secreta intentione possit."

Such is what Bossuet aptly terms the "cemmunissima sententia," among R. C. theologians. It is not to be denied, however, that a certain class of Divines, known as "Rigorists," put upon the language of the council a most rigorous construction, which, if adopted in practice, would plunge the minds of the faithful into a chronic state of scepticism, as regards the validity of their Sacraments. Fortunately, the sentiment tically ignored.

From what precedes, you will conclude, with me, I dare say, that it is a mistake to affirm, that the Doctrine of Intention is "something about which no layman can satisfy, himself as to whether it is in the Minister or not." Nor does gards him as the instrumental cause of these channels of grace.

The Catechism of the Council of Trent declares, with remarkable emphasis, that God alone, through Christ, is manifestly the author of the Sacrament."

"That they are interiorly dispensed by Him." says the same authority, "is also matter of Faith." (See Cath, Conc. Trid. Part II. On the Sacra-

Hoping that the foregoing remarks, however brief and incomplete, will answer, in a measure, the purpose that I had in view in writing these lines, I remain, > Yours in the bonds of Catholic Truth, A CATHOLIC PRIEST.

Michigan is now the third ship-building State in the country, having built 65 vessels last year to 96 built in Maine and 110 in New York. The

A Pious Memorial.

From the Freeport, (Ill.) Journal.

On Christmas Day, immediately after Morning Prayer, and before the celebration of the Lord's Supper, an interesting ceremony took place, in the benediction of a beautiful brass memorial cross, presented by Mr. Frederick Bartlett, for the altar of Zion Church. The correspondence which had already passed between Mr. Bartlett and the Vestry was read to the congregation at the time of the benediction, by the Senior Warden, Mr. Thoms Webster. The cross was made in London, by the celebrated firm of Messrs Cox & Son, and is a very beautiful specimen of height, having triangular base, with spiral stem, the extremities of the arms being jeweled, the intersection of the arms of the cross having the Agnus Dei in colors.

The cross is intended as a memorial of Mr Thomas Robinson, the father of Mrs. Bartlett. and bears the following inscription: "In memoriam; Themas Robinson, died November 10th, 1867. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.' Mr. Robinson was born in Durham, England, in 1804. He came to America in 1834, and resided in Freeport from 1851 to the time of his death. He was a communicant of the parish, and a member of the Vestry.

FROM MR. BARTLETT.

FREEPORT, Dec. 24, 1880. To the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Zion Parish, Freeport, Ill.: GENTLEMEN: -Being desirous of perpetuating the memory of my Father-in-law, Mr. Thomas Robinson, who was for many years a Vestryman of this Church, I hereby ask your acceptance of the accompanying cross, as a memorial, for the use of Zion Parish forever.

rish forever.
Very respectfully,
F. BARTLETT.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE VESTRY. WHEREAS, Mr. Frederic Bartlett, by a letter to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Zion Parish, Freeport, Illinois, has presented, in perpetuation of the memory of Mr. Thomas Robinson, who was many years a member of said Church and a Vestryman, a memorial Altar Cross:

Resolved, By the Vestry, in proper meeting assembled, that said memorial Altar Cross be duly accepted as the property of Zion Parish, forever.

Resolved, Further, that the thanks of the Vestry and Parish be extended to Mr. Bartlett for the presentation aforesaid.

S. D. ATKINS, Sec. Pro Tem. Friday, Dec. 24, 1880.

The Christian Man's Money.

Written for the Living Church.

Money is accumulated labor. Labor is a Divine ordinance. Before man sinned, he was placed in a garden to dress and to keep it. Only the laboriousness of labor is burdensome, and this did not exist before the fall. Then, all labor was pleasure; rest and work were equal and alternate boons. After the entrance of evil, then labor became toil, and the sweat of his brow, man's daily bread was earned.

In time, communities arose; what we call society was gradually built up; man's relations, both social and financial, became less simple than they had been; and, as a result, money, as a representative of values, and result of accumulated labor, came into use. Some medium has become a necessity, and this medium was naturally found in those metals of which nature had furnished the earth the least lavishly. Iron or lead was too common; gold and silver were of more dormitory room, and a chapel, sufficient scarcity. And so, money bears, to-day, a Divine superscription; in that, innocent in itself, the recognized representative of true and just values, the medium of interchange between individuals in communities providentially gathered for the large Sunday school of St. John's Church, together, it is also, in the simplest form in which it can be defined, -accumulated labor, while labor is an ordinance beneficial to the laborer, useful to mankind at large, and appointed by the notwithstanding the jam, everything passed off line of Jehovah Himself Hence it is not pleasantly. When the large folding doors were lips of Jehovah Himself. Hence, it is not money that is evil, or the root of evil. It is the love of it, that is this—the inordinate desire and the poor children, was certainly very entertainstruggle for it—an eager desire, that leads its ing. The Rector, Rev. Mr. Littell, deserves great votaries to become careless of the means by which it is gratified. Unacrupulous, designing and evil members of society result from a passion for money; from a natural and proper estimate and use of it only, upright, diligent, and honest citizens. He who fails to provide for his own, is regarded by Holy Scripture, as worse than an infidel. He who despises money, despises a means of good. He who says he does, is either a fanatic or a hypocrite. If labor is a Divine too, sometimes. The rector of the parish last ordinance, then money, its representative, is not mentioned, we understand, was the recipient of in a year. evil. If we may not honestly use our accumulated labor, then it would follow that we should not labor at all. For if the accumulation be an altogether sinful something, that of which it is composed must be also, or else a whole may be different from its parts.

And when we come to take a more detailed view of this righteous thing-money, and its use and uses, one calls to mind the remark of Froude, that there are but three ways in which men may get a living; one is to inherit it; one, to steal it, and the third, to earn it.

Of inheriting, we may say that this is a pleasant and very popular mode of getting one's living, and is rarely refused by those to whom the good fortune of a legacy or estate may come; but, at the same time we do not believe that there is the same personal and spiritual benefit derived by reaching forth to labor accumulated for us, as by steadily and honestly accumulating it for ourselves. Money may be made a means of grace, as we shall insist hereafter; and, to inherit, may-not necessarily does-rob it of much of its power in that direction.

Of stealing, we may say, in passing to our more immediate object in writing these lines, that, among thefts we must class, as a rule, those very rapid accumulations of money by which large fortunes are laid up in a very short time. Very few get rich honestly and suddenly. Somebody, somewhere, is defrauded by the man who leaps into wealth. He may acquire his fortune in all due forms of law, the strictest may not be able to detect illegality, but he may, nevertheless, have violated morality and be a transgressor in God's sight, while amenable to no law of man.

Of earning one's livelihood, we affirm that it is a means of grace, in the cultivation of the ecclesiastical metal work. It is forty inches in graces and virtues, in sharpening the faculties given us by a heavenly hand, in assisting to bring together individuals who may, thus, receive mutual benefit and pleasure, in extending our knowledge of the geography of the earth, in paving the way to new lands for the setting up of the Cross, the promotion of physical comfort, years. health and longevity of the race, and in so many other ways that we cannot here notice them.

> And so it comes, that the question of money has a Christian side. Wealth is a good, and a means of good in its accumulation even; to say nothing of its utility and holiness, in a wise and judicious expenditure for the support of those dependent on us, in the maintainance of our civil and ecclesiastical institutions, in that of the benevolent enterprises of the day and all other righteous ways. There is nothing unholy about money, except its misuse.

It may be made even a means of grace. The liberal giver may find it thus. He who sets aside of his means as God hath prospered him, may power. and assuredly will. He who learns patience, he who resists temptation to take more than is his due, he who sees God's hand in the storing up of get wealth, these men, and others of like sort, will find the pursuit of wealth, if a pursuit folowed not for the end's sake but for that of the suit, a means of grace—a help to the life spiritual, an incentive to good work for man, and an instrument that may be used for the glory of God. If labor be a Divine ordinance, the honest product of labor-money-cannot be of the evil one, evil. Let men get money-let them get it honestly, and let them use and not misuse.

R. W. LOWRIE.

Church News.

NEBRASKA.-The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Neb. admitted to Deacons Orders in St. Mark's Church, Omaha, on the second Sunday after Christmas, Mr. Percy Barnes and Mr. George Greene. The candidates were presented by the Rev. James Paterson, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Oliver. The Rev. George Allen England, the Chaplain of Fort Omaha, assisted in the Services.

Mr. Greene is appointed to assist the Rev. Dr. Oliver in St. Augustine's (colored) Mission at Nebraska City, Mr. Bornes is to officiate at Fargo, in Dakota Territory. Fargo, in Dakota Territor.

The Bishop of Nebraska is now on a visitation in Southern Dakota. An additional building must be erected during the year, for Brownell Hall (the Diocesan girls' school), as it is now uncomfortably crowded with boarders, and more students applying. It will require about $6,000 for the purpose. Bishop is now trying to collect funds for this object, and hopes to find some generous people who will aid him in this enterprise. During the

but this does not supply the pressing need of The Cathedral at Omaha is slowly progressing notwithstanding the severe weather, but it is not

past year, a primary school building was erected, likely to be finished during 1881. DELAWARE.-A very enjoyable entertainment Wilmington, took place in the Sunday school room, on the evening of Holy Innocents Day.

After a very pleasant Carol Service in the church, all adjourned to the Sunday school room when, opened, exposing to view the beautiful tree, wonderfully decorated, the prolonged Oh-h! from

On the next evening, we had the pleasure of attending a similar entertainment at the Sunday school of the small rural parish known as "Clay-One of the heaviest snow-storms of mount." the season was raging at the time, but nevertheless, the attendance was very good, the interest great, and the singing very sweet. In addition to candies, oranges, etc., each child of the Sun-day school received a nice book. Truly this season of the year is a grand time for the young folks; and I may add, for the rectors of churches some valuable remembrances.

MASSACHUTETTS .- We learn that the Rev. C. Collard Adams, who, for four years, was Rector of St. Luke's Church, Lanesboro, and more recently has had charge of St. George's Church, Lee, has been invited to assume the pastoral charge of the Church at Escanaba, Michigan.

From a local paper, we gather that Mr. Adams has rendered himself very popular in the locality in which he has been residing, and that he will be followed to his new home with the hearty prayers and good wishes of those whom he will leave behind him. We observe that, on Christmas Eve, "Parson Adams" (as he seems to be familiarly called by his friends and neighbors), was made the recipient, by his parishioners, of a good overcoat, or, at least, the value of one; a thoughtful gift, it seems to us, as though the denors had in view the presumedly cold winds of NORTHERN NEW JERSEY .- Paterson: The Christmas celebrations at St. Paul's, the Holy Communion, and the prosperous Mission of St. Paul's at Totowa, were very bright this year. At the Church of the Holy Communion, the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Pelletrean, put some $2,000 on the plate for the reduction of the church debt. This amount was raised by personal effort of the rec-tor alone, and he deserves the highest praise.

Current Ebents.

The Grecian premier says that his government will not recede an inch from the provisions of the Berlin Treaty.

Harvard has succeeded in raising the neces sary $130,000 to endow its Divinity School.

Mr. Thomas Carlyle has just completed his 85th year. His friends show much anxiety about the state of his health. Sir Francis Wyatt Truscott, the late lord mayor of London, entertained twelve thousand visitors during his year of office at breakfast, luncheons, and dinners, and five thousand others at receptions, conversaziones, and the like. The entire loss of the German armies in 1870-

'71 was fifty-three thousand men. Fifty-one fatal cases of diphtheria were reported in Brooklyn for the week ending on Dec. Lands in Montgomery county, Alabama, have more than doubled in price within five or six The "royal Irish constabulary," a civil force in form, constituting a standing army in reality, costs $5,500,000 a year, and still cannot keep the peace in Ireland. The British government has entered into contract with the Gower-Bell company for a million dollars' worth of telephones.

Lord Beaconsfield has received one hundred and thirty-three offers to translate "Endymion' into French-ninety-four from ladies and thirty nine from gentlemen.

Gambetta, as he rises to speak in the tribune, is described as a clumsy, dull-visaged man, dressed in ill-fitting and shabby clothes. But after a few minutes speaking, he seems another being, his face lights up, his gestures are telling, and his voice has the resonant tones of a man of

Mr. Longfellow has Coleridge's inkstand and a volume of his poems, owned and used by himself. Along the margin of the work are notes in the author's own handwriting, corroborating what he has, he whose heart is touch to the Lamb's statement that when you loaned a book peautiful virtue of gratitude for the power to to Coleridge, it returned with an additional value.

Paris, in the course of its history, has been besieged ten times. The first time in 50 B. C., and the last in 1870. It was fortified until the time means which money affords, an ennobling pur- of Louis XIV., who razed the defenses, as in his day, the idea of a foreign army reaching the heart of France was laughed at. Napoleon I. did not fortify Paris, and the allies, in 1814, found only a few hastily-built redoubts in their

> A few years ago a Japanese publisher brought out a life of Washington in forty-five volumes, with illustrations in which the father of his country is represented in modern dress, wearing a heavy moustache, carrying a cane, and accompanied by a skye terrier..

The future of the New York Exposition, Rufus Hatch says, now hangs on Vanderbilt's subscription. If he puts up $2,500,000 in behalf of the New York Central, the exhibition will have ample means, as the other transportation companies will follow his example. In 1876 the Pennsylvania railroad contributed $1,000,000 to the Centennial and got back its money many times St. Agnes' School over in enlarged traffic.

Emile de Girardin, the editor of La France, a leading French paper, has a practice of carefully collecting all the facts which come to his knowledge relating to the lives of public men. He dockets these memoranda and places them in pigeon-holes, where they remain like so many Krupp guns loaded. When an enemy appears out comes the gun and shatters him all to pieces with every proof, date, and awkward truth that can be brought to bear agianst him.

Mr. John G. Whittier was 73 years old on the 17th ult. He bears his years well and has excellent health. He wrote to the pupils of the Worcester High School, who celebrated the occasion: The compliment proposed by the Worcester St. Mary's Hall, High School is a very great one, but I fear undeserved on my part. I gratefully accept it, however, as applying to my good intentions rather than to actual accomplishment, and I shall be still more grateful if any lessons of loyalty to freedom, justice, and humanity are learned by the students of my writings."

One of the advantages pertaining to the new method of engraving by electricity—an electric Brownell Hall, spark pen having been invented for the purpose in Paris—is that the artist does all parts of his work, and with no more trouble than working with an ordinary pencil, and can even operate in a dark room, without any other light than the glare from the induction spark. If a sheet of thin paper be attached to a plate of copper or zinc, it is said that an engraving may be made with extraordinary facility by this device.

A rapid penman can write thirty words in a minute. To do this he must draw his pen through the space of a rod, sixteen and a half In forty minutes his pen travels a furlong. We make on an average sixteen curves or turns of the pen in writing each word. Writing thirty words in a minute, we must make 480 to each minute; in an hour, 28,800; in a day of only five hours, 144,000; in a year or 300 days, 42,200,000. The man who made 1,000,000 strokes with his pen was not at all remarkable. Many mennewspaper writers, for instance—make 4,000,000. Here we have in the aggregate a mark of 300 miles long to be traced on paper by such a writer

A scientific newspaper gives some illustrations of depraved tastes in animals. An instance oc-curred in a sheep on a British mail and passenger steamer, which while fattening for the table developed a marvelous taste for tobacco, which it ate greedily. This habit was a most conservative measure, since the cook was afraid to kill the animal lest the mutton might be flavored with tobacco. Another case mentioned was that of a kitten, five months old, which had a liking for salads. Cucumber dressed with vinegar were consumed with avidity, even though hot with cayenne pepper. It has eaten boiled beef with mustard, and its mother was once seen to eat a slice of cucumber which had upon it salt, pepper, and vinegar.

Help for the Great Army of Convalescents, who, after an attack of disease, got so far back on the returning way to health and no farther. One of the most serious impediments which the medical profession has to encounter is the tendency in all diseases, whether acute or chronic, towards the debility and loss of vital force. To meet this condition of low vitality, the Compound Oxygen, which acts directly on the great nervous centres, rendering them more efficient, vigorous and active, and capable of generating more and more of the vital forces, which are life and health, offers an agent of health and restoration which acts promptly and surely. Our Treatise on Compound Oyzgen, its Nature and Action, is sent free. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Educational.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL

KNOXVILLE, ILL.

Founded, 1868; Enlarged, 1872 and 1880. FIRST CLASS IN ALL RESPECTS.

TOTAL CHARGES, $320 PER YEAR. The next Term opens Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1881.

C. W. Leffingwell, D. D., Rector.

School of St. John

The Evangelist

BOSTON, MASS. A Boarding School for Boys, Visitor, Rev. C. C. Grafton, S. S. T. E., Rector of the Church of the Advent. Head Master, Charles Hill. Prepares boys for college or mercantile life. For terms address the Head Master, 69 Pinckney St., Boston, Mass.

The Misses Nisbett,

43 East 41st Street, New York. Two English ladies, the daughters and sisters of clergymen, receive a few boarding and day pupils. Instruction based on sound Church doctrine. Resi-dent Parisian governess. The best professors and

The Selleck School.

Norwalk, Conn

The academic year of this school commences on the third Wednesday of September, and closes on the last Thursday of the following June. Pupils received at any age, or prepared for College, for the United States Military and Naval Academies, or for business. Terms: for board and Tuition, $350,00 per annum.

Racine College,

Racine, Wis

Will re-open Thursday, Sept. 9, 1880.

The College includes a School of Letters and a Scientific School, There is also a Grammar School, which prepares boys for college or business. Thorough intellectual training is combined with true discipline, religious care, and high culture.

New scholars will be received at any time during the year.

Boys from ten years old and upwards are received in the Grammar School. Special care is taken of the younger boys by the matrons. For catalogues and other information apply to

The REV. STEVENS PARKER, S. T. D., Racine, Wis.

Brook Hall Female Seminary.

Media, Pa.

Will open on Wednesday, Sept. 15th. The high reputation of this School will be sustained by increas ed advantages the coming year. Several teachers of eminence will be added to the already efficient corps. For catalogues apply to M. L. EASTMAN, Principal. St. John Baptist School, 233 East 17th St. New York. Under the charge of the Sisters of St. John Baptist. Terms, $275 per school year. Address the Sister Superior, as above.

ECCLESIASTICAL EMBROIDERY. Address: Church Workroom, 233 Bast 17th Street.

717 Monroe Street, Chicago, Ill, Will commence its Fifth Year Wednesday, September 8th, 1880, and remain in session till June 21, 1881, with the usual vacations. Any further information may be obtained by addressing the Principal.

St. Margaret's Diocesan

School for Girls. Waterbury, Conn. The sixth year will open (D. V.) on Wednesday, ept. 15th, 1880. Instrumental music under charge of . Baier, Jr., a private pupil of Plaidy, of Leipsic conservatory. French and German taught by native Conservatory. French and German taught by native teachers. The Rev. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, M.A.,
Rector

Faribault, Minn RT. Rev. H. B. WHIPPLE, D.D., Rector.

Is under the personal supervision of the Bishop, with 11 experienced teachers. It offers superior advantages for education, with an invigorating and healthy climate. The 15th year will begin September 16th, 1880. For Registers, with full details, address the RECTOR. Prices reduced.

Omaha, Nebraska. Protestant Episcopal Seminary. Seventeenth year begins Sept. 1st, 1880. The school is noted for good health. Situation delightful.

Struction delightful.
Situation delightful.
Home comfortabi .
Twelve able and experienced teachers.
For Register and particulars apply to,
REV. R. DOHERTY, M. A.,
Bector,
Omaha, Neb. De Veaux College,

Suspension Bridge, Niagara Co., N. Y. FITTING-SCHOOL for the Universities, West Point, Annapolis, or business. Charges, $350 a year. No extras. Competitive examinations for scholarships at the beginning of College Year, first Wednesday in September; applications for the same to be filed ten days previously. Rev. GEO. HERBERT PATTERSON, A.M., LL.B., Prest.

St. John's School.

21 and 23 W. 32nd St. New York. n Broadway and Fifth Avenue, New York. BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LA-DIES AND CHILDREN. Rev. THEODORE IRVING, LL. D., Bector, JONES BROTHERS & Co., HICAGO, CINCINNATI, PHILADELPHIA.

Publishers of the Inductive Educational

Ridpath's Inductive Grammar.
Ridpath's Gram. School Hist. of the U. S.
Ridpath's Academic Hist. of the U. S.
Milne's Inductive Arithmetic.
Milne's Elements of Algebra.
Forbriger's Patent Drawing Tablets.
Smith's Practical Music Reader.
First Lessons in Philology. INTRODUCTORY PRICES VERY LOW.

Send for Circulars and List.

We also want Agents for Ridpath's Popular History of the United States. Over 400,000 copies already sold.

Address, JONES BROS. & CO., Chicago, Ili.

PHONOGRAPH.

If you wish to be taught the art of writing short-hand, you will do well to send your name and address to the oldest school in the country. Any one can learn easily and thoroughly. Address Phonographic Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.

REPAIRS FOR STOVES manufactured at Troy, Albany, Rochester, Cleveland, Cincinnati, and elsewhere, at W. C. METZNER'S, 127 West Randolph S. Chicago, Ill.

THE CREAT

BURLINGTON ROUTE. No other line runs Three Through Passenger Trains Daily between Chicago, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, St. Joseph, Atchison, Topeka and Kansas City, Direct connections for all points in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho, Oregon and California.

California. The Shortest, Speediest and Most Comforta-

The Shortest, Speediest and Most Comfortable Route via Hannibal to Fort Scott, Denison, Dallas, Houston, Austin. San Antonio, Galveston and all points in Texas.

The unequaled inducements offered by this Line to Travelers and Tourists, are as follows: The celebrated Puilman 16-wheel) Palace Sleeping Cars, run only on this Line, C., B. & Q. Palace Drawing-Room Cars, with Horton's Reclining Chairs. No extra charge for Scats in Reclining Chairs. The famous C., B. & Q. Palace Dining Cars. Gorgeous Smeking Cars fitted with Elegant High-Backed Rattan Revolving Chairs for the exclusive use of first-class passongers.

elass passengers.
Steel Track and Superior Equipment, combined with their Great Through Car Arrange-ment, makes this, above all others, the favorite Route to the South, South-West, and the Far

Try it, and you will find traveling a luxury instead of a discomfort.
Through Tickets via this Celebrated Line for sale at all offices in the United States and Canada.

All information about Rates of Fare, Sleeping Car Accommodations, Time Tables, &c., will be cheerfully given by applying to JAMES R. WOOD. General Passenger Agent, Chicago T. J. POTTER,

General Manager, Chicago JAMES PYLF'S The BEST COMPOUND

EVER INVENTED FOR WASHING CLOTHING

and everything else, in Hard or Soft Water, without danger to fabric or hands Saves Labor, Time, and Soap, amazingly, and is of great value to housekeepers. Sold by all Grocers-but see that vile Counterfeits are not urged upon you. PEARLINE is the only safe article, and always bears the name of JAMES PYLE, New York.

WHITENESS AND PRESERVATION OF THE SKIN.

Pure SWEET GREAM and GLYCERINE is a NEW COMBINATION for toilet soap. These articles have long been prized for their refreshing and healing properties. Sweet Cream Toilet Soap BEAUTIFIES the COMPLEX'N, cures CHAPPED HANDS and keeps the skin SOFT and WHITE. It is a wholesome, simple, pure soap, containing no poisonous colorings or oils. Is specially prized by ladies and children, whose tender skin precludes the use of a less delicate soap. less delicate soap.

G. A. WRISLEY, Chicago, Sole Inventor and Manufacturer.

Battle House,

MOBILE, ALABAMA.

As a WINTER RESORT, Mobile, situated on the western shore of her beautiful bay, and in close proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, enjoys a climate, which, for mildness and salubrity equals the most noted Florida resorts. It is easy of access from all points of the Northwest, being only 43 HOURS BY RAIL FROM CHICAGO.

The Battle House, long noted as one of the best hotels in the South, has, during the summer of 1880, been thoroughly refitted and newly furnished throughout. Accommodations for 400 Guests.

Passenger Elevator and all Modern Conveniences.

For information address ROBBINS & ST. JOHN, Prop'

Vitalized Phos-Phites. A BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD. COMPOSED OF THE NERVE-CIVING PRINCIPLES OF THE OX-BRAIN AND WHEAT-CERM. Physicians have prescribed 300,000 packages with the best results in all forms of impaired vitality, mental exhaustion, or weakened digestion, it is the best preventative of consumption and all diseases of debility it gives rest and sleep to infants, children, and adults, by strengthening the brain and nerves with the food they actually require. For sale by Druggists or Mail, $1.00. F. Crosby, 664 and 666 Sixth Avenue, New York.

The Living Church.

January 13, 1881.

Entered at the Chicago P.O. as 2nd class mail matter

ADVERTISING RATES

Remittances by P. O. Orders or Drafts on Chicago C. W. LEFFINGWELL

Important Announcement!

162 Washington Street, Chicago.

The LIVING CHURCH will shortly begin the publication of an original and valuable series of papers on Genesis and Modern Science, by C. B. Warring, Ph. D., of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. It is probably the most satisfactory and exhaustive argument ever produced, in vindication of the astonies and methods of modern science. A series of letters was written for this paper by Dr. Warring, more than a year ago, which attracted attention in all parts of the able." country. The work now secured for our columns is the result of many years investigation in Natural Science, and is sure to be one of the most popular that has ever appeared in this department of literature. It will probably run through a whole year, and in no other paper, being copyrighted. This Series will not begin before the first of February, so that all subscribers entered this month will have the series entire.

The Death of Bishop Atkinson.

We noticed briefly in our last issue, just Church is great.

LL.D., was born in Dinwddie County, in his sacred calling. True, clergymen they in fact reject Christianity. Men may Virginia, on the sixth day of August, 1807. are often much too sensitive; too quick to say "this is my religion" or "that is my He entered Yale College, but in his junior think that the carelessness and irreligion religion." Just because it is their religion year was transferred to Hampden-Sidney of people implies personal dislike on their it is no religion at all; certainly not the often goes home from boarding-school, not He at once entered upon a course of prep- clergyman. It is an easy thing to say that vealed to men in Christ, the present living aration for the legal profession, which he a clergyman should be so strong in himself Lord and Saviour. duly entered and continued in its practice and in his faith, as to go about his work with much success for nine years. After without thought of what men may think, a short preparation in theology, he was and mindful of God only. That is true. 7, 1837, in St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, by and assistance in their work. Bishop Moore. While in deacon's Orders, he acted as assistant in the church where rector of St. Paul's, Lynchburg. In 1843, these charges, he served with uniform ability and success.

In 1852, he was transferred from St. Peter's to Grace, Baltimore, and in the next year he was elected Bishop of North Carolina, to succeed Bishop Ives, who had been deposed in consequence of his desertion to Roman error and corruption. The the work of the world's conversion. Consecration took place in St. John's Chapel (of Trinity Church parish) New York, the then "primate" Bishop Brown- agined what they were doing. ell, being Consecrator. Among the Bishops who took part were the Most Rev. John Medley, D.D., Lord Bishop of Fredericton and Metropolitan of Canada, and bilities, it may be; but the probabilities are cently had an able letter in the Leader, the Rt. Rev. George Trevor Spencer, D.D., quite another matter. There is a church showing the absurdity of the Erastian arsome time Bishop of Madras, India, edifice perhaps, but as to everything else, guments in the Dale imprisonment case. Bishop Atkinson received the Doctor's the whole matter rests with him. If he The editor, in his reply, endeavored to formity of thought, nor does it exist in the degree in sacred theology from Trinity succeed, well; if he fail, he fails, that's prove that English Churchmen have no Roman Church, notwithstanding the ef-College, and that in Laws from the Uni- all; it is a matter of ten times more mo- rights that the State is bound to respect. forts of popes and councils to fetter the himself what are most likely to be of use in his versity of Cambridge, England.

an amiable disposition. He had that fine about the right people in the right place. equipoise of character, which always com-

of Churchly principles and progress.

sympathy to the bereaved diocese, and re- comfort he could be to his pastor, if only oices with it that it has so precious a herin the service of its ever-living Head.

The present assistant Bishop, the Rt. Rev. T. B. Lyman, D.D., succeeds to the vacant See.

Worried out of the World.

In its obituary of the late Dr. Chapin, Our Lord's words are not our Lord.

This result, while anticipated in conse- the destitute or the suffering; but they have To deliver an oration or moral essay, quence of the decline of health under decided notions as to what they like and prefaced with a Scripture text, does not which the venerable prelate has been suf- what they do not like, and they know how necessarily have any more relation to fering, comes sooner than his anxious to make it uncomfortable for their dear Christ than to Confucius. Not a little of friends had expected. One of our noblest pastor. Perhaps they never stop to think the popular preaching of our day is of this bishops has gone, and the loss of the whole of what they say or do; never think of sort. Men need to have it constantly what their course of action may involve for brought home to them that if they reject The Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, S. T. D., one man and his family, and his standing the Christian doctrine of an incarnate Lord, ingness to do whatever they can, to help in

Many a clergyman has suffered serious wrong at the hands of people who little im-

A vestry extends a "call," a salary is pledged, and much is said about the possibilities of the field. Great are the possiclear mind, great executive capacity, and man in the right place." We never hear quality was strikingly illustrated during learns more and more to do it as unto God, the war which for a time separated us from and not unto men. Let him try to do his our fellow Churchmen in the South. In part faithfully and prayerfully, and leave rethe Counsels of the American Church, he sults to God. If he will only do that, he was a leader without ostentation, and one will not worry himself out of the world, whose influence was always cast on the side nor yet be worried out of it by other people. Not one man out of ten would seem The LIVING CHURCH sends its word of ever to have thought what a strength and he would. Not one Christian in ten aptage, in the memory of a life well spent preciates how much he might do to the greater glory of God, if only he would.

We hear not a few saying: "The Sermon on the Mount is my religion." They seem oblivious of the fact that the Sermon on the but the artificial pleasures of "society." Mount is not Christianity; it is not Christ. The girl, scarcely yet in her 'teens, has the eminent Universalist preacher, the accept this or that passage or verse or her mother's help—and goes to parties New York Evening Post says: "One of chapter out of Scripture, is not to accept tricked out in all the extravagance of the his parishioners, who knew him intimate- Christ. A man may go to the Bible (as latest fashion, dances till the small hours ly, said to a reporter of the Evening Post, indeed many do) and pick out this or that of the morning, and wakes to languid ani- ginning of the Ecclesiastical Year. It is ishing accuracy of the Mosaic account of that Dr. Chapin fretted himself first into teaching or sentiment, and say, "That is mation sometime the next day, to read in gotten up very neatly, and with admirable Creation, as tested by the latest discover- illness and then into death. If he notic- my religion." It may be his religion, but the morning paper the description of her taste, and contains a list of the Clergy ed that any prominent members of the not Christ's religion. Be it known and toilet. A pity, do you think? But she connected with the Cathedral, a record of Church were not regularly in their pews, not forgotten, that Christ and His religion must have "a good time." he would attribute their absence to his own are inseparable, or rather that He is His short-comings, and make himself miser- religion. Apart from Him, Christianity does not and cannot exist. To believe in The case of Dr. Chapin was not so ex- Christianity is to believe in Christ; to re ceptional as to be very remarkable. That ceive Christianity is to receive Him; and there have been hundreds of instances of if He is to be received at all, it must be as the kind there is no doubt. Many of us He is, God and man, divine and human, have helped to bury clergymen who were one Person. The Christian observance of thus worried out of the world; yes, and this time of the Christian Year is witness were assisted in it by the very people who to the Christian doctrine of the Incarnaappearing weekly in the LIVING CHURCH, did it. They were all sympathy and ten- tion. All believe that there was such a derness, when it was too late for either to man as Jesus of Nazareth and that He was be of any very practical value. It seems born in Bethlehem eighteen hundred years a hard thing to say, but it is within the ago. But Christians believe concerning knowledge of almost every middle-aged Him that which alone invests the fact of clergyman in the land. How many a par- His Nativity with such supreme moment ish has the reputation of having been a to the sons of men. Belief in the Incar-Waterloo to every clergyman that has ever nation is a crucial test. To reject it is to been in it! But when you meet the peo- reject Christianity itself. To deny the fact as we were going to press, the sad news ple who are members of it, you may find that Jesus is "God with us," is to deny which had reached us by telegraph, of the them pleasant and not uncultivated people. Him. To preach the Gospel is to preach death of the Bishop of North Carolina, They would not for the world inflict bodily Him and those facts relating to Him that on Tuesday evening, the fourth instant. injury. They would be quick to relieve are set forth in the Creed of Christendom.

Invidious comparisons are frequently Ordered deacon, December 18, 1836, in Still, clergymen are human, and their re- interest excited by the preaching in of premature pleasure seeking? The maidand was advanced to the priesthood, May have reason to expect sympathetic interest "stump-speaking" during a political cam- brook and river meet, &c., has become a paign. The comparison is unfair. When poetical myth. The girl of the day is old he was made deacon, but was soon after to be treated in a fair, honest, manly way; only the talent of an auctioneer to hold it. elected rector of the church in which he he wants to feel that he is doing good; that, But the gospel of righteousness, with its was made priest. In 1838, he became by the blessing of God, he is helping his call to repentance and self-denial, is a very people to live "soberly, righteously, godly, different theme. The election of a Presihe accepted St. Peter's, Baltimore. In all in this present world." He has a right to dent must be decided in a few weeks, but expect that men and women who have men think they have all life before them pledged themselves over and over again to to make their eternal calling and election God and to His service, will live a godly sure. Let the political meeting be held and Christian life; has a right to look for once a week for a term of years, and let a them at the appointed Services of the Lord's speaker be called to address the same auhouse; has a right to expect of them will- dience every time, and see how the crowd would dwindle! Considering the eagerness of human nature for excitement, and the lust of power, and the pride of life, that magnify the present and blind the numbers in the churches is not bad.

The Rev. Dr. Bolles, of Cleveland, re-

Having a Good Time.

The Declaration of Independence places the pursuit of happiness as the climax in its enumeration of man's "inalienable rights." An attempt to controvert any statement of that immortal document were pursuit of happiness as set forth in the excause of the degeneracy of the grandchildren of our grandmothers.

Children must have a good time; so thinks the fond mother, and straightway she proceeds to provide for her nurselings -not the simple joys of home, sweet home, To her beaux—whom she entertains, too, with

> A children's party! Who such a cynic as not to exclaim,

Of wild and careless play? Wild and careless, indeed! That was all very well for the days when a white muslin slip and simple sash was a child's modest friends between the ages of six and twelve. subscribers among my people." Think of the whirl of the child brain in such a scene of giddy excitement! But then, children must have "a good time."

is in costlier array.

able right to the pursuit of happiness, too tion; she must "make up for lost time."

Young people must have a good time; rings; for years she has worn the jewels, velvets and laces of a dowager. What re mains? Often a plunge into greater extravagances, to the evil influences of which may be traced some of the corruption in 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Were it not well to consider that the best happiness of this life is not caught by pursuit—that there is joy more endur ing than that implied in the expression, "Having a good time?"

The (Roman) Catholic World, commenting upon our General Convention, says: "There is no man living, however acute eyes of men to the future, the showing of his logic, who can tell precisely what the Protestant Episcopal Church believes." Of course, the acute logic would not help a man much, if he were ignorant of the facts. That there are differences of opinion is true, and we would not have it otherwise. We would not have a dead uniment to him than anyone else. If he does He can't understand why they don't leave free thought of priest and people with iron He was a man of decided scholarship, fail, then there is talk about "the right the Church and join the dissenters, if they bands. But when a Roman Catholic orare not pleased with the appointments of gan charges that there are "admitted con-Parliament. On the denominational the- tradictions of Faith" among us, it must be lies; Anglican Orders and Jurisdiction; What A clergyman is strong in his people. If ory that one Church is as good as another, set down as either ignorant or untruthmands respect and insures great influence. a parish has in it the right people, it will and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-vided Christendom. That Faith is professed in Baptism, is reaffirmed at Confirmation, is rehearsed continually and publicly, by priest and people in the Lord's House. This ought to be known to the Catholic World; but it is so given to conperhaps high treason; yet we hold that the demning at wholesale everything that is at variance with the Vatican, that it probably pression, "Having a good time," is one never gave the subject very serious attention. Some allowance should also be made for our able contemporary, in consideration of the fact that our standard theology, of which the Prayer Book is the exponent and summary, is on the Index at Rome, and is consequently forever sealed to Roman Catholic readers.

> We have received the Year Book of Trinity Church, Omaha, published in the Advent season just past, and proposed, we observe, to be issued annually, at the beits work, and other matter of local interest. We learn from it, that the Cathedral structure is in course of erection, and that the subscription for it has reached $26,397.-65, of which $14,246 85 is already in

The Rev. Dr. Locke, Rector of Grace adornment. The little lady of the day is Church, Chicago, kindly allows us to pubquite too much dressed for merry romping; lish the following, addressed by him to his late suppers take the place of afternoon parishioners: "I wish to commend very treat; dancing and flirtation, the place of heartily to the attention of my parishionthe games of the childhood of long-ago. ers the LIVING CHURCH. It is a live There are few pages of sadder significance Church paper, full of Church news, not in the daily papers, than those which de- afraid to discuss the issues of the day, and scribe a murder of the innocents, under cannot fail to be a help in imparting the heading of a brilliant reception given knowledge of the doings of the Church, by Miss—ie—, at her father's residence, and awakening greater interest in her sevto some hundred or two of her young eral missions. I hope it may find many

Our eastern subscribers, whose name is legion, will please bear with irregularity in Merry, dancing childhood! what a receipt of their paper for a week or two charm is thine! By all means let the little longer. The trouble has not been with ones enjoy the reythm of motion; but what our office, but with the post office in this is a modern dancing-school for children? city. The mails going out of the city on Is it a school-exercise in neat, unpretend- publishing days are so numerous that they ing school dress? No: the ingenuity of cannot always be handled in time for the mother and dress-maker is taxed to the ut- trains. We are now making arrangements termost, that the little one's enjoyment be to put our entire issue on the trains, withnot marred by finding that another child out need of assorting at the post office, so that all New England subscribers should The girl, intent on securing her inalien- receive their papers on or before Saturday.

The Church Eclectic is a monthly Magazine of Church Literature and Church Work, con-College, Va., where he graduated in 1825. part, or inefficiency on the part of the one true religion. That is from God, re- to renew the dear home joys, all the ducted by the former editor of the "Gospel sweeter for months of privation. No; the Messenger," the Rev. Dr. Gibson, who is one of Holidays are a round of continual dissipa- the ablest writers in the Church. Its aim is to sustain the Theology of the Incarnation, and to justify the ways of keligion to the spirit of modern Science. Besides selections from formade, by men of the world, between the but what is left for them after a childhood eign Church literature, it contains original articles from our representative writers, and a valu-Christ Church, Norfolk, by Bishop Meade, lations to their people are such that they churches on the Lord's Day, and the en standing with reluctant feet where the able resume of Church work, with able reviews of current literature. It is a magazine that we can heartily commend to the more thoughtful of our clergy and laity. There is nothing in all the The clergyman of the right sort does not politics are at fever heat, a very ordinary in experience. She has had her lovers and range of periodical literature that can take its want to be coddled and flattered. He wants speaker can draw a crowd, and it needs flirtations; her love-letters and engagement place. For eight years Dr. Gibson has carried it on as a labor of love, sometimes at a loss. We trust that a large number of our readers will give it a trial and forward their subscriptions, price $3.00 a year. Address, Rev. W. T. Gibson, D.D., Utica, N. Y.

> The Pacific Churchman (which is a semimonthly, and not a monthly publication as lately represented in our columns), gives the following hearty praise of the LIVING CHURCH:

> It is not uncommon to meet with small things taggering under names of overpowering ma tude. Once in a while we are refreshed with the sight of a real correspondence between the name and the thing. The LIVING CHURCH shows more vitality than any Church paper on our list —enterprising, painstaking, with capable correspondents at home and abroad—generally accurate in information and sound in judgment—it is entitled to name itself the Living Church.

> Such words help us to bear the strain of work and anxiety and expense that must be incurred in bringing such an enterprise to a successful issue. Dr. Beers, the editor, has our sincere thanks.

The Church League Tracts, advertised in another column, are worthy the attention of our clergy and people. We consider many of them especially valuable and worthy of wide distribution. Of course every clergyman will decide for own field. We would mention, as being adapted to all kinds of parishes, and to all kinds of Churchmen: One Religion as good as Another, by Baring-Gould; Catholics and Roman Catho-Church Service must I attend? by the Rev. James S. Pollock; Plain Words on Confirmation; mands respect and insures great influence. A parish has in it the right people, it will have no Time, I have Tried, I am no worse than precipitate. It is understood that this mands respect and insures great influence. A parish has in it the right people, it will and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done and that all are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," what-done are made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," and have made by human agencies, ful. "There is not a man living," and have mad vertical lines and expanded into the form of inis deformed and harsh.

The Churches of Chicago. Reported for the Living Church. III.

reverently and almost noiselessly, as though im- | Christ." bued with the spirit of the scene without, and absent, for the day, his only vacation for a year, Ripon, has declined a call to Madison.the parish in Bloomington. The Rector of the ising clergy. His work has been eminently suc- thedral School is in a flourishing condition. all his people.

D. W. Page, on the fifth of April, the late Dr. H. M. Bishop, then Rector of St. John's, offici-Wardens, and have held that position of trust and honor ever since. The Vestrymen were: Cyrus B. Cobb, R. W. Rathbone, C. E. Chase, encouraged as to the outlook for the future. E. S. Boynton, P. S. Meserole, Charles Hopkinson and D G Rush

The congregation worshipped for a time in a Presbyterian chapel. During the summer of 1868, the present church was erected, at a cost of $19,000, about one-half being paid. The first rector was the Rev. R. F. Sweet, now at ers, of Texas, succeeded him, but not being able stone halls habitable. "Honor to whom honor." to endure the northern winter, he remained only a year. Mr. Morrison came in 1876, and we trust he may be spared many years to minister to the to train our young theologians to meet the wants faithful in Epiphany parish. During his administration the debt has been reduced from $12,000 and Hoffman, and Hall? How many know that to less than $7,000, and his salary has been the last named has filled the Hebrew chair (one twice increased; once on the occasion of his marriage, and again at the birth of his first child. Seminary) for years, without the salary of a sin-Epiphany parish, in this, has set a good example. | gle dollar?

The arduous pastoral work of the Rector is efficiently seconded by two ladies' aid societies, and by a Guild of ladies and gentlemen. On Bishops Williams and McLaren, Drs. Smith and the evening of Epiphany Day last, the Guild Washburne, Drisler and Short, are the lecturers. held its annual meeting in the church. After Their subjects are, respectively: The Reformathe Service, Mr. Charles H. Strong, President, tion, Dogma and Doubt, Christian Philosophy, read the report, showing the work and growth of Hooker, The Septuagint, and The Vulgate. the Guild, during the past five years. It carries on a night school for boys, an industrial school for girls, and a parish paper, besides the work of prizes offered. A Lectureship Fund and a Felvarious committees in the church and among the lowship Fund, of $10,000 each, have been foundpoor. The death of the late Robert H. Waiker, an active brother in the Guild, was alluded to. In conclusion, Mr. Strong trusted that under the | Seminary were made in re, what it is in nomine, favorable auspices under which they had commenced their sixth year, they would be able to work still more earnestly and effectually. An address by the Rev. Frederick Courtney, Rector of St. James', on visiting the sick and poor, was most appropriate to the occasion. At the by means of which worthy, and needy students ensuing election, Mr. Strong was again chosen are enabled to live and study. The Church President; W. G. Oliver, Vice President; E. J. Warren, Secretary; Wm. H. Blackmer, Treasurer.

The Music at the Epiphany is led by a double quartette choir of volunteers from the congrega-tion, of whom many join in the singing. The responses at the Services last Sunday were good, and the decorations of Christmas-tide appropriate and tasteful. The Sunday School numbers about 200, and is superintended by Mr. Gardiner, who is the lay-reader of the parish. The Holy Communion is celebrated on all Sundays, Thursdays, and Holy Days. The Rector meets a class for the study of Holy Scripture, on Wednesday evenings. The constant, faithful Church work carried on by priest and people at the Epiphany, Chicago, is a blessing to the city and an honor to the Church and to them.

By the appointment of the Bishop of North-ern New Jersey, the Rev. Samuel Hall has taken charge of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hamburgh, and of St. Thomas' Church, Vernon, Bishop Brown's Fifth Anniversary.

The Bishop of Fond du Lac completed the first five years of his episcopate on the 15th of Last Sunday was an ideal winter day, in Chi- December. During that period the number of comcago, though not exactly the day that best suits municants in the Diocese has doubled, and nearly the average church-goer. Over the quiet city eleven hundred persons have been confirmed. the air was almost motionless, scarcely swaying No diocese in the land is more faithfully adminthe smoke-wreaths as they lazily floated up in istered. The Bishop, in speaking of difficulties, says: "The Bishop is so far parted from the verted funnels. The air was full of fine snow- mass of the clergy and laity, that it is not easy fakes that seemed too dainty to touch the earth, for them to understand how the demands for but hovered near it, hesitating to alight lest they missionary help, for aid to young men in trainshould soil their delicate plumage. Through ing for the sacred ministry, for the support and the frosty haze the trees and houses loomed up relief of aged and feeble clergymen, and for as in a dream, and the mellow tones of the widows and orphans, and for the education of all church bells seemed to float down from the sky, the lambs of Christ's flock, pour down upon, and like the last echoes of the angel-hymn of the almost crush his heart. He does not say here Nativity. It may be true in summer that "man how scanty and insufficient are the means put made the city, God made the country;" but dur- into his hauds each year, to provide for these ing the winter there are times when nature pre- great needs, because he would be ashamed that vails over art, in the city; when the works of the world should know. But One greater than man, and the unsightly things of trade, and the the world does know. And this Advent-tide makes soil of much travel and traffic are clothed with us face that awful. Day when the secrets of all robes of white, and the very air is a matter of hearts shall be revealed. In brief, as the Bishop purity, and, like a delicate veil, softens all that enters on a new year of holy labor, he reminds the clergy and people, that the work of the On such a morning we wandered over to the diocese is all one, and with, and for, one great West Side, to the Church of the Epiphany. It Head and Master. And to all his beloved people, is a frame building, not very imposing nor at- both of the clergy and laity, he sends most lovingly tractive, but beautiful for situation, facing a that ancient benediction, "Grace, mercy and pleasant park. A fair congregation gathered peace, from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus

The Rev. James A. McGlone, formerly of the conscious of the sacred character of the place. Roman Obedience, is now rector of St. Mark's, The Rector, the Rev. T. N. Morrison, Jr., was Waupaca. The Rev. Fayette Durlin, of and the Services were conducted by another. Rev. Arthur Piper, rector of St. Luke's, Racine, Mr. Morrison is the son of the Rev. Dr. Morri- and long connected with Racine College, has son, long connected with this diocese, and held been elected senior canon of the Cathedral of in favor by all. He was for many years rector of Fond du Lac. This will be a great loss to Racine. -Mr. John Amory, of the Cathedral, has Epiphany is one of our younger and most prom- lately deceased, much lamented. --- The Cacessful, and the future is most hopeful. As a Bishop Brown, in his diary, which appears in the preacher, he is regarded with great favor. In | Calendar, publishes the following in regard to the morning he usually preaches from manuscript, the institutions of the Church which are located and in the evening extemporaneously, being in Wisconsin: Dec. 1st, Wednesday, the 25th equally successful in both methods. As a parish Anniversary of his Ordination as priest, the priest he is energetic, able and sensible, giv- Bishop spent at Nashotah, with the Trustees of ing himself with great enthusiasm to his work, Nashotah House. The Rev. Dr. Egar, the able and having the affection and confidence of Professor of Ecclesiastical History resigned his post. It will be difficult to provide a successor. The first meeting for the organization of the The prospects of Nashotah are encouraging, alparish was held on on March 21st, 1868, and the though time and patience are needed before she first Service was held at the residence of Mr. will be free from all difficulties. Dec. 3rd, attended a meeting of the Trustees of Kemper Hall. The Sisters of St. Mary are gradually ating. The vestry were elected on Monday in bringing back prosperity to this fine school. Easter-yeek, twenty votes being cast. Mr. D. Everything seemed in the best of order there. W. Page and Hon. Geo. Gardiner were elected Dec. 4th, met the Executive Committee of Racine College. Was glad to find the finances of the Institution in hopeful shape, and the Warden

The General Seminary, New York.

The Catalogue for 1880-1 has been received. For nearly sixty years this institution has been before the Church, and has earned the prosperity which it now enjoys. There are more students Freeport, who continued in charge till Jan. 1871. in this General Seminary of the Church now, He was succeeded by Rev. Chas. M. Fox, whose than at any previous period of its existence. sudden death left the parish again destitute, after a few months. He is still remembered as a 67 are College graduates. One class alone numpreacher of great power. The Rev. Dr. C. H. W. bers 41. It seems that the painstaking labor of Stocking was called after the great fire, and en- Bishop Seymour, and his unsparing use of (his tered upon his work early in 1872, coming to own) money, is now working its perfect work. this city from Rochester, N. Y. He was called To him we are indebted for a Churchly chapel, from the Epiphany to an important parish in a well-appointed library, three stories high, and Detroit, in June, 1875. The Rev. Benj. A. Rog. many sanitary improvements that have made the

> The Faculty is full. And where in the Church can be found abler men-men more competent of to-day-than Oliver, and Buel, and Richey, of the most important professorships in the > Much prominence is given to the list of Lectures for 1881-a good feature of the new regime.

The McVicker prizes, and the Seymour prize for extemporaneous preaching, are the only ed during the past year. Only $380,000 are asked for endowment. It could be raised if the is as it should be. The Bishop is pre-eminently

The Alumni number 926-22 of whom have been made Bishops, including the newly consecrated Brewer and Paddock. We must not forget to mention the Commons and Scholarships, needs more men-the Seminary, more money. G. W. W.

Attendance at the Evening Service.

Early in my ministry the problem "How to Secure a good attendance at the Sunday evening Service" gave me the same concern that it has so many of my brethren in the ministry. I soon came to the conclusion that something more was needed than the appeals from the chancel. The improvement consequent upon such appeals was at best only temporary. I soon found that the bulk of the morning congregation would not attend both Services. Then, I bethought myself Meriden, Ct., has succeeded him, and entered "ought I to expect them to do so?" How many are there in every congregation who need physical as well as spiritual rest and change once a week! The average working man (and I con- of Christ's Church, Guilford, Ct., and the parish toil, whether of hand or brain, a working man),

Then again, I bethought myself of the Romanists, with their Services at different hours, each attended by entirely different congregations, and-"Why," thought I, "cannot the same result be brought about in our Church?" So I more convenient to come out at night than in they advance. the morning. For this purpose, the night Services at our Church are made specially attractive, using that word in its legitimate sense. Instead of proceeding upon the principle that anything is good enough for Evening Service, for there won't be anybody there, anyway," nothing is overlooked that can consistently be done, to make the Service helpful and edifying to all who attend. Both in the choir and pulpit, it is apparent, that if there is any difference, it is in favor of the Evening Service.

I have pursued this method for several years, and the results have been most satisfactory. Its effects have been most happy, not only upon strangers, many of whom have in this way learned to love the Church, and are now "no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens of the Saints, and of the Household of God," but also upon the membership generally, a large proportion of whom, I find, are generally in their place with as much promptitude and regularity as at the Morning Service. W. N. WEBBE.

Our Washington Letter.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

Bishop Morris, of Oregon, is to preach at St John's Church, January 9th, and will meet the District Board of the Woman's Auxiliary, perhaps the same day. It will be a pleasure to welcome his Right Reverence to one of the parishes of our city which helped to give him, at the time of his Consecration, a goodly "send off" to his distant missionary field.

Rev. Mr. Phillips is supplying the vacant parish of St. Paul's, and Rev. Mr. Keith that of St.

The recent "Loan Art" has contributed somewhat to the reduction of the debt on the parish of the Incarnation, the expenses having been necessarily great.

An organ, formerly used by the congregation of Christ Church, near the Navy Yard, has been generously presented to the congregation of Grace Church, by the rector and vestry of the former parish, and its thankful acceptance gracefully acknowledged by the rector and vestry of

It is with deep regret that I record that the physicians of the Rev. F. L. Norton, so lately become Rector of St. John's, in this city, have recommended him an entire suspension from official duty, for the period of one year. His resignation took place in Advent. Rev. Dr. Vibbert, of Germantown, has been called, and wa to officiate on the first Sunday of the New Year Rev. Mr. Barker, chaplain to Rev. Mr. Norton. left, together with the late Rector of St. John's. Both Mr. Norton and Mr. Barker had made many friends; and their departure is widely repretted.

There is, among the district clergy, an unusual experience. Three aged and infirm clergy, and no less than five of the younger and less aged are now on the sick list. It must be said, to the abounding credit of all, that the precept has not been forgotten:-"Do good unto all men, especially unto them that are of the Household of Faith;" and that provision is made, according to necessity.

The Bishop of the Diocese seems determined to be among the leading missionaries of his own diocese. Not only is he indefatigable in his strictly Episcopal duties, but, at such times and places as his engagements allow, organizes "Episcopal Missions," lasting through several days, with from one to three Services, sermons or addresses each day. He selects the clergy for the occasions, and assigns them their duties, and the intention is always to make the Services as effective as the combined effort will allow. This the missionary; his Order is the Order of the Ministry. It was so of old; and the example of St. Paul is a standing lesson to the Church. The next Mission to be conducted by the Bishop and his helpers, will be from January 12th to 15th,

It is stated in the public print, that one of our Churchmen, Mr. W. W. Corcoran, has contributed $3,000,000 to public benevolences. Mr. Corcoran has lived to reach the ripe age of 81 years. He is a member of the congregation of the Ascension—the church of which the Bishop of Maryland is the honorary Rector, and the Rev. Dr. Elliott, the Associate Rector, and one to which Mr. Corcoran has, in the past, very largely contributed.

the Church of the Ascension, New Haven, Ct., resigned some months since, and the Rev. E. M. Babcock, late assistant in St. Andrews' Church, upon his duties in September, on his return from a visit to Europe.

Rev. L. T. Benett D. D. has resigned his parish sider every man who earns his living by honest is now without a rector.

The famous old parish of St. Paul's, New laboring daily from early morning till night, may Haven. Ct., from which so many clergymen have fairly claim a right, I think, to spend a portion risen to eminence, is in a most flourishing conof the Lord's day with his family at home. If dition, under the rectorship of the Rev. E. S. he and they are regular in attendance at the Lewis, formerly of West Haven. There are said Sanctuary once a day, you can not easily make to be from five to six hundred communicants, them feel that they are guilty of a grievous of- and about three hundred Sunday school children. fence, if they do not always attend both Ser- The Christmas Festival and handsome tree, passed off in its usual happy manner, and with satisfaction to all. It is one of the most efficient and active parishes in the country.

Among the good Congregationalists of dear old Connecticut, some, who 50 years ago, did not know when Christmas came, or what it was, have set myself to work, to secure the attendance at this year been busily occupied in bringing into the evening Service, if possible, of a different their houses of worship, on the Day of their congregation, the "strangers to the Covenant and Saviour's Nativity, the fir-tree, the pine-tree and aliens from the Commonwealth," as well as those the box together. In that edifice, once worof the congregation who might be willing to at- shipped, as one of their number, A. B. Chapin, tend both Services, and those who should find it the author of Chapin's Primitive Church. So

> WESTERN MICHIGAN .- Quite an anomaly existed in the Church in Grand Rapids, Michigan, during a few weeks in October and November. The three parishes and the chapel of the Good Shepherd were all vacant at the same time. Bishop Gillespie, who resides here, was absent, attending to his duties in the General Convention; so that there was neither Bishop, Priest, nor Deacon here, to read the Burial Service, or pronounce the twain "one flesh."

> Once more, however, each parish has its pastor. The Rev. S. Burford is rector of St. Mark's Church; the Rev. A. Wetherbee, of St. Paul's Memorial; and the Rev. F. C. Coolbaugh, of

> We wish to call special attention to the notice which appears in our advertising columns, calling for the services of a young unmarried clergyman, to take charge of a prosperous Mission Chapel, at Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Potices.

Grace Church; Cedar Rapids, Iowa, having just built (and paid for) a handsome Mission Chapel, at a cost of $5,000, in which are already gathered a Sunday School of 150 scholars, and a good congregation desires to secure the services of a young unmarried clergyman, as an Assistant to the Rector.

For particulars, as to salary, ctc., address the Rector,

REV. SAMUEL RINGGOLD.

A Bed for Incurables

n
	S.S. Zion Church, Freeport, Ill $ 4.	5U
n	A Unrisimas Offering	ñ
f	MISS LOW'S S. S. Class
L	Mrs. Foote, Chicago
е	Miss Jennie Huribut
	St. Peter's Church, Sycamore, III 8
•	Mr. A. L. Pease
f	Anonymous
•	S. S., Lockport, III
	A Friend. 10.
.	S. S., Church of the Epiphany, Chicago. 25.
е	Interest on Bonds. 4.
v	Contents of "Slang Bank" from September	N
-	26th, 1880, to January 9th, 1881 40.0	n
е	A Friend
0	Avails of work, Lulu V
4	St. Luke's Penny
8	Weston Kinsley
	A Helper Chicago
-	H. M. L.
8	Balance of donation from S. S. of Cathedral	v
-	S. S. Peter and Paul. 1.0	NE.
	St. Luke's Penny
,	St. Luke's Penny	y
. 1	$ 228.9	0
	Previous contributions, $228.9	O
в	* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *	O

Grand Avenue Hotel, Milwaukee.

.....$2,760.93 MISS OLIVE LAY, Tressurer.

Total.

909 Grand Avenue, C. A. Buttles, Proprietor. Hotel contains 90 rooms, with dining room 40 feet square. New and elegantly furnished, and surrounded by a large lawn. All the home comforts can be had which could be desired by tourists or travellers. Terms $2.00 to $2.50 per day, or special rates made by the week or month.

Important to Travellers. Special inducements are offered you by the Bur-ington route. It will pay you to read their adver-tisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The Chicago Scale Company sell 2-ton wagon scale for $40, 3-ton, $50, 4-ton, $60. These are the best and cheapest scales made. Price-list free.

For Sale.—At a bargain, a Type Writer, good new. Address Rev. d'E. J., Fiskdale, Mass.

KOUNTZE BROTHERS.

BANKERS,

120 Broadway (Equitable Building), NEW YORK.

LETTERS OF CREDIT

CIRCULAR NOTES

Issued for the use of travelers Issued for the use of travelers in all parts of the world.
Bills drawn on the Union Bank of London. Telegraphic transfers made to London and to various places in the United States. Deposits received subject to check at sight, and interest allowed on balances.
Government and other bonds and investment securities bought and sold on commission.

NINE to TWELVE per Cent. Interest CONNECTICUT.—The Rev. W. G. Andrews, of On long time loans, with best security in the world.

DAKOTA WHEAT LANDS,

In the famous valley of the Red River of the North constituting what is known as the "Golden North west."

Loans negotiated without charge by the Valley
City Bank.

Choice lands are also offered for sale at from $1.75 to $12 per acre. Selections made from official survey rotes and certified examinations.

Write for reference and particulars.

HERBERT ROOT, Valley City, Barnes Co., Dakota.

The Church League Tracts.

1. The Real Presence; 2. Prayers for the Dead; 3. Catholics and Roman Catholics; 4. One Religion is as Good as Another; 5. Outward Reverence; Its Logic and Its Law; 6. Anglican Orders and Jurisdiction; 7. The Bible and the Prayer-Book on Confession; 8. What Church Service Must I Attend; 9. The Christian Priesthood; 10. Plain Words on Confirmation; 11. What is Public Worship; 12. Our Own Advantages; 13. Baptism Scripturally and Historically Considered; 14. The Scriptural Proof of Episcopacy; 15. Doctrine and Ritual; 16. The Holy Ghost the Life of the Church; 17. Spiritual Communion; 18. Why the Anglican Church Rejects Transubstantiation; No. 19. The Necessity and Nature of Public Worship; No. 20. Reasons for Receiving the Holy Communion Fasting; No. 21. A Card of Private Devotion; No. 22. I Have no Time; No. 23. But I Have Tried; No. 24. I Am no Worse Than Others; No. 25. I Can Read my Bible at Home; No. 26. I Cannot Afford to go to Church; No. 27. Family Relations and Church Going.

A complete set of the Tracts, (excepting 21) will be sent to any address on receipt of 30 cents.

Price of Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, and 17, 19, 20, fifty cents per hundred, of Nos. 3, 4, 11, 16, 18, 22. 27, thirty cents per hundred, No. 12, and 21. By mail, 5 cents each. No. 13, $1 a hundred. No. 14, $1 50 a hundred. Address JOHN F. CABOT, Secretary,

Address JOHN F. CABOT, Secretary,

18 Liberty Street, N. Y.

To be Published January 1st. 'Hours With the Bible.'

BY CUNNINGHAM GEIKIE, D. D., AUTHOR OF "THE LIFE AND WORDS OF CHRIST." 500 Pages in Cloth $1.50.

> CONTENTS. Genesis.

Genesis.

Ancient Ideas, Sacred and Profane, of God and Nature—A contrast.

Ancient Legends of Creation.

The Bible and Modern Science.

The Bible and Modern Science.
Jewish Ideas of Nature and of Creation.
The Age of the World.
Adam and Eve.
The Story of Eden.
The Antiquity of Man.
The Antiquity and Origin of Man.
Origin of Man, and his Primitive Condition, etc.
The Descendants of Adam.
The Flood. concluded.

The Flood,
The Flood, concluded.
After the Flood.
The Table of Nations.
The First Glimpse of National History.
The First Beginnings of the Hebrew Nations.
The Migrations of Abraham.
The Friend of God

Palestine and Egypt in Abraham's Days. Abraham's Second Residence in Canaar Isaac and his Sons, Joseph.

DIVINELY LED,

ROBERT OWEN'S GRANDDAUGHTER. In Paper, 10 cents. In Cloth, 50 cents. In Paper, to cents. In Cools, or cents.

I have read your autobiography with profit and pleasure. The facts are of passing interest, and you have stated them with singular grace and felicity. It must arrest attention and be of wide use.

C. F. Robertson, Bishop of Missouri I consider it the most beautiful prose Epic of t age.

H. H. COLB

For Sale by JAMES POTT,

12 Aster Place, N. Y.

Music for the Million.

My Angel Mother. Stewart.
School Girls dream, Instr. Messinger...
When the Dew Drops Kiss the Roses. Williams.
Little Sweetheart Smile Again. Keefer.
Cottage in the Lane. Jolley...
Don't Mourn After Me, Darling. Hoyt.
Kiss the Baby Once for mei. Hays.
Only to see Her Face again. Stewart.
Daisy Gray. Fairfield.
Listen to the Old Church Bell. Fairfield.
De Darkies Holday. Keefer.
Mary's Gone with a Coon. Stewart.
Listening to the Band. Stewart. Address Geo. D. Newhall & Co., Cincinnati, O. Lyon & Healy, Chicago, Ill.

Vermont and New Hampshire

DIRECTORIES.

Either Mailed on Receipt of 25 cents, by S. L. FORMAN.

Claremont, N. H.

Authors & Publishers

onsult their own interests if they CLAREMONT MANUFACTING CO.

CLAREMONT, N. H., Before they make contracts for the

MAKING OF BOOKS.

R. J. WALSHE, Draper and Tailor, 119 Dearborn St., CHICAGO.

> STEWART CLARK. C. H. DYER & CO..

Dealers in Anthracite 97 Dearborn St., CHICAGO. Erie, Blossburg, Cannel and other grades of

DOCK, FOOT OF 21st, ON GROVE STREET. Shipments by all Rail Roads Leaving Chicago

Trinity College,

Hartford, Ct. Examinations for admission will be held at Hartford, on Monday and Tuesday, June 27th and 28th, 1881; also on September 13th and 14th. Commencement is Thursday June 30th, 1881. For Scholarships and for Catalogues application should be made to the President, T. R. PYNCHON, D. D., Hartford, Ct.

R. GEISSLER. 35 BLEECKER STREET. NEW YORK, Church Furnisher. Memorial Brasses.

Wood and Metal Work. send for Circular.

TEXTS in Velvet Paper for Christmas Decorations. White Cloth 72 inches wide, $5. Per Yard. Circulars free.

Church Calendar.

JANUARY, 1881.

Feast of Circumcision.
2d Sunday after Christmas.
Feast of the Epiphany.
1st Sunday after Epiphany.
Friday. Fast.
2d Sunday after Epiphany.
Friday Fast.
3d Sunday after Epiphany.
Conversion of St. Paul.
Friday. Fast.
4th Sunday after Epiphany.

Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And He saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the Very beautiful is it to observe the facility with not of the absolute wants merely, but of the superfluities of others. The gracious Lord has sympathy with all needs, with the finer as well as the commoner needs of our life. For all the grace and beauty and courtesy of life are taken our guest, when we ask our earthly friends. nights. Maggie's voice sounded shrill And now he had come back, well to do and account of in Christianity, as well as life's sterner Then we may be sure of real joy. realities; and the Spirit of Christ, in Himself, and in His disciples, does not slight nor despise those any more than these. Contrast His readiiness to help others with His refusal to help His own needs. He Who made wine out of water, might have made bread out of stones. But He will do nothing at the suggestion of Satan, though all at the suggestion of love.

ARCHRISHOP TRENCH.

What is this silent might. Making our darkness light, New wine our waters, heavenly Blood our wine? Christ with His mother dear.

And all His saints, is here. And where they dwell is heaven, and what they touch divine. JOHN KEBLE.

Turning to the East.

"And the glory of the Lord came into the House, by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the East.

EZEK. 43:4.

I turn to the East when I say the Creed, And this for reasons three: First, Holy Church has practised it, And she's a guide for me.

I turn to the East when I say the Creed, For thence the rising sun, Through thousand circling months and years His ceaseless course has run.

I turn to the East when I say the Creed, And my Redeemer bless Who rose o'er this benighted earth-"The Sun of Righteousness.

I turn to the East when I say the Creed, And look for my final doom; For thence the written word declared.

The "Righteous Judge" shall come. I turn to the East when I say the Creed, My reasons I have given; But not my eye alone, my heart

Must turn itself toward Heaven So I turn to the East when I say the Creed;

And tell me now, I pray, Why any humble Christian need To turn the other way?

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

A Series for the LIVING CHURCH.

The Galilean Marriage. Written for the Living Church.

How many hundreds of years have pass- I've got a place." ed, since our Blessed Lord, in His human form, stood among the guests at the wedding in Cana of Galilee!

hearsed by His Church. Yet, everytime Jemmie, and he so ill and helpless?" we listen to the recital of His presence at the feast, and of the mighty deed wrought a-ways not in the day time." by Him there, it seems a fresh sweet story of the good things that Jesus has in re any work of nights?" serve for us, and of His tender sympathy in all our wants and needs.

On this second Sunday after the Epiphany, I wish especially to think of our Lord Christianity; but whoever carefully reads call them now." tion of the Christ.

He was not an austere man. He minhallow, and, just as surely as He went to young to work." the wedding in that little oriental village, does He enter the places of our assembling Carrie lovingly. "Don't let Ruth and for the sacred nuptial tie, and also for Jemmie kill you outright." we know and feel Him near, we look for them until I died." such a miracle as changes otherwise insipid pleasures into the most inspiriting and it was that such a strange choky feeling tasteful joys.

the territory of the tribe of Asher; and the other, "Cana Minor," which St. Jerome speaks of as near to Nazareth. This last some day." is the village where our Lord Jesus was pleased to manifest His divine power. is a small village, situated on a gentle em- Ruth lively and active; Jemmie, a poor the pilgrims were two and a half hours in eyes, and a sweet pale face. reaching it from Nazareth. About a quarter of a mile from Cana, is a spring of de- and a ha'porth of milk." licious water, said to be the source whence ellers often halt to rest or to drink, and to refresh their beasts. The ruins of a church consisted of refresh their beasts. The ruins of a church consisted of a crust picked up in the gut- in tidy clothes. were upon the spot designated as the site ter), so you two can have all this, and to-

"There," says our historian, "walking buy you a sausage each."

among these ruins, we saw large mossy stone water pots, answering the description given of the ancient vessels of the country; not preserved, nor exhibited as relics, but lying about, disregarded by the present inhabitants, as antiquities with too?" whose original use they were unacquainted. From the appearance and number of them, it was quite evident that a practice of keeping water in large stone pots, each holding said Ruth. from eighteen to twenty-seven gallons, was once common in the country.

It is pleasant to see all these things, which travellers observe and convey to us; and call the people to Covent Garden; it's own true Home on the very next morn and it must be a precious privilege to go and stand in the very places where the feet of our Saviour have trodden. But what we must try to gather from the rich prowhich our Lord yields Himself to the supply, vision of wine at the Galilean Marriage, is the infinate ability of our Lord Jesus, and His Infinite love toward us, and eagerness to help and bless in every time of need.

Stories on the Catechism. By A. C. Jones.

And I heartily thank our Heavenly Father that He has called me to this state of Salvation.

THIS WORK-A-DAY WORLD.

A dirty alley, leading into a still more a cellar in that house, all damp, and cold, a little bird; Jemmie, still and contented and miserable in the winter months; all in his own quiet way. Neither of them, steaming and close, almost pestilential, in poor little things, thought of the hard life members of Christ, children of God, and than she could stand. knowing no father's nor mother's love; of great joy. going on in their own way, with no gleam of childish sunshine coming into their poor two children in the cellar; "shan't we, awful problems of humanity are to be setlittle lives. Maggie and Ruth and Jemmie Maggie?" Brown, these three little children were And Maggie, thinner and paler than and two years old; small, bright, chubby hard now, and trade is bad." things; strangely unlike the little puny and questioned Maggie as to the future.

brawny woman; "what else could they do take some breakfast home to the children with little chits like you?"

thirty whole shillings, in the old desk; and upon him wistfully: "Oh, please, sir."

There was a burst of laughter; not un- for your bunch of holly?' kind laughter, but the child looked so com-

"No; I ain't going to leave them; least-

"Why, Maggie, you're not going to do with the thirty whole shillings. "What for?"

"To see the time, of course; what else and Saviour in His regard for our social are clocks for? You know Mrs. Ranken, as lived five doors off, she was buried yes-

innocent enjoyment meets the approba- morning, and you'll never be able to stand

"Yes, I shall. You see I've got Ruth gled with the race, to bless, to cheer, and and Jemmie at home, and they're too sense of His presence, there is always a lack indignant. "Carrie, they're my own lit- the cold cellar, weak and ill, and yet with lost. No prayer of faith unanswered. which nothing else can supply; and when the brother and sister; I ought to work for a bright smile upon her face.

came into her throat as Maggie spoke. There are two "Canas" mentioned in "Don't die," was all she said. And as Holy Scripture; one, "Cana Major" in the child walked away the girl muttered to

Down the cellar-steps, into the hot, close cellar itself, went our Maggie. Ruth and it when I am gone away. I wish, oh, I gives an opportunity to express again the Jemmie brightened up at her entrance; wish, that father would come back." A traveller in the Holy Land says "It Jemmie brightened up at her entrance; inence." With the horses at a foot pace, little deformed fellow, with great brown

"My dears, here's a little loaf for you,

"That ain't much," said Ruth. of the house where the marriage feast was night I'm going to my place, and I shall

"A real sausage?"

"Yes; a real sausage, fried in a bit of child. lard, such as granny fried on Christmas

"And shall we have plum-pudding,

"I don't know, my dears; I'll see if I can afford it.'

"There's all the shillings in the box," "Yes, I know; but there's two or three ittle bills my dears. I'm going to buy a clock, to see the time of nights, and to go that that will bring us in the money. "All right, Maggie; it will be very jolly," said the children; never thinking, poor ter was going to enter upon for their sakes. The "little bills" were paid, the clock was bought, and the child's work begun. It was bright enough at first, when the Besides this, let us always invite Him for harvest moon was shining on those August because he could get no work at home. streets, rousing some heavy sleepers at dren. three o'clock, some at four, and some at Ruth and Jemmie are very happy with ishes for poor sickly Carrie, who had al- their hope. ways been so kind to her.

The children at home were very happy dirty street; a house fast falling into ruin; in those autumn days. Ruth, as bright as the summer days; and here lived three Maggie was leading; neither of them knew children, little ones who had been made that the work she had undertaken was more inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven, and Winter came—Christmas-tide with the suffering humanity an Almighty Friend? who had been left all alone in the world, holly and the berries, and the glad tidings called; and when they were first known in ever, answered: "Yes; I'll try and get the alley, they were respectively six, four, money enough to buy some; but times are children who were generally to be seen Carrie had a slice out of it. Maggie said standing about the doors or playing in the she didn't care about it; she didn't seem to gutter. They came there with an old care much about anything in those dark woman, who said she was their grand- wintry days. She went on with her work. mother. Anyhow she had taken care of The little voice calling outside the winthem all since their mother died, and their dows, was not as cheery as it had been, father had gone away to Australia. She the tones were a little bit hoarse on those pel thoughtful men to accept facts, and was kind to them in her own rough way; December mornings. And then there and when, six years after their arrival in came a day when the snow was thick upon London, "Grainy died," the neighbors the ground, and the biting east wind seemwondered what the little ones would do, ed to take the life out of you; and in the dawning, Maggie stood, a little bunch of "They'll take you and the little 'uns to holly in her hand, waiting for some one to carnate, is a Person. The Church is the the House, of course?" suggested one big pay her some money, so that she might

Some one brushed quickly past her. It Maggie drew herself up to her full was a Clergyman—a Parson, she would story of God's love with all the earnestness height—a very little height indeed it was have called him—and as he passed her, of a forgiven heart. Let yours be the House. Granny has left us some money, round, and saw the brown eyes gazing you, but Christ, and Him crucified."

"My child, can I help you; how much

Take it, please, sir, 'tain't worth noth-Parson that told her about it; maybe you prayer stood alone on the prairie, with its will turn it into infallibility.

could tell me." He could not tell her then, he was on of the faith of those who were sleeping in the Protestant's conception of the Church; his way to see a dying woman; but he ask- the acre of God beside the church's door. so different from the Catholic conception. "Yes, I am; I'm going to buy a clock ed her address, and promised to be there The missionary committee hesitated to con- To the Protestant, the Church is a mere by one o'clock. went into the wretched cellar, and heard to house among a widely scattered popula- create new "Churches," at every re-arhe story of those three little lives; and, in tion, mostly of foreign birth. I spent a rangement. "Church-making is, to him, simple words, he told them all of the great Sunday at that mission. The church was a renewable earthly process, similar to the Some people seem to feel that there is terday; well, she earned her living by call- happiness which might be theirs; of all thronged. A spirit not of this world per- organizing of new nations in place of old. an incongruity between festivity, and ing up the folks for market; I'm going to God's love for them, of all the gladness vaded the congregation. The tearful But, to the Catholic, it is an unrenewable He had prepared for them. For M ggie hearers sent back torrents of joy to the Divine art, similar to the creation of this the life of Him Who was without spot of 'But, child, you don't know what it is? showed him in an old torn Bible the three preacher's heart. Twelve were confirm- globe. Once done by the Divine fiat, sin, must come to the conclusion that all You'll have to begin about three in the names and the dates of their baptism; and ed; thirty knelt for the Holy Communion. there is an end of the matter. The Probecause of that, he tried to explain to them The little church was a Bethel to our souls. testant "Churches" are each destructable what their great hope was. Maggie's voice was not heard in the streets the very gate of Heaven." I could tell ble by man, as is the planet, Earth. It is and lanes, and when possibly some of the you of many places where faithful pastors something which God made for man to "Take care of yourself, little 'un," said buyers and sellers overslept themselves. have waited long, going forth bearing dwell in; not-something into which men She had gone on as long as she could, doing her duty in this work-a-day world, pleasant social communion. Without a "Carrie," and look and tone were alike and now she lay upon a heap of straw in their sheaves with them. No good deed is

> Carrie Davis was with her always now. "My dear, you suffer so much, and yet you look so glad."

"Oh, Carrie, it's because I'm so thankful; because you see that long, long ago, before I knew anything about it, I was and accidents, a departing visitor is a made God's own child, and so was Ruth source of more or less anxiety till a safe and Jemmie; and so I can't but be glad haven is known to have been reached. It Carrie, dear Carrie, you'll think all about one, to relieve any such fears; and it also knock at the door. Maggie was laying even under circumstances which aggravate reflecting images all around it. An impi-where !'

"Maggie, little Maggie! I have come to take you home. You're like your mother, child; I should have known you any bed in the corner, and there he saw his

"Father !- for I know it's Father-I'm so glad, because of Ruth and Jemmie: but I'm gladder still, because of the Catechism words, 'And I heartily thank our this state of salvation.''

Her Heavenly Father called her to His

In her own little simple way she had done her work; and the dreariness of the things, of the hard life the little elder siswork-a-day world had been brightened by baptism she had been called. Long years before, her father had gone to Australia and cheery as she walked through the silent prosperous, to make a home for his chil five; and then when all was done, she would him. And Carrie Davis, bright and hope go into the Market, and her friends there ful now, because of all she has been taught, gave her some cresses and some fruit, and sits with them during the long winter this she took home to the little ones; stop- evenings; and they talk of Maggie's thankping sometimes to leave a bunch of rad- fulness, and pray that her hope, may be

A Personal Saviour.

From Bishop Whipple's Address, 1880.

There has been a decided gain in meeting the infidelity of our time. Thoughtful men see that this warfare is not about religious dogmas. The central question at issue is this: Is there a God? Has this All other questions are side issues. Deny the existence of God, and we are thrust tled by human guesses. Admit that there is a living Creator of the Universe, who cares for His suffering creatures; and the see that there is no ground for conflict be-They had the pudding, of course, and tween nature and revelation. They have one God for their author. Scholars may pledge nature to that which it does not and cannot teach; Christians may array revelation against the facts of science, and pledge God's word to that which it does not teach. This seeming conflict will comthese facts will teach the oneness of truth in God's revelation and in His laws of the natural world.

Sin, sorrow and death are facts. Christianity is a fact; Jesus Christ the God In-Kingdom of God, which came down to earth with the coming of its King. Breth-ren, preach this personal Christ. Tell the

I have found it in the older parcross-capped turret, telling the passer-by He was true to his appointment. He witness for God. He visited from house can re-arrange themselves at will, and thus Then came a February morning when is none other than the house of God, and Church is as continuous, and as indestructiprecious seed, and weeping, and they have arrange themselves.—Dr. Ewer's Conferalso come back with rejoicing, bringing ences.

Whether you leave your own home or a house where you have been a guest, never forget to send back immediately the tidings of the safe conclusion of your journey. In these days of mysterious disappearances that He has been so good to us. And is a small courtesy, but a very important Another week. And one evening, when cult to speak at parting. People who the snow was falling fast, and the keen "ought to know better" are sometimes east wind blew into the cellar, there was a guilty of great neglect in this matter; and, upon her bed; the little ones were asleep; the annoyance, leave a host and hostess in ous or profane thought uttered by a par-Carrie Davis was there, watching for what a very disagreeable state of perturbation. ent's lips may operate on a young heart late perfection, even in the kindliest soul, "I went to the old place," he said; is tenderness toward the hard, forbearance have lots of money come Sunday; I will my children were here."

toward the unfortunate, warmth of heart toward the cold, philanthropy toward the Study to Entertain.

Many people seem to think that the capacity to entertain people, and be entertained, comes naturally; that certain ones can make people happy, because they are gifted and have extraordinary endowments which make it possible for them to delight people. It never seems to occur to them that in order to entertain people one must Heavenly Father that He has called me to give thought to it; that people are not made happy without effort-wisely directed

Our observation leads us to think that half, at least, of the good companionship of the world comes from the good forethought of somebody. Somebody has planned it. The happy occurrence was not an accident; it was the result of prevation—the happy state to which in her meditation. All the little and sweet social surprises of life; all the little domestic secrets between children and parents, which, in their unfolding, brim the household with gladness; all the larger and more stately social festivities that keep the life of the neighborhood and village buoyant, are only the natural sequence of benevolent and good-natured thought on the part of

Have you invited a little company to your house of an evening, friend? Well, then, how do you propose to entertain them? Do you think that sliced tongue and escaloped oysters will suffice? These do well for the physical condition. But how shall you feed the intellects and cheer the spirits of your guests? Music? Yes, if they can sing. But perhaps of the dozen you have invited, not over one or two have voices sufficiently cultivated to sing in public. Games? Excellent. Few of us that don't like to play games-checkers, chess, whist, anything that's light, strightly, and entertaining. Have you any pictorial books in your library or about the house? If so, be sure to place them on the center-table. We've known a single volume furnish delightful entertainment to a whole group for an hour. Have you a Chinese top? If not, purchase one. It Incarnation is a necessity. True scholars may cost you twenty cents, and we'll warrant that the first evening after you get it, if you be rightly constructed morally, you will want no other entertainment than you will get out of spinning it yourself. Do you say, "Pshaw! tops are for boys?" All right; why not be a boy occasionally? Try it, and see how you like it. We dare say you have been a man so long you have forgotten all about being a boy. How long it is since you slid down hill? Twenty vears? We are ashamed of you! Get a sled and try it to morrow night. What a time you will have! We wish we could be with you. - Golden Rule Magazine for Jan-

The Church a Divine Body.

It seems difficult, for a man not reared in the Catholic atmosphere—or, at least, for one who has not lived for years in that -and said: "No, we ain't a going to the she said: "Oh, please, sir." He looked motto of St. Paul, "I know nothing among atmosphere—to comprehend what the Catholic means, when he he thus distin-I have been deeply touched this year by guishes between his Mother the Church, the blessed rewards which have come to and each, or altogether, of her fallen memsome of you by this preaching—a personal bers. "How," he says, "can the Church be holy, when its human members are ical, it was almost impossible to help it; ing; but granny said that when the work- ishes and in the feeblest missions. I recall none of them holy? And how can the And, since that event, how often has and then Carrie, a sickly looking girl said: a-day world was finished there would be one instance of a mission in which all had Church be infallible, when each and every His first public gracious miracle been re "You'll never be able to leave Ruth and something better; something more beauti- seemed hopeless; nearly every member of one of its fallen members is infallible? ful, even, than the flowers. And 'twas the the church had removed. The house of For surely no multiplication of fallibility

But this difficulty arises from the fact of tinue the good pastor's salary. He staid to voluntary association of individuals who We all felt, "how solemn is this place; it by man, like the nations. The Catholic

> Thirty-six years ago, a Connecticut deacon violently objected because it was proposed that a violin should be used in his church. Twenty-three years ago he said that no one but the devil could have suggested a melodeon. Nine years ago he said that he would never go to that church again, if the contralo and the tenor singers were paid one hundred dollars apiece by the year. Last week he was in New York inquiring for a boy who could pump an organ while his daughter, fresh from school, played a hymn to the tune,"When Johnny comes marghing home."

Childhood is like a mirror, catching and like a careless spray of water upon polished "The last, best friend which comes to steel, staining it with rust, which no after scouring can efface.

How it must make a donkey laugh to see for all answer, Carrie led him to the misanthropic."

toward the cold, philanthropy toward the what an insignificant little ear a whale can boast.

The Household.

All communications for this Department should be addressed to The Household, 225 East 19th St., New York City.

It seems strange, indeed, that, in this enlightened age and among Christian people, it should be necessary to warn any one against boxing the children's ears. But the warning is not untimely, and the practice is much more common than many of our readers can easily believe. This mode of punishment has not one point in its favor, and the sooner it can be be abolished altogether, the better. It is barbarous and cruel. "Children's ears ought never to be boxed. The passage of the ear is closed by a thin membrane, especially adapted to be influenced by every impulse of the air, and with nothing but the air to aside for low necks and short sleeves cannot be support it internally. Nothing, then, can be more likely to injure this membrane than a sudden and forcible compression of the air in front of it. If any one designed to break or over-stretch the membrane, he could scarcely devise a more effective means than to bring the hand suddenly and forcibly down upon the passage of the ear, thus driving the air violently before it, with no possibility for its escape but by the membrane giving way. And far too often, it does give way, especially if, from any previous disease, it has been weakened.

Many children have been made deaf by boxes on the ear in this way. Nor is this the only way; if there is one thing which does the nerve of hearing more harm than almost any other, it is a sudden jar or shock. Children and grown persons alike may be deafened by falls, or by heavy blows upon the head. Boxing the ears produces | top, while the cold air flows in at the bottom. A | fire by the process of re-setting in another language, a similar effect, though more slowly and in less degree. It tends to dull the sensibility of the nerve, even if it does not hurt the membrane."

Many mothers go on, for a whole year, watching a creaking door, and avoiding a creaking rocker, lest they "wake up baby" or disturb a sick one. It is a small matter; but, if such mothers will take a few drops of oil, or a little fresh lard, and rub a trifle upon all the door hinges and points of friction, the creaking will be stopped for months, at least. A minute's time on a door, will save hours of time in watching it, or in getting the baby to sleep after being waked up.

QUERY .- How can I remove grease from gentlemen's coats?

ANSWER .- Scrape thickly over the greasy part some French chalk (taking care that it be genuine); then place over it a piece of coarse blotting paper, pass a heated iron over this, quickly, several times. The paper will absorb the grease. After having removed it, rub the place with a piece of woolen cloth.

Coarse tea leaves, swept along the carpet, while moist, will remove the dust and lint, without soiling the carpet. We have seen other "prescriptions" tried, but none seem to be as good and as simple as the above given.

SUNLIGHT.—The sv , if you will only open your house to him, is a faithful physician, who will be pretty constant in attendance, and who will send in no bills.

I am sufficiently acquainted with the conservative character of many country people to know service character of service character that expressions of disdain will come from some quarters, when I mention bay windows. Nevertheless, bay windows are a good thing. Their house, at least it ought to be like that, for it is nothing but absurdity and wickedness to darken until only a struggling ray of sunlight can be

If bay windows are too expensive, a very desirable substitute can be had by placing two ordinary sized windows side by side, with a wide supposition be correct, they present, to our thinking, capacious ledge at the bottom for seats or for plants.

A room with a window like this cannot fail to be cheery, and its effect in a simple cottage house is quite sumptuous. There is likewise in its favor the fact that it is less exposed than the deep bay window to outer heat and cold.

In a kitchen, or in a child's bedroom, or in an attic where the walls are low, two half-windows side by side and made to slide or to open on hinges, admit a broad, generous light, and give an apartmeut a pretty and pleasing rustic air.

Let us have all rooms in daily use, especially bed-rooms and sitting-rooms, well lighted by the sun. "To sleep on unsunned beds in unsunned chambers, and to work day after day in unsunned rooms, is the unrepented sin of half the nation," vigorously affirms a prominent writer. If any rooms in the house must look solely to the north for illumination, let them be history, and has proved that no traces of human life the parlor and the spare chamber. People who come and go can be cheerful for a while in a north-windowed apartment, but the constant dwellers in a house need its sunniest rooms.— Farm Homes.

INFANT'S AFGHAN. - Stripes the required length in two colors, joined with a third. Rosepink and pale blue joined with silver gray, or the same colors transposed, are pretty for a summer afghan.

Cast on 29 stitches, knit 5 rows plain, then 5 rows ribbed, until long enough, on last row, plain, drop every fifth stitch, which being pulled out the length of stripe makes an open-work block pattern. Finish each stripe with a fringe of the same color, and the joining with a heavy tassel the length of the fringe, and crochet a shell border of the same color as used for joining around the other three sides.—N. Y. Tribevenings, is, to give them something suitable and interesting to do. Set them to making scrap books. If there are two or three children, let each one take a subject, and see what and how much he can collect upon that for his book. For example, we have what we call an "animal scrap book," in which is pasted every fact, incident and anecdote we can find relating to animals. We have a dog department, a horse department,

H. L. wishes to know how to remove the crust

DRESS OF INFANTS.—Dr. Mercy B. Jackson says: "The special evil of which I speak is the long skirts, dresses and cloaks which are now the fashion for babies. I feel the deepest commiseration for a delicate child that has hung upon its tender body a flannel skirt a yard long, and over that a cotton skirt equally long, and over that a dress to cover both, often weighted with heavy embroidery, and, if the child is carried out, a double cloak, longer than all, so that the borne on the nurse's arm. The longer the clothes the more aristocratic the baby, would seem to be the idea of the mother! Think of all this weight attached around the waist of the child and hanging over the little feet, pressing down the toes, and even forcing the feet out of their natural position! How much of deformity and suffering this fashion produces, none can tell; but that it is a great discomfort to the baby, every thinking mother must perceive.

High necks and long sleeves are now fashion-That will depend on the enlightenable climate, is often to bring on pneumonia, and ment is usually heated to a higher temperature than the outer air, and it is thus rendered held in the doorway near the door, it will be found that the flame will be blown inward, but, if it be raised nearly to the top of the doorway. it will go outward; the warm air flowing out at the the stove; therefore, open fire-places are the best ventilators we can have for a chamber, with an opening arranged in the chimney near the Oat-meal in the form of porridge, or in the form of cakes, is one of the most nutritious of vegetable foods. A pound of oat-meal is worth. as nutriment, six pounds of fine white flour, and pound for pound, costs less than wheat flour.

It is a most substantial and nutritious food. Cracked wheat, or whole wheat, when properly cooked, is really one of the most delicious articles of food ever eaten by man. One pound of cracked wheat will give as much strength of muscle and nerve as seven or eight pounds of common baker's bread.

One pound of cheap meat boiled to rags with quart of white beans, and eaten with brown bread, will make a dinner that a king might luxuriate upon. Your family of seven persons would not be able to consume such a dinner.

Butter, poultry and potatoes are most expensive articles of food. A single bushel of beans, properly cooked, with condiments, will furnish not only more palatable food, but will furnish more nutriment than ten bushels of potatoes.

To Toughen Glass.—Put the glass vessel into a vessel of cold water, and gradually heat the water boiling hot; then allow it to cool gradually of itself, without taking out the glass. Goblets treated in this way may, when cold, be filled with boiling water without cracking. Lamp the glories of "the wonderful Christmas number." chimneys may also be made tougher by this pro-

Current Literature.

Rector of St. Paul's, Richmond, Va. Publishers, Woodhouse & Parham, Richmond. Price, $1.50. a man of eminent gifts in Divinity. Indeed, he is one of the most honored sons of the Church in Virginia. such windows with shutters or heavy curtains The selected sermons in this volume(published at the earnest request and by the kindness of a few members of Dr. Minnegerode's congregation) were all, number of good things, supposedly, written in the regular course of parish work and for delivery in the congregation. If this singular construction and style for such a purpose.

> There is an unfortunate propensity on the part of many of our public speakers (preachers especially: lawyers seldom ever in this way), to substitute for common, natural and apt expressions, those which have no other recommendation than that they are edited by Canon Garbett, with contributions from unusual, and are not certain to be plain to every one twelve Bishops and Clergy of the Church of England: alike. The subject matter may be never so simple, the style must be ornate. In this connection, we are chapters on the life of St. John Baptist, by the Rt. reminded that Charles Lamb somewhere says, "As well write 'marine pavilion' upon an oyster shell." Some of these sermous are adorned with word-paintings of ancient cities and their times, and are pro lific in allusions to old heathen philosophers and sages, but to what exact and pertinent use or end, is not always apparent. What acquaintance with the tioned. It is a Church periodical that deserves, and claims of modern science can the author have, when he states—as on page 286—that "all science confirms are found farther back than four thousand five hundred years ago?" Is the following, intended as a neat and loving hit at the whole Broad School of attracted attention. The Book Notices and Editor's nold (but perhaps one would "hardly call [an] Arnold a Christian"), when, on page 292, our author benignly relates his view of these thinkers, by saying: "Buddhism, the pet of modern sentimentalism and Broad Churchism (at best, and with all its enlarged liberty of man as man, the most complete pessimism as it seems to me), becomes the 'still-life in an uuconscious Nirwana!'''

Aside from a few blemishes, as we regard them, on an otherwise forcible style, these sermons merit a hearty commendation, and enlist our sympathy with their earnestness and power. To be sure, the general style is rather too florid, for our taste, but, if there positively must not be any floral decorations in their chancels, why, then, we suppose Virginia Churchmen, by a law of compensation, may be al-An excellent and well-tried recipe for keeping boys and girls out of mischief in the long winter howers are also nagen to their their flowers are also nagen to their howers are also nagen to the is a fervid and devoted Evangelical pastor. His praise is in the churches as a preacher of Christ. Every sermon in the collection shows unmistakably the heart of a Minister of Jesus Christ who is all aglow with the love of the Redeemer of men.

Vick's Floral Guide for the spring of 1881 is undoubtedly the handsomest work of the kind ever published. It is a work of art, all through. The new cover is a charming design, and the portrait of the Publisher and great Seedsman, James Vick, Roches or coating inside of her teakettle, caused by ter, N. Y., shows him to be just what we had fancied, using hard water. Throw in a handful of sal a genial, large-hearted, intellectual, practical man, soda and let it boil well. This is a sure remedy. L. L. G. features that means business.

HISTORY OF ANCIENT, EARLY CHRISTIAN, AND MEDIAEVAL PAINTING. From the German of the late Dr. Alfred Woltmann, Professor at the Imperial University of Strasburg, and Dr. Karl Wormann, Professor at the Royal Academy of Dusseldorf. Edited by Sidney Colvin, M. A., Slade Professor of Art in the University of Cambridge. With illustrations. Vol. I. Large 8vo. pp. 505. New York, Dodd, Mead & Co.; Chicago, Jansen, McClurg & Co. Price $7.50 Clurg & Co. Price $7.50

No better holiday gift for parlor or library, eould be found. we regret that this volume has come too skirts reach nearly to the floor, as the infant is late for notice before holidays, but it is never too late to buy such books. Aside from the value of the contents, it is a beautiful book. It is the most complete and trustworthy history of painting yet written, up to the final period of Mediæval painting. The great age of Renaissance will be the subject of another volume to be issued in a few months. The untimely death of Dr. Woltmann, last spring, has prevented the completion of the work by his own hand, but it will be ably accomplished by his colleague, Dr. Woer

The history begins with the most ancient Egyptian remains. It is not a mere catalogue of works, and names, and dates, but a philosophical treatise, a work ment of women. To expose the delicate chest and arms of a young child, in our cold, changepoetry, are combined to enrich its pages. The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely drawn. The greatly to lessen the chances of life. And should chapters on Painting in Ancient Greece and Rome, life be spared, there will be sleepless nights and seem to have gathered all that is known of that anxious days for the mother, as well as great branch of art in classical times, including vasc-suffering for the child." painting, engraved bronzes, mozaics, miniatures, and mural painting. The chapters on Early Chris-How to Air Apartments.—It is the general tian Painting will be found of especial interest by the practice to open only the lower part of the win- ecclesiastic; and those on Medieval Painting, the dows of a room in ventilating it, whereas if the larger portion of the volume, are principally occu-upper part were also opened, the object would pied with Christian art. The descriptions given of be more speedily effected. The air in an apart- notable paintings and frescoes are exceedingly interesting and valuable. The work is faithfully and accurately done, the criticisms are just and discrimlighter, and as the outer air rushes in, the warm-inating, and the insight into the principles and moer and lighter air is forced upward, and finding no outlet, remains in the room. If a candle be book would be a good art-education.

For a translation, the diction is satisfactory, but we must regret that it was not originally written in our good mother English. It loses its freshness and current of warm air from the room is generally nowever carefully this may be done. This volume, rushing up the flue of the chimney, if the flue be open, even though there should be no fire in on the History of Painting, and should be in every well furnished house.

A GRAMMAR OF THEOLOGY. Being a Manual of Instruction in Churchmanship, for Adults and the More Intelligent Youths; to be used either before or after their Confirmation. By the Rev. F. C. Ewer, S. T. D. New York, Pott, Young & Co., 5 Cooper Union, Fourth Avenue. 1880. Price, 25cts.

This is a text-book for instruction, of 200 pages, and so completely covers the ground, in the way of foundation-laying, that a thorough mastery of its contents would make anyone a good theologian. At the beginning, there is a very useful analysis of the subject treated of; and, at the close, questions on the whole manual. We do not know when we have seen, in such small compass, so much information upon all the great principles of Christian Faith and Practice.

GOLDEN DAYS, an Illustrated Paper for Boys and Girls. James Elverson, Publisher, Eighth and Lo-cust Sts., Philadelphia. $3 per year.

Among the contents are several capital things which were crowded out of December. "Bright Eyes," the young Indian girl, makes her first contribution to literature in a charming story of Indian child-life. There is an account of "The Children's Fan Brigade," another of the novel entertainments for children's festivals which have been suggested in the pages of St. Nicholas; "Every Boy His Own Ice-Boat," describing a splendid new sport for all skaters; the first The author of these sermons has long been consideffect is very much like letting heaven into one s ered one of the foremost preachers of the South, and Artists," which are to be one of the special features of St. Nicholas during the coming year; one of Frank R. Stockton's funniest fairy stories, a poem by H. H. Boyesen, pictures grave and gay, continuations of the serials, etc., etc. The issue rivals the Christmas

> Characteristics of the Church, is the title of a book by the Rev. Alexander Marks, of Natchez, Miss. It is not controversial, but expository; giving explanations and reasons in a way that is hearty and fresh. It is to be published, at once, by Thomas Whittaker. The same publisher has also in press, "Morning, Noon, and Night," a pocket book of private prayers, "More than a Prophet," a volume of expository Rev. Dr. Penick, Bishop of Cape Palmas; and a volume of sermons, by Bishop Littlejohn, delivered before the University of Cambridge.

The Church Monthly Magazine, in the pressure of our editorial work, has gone for a long time unmenwe trust, receives, a liberal support from our people. With the December number it begins its second volume. The Rev. Dr. Samuel Cox has an able and timely paper on the Christian Sunday. Evenings with my Parishioners is a series that has deservedly thought in the Church, over the head of Edwin Ar- Portfolio are always interesting. Besides the original articles, there are choice selections from current literature. The publication office is 20 Vesey St.

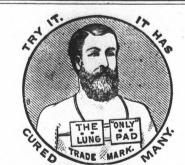

> Gen. Grant is writing an article for the February number of the North American Review, advocating the Nicaragua Canal Scheme. The same number of the Review will contain a contribution by Judge Tourgee, author of "The Fool's Errand," entitled "Aaron's Rod in Politics," and one by Oliver Wendell Holmes, on "The Pulpit and the Pew."

> Harper's Young People should be a weekly visitor in every household. It is beautifully illustrated, and full of such stories and information as we should wish our children to read. Harper & Brothers, Franklin Square, New York; $1.50 a year.

> The Young Scientist, a practical Journal of Home Arts, 14 Day St., New York, is an excellent periodical for youths. Its instructions in mechanical and artistic work are illustrated with drawings and diagrams. Price, fifty cents a year.

Kenosha Water Cure, Kenosha, Wis., a quiet, home-like resort for Invalids. Chronic Diseases, Nervous Diseases of women. For Circulars, address N. A. Pennoyer, M. D., or E. Pennoyer, Proprietor. References: The Bishop of Minnesota, the Sisters of St. Mary, Kemper Hall, Kenosha.

"Champlin's Liquid Pearl" adds the tints of the lily, and the blush of the rose to the plainest face. Geo. W. Harper, of Strait Creek, Va., says he has been afflicted with nervous debility for ten years, and that Day's Kidney Pad has entirely cured him.

Cures by ABSORPTION (Nature's way)

LUNG DISEASES, THROAT DISEASES, BREATHING TROUBLES.

It Drives Into the system curative agents and Draws From the diseased parts the poisons that cause death.
Thousands Testify to its Virtues.

You Can be Relieved and Cured.

It cures where all else fails. A revelation and revolution in Medicine. Absorption or direct application, as opposed to unsatisfactory internal medicines. Send for our Treatise on Kidney troubles, Sold by Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of sent free. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail, on receipt of price, $2.00, by Don't despair until you have tried this Sensible, Easily Applied and Radically Effectual Remedy. Sold by Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of Price, $2.00, by

The 'Only" Lung Pad Co., Send for Testimonials and our book, "Three Milfor it and take no other.

Detroit, Mich.

This is the Original and Genuine Kidney Pad. Ask for it and take no other.

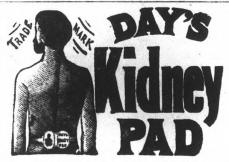

And all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs by wearing the Improved Excelsion Kidney Pad. It is a MARVEL of HEALING and RELIEF, Simple, Sensible, Direct, Painless, Powerful.

The "Only" Lung Pad Co.,

REWARD ing, Blind, Bleeding, Blind, Bleeding, Blind, Bleeding, Blind, Bleeding, Ulcerated or Protruding Piles that DeBing's Pile Remedy fails to cure. It allays the itching, absorbs the tumors, gives immediate relief. Prepared by J. P. Miller, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa. CAUTION.—None genuine unless wrapper on bottle contains his signature and a Pile of Stones.

All druggists and country stores have it or will get it for you

A DISCOVERY BY ACCIDENT,

which supplies a want men of eminent ability have devoted years of study and experiment to find—a specific for diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urinary Organs and Nervous System—and from the time of its discovery has rapidly increased in favor, gaining the approval and confidence of medical men and those who have used it; it has become a favorite with all classes, and wherever introduced has superseded all other treatments. In short, such is its intrinsic merit and superiority, that it is now the only recognized reliable remedy.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS
are the most prevalent, dangerous and fatal affections that afflict mankind, and so varied and insidicus in their character, that persons often suffer for a long time before knowing what alls them. The most part, than we should choose for our own children, they are far above the trashy stories of the dime novel and many papers that are furnished to the young.

The January issue of St. Nicholas, "the New Year's number," was published on Tuesday, December

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS
are the most prevalent, dangerous and fatal affections that afflict mankind, and so varied and insidicus in their character, that persons often suffer for a long time before knowing what alls them. The most characteristic symptoms are gradual wasting away of the whole body; pain in the back, side or loins; a weak, feeble, exhausted feeling; loss of appetite and dread ef exercise; scanty and painful discharge of variously colored urine; inability to retain our expel. the urine; minute shreds or casts in the urine; and, when the disease is of long duration, there is much emaciation and general nervous prostration.

THE ONLY CURE.

We say positively and without fear of contradiction that Day's Kidney Pad is the first and only infallible cure for every form of Kidney disease. It is the best remedy yet discovered for this complaint, and more effectual in its operation than any other treatment. By using faithfully and persistently no case will be found so inveterate as not to yield to its powerful remedial virtues.

emedial virtues IS STRONGLY ENDORSED.

We have the most unequivocal testimony to its curative powers from many persons of high character, intelligence and responsibility. Our book, "How a Life was Saved," giving the history of this new discovery, and a large record of the most remarkable cures, sent free. Write for it.

DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., Toledo, O. CAUTION, Owing to the many worthless Kidney Pads now seeking a sale on our reputation, we deem it due the afflicted to warn them. Ask for DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, and take no other, and you will not be deceived.

Wiswall & Co.,

86 State St., Chicago. RETAIL DEALERS IN

Common

Sense

Shoes.

These goods have Wide Soles—Low Heels; yet are se well adapted to the natural shape of the foot as to look neat and tidy. They will keep your feet free from Cerns, and greatly promote your comfort.

We carry a full line of Fashionable Boots and Slippers.

Orders by mail carefully attended to, Wholesale and Retail. Send for price Wholesale and Retail. Send for price-list. Goods sent C. O. D. anywhere. Wigs made to order and warranted. "Bernhardt Waves."

E. BURNHAM,

STATE ST.

is, we all want it. They suit all sizes, from the two-year-old baby to the champion member of the Fat Men's Club."

Every chair made upon honor and Warranted Perfect. Prices range from 75 cts to $9 each.

Special discount to Clergymen and Hotels. Send for Catalogue. Manufactured by Catalogue. Manufactured by F. A. SINCLAIR. Mottville. N. Y.

CATARRH CONSUMPTION Cured at home by LOF

Chas. N. Hammond,

(Formerly of Bas-set & Hammond,) Manufacturer of Hats, Caps, Furs, GLOVES, ROBES, ETC. Children's and No. 74 State St. CHICAG O

Littell's Living Age. Jan. 1, 1881, The Living Age enters upon its 148th Volume, admittedly unrivalled and continuously successul. A weekly magazine, it gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the all branches of Literature, Science, Politics and Art. "In no other form can so much thoroughly good reading be ot for so little money: in no other form can so much instruc-on and entertainment be got in so small a space."—Philadelphia Times.

ABLEST LIVING WRITERS

"There is no other publication like it. It is known and read by all who desire to keep abreast with the cultivated thought of the English-speaking world."—Episcopal Register, Philadelphia.

"It reproduces so fully the choicest articles from the foreign magazines, that one who takes it does not feel the need of anything else in the way of foreign periodical literature."—The Advance, Chicago.

"Its frequent issue and ample space enable it to give all that the very ablest of living writers furnish to periodical literature on science, history, biography, philosophy, poetry, theology, politics and enticism, and to add to this the full compinment of the best that there is in fiction."—The Interior, Chicago.

"Gives the best of all at the price of one."—New York Independent.

pendent.
"Teems with the choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.

"It is, by all odds, the best eclectic published."—Southern Churchman.

"It enables the reader, at trifling expense, considering the quantity and quality of the reading furnished, to keep pace with the best thought and literary work of our time."—Christian Union, New York. Union, New York.

"One cannot read everything. . . . No man will be behind the literature of the times who reads 'The LIVING ACE."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

"We know of no investment of eight dollars, in the world of literature, that will yield equal returns."—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

Philadelphia.

"It has no rival"—New York Evening Post.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY at $8.00 a year, free of postage; or for $10.50 The Living Ace and any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, postpaid; or, for $9.50 The Living Ace and the $1. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal, or Lippincott's Monthly. Now is the time to subscribe, beginning with the New Year. LITTELL & CO., Boston.

$100 A MONTH We offer paying employment to an intelligent man or woman in every AGENTS for our town. We also want AGENTS unique, superb, highly commended, immensely popular and fastsuperb, highly commended, immensely popular and fast-perfect book in the perfect book

W. G. CUMMINS. DENTIST. 70 STATE STREET, Room 1. CORNER RANDOLPH STREET, CHICAGO. Moderate and consistent Prices.

Dr. PEIRO,
Devotes, as for years past, special attention to the Homoeopathic treatment of

HEAD and THROAT.

Offices: 83 Madison St., (opp. McVicker's Theatre.) Hours: 9 to 4.

GLAD TIDINGS TO ALL. Gifts of gold or silver do not compare with our celebrated Automatic Fire-lighting Clocks. Send your address on a postal, and we will send our illustrated circular, describing the most wonderful clock in the world. Address Patent Clock Works, Terre Haute, Ind. Mention this paper. "I indorse all the inventor claims."—S. F. DUNHAM. Terre Haute, Ind.

Free Services.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

The Church accommodation provided by the different religious bodies in the City of New York, is only sufficient for about one-fourth of the population; and yet, in some regions a number of the churches are not half filled! Five hundred thousand mechanics live in tenement houses; and many do not attend any place of worship, because they cannot pay pew-rent in addition to house-rent. Churches having attractive Services are located principally in fashionable streets and avenues; and, while the working classes are unable to pay the high pewthe sexton a long time in the vestibule. Neither are they willing to attend ordinary "Missionchapels," because the Services would not interest them; and they shrink from associating with those whom they consider "Mission-chapel paupers." Unable to reach the fashion of fashionable churches, and unwilling to mingle at the adjacent Mission-chapel, with the recipients festivals, most of them for children, at which of grocery, soup and coal tickets, and cast-off they received the usual gifts of toys and confecclothing, a large number of respectable me- tionary. chanics gradually lose all veneration for the Lord's Day, and learn to desecrate it.

In many places in New York, shops are open on Sundays; business transacted during the holding golden-clasped prayer-books, and non-God is defied, and His holy Name blasphemed. While the former chant:

"We praise thee O God! We acknowledge Thee to be the Lord." And the latter sing:

> "Come ye who love the Lord, And let your joys be known!

of vice and ignorance!

crowded.

parish of St. George, in their Mission-chapel, cannot recompense thee." their capacious church in Stuyvesant Square, On New Year's Day, the Mission Church of the has been opened on Sunday evenings, for Free Crucifixion had its holiday festival. Its congre-Services, which are under the special charge of gation is composed mostly of colored people, and the assistant minister, the Rev. Newton Perkins. | the majority of them are very poor. The Church Though the Services are specially for the work- has for years been doing a very important work | candy and popcorn for all the children. Eighing classes, they are not offered what is inferior, in elevating the poor and degraded; helping them | teen Rector's primes were awarded for constant but, on the contrary, the best.

W. Shackleford, E. T. Cooper, of Astoria, A. before the hour appointed, this church was Mackay-Smith, and Doctors Potter, Paddock, nearly filled with Sunday-School children, who and other men of prominence, have consented were complete. A portion of the Morning Ser- twenty half Eagles ($100), and an elegant piece to preach on successive Sunday evenings; and vice was read, then the rector (Rev. H. L. of lace, for the wife of the Rector, the Rev. M. the clergy, wardens, and vestrymen of the parish | Phillips) wished them all "a happy New Year," | A. Johnson, D.D. This handsome gift was from in the inauguration of the Services.

the late session.

The Rev. Knox-Little closed his series of on Friday, December 17th. While the wheels doubtless, is the last holiday festival this year. of commerce vibrated as usual without, within the building solemnity reigned; and to see this "down town" church filled with prominent citi- masquerade in the streets, in all sorts of fantaszens, merchants and business-men, at the busy hour of noon, was an unusual and impressive horns, and other musical (?) instruments, and preached, and confirmed one person. On Sunhour of noon, was an unusual and impressive sight. The service was specially for men, and consisted of a hymn, and two Collects before and after the sermon. Having read for his text, the unwervery headcorrely described in the property of St. Matthew. xxiii:9; and set forth its import, them were very handsomely dressed. One com- Unbelief." On Monday, the 20th, he visited St. the preacher directed special attention to the pany, numbering about seventy-five, had officers John's, in Clinton County, preached, and condangers that beset our manhood, through the misuse of our influence; which he defined as natural flowers. After them, came Indians in the Rector, the Rev. Dr. Cross. On the next the power of life passing from soul to soul, for buffalo-robes, and white bear skin robes. Then day, he visited Ovid, in the same County, and good or for evil; and more important than time, or talents, or wealth, because we cannot control night, the masqueraders congregated at the Statethe results of an act after it is done.

Yielding to special temptations that beset the youthful and the aged, was set forth as the most awful perversion of the great gift of influence; and the fearful results, in time and in eternity, were thrillingly depicted. Earnest were the preacher's warnings, and heart-touching his appeals; and, from many, the prayer doubtless ascended: "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me."

This judicious but faithful treatment of a most important subject cannot fail to be productive of good. After the closing Collects, and erally meagre. The Bishop preached at Grace the Benediction, as the men passed out through the central entrance, the women, in order to hear his special address to them, entered through the side door-ways, and soon filled the church. In the evening, the Rev. Knox-Little preached in in this parish, from forty to fifty Christmas dinthe church of the Transfiguration; and after a service at Hoboken, on Saturday, sailed for England. He is rector of a parish church in Manchester; and, when he officiates at special Serrents, they are not willing to present themselves vices in the Cathedral there, the edifice is and families, fearing they may again be left by crowded. Some disapprove of his style of preaching; but, wherever he preaches, crowds flock to hear him.

Holiday Week in Philadelphia. Correspondence of the Living Church.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.

During Holiday Week, there were several

Thursday was a memorable day at the Almshouse. Mr. Mackie, a Church missionary, has service there regularly, and every year he collects money, from charitable people, for the purpose hours of worship; and while Churchmen pray, of giving a Christmas dinner to several hundred of the most wretched inmates of the institution. churchmen sing, using gilt-edged hymn books, The dinner is served by ladies and gentlemen, who are interested in this good work. Long before the dinner hour, there is a lively scene in the kitchen and dining room. Nearly five hundred plates are laid, and at each one there is placed a bountiful supply of bread, pie, boiled ham, and cranberry sauce. In this dinner there is only one course. All other things being ready, Within sound of their voices, iniquity stalks the turkeys are brought in; then every one who abroad; and, in some regions, pickpockets steal, can carve is pressed into service. When the swearers blaspheme, and drunkards stagger. turkey is distributed, the guests march in and On the Lord's Day, theatres, concert halls, and take their places. They are evidently five hunsaloons are open, and crowded with patrons; dred as wretched people as could be found in the while the churches that are open are not half whole city. There are the blind, the lame, and filled. Parents are benumbed by indifference to the very aged. Every kind of misery is reprewhatever is sacred; they live a mere animal ex- sented. The scene is literally indescribable, and istence; and, regardless of their responsibilities, it haunts a sympathetic person for weeks. In allow their children to go down into the depths all such assemblies, there is a small proportion of persons who are evidently quite superior to In order to meet the spiritual wants of the in- the others, and who must feel the cruelty of their dustrious classes, some of our wealthy churches position very keenly. One shivering old woman, are gladly sharing their religious privileges with to whom the writer spoke a few kind words, those on whom wealth has not smiled. As the asked in the most beseeching way, "Haven't you churches in which they worship can accommo- come to take me away from here?" It was a date no more, instead of bidding mechanics to pleasure to see the relish with which the dinner worship God in dingy chapels, where the praise was eaten; but a great drawback to the enjoyis discordant, and the preaching induces "nod- ment was the thought that it would be a year beding," they have provided for them comfortable fore most of the company would have another chapels and attractive Services. As examples, good dinner. Before the assembly dispersed, a we refer to the buildings and Services provided few hymns were sung. Many of the guests by St. Mark's Church, Calvary Church, Grace joined in singing the most familiar of them. Church, Trinity Church down town, the Church Then Rev. Samuel Durborow, of the City Misof the Holy Trinity up town, and others. The sion, and Mr. Mackie addressed a few words of ministers being "live" men and the Services at- heartfelt sympathy and encouragement to the tractive, there are in each a goodly number of company; and the strange banquet was over. The worshippers, and the Sunday schools are scriptural injunction was heeded, "when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the In addition to the Services provided by the lame, the blind, and thou shalt be blest; for they

to be self supporting, and self respecting. The are much encouraged by the interest manifested and told them that one way to get it was to the ladies of the parish, and was accompanied make other people happy. He then invited Rev. by a note, which would make any clergyman Service," held on Sunday evenings, is well at- has always taken a great interest in its prosperity, Christmas tree, but also with Chinese lanterns. tended. The regular Church Services for week and has delivered the holiday address for twenty | There was fine music, and the addresses by Dr. The special evangelistic Services are held in the thropic enterprises of the city. The remarks Bull, also, was well received. At Pleasant Lake, is customary for the young men of this city to Mary. tic costumes. They provide themselves with tin vice at Vassar, a village in Tuscola County, dressed in spangled suits, and their hats made of firmed a class of thirteen persons, presented by Chinamen and Esquimaux. A little before mid- had a business conference with the vestry of the House, awaiting the departure of the old year.

At the first stroke of twelve, pistols were fired, whistles blown, and bells rung, till the crowd were tired of noise. In the meanwhile, watchmeetings were in progress in various parts of the city. They were once left to the Methodists; but now, they are becoming common among several denominations. There, amid song and prayer, the Old Year took its departure, and the Michigan Church News.

From our Detroit Correspondent. The Detroit Churches were mostly well filled on Christmas Day. The decorations are gen-Church, where the choir was accompanied by a small orchestra. At St. John's, Dr. Worthington was too sick with a severe cold to preach, though he said the Prayers. On Christmas Eve, ners, of turkeys, roast beef, and other appropriate viands, were distributed amongst the poor The popular young rector of Emmanuel Church enjoyed a surprise on Christmas Eve, in the form of a visit from a party of thirty-odd parishioners, carrying gifts and good wishes. He has been keeping bachelor's hall in the rectory, but on the preceding evening his parents came to keep house for him. Besides a large supply of provisions, table-silver, and other articles of household use, there was a handsome set of sacred vessels for Private Communion. St. Peter's Church distributed turkeys to a number of families, and received from Mr. Maybury's Bible class, the gift of two additional stained glass windows. St. Mary's Chapel of St. John's Church, received a beautiful carved ash pulpit, from two carpenters connected with the Mission; it represented the steady work of their evenings for several weeks, and is valued at $100. The Sunday school children were well treated. St. Paul's had a Christmas tree and gifts for all. St. John's had a grand Union Service of its Sunday schools, on the afternoon of the Sunday after Christmas. Some twelve hundred children were present. There were addresses by the Bishop, the Rev. Dr. Harris, and the Rev. Messrs. Frisbie and Roberts. Prizes were awarded to specially deserving scholars of the various classes. Two banner classes were named by the Rector, on the ground of regular attendance and punctuality, to retain the custody of the new banners for one year. The Sunday school Of-Sunday schools of this parish had entertainments at various places, with cake, candies, ice cream, and other refreshments for the children. Grace Church Sunday school had prizes for Christmas cards for all; and an address from the trained choir. Spectators said they had never Christmas cards. St. Peter's had a Christmas tree with a large illuminated star; and, for every their parents and friends, and took their seats. corn, and a Christmas card. In this Sunday tree in all its glory, stood before them. "Never," school, the Christmas tree always has gifts from the children to the officers and teachers. Mr. costly easy-chair. St. Mark's had candy and Christmas cards for the children.

Feast of the Circumcision of Christ was not entirely displaced by secular festivity, for in two or three of the twelve churches, the Holy Eucharist (so carefully had all been planned), without the was celebrated, in memory of the Holy Child Jesus. The clergy received calls at their own ferent classes came forward, attended, each by homes, excepting the assistant clergy of St. its teacher. Pleasure and satisfaction rested on John's, who received with Dr. Worthington, at every face. These munificent gifts and the tree, St. John's Rectory. At the Episcopal Residence, the Bishop received some two hundred calls, utilizing the intervals, at his desk, by writing a dozen letters to urgent correspondents.

At Jackson, on Christmas Eve, there was At Jackson, on Christmas Eve, there was a in regard to her wishes, that she preferred a Christmas tree, at St. Paul's Church, with gifts, Prayer Book to anything else. At the last pracattendance. These consisted of the Rector's The clergymen who have already officiated are Christmas festival is an important occasion to autograph in elegant autograph albums. Eight these people, who have so few pleasures. Long Superintendent's prizes, being Prang's first was the grand-daughter of the Rev. Dr. Reed, of New York In this admirably conducted the Reverends Knox-Little, Arthur Brooks, John these people, who have so few pleasures. Long Superintendent's prizes, being Prang's first prize Christmas cards, were awarded by General prize Christmas cards, were awarded by General school, a striking feature is, that the children Withington to deserving scholars. Besides other always, after their short recitations, attend Evenand Cotton Smith. Doctors Dix, and Schenck, waited with apparent patience till all preparations gifts, there was a beautiful purse containing ing Prayer in the church proper, and thus be-At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Forty- Joseph R. Moore to address the school. This proud. Good Samaritan Chapel was illuminated second street and Madison avenue, the "People's clergyman was once rector of the church, and for its Sunday school festival, not only with the days are held in the chapel in which the House years. He was followed by Mr. Samuel P. God- Johnson and General Withington are praised in of Bishops met during the General Convention. win, who is identified with a great many philan- the local press. A recitation from Miss May capacious basement of the church, in which the were all adapted to the understanding of children, where a Mission has been planted and fostered delegates of the Convention were substantially and were evidently much enjoyed. At the con- by Dr. Johnson, there was a grand celebration entertained by the parish, at noon-day, during clusion of the Service, the Christmas tree was on Sunday evening. Besides the organ, there lighted, and the gifts distributed. After the were two violins and two brass pieces, to sup-On Sunday evenings, during Advent, the children were served, those persons who were port the choir; the musical director of the oc-Rector preached on Christ's glorious Epiphany; connected with the church, or whose children casion being Mrs. John Shearer. The Sunday Future Reward and Punishment; The Times of attended Sunday School, received substantial school superintendent is Mr. Charles Westren. Restitution, and the Present condition of the gifts of bread, tea, and meat. Several ladies The Christmas tree contained gifts for all. Dr. and gentlemen who are interested in the prosper- Johnson receiving $25, and an embroidered silk ity of this church were present, and assisted in handkerchief. A little foundling left with a noon-day Advent sermons, in Trinity Church, decorating the tree and distributing gifts. This, Church family a few evenings before, was lionized to a moderate extent; and at Dr. Johnson's On Christmas Eve and on New Year's Eve, it suggestion, in honor of the season, was named

> On December 13th, Bishop Harris held a Serparish recently organized in that place. In the the Presbyterian house of worship at Corunna, and confirmed a class of eight, presented by the same clergyman. At both Owosso and Corunna, the work is flourishing. At the latter point, the services of a layman, Mr. George D. Wright, as

Sunday school superintendent and lay-reader, have been of great value, and a church is soon to be erected. The church people of Owosso are arranging to build a rectory.

The Rev. Joseph A. Nock has been called from the rectorship of St. Stephen's Church, Brooklyn, L. I., to the parish at Alpena. and will assume charge about the middle of this

On Sunday, December 26th, at St. John's Church, Detroit, Bishop Harris ordained to the limited diaconate Mr. G. Mott Williams. The candidate was presented by his Rector, the Rev. Dr. Worthington. The sermon was preached by the Bishop of Vermont, on the text "We are ambassadors for Christ." Mr. Williams is a young lawyer of considerable private fortune; and, while not entirely relinquishing secular pursuits, he proposes to devote a considerable part of each day to assisting his over-worked rector, as a deacon in St. John's parish. He preached his first sermon on the evening of the same day, at St. John's Chapel. The zeal, practical wisdom, and diligence which have characterized his work as a layman, promise much for his work in the ordained ministry.

St. Stephen's, New York. Correspondence of the Living Church.

The Sunday School festival in old St. Stephen's, in W. Forty-Sixth street, near Fifth avenue, took place on the night of Holy Innocents, and was one of unusual success. The children assembled in the Sunday school room, and then marched up into the church, singing as a processional, "Hark! the herald angels sing." The many forest trees, with wreaths and festoons, had a happy effect. The reredos had put on its Christmas adorning of crimson and gold, and the marble altar Cross (the only one of its kind in this city, or elsewhere), rising from its triple garden of green and scarlet, was bordered with creeping vine, and holly berries. The flofering for the day was nearly $800. The three ral letters, white, on a red ground, conspicuous on either side of the chancel recess, read-"Emmanuel God with us." The Services were very short and appropriate, intersperced with well selected carols, which were rendered very some; two Christmas trees, with candy, and sweetly, and with almost the precision of a Bishop. Mariners' and St. Stephen's Sunday heard children sing as well before; and asked schools had each a Christmas tree, candy and who trained them. The children returned to the school room in regular order, accompanied by child, a gift, a cornucopia of candy, a bag of pop- Then the doors unfolded, and the Christmas said they, "was such a beautiful tree seen before." It looked like a vision of fairy land. Maybury's Bible class gave him an elegant and The gifts which had been selected with the greatest care, consisted of valuable books, expensive games, useful articles, and confectionary On the first day of the new year the Christian in handsome pictured boxes. These were arranged on tables convenient to the Rector; who, with the help of his assistant, distributed them slightest mistake, hesitation or delay, as the difwere all kindly provided by one individual, who tried to remain unknown. One incident there was of sad interest. Among the presents was a handsomely bound Prayer Book, intended for a little girl of unusual personal beauty and loveli ness of character. She had said when consulted tising of the carols, she was well and happy, and her sweet voice blended with the others. On Christmas Day, just after her brother returned from the reception of the Blessed Sacrament, ome familiar with her beautiful liturgy, and with the lessons read from the Bible. A distinguished Government officer said it was the best conducted Sunday school he had ever seen.

RIDGWAY, GALLATIN CO., ILL., January 4th, 1881.

January 4th, 1881.

J. C. Cushman Esq.,
205 Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—I give you my testimony of the healing curative powers of the Electro Magnetic Pad in my case. I am 79 years of age, and have been, for the last two years, suffering with swimming in my head and pain in my right breast, running through to shoulder-blade, with constipation of the bowels and sick stomach, and severe chills, with very high fever after each chill. I have been treated by the best physicians of our country, with only temporary resick stomach, and severe chills, with very high fever after each chill. I have been treated by the best physicians of our country, with only temporary relief, until I was induced by your agent, Dr. Geo. C. Smith, to try the Electro Magnetic Pad, and I am happy to state that I have received more permanent relief from the Pad than from all other medicine I have taken before. I have worn the Pad for six weeks, and have not had a chill since I put it on, and the constipated state of my bowels is entirely cured; have no sick stomach, and have a good appetite, my food digesting and agreeing with me, and the swimming in my head has entirely left me. I applied one of your Magnetic Plasters to right shoulder-blade, and all pain is removed from that region. I have some pain yet in right breast; but nothing in comparison to what it was prior to putting on the Pad. I would recommend your Pad to all that are suffering with general debility or female weaknesses, feeling satisfied that the Pad will give relief. Before wearing the Pad I could not rest and sleep comfortably. I give this to your agent here, Dr. Geo. C. Smith, hoping it may prove the means of inducing others who are suffering to procure an Electro Magnetic Pad, and thereby get relieved of all their pains and sufferings.

Suitz CITY, IND.

SUITZ CITY, IND., Jan. 7th, 1881.

Respectfully, ANNA D. HUNT.

BURLINGTON, N. J., Dec. 30, 1880.

C. Cushman. J. C. Cushman.

Dear Sir.:—Inclosed please find order fer $2.25, for which please send me one Pad and one Plaster. The friend for which I purchased the $3.00 Pad is improving. The one I were benefited me much, and also the one my daughter put on has done her much good, Yours truly,

MRS. CATHARINE MITCHELL.

JANUARY 6TH, 1661.

Blectro Magnetic Co.,
DEAR SIRS:—There has been an Agent here selling your Magnetic Pad, and they seem to think a great deal of them and would like more of them but the Agent has not been around in some time, therefore I thought I would write to you for terms to Canvassers. Please send by return mail.
Yours Truly
THADDEUS WARD,
Avocas, Steuben Co., N. Y.

FIFTY YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC

Upon their excellence alone have attained an UNPURCHASED PRE-EMINENCE Which establishes them as unequaled in TONE, WORKMANSHIP & WAREROOMS: 112 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK. 204 & 206 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

J. & R. LAMB, 59 CARMINE St., N.Y.

CHURCH FURNISHINGS Polished Brass Altar Vases. ALTAR COVERS, DESKS, Etc.

BREAD CUTTERS OF OAK. Special Heavy Linen for Linen Cloths

Send for Hand Book. Free by Mail.

McCULLY & MILES.

MANUFACTURERS OF

STAINED, ENAMELED, EMBOSSED, CUT AND COLORED.

GLASS.

Stained

Glass.

For Churches. Manufactured by Geo. A. Mil. 217 East Washington Street.

CHICAGO.

Mitchell,

Vance & Co.

836 6 838 Broadway, N. Y. Designers and Manufacturers a Ecclesiastical

Gas Fixtures & Metal Work. Clocks and Bronzes, Metal and Percelain Lamps, and Artistic Gas Fixtures for TREAT & FOLTZ.

+ARCHITECTS.+

80 DEARBORNST. CHICAGO.

ALWIN RašaoPamaran 243 WARASH AUG CHICAGO.

GIOVANNI CARETTI,

resco-Decorative Painter,

Churches, Halls, and Private Residences decorated in the best style. Estimates and Designs of every description furnished upon application.

PAINTING CHINA

The most complete line of Enamel Colors, and a ther requisite materials for the above arts, as well as Theo resden Porcelain plates, etc, and Mineral Decalcomands as be found at The Western Decorating Works.

FIRING & GILDING

A. H. ABBOTT & CO

147 State Street, Chicago,

IMPORTERS OF

Painting and Drawing

Materials

EVERY DESCRIPTION.

CLINTON H. MENEELY BELL CO. MENEELY & KIMBERLY. BELL FOUNDERS, TROY, N.Y.

ention given to CHURCH RELIGIOUS sent free to parties needing bells.

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE

MENEELY BELL FOUNDERY SETABLISHED 1826. Bells for all purposes. War MENEELY & CO., WEST TROY, N. Y.

E. R. P. SHURLEY & CO., WATCHMAKERS AND

EWELERS. Removed from 55 S. Clark St., to

No. 103 Randolph Street, Chicago. HOLIDAY GOODS VERY LOW.

Orange Groves and Winter Homes IN FLORIDA.

A safe and profitable investment. Orange Groves made for non-residents. Information and references on application. Zellwood, Orange Co., Fla.