Living Church.

A Weekly Record of its News, its Work, and its Thought.

Vol. III. No. 10.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1881.

WHOLE No. 116.

Pretty soon it will be Spring.

Written for the Living Church. Plodding through the wintry cold, Was Dame Margie, worn, and old: But the neighbors heard her sing, "Pretty soon it will be Spring."

Round her cottage, snow and sleet Wrapped a frigid winding-sheet: Still she sang, though shivering, Pretty soon it will be Spring.

Came the bitter breeze, and chill, But the brave old Dame could sing. "Pretty soon it will be Spring." Mid earth's biting cold, and frost, When our souls are tempest-tost, Let us look beyond, and sing, "Pretty soon it will be Spring."

F. BURGE SMITH

The Lakeside Letters. Written for the Living Church.

nificent city, the seat of empire, the home of art, gained decided hold on the affections of the of God. people. Nearly a century of freedom from persecution had given the Church a golden age of principles in her own experience. I remember prosperity, and "what is specially notable (says seeing, some years ago, a book from her pen, female members of the noble families were gen- John, which indicated a growing insight into the erally Christian, even while their fathers and mystery of the Incarnation, and a deeper apprebrothers, husbands and sons, still refused the ciation of the fullness of blessing there is in the new Faith." The interesting story of Fabiola Eucharistic Feast. Now, no longer was it a bare illustrates how women of the upper classes (now rite, a figure to represent an absent reality, a picas then), "limited by the conventions of society ture to preserve the memory of a dead Christ, within a narrower, more monotonous circle than but the means by which the Holy Ghost effects the life they lead, and to brood over the great Bride problems of life and death and mimortality; and Now that this lady has passed on from the to seek in religion some satisfaction for the Font to the Altar, her nature will open like a

at the Rome of fourteen hundred years ago has His beauty more fair than her heart has conto do with the remaining pages of my letter. ceived. More deeply than ever will she realize The nexus is, I confess, a little obscure; but that "the best of this world is its path to the here is the chain of thought which binds the sky;" and O how paltry will the pleasures and bare is the chain of thought which binds the sky;" and O how paltry will the pleasures and bare is constantly recurring, througha matured and respected lady of the Society of her place in the ranks of the Church, and finds Friends had entered the Church, and at once I fellowship with those pure souls who seek the pictured in my mind the congenial sympathy | Church's hidden life. as which would spring up between her and yourself should you ever meet. Then the memory leaped | They calmly move, nor hear the unmeasured mirth!' back to the ancient city where that other Fabiola She will not indeed be permitted the function of embraced the religion of the Nazarene in the very home of an intolerant mythology. Can you not discern how readily I passed on to the general thought of the debt which our religion owes to women of the cultured and wealthy ranks in society?

pation for their days."

But now let me write you, as thoughts may come to me, of this noble and excellent woman. Born and reared in the quietistic atmosphere that charicterizes the Society of Friends, she was a fine exponent of its formal, though unsacramental, type of piety; for Quakerism has its rigidity of form while it rejects those forms which our Lord rigidly enjoined. But underneath the conventional exterior of this lady's life, the "straitest of the sect" in one sense, there was a deep and passionate hunger for God, which could not be satisfied with the repressed and almost naturalistic type of religion which she professed. This half-conscious longing sent her forth, I suspect, on weary ways of search. It was perhaps the courage of a large nature, as well as the intense thirst of an unsatisfied heart, which enabled her to brave the anathema of narrow prejudice; but, with an Abrahamic faith, she "went out, not knowing whither she went." Her spiritual pathway first led her among the earnest Christians, who, in the Presbyterian and Methodist folds, seek a higher life. With her Bible in her hand, she learned new lessons from her new associations. The cold letter became instinct with fervent life. What had been to her vast deserts of unexplored truth, began to blossom as the rose, as she saw old truths in new lights, and in one of the noblest communities that ever new truths of which she had not dreamed. If she caught a fresh enthusiasm from her new affiliations, she also began to acquire by the devout use of the Holy Word new views as to the place. value, and force of the Sacramental element in the Christian system. With stern fidelity to her convictions, she applied for Holy Baptism, and received God's gift in the waters of regeneration, applied by a fellow worker in the cause of Christ.

The Sacramental grace, thus received, added to the ordinary grace which God had vouchsafed things "hard to find," the following item: "Bet- eral miscarriage of justice, and want of public busily engaged in the labor of organizing. That of Diocesan Institutions, and was accordingly to her before, evidently developed in her a yet ter music than that furnished by the choir of St security emerge, as dominant evils. Lima, the there is a substantial prospect of success is clear, laid aside as impracticable more irresistible longing after God. I associate Thomas' Church."

the ordinary gifts of the Spirit with the special graces of the initiatory Sacrament, not forgetful how (as St. Augustine taught) there is given, for Christ our Lord's sake, to every man, a primary force of divine influence that mingles with his reason, and predisposes him to advance from reason to faith. This was the view which Fenelon also took of the divine gifts in the natural man as prevenient and preparative for the supernatural gifts of grace; and why need I cite authorities further, seeing that this is one of the germ-truths, that the mercy of God has made the whole race salvabilis (capable of salvation), and by supernatural intervention by His Son, does actually make salvus (saved) that portion of the race which is willing to be saved?

The beautiful quietism of the Quaker, writing its holy calm upon the countenance, and pervading the whole life with a serenity and "recollection" worthy of the saintliest ascetic, has often seemed to me to be nature's prefiguration of that supernatural devotion, that "peace of God which passeth all understanding," of which they only My DEAR FABIOLA:-The splendid Roman can have experience who have penetrated very matron, whose name you bear, first saw the light far into the deeper mysteries of divine medita-City was still in the height of her glory. A mag- the soul at rest, the soul sunk into peace, the soul ceasing to will, the soul lost in God; beauthe metropolis of wealth! In palaces of imperial tiful in itself, intensely attractive to a peculiar frivolous, and extravagant aristocracy-who were intense subjectivity. Absorption in the Divine debasing their noble blood by luxury and dissi- Will must be complemented by the positive spirpation. The worship of the old gods was con- itual activity of the human will. Is there not a tinned and the devotees of social gayety con- vast difference between sleep and waking rest? doned their follies and sins by attendance at The dull owl dozes all day; the eagle rests while temple and basilica, with offerings of gold and he soars. Now, the Sacramental factor in religion flowers. But the new Faith of Him Who was puts the powers of the soul into action, while at crucified in the distant province of Syria, had the same time it transfigures them with the peace

This lady has evidently wrought out these Mr. Cutts in his Life of St. Jerome,) is, that the containing meditations on the sixth chapter of St. men, are left more open to feel the emptiness of the Bridegroom's perpetual presence with His vearning of their souls, and some worthy occu- flower, to all the wondrous light of the Sun of righteousness. She will find in the deep bosom You will wonder, dear friend, what this glance of the Holy Mysteries, visions of the King in public teacher, but she may in the quieter walks of private life inspire many a womanly heart with her own enthusiasm for Christ and His Mystical Body.

"In absent mood

You, dear Fabiola, who know the story of the fourth century, will remember how many fair dames and courtly maidens gave themselves up in Rome to lives of exceptional devotion, and with what immeasurable benefit to society and the Church. There is no reason why much of our Woman's Work" should not be done in this way, without depreciating other ways.

Past abuses would be a plea which might abolish pretty much everything. Filthy Monkhood was the abuse of that life which Holy Scripture so eulogizes-the life of those who "went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, afflicted, tormented, of whom the world was not worthy." It has been pertinently asked whether, in discouraging associated Christian work under specific rule, "we should not be crushing the most powerful instrument for the revival of religion in a careless, worldly state of the Church, and the most effectual agency for mission-work among the civilized paganisms of the modern world.

But how my pen runs on ! Pardon my presumption if I seem to be suggesting a path of duty to any one. I have no right even to harbor such a thought in reference to one whom I have never seen, and there would be as little reason as right in asking you to be a "Sister" when you are already wife and mother, -superior and queen adorned the Church-the Christian home. Fare-

INDIANA .- We learn from the Plymouth Democrat, that the Northern Convocation of Indiana is to be held in that city, on January 25th and two following days. The same paper bespeaks prosperous, the most hopeful, of any of those hospitality on the part of the leading citizens, for the numerous distinguished gentlemen whose country of magnificent resources; but it is a nal in question also mentions, in a long list of and foreign war, peculation, bankruptcy, gen-

Foreign News.

Reported for the Living Church.

"Green Isle"—Rationalism in Germany—The Boers of South Africa—The Victorious Chil-

The wife of the distinguished Thiers has just died in Paris. She was tremendously rich, and not very popular. Towards the end of her life, she became—what is called in this wicked world —"an old cat;" always snarling, always bitter.

Medical Missions—The President of Griswold
College—Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society -"an old cat;" always snarling, always bitter. After the fall of her great husband, from power, her regrets and recriminations were such, that her husband's best friends were almost indifferent to the catastrophe. She continued thus to look back bitterly on the past, till M. Thiers' death deprived her of all hope of regaining power. The inauguration of the statue at Nancy was an immense consolation for her; and the emotion she experienced on that occasion was so great, that she almost gave way under it. That was the time when the glory of the liberator of the territory was at its height. The Communists had not returned to lift up their voices against of day in that fourth century when the Eternal tion and Eucharistic communion. Quietism is the admirers of M. Thiers; the Government still ventured to pride itself on following in his footsteps. But all this met a reverse, in the apathy with which the unveiling of the Thiers statue at splendor dwelt the proud patricians -a profligate, class of minds, but defective by reason of its too St. Germain, last September, was received. She never recovered from that blow.

> It must be pleasant to live in Ireland. We read, the other day, of a gentleman driving to a dinner party; he, his wife, and his daughter, all being armed with pistols, and the coachman and footman with six-shooters. And now comes a Judge (Baron Dowse) and reads in Court the following charming "billet doux," which he had

> "IRISHTOWN, LIMERICK.-Dowse, you infernal Protestant, take warning of Lord Montmorres. for you will surely meet his fate, even on the bench, if you convict any Land Leaguer. all at last know our power, as you now see. frightened —— in Cork, so we will you, or any other tyrant like you.—A County Limerick Man. —To hell with Victoria la Reine! Vive Parnell,

The Judge added the remark, that nothing of the kind would deter him or any of his brethren on the Bench from doing their duty. He handed over the letter to County Inspector Cullen, in the hope that he might be able to take some steps to bring the guilty person to justice. The Court-house was crowded; but there was perfect silence during the reading of the letter, and no Schereschewsky. Western culture could thus be manifestation of feeling occurred afterwards.

The tendency towards rationalism among the Protestants of Germany is illustrated by the Service-book which has recently come into use in out the year, au alternative form of service-the one may be designated Trinitarian, the other, Unitarian. It is unfortunately the case that a considerable number of the 400 odd clergy, in this narrow strip of territory, expressly deny the Divinity of Christ, object to the use of Creeds. and hold heterodox views on many points. They do not represent the divided belief of the Protestant portion of the population.

As an instance of this, we may take the alternative Litany appointed to be said by the minister, on Good Friday. The one form, expressly addressed to our Saviour as God, reads something as our's does: "By Thy Holy Nativity; by Thy Cross and Passion; by Thy Holy Resurrection and Ascension." "In the hour of death, and in the day of judgment: Good Lord God! deliver us!" The other, for Unitarians, reads-"By His Birth, full of grace; by His Holy life; by His innocent suffering; by His obedience unto death; Lord! oh Lord our God! deliver us!"

Affairs in South Africa grow more and more complicated. The Boers are determined, and they are brave, and they will fight until the bitter end; and they have the sympathy of all Americans and of a great many Englishmen. Troops are being rapidly poured in from India and parts adjacent; and, once more, gallant Englishmen must be offered up to the chimera of insatiable dominion. A dispatch from Durban reports that the Boers have driven the Natal Mounted Police to within three miles of Newcastle. Heavy firing has been heard in the direction of Wakkerstroom. The Boers are committing excesses on the western borders of Natal. They attacked Rankerstroom, on Friday last, but were repulsed. In consequence of Sir George Collyer's remonstrances, the Boers have re-crossed the border of Natal. The Basutos have again crossed Drakensberg into Grigualand east, but were repulsed with a loss of fifty men.

The Chilians have taken Lima, the "City of the Kings," as it is called. Well! we are sorry for the Peruvians, and we hope the Chilians will be merciful, and listen to peace. There is no quescapital, s anything but an enviable place of res- when the almost incredible fact s stated, that, Madame Thiers-The Amenities of Life in the justice,' is the motto." Its prisons are crowded wayfarer has to guard himself.

Epiphany in the Metropolis.

-Ladies' Co-operative Dress Association-Southern Convocation of New York—Dr. Tyng, Jr.—Young Women's Christian Asso-ciation—Christian Liberality.

From our New York Correspondent.

The Feast of the Epiphany has come and gone, and we feel that we have really settled down into

In the spirit of the Missionray call of the Season, is a ringing sermon, from the Bishop of Pennsylvania, delivered before the Foreign Mis- in Fifteenth St., on Monday evening. The Rev. sionary Association of Calvary Church. He chose for his topic-"Medical Missions, their tary's Report was very interesting, showing the origin, scope, and influence, especially in con- value of the Association, as an aid to workingnection with China, Japan, and Mexico." Some of your readers probably remember that Bishop and phonography were unusually large, during Stevens himself was a physician, before taking the year; and many were taught the use of the Holy Orders. The sermon is well worthy attention. He said, in substance: "Among the agencies enumerated by Christ for spreading the 400 attendants. Gospel, stands the art of healing. The working of miracles has ceased, but the art of healing is ours, with all the power given to it by modern Dr. Tuttle, at St. Luke's-is now Rector, is inscience. When Christ came to earth, it was as a healer of the body, as well as of the soul. The Christian Fathers appealed, in their writings, for Talmam, with a check of sufficient amount to Missionary Hospital was at Cesarea, A. D. 370. was originally built at her expense. Her entire St. Chrysostom founded several at Constantinonle. In China and Japan, great results have more to understand how much pleasure they can large part of the world's population, had no the same time, investments "where neither moth medical science, of their own. In 1825, Dr. nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not Peter Parker established the first hospital, at break through nor steal." Canton. It was my privilege to be with Dr. Parker for a time; and I can testify to what he accomplished there. In the medical missions of China, since his beginning, 800,000 persons have been treated. A Woman's Hospital has a medical department in connection with St. John's College, at Shanghai, under Bishop epread through the Chinese Empire. In Japan, a young physician, who went there ten years ago, succeeded in getting a building for use as a hoshis first class numbered fifty students. He has the arch deacons, and the Albany clergy. the "Landes Kirche," of the Grand Duchy of since succeeded in making the Government Christianity must go far towards converting > misery and darkness." The Rev. Dr. D. Otis Kellogg, the newly appointed President of Griswold College, Davenport, Iowa, is in town. He preached in Brooklyn interpreted the Services and sermon, in the sign | chosen as Trustee of the General Seminary. language, to a number of deaf-mutes who were present.

The same evening, the Rev. Dr. Schenck deivered an address at the Church of the Ascension, in this city, before the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society, which is now making a special Diocese is Missionary, there being 44 Missioneffort to increase its power for doing good, by aries at work in 72 stations, and 13 stations readding to its treasury. The attendance was but maining yet to be filled. This Diocese ranks slim, on account of the storm raging without, first in the American Church in the number of which made the streets almost impassable,

In this winter weather, the ivy which hangs heavily on the walls and tower of this church, is tion of the whole session, is occupied with this white with snow; yet the sparrows fly in and out | important branch of the Church's work. The of their icy homes amid the branches, quite Treasurer of the Board of Missions reported a cheerily. The same sort of a bird-world is to be found at Grace Church, Brooklyn. The shadows of the birds are often seen there during Divine Service, fluttering across the great chancelwindow; and their twittering is heard in the panses of the chant.

Miss Kate Field is trying to launch, in our city, "Ladies' Co-operative Dress Association," applying that much-talked-of modern idea of "Cooperation," to the realm of ladies' "shopping." There are several similar organizations in England, patronized by ladies of the best class. No Club, for the purchase of all kinds of dress ma- New York. terials, at wholesale; and their sale, at about cost, to members. Everything is done on a grand scale, the Club having a large store here, and extion that Chili is the most advanced, the most perienced buyers located in London and Paris. The membership is not restrictive, but designed miserable South American republics. Peru is a to include as large a number as possible. There will be a making-up department attached to the presence is expected on the occasion. The jour- chaos and pandemonium, out of which domestic stablishment. Just at present, Mr. Pulbrooke, who started the London Association, is in town, Acts of Incorporation of some of the Trustees idence. It is beautifully situated; but, "of law, last year, the sales of two of the English Associjustice, public order and security, there is not ations amounted together to nearly $20,000,000. the least shadow. 'Point d'argent, point de They have been in operation only ten years. The shares of one of these, which originally sold for with murderers and malefactors; and street acci- $5, now bring $375 each. The system ought to dents are not the only things against which the fit the needs of our average American population, admirably; and its advent in this country will be good news, I am sure, to many of your readers.

The Annual meeting of the Southern Convocation of the New York Diocese, was held yesterday at St. James' Church, in the upper part of the city. Services were held in the morning and evening; the Sermon at the Morning Service being preached by the Rev. William H. Benjamin, Rector of St. Barnabas, Irvington.

The Rev. Dr. Stephen H, Tyng, Jr., has accepted the position of chaplain of the Old Guard, a favorite military organization here; and, last week, he delivered an address before them, in acknowledgement of his appointment.

The annual meeting of the "Young Woman's Christian Association" was held at its building, Dr. Henry C. Potter said prayers. The Secregirls in the city. The classes in book-keeping needle and sewing-machine. The Bible Class averaged the almost fabulously large number of

The Church of the Beloved Disciple, of which the Rev. A. H. Warner-formerly assistant to creasing rapidly in strength and vigor. The Vestry were recently presented, by Miss Caroline work of the same kind. The first attempt at a build a rectory. The church itself, a fine edifice, gifts will exceed $150,000. Would there were been reached. These nations, though forming a thus buy for themselves in this life; laying up, at Albany Diocesan Convention. Reported for the Living Church.

The thirteenth Annual Convention of the since been opened. It is now proposed to found Diocese was held held in All Saints Cathedral,

The opening Service was a choral Celebration of the Holy Communion; the Music, especially the Creed from Gounod's Messe Solenelle, being finely rendered by the surpliced choir. The Bishop was surrounded in the chancel by nearly pital. He began instruction in medicine; and 80 of the clergy, and was assisted specially by

In place of the sermon, the Bishop read a por-

At the organization of the Convention, 80 of those intelligent people. It is worthy of note, the clergy, and 78 lay delegates, representing 45 that a number of the native physicians have be- parishes, were found to be present; and the come Christians. What we now want, is, to Bishop said that, since the primary Convention. spread this work. We want it to go to Africa and this was the best attended Convention within his Mexico. It would arm the Church with a pow- memory. The Routine Business resulted in the erful weapon. It surely is our duty thus to re- election of Rev. W. C. Prout as Secretary, Mr. flect the light we possess, to those who are in Selden E. Marvin, as Treasurer, Rev. George Fisher as Registrar, and the following Standing Committee: Dr. William Payne, Dr. J. I. Tucker, Orlando Meads, J. W. Fuller, Dr. J. Livingston Reese, Dr. S. B. Bostwick, Robert Earl, and H. on Sunday evening. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet R. Pierson. Rev. J. Vaughan Lewis, D D., was

The usual reports were made, and the usual Committees (Standing, Reference, and Special) were appointed.

On Tuesday evening, the regular Missionary meeting was held. The prominent work of the Missionaries and Mission stations; and, always, the first evening of the session, and a large porbalance on hand, of $3.87 instead of the usual deficiency.

The most noteworthy things were the following, viz: 1, Rev. Mr. Edwards offered an amendment to the Canons, providing that none but communicants shall be selected Church wardens and vestrymen. Referred to the committee on Constitution and Canons. This was the outcome of some attempted action at the last Convention; and was finally disposed of by a report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, to the effect that the proposed amendment was not in dress reform is intended. It is simply a huge harmony with the Statute Laws of the State of > Dr. Carey offered the following resolution: Resolved, That a committee be appointed to take into consideration that portion of the Bishop's address of 1880, pages 29 and 30 of the Journal, which relates to the holding of the Convention once in eighteen months.

> Bishop Doane appointed as such committee Rev. Dr. Carey, Mr. T. R. Wade and Mr. A. A. Van Vorst. This was found to conflict with the garden velous T level toth M that govern Tuesday morning.

Concluded on page 8.

The Clergy in the Parishes.

A Series for the LIVING CHURCH. I.

To the Godly Layman, Warden and Deputy to Gener-

As one who has the highest interests of the Church sincerely at heart, will you not permit me to address you on that which at least one of our Bishops has spoken of as "the one question, and almost the only question that is now hot with life in the Church.

I have lately been much impressed with Bishop Littlejohn's forcible statements of the strength and weakness of the Church, and of the solemn possibilities which are now offered her, to become, if she qualify herself for it, the saving power of Christ to the American people. Today, I read, in an unquestionably secular paper, these words: "We need a revival of religion in this country-of true religion, which includes veneration, charity and serious thoughtfulness. The age is frivolous, material, inclined to scoff at the highest things, and to be content with what is petty and mean. The old faith languishes. Life is not a combat with evil, but a seeking for amusement. More earnestness, a deeper purpose in life, a more humble reverence, a more active charity-these elements of a true religion are needed to save us from a mere materialism."

Reading such language, I ask myself whether our Church, in this her day of great numerical spiritual life within her, so to meet these needs of our times, that she can enter in and avail her- Christ for the instruction and guidance of the self, in Christ's name, of her opportunity. The Church Almanac and the Convention Journals give us certainly a most encouraging array of data. But sin is not to be conquered, nor a people rescued from materialism and worldliness, by "facts and figures." This can alone be done by the Holy Spirit inspiring human words, quickening human energies, and directing human zeal. The true life of the Church, from which her real power for Christ must spring, is not one that can be tabulated, but one which is "hid with

I look, therefore, to our Ministry, who should be the human agency by and through which this life must be brought to bear upon the world, who are to speak these words, and lead in the putting forth of such spiritual energies; and I ask whether we are the spiritual power, in the Church, in the land, that we ought to be, and that we must be, to fulfil such a work. Who will venture to say that we are? I have followed the discussion which, during the past year or two, has sought to rouse the Church to realize how A Leaf from a Missionary's Journal. sorely her ministry is fettered in power, and sec- To the Editor of the Living Church: would deal with this evil, disappointed.

I do not turn to my brother clergy, nor address of the presbyterate and the episcopate. In our Overton County, Tennesee. American polity, you are the only one who has ence must depend.

be "just and devout;" that you look forward and know more of the Church. wait, like Simeon; "for the consolation of Isre- Knowing that my time was limited I started perity and efficiency of the Church, and the good probability, be baptized themselves. of souls. I am sure that if you fully realized the her children, the Ministry of which the present on to the next house, where I baptized another have grown up from a child under this system, of A few miles further we left the road, going a which, from the Sunday School class to the Sen- mile out of our way. There I baptized three more ior Wardenship, you have, step by step, been a children. Two of these families had neven seen part. It has ever presented itself to you as the the face of a Catholic missionary before. ultimate object of your local allegiance; not as a discordant feature of the Church's organic life. roads, I was not able to fill an appointment left You know that our parish system has been and is at Mr. Franklin's that afternoon, not being able practically accepted by the clergy as a body, and to reach there till sunset. Consequently, our that your own Bishop assumes it as the proper preaching was simply that from house to house. American form of the parish. You have had no Even this was hardly necessary, for our beautispecial reason for placing it on trial before the ful baptismal service told its own story, and my bar of your own judgement. You have, indeed, old friend whom I had baptized the night before, heard of sporadic complaints, and, perhaps, you sitting by their firesides, gave his reasons both have seen certain articles in the Church press; for his faith and practice. He was full of the but you have been told that they were merely the idea of the necessity of Salvation and of the one sputterings of a few eccentric, or discontented, way of serving God. The Archbishop of Canteror possibly unworthy men, who, finding them- bury could not have spoken more to the point. selves unsuccessful in the Church, have drawn The next day I baptized two children of an the flattering conclusion that it is the Church, English Churchman who has been living in the not they, who are at fault.

All things human, however, are liable to err; and this parish system of ours is not only very children and six grandchildren I had baptized, human, but a very modern part of our Church machinery. The history of all human institu- and baptize six more grandchildren, but having tions which are continued from age to age, is to return to Sewanee I was obliged to defer that the history of "suffering endured, of wrong visit for the present. realized, and of consequent readjustments and reforms. You will not, therefore, hesitate to ad- left the next day for Cookville, en route for mit that it is at least possible that in the great Nashville. The only other passenger on the growth and prosperous development of our Lebanon stage leaving Cookville, was a negro Church, some parts of her practical polity, which Methodist preacher, who become much interestmay, perhaps, have worked well enough at one ed in the Prayer Boek, and to whom I promised time, may now have come to work great spiritual to send one. I preached at Holy Trinity, Nashharm and loss, and even peril to the very pur- ville, on Sunday morning, and at St. Luke's poses of her life. That possibility is reason Chapel on Sunday night, and arrived at Sewanee enough why you-to whom alone, if that possi- | Tuesday morning.

bility should prove actuality, the clergy can look for help-should give an attentive ear and thoughtful consideration to what may be urged.

I might, in p cite two names as sponsors for my plea. A Rev. Dr. Schenck would scarcely be reckoned among the "soured and discontented failures of the ministry." You probably recall what he said at the late General Concould, that there was no body of men of equal to his care, at Sewanee, Tennessee. respectability and equal helplessness, on the face of the earth, with the Protestant Episcopal clergy of the Church in this land." And do you not remember how the words which followed, were received? When in that clear, strong, resonant voice of his, he spoke of "the great mass of the clergy who may have an unsympathetic Bishop on the one hand, and a domineering Vestry on the other hand; between this upper and this nether millstone, how many men were crushed, no man could ever tell, no lines could ever record," do you remember the instant applause of those who scarcely arrested their involuntary response? Did that applause not attest that he had struck a note which found an echo in the hearts of his brethren?

I presume that neither would the most indignant optimist characterize the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, as exactly "a disappointed and unsuccessful man." In a paper prepared for and "printed by request of the Joint Committee of the General Convention" on this subject, the Rector of Tringrowth and temporal prosperity, is fitted by the ity Church, plainly says, that "things are tending fruit which hung from the branches of this wonin the direction of making the ordinance of Church, null and void-the commandment and ordinance of God of none effect by our traditions." After fully and admirably setting forth "the evils which the clergy feel so deeply, under which they are losing heart, and in view of which many young men decide never to seek the Holy Office, he adds: "Whatever optimists may say, in evasion of the force of these considerations, the clergy know too well that there is, in the unwritten annals of their Order, ample proof of the correctness of this picture of their position."

In citing you for my witness, my dear Sir, it is upon these "unwritten annals" that I propose to draw, in the hope of securing your sympathetic, active and earnest efforts for a reformation in the conditions of our parochial ministry, and a revival of deeper spirituality in the Church.

Your fellow servant,

VOX CLAMANTIS. Cape Lookout; Epiphany, 1881.

ularized in spirit, by the conditions under which I find in the LIVING CHURCH, of December it is now forced to labor. I have seen those who 23, a report from a faithful missionary of the diotried to discuss it silenced, one by one. I have cese of North Carolina, which report suggests seen the hope that the late General Convention that "Nothing is better calculated to give a more accurate idea of the work which our missionaries have to undertake, than an occasional leaf from myself to our Bishops. I turn, my dear Sir, to their journals." I therefore venture to forward you. You represent the ultimate purpose alike an account of my recent visit to my mission in

On Monday, December 20, I walked from the practical power of restoring to the ministry Monroe to Obey's River, a distance of ten miles, the possibility of fully and faithfully exercising where I expected to hold services that night. I "the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church had intended to remain here all winter, and was of God," upon which her spiritual life and influ- only deterred by the difficulty of getting a house for my family. Arriving at Mr. Franklin's, I I know you, my dear Sir, to be a Christian learned that one of his sons, twelve miles farther man and a sound Churchman. I know you to on, wanted his child baptized, and wanted to al." I know that you ask nothing better of your at once, being accompanied by Mr. Franklin himown Rector, than that he should fearlessly preach self. The road was rough beyond description, God's Word, and faithfully minister His Sacra- and the thawing snow made it dangerous to travel ments and the ordinances of the Church. I on horseback, and difficult for a footman. Arrivknow that, whether in your Parish Vestry, in the ing at our destination late at night, I baptized Diocesan Convention, or in your seat as a Deputy my old companion, who then stood as sponsor for in General Convention, you seek only the pros- his infant grand-son. The parents will, in all

On our way back next morning, we stopped at truth, you would not rest, for the sake of your the house of one of the principal men of that own children and of the future of this people, as section, himself an opponent of Infant Baptism, well as for that of honor and justice and Chris- but whose wife seemed desirous of having her tian charity, till you had brought about such a children baptized. We were urged to remain, reform as would give back to the Church and to but could not. Leaving a Church tract, we went conditions of parochial life have robbed them. infant. I hope in the near future to receive her But I remember, at the same time, that you parents into the "Congregation of Christ's flock."

On account of these delays, and the state of the Methodist Communion. My fellow-traveller of the day before, Mr. Franklin, whose wife, four wished me to go ten miles in another direction,

I arrived at Monroe on Wednesday night, and

My letter, which you kindly published in the LIVING CHURCH, has brought me two dollars, for which I am abundantly thankful.

My hope is that the good Lord will put it into the heart of some one who has the ability, to help me build a chapel, which need not cost more than $500. The nearest church will be ninetyfour miles distant. Bishop Quintard authorizes vention. He claimed, "with all the emphasis he me to say that contributions may be forwarded

HERBERT A. GRANTHAM.

Our Baltimore Letter.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

The great Festival of the Epiphany was observed with appropriate Services in most of our Churches. At St. Paul's Orphanage in Madison Avenue, an Epiphany Festival was held for the children. The Christmas tree, which had been unavoidably postponed to this occasion, was arrayed in all its glory, and stood in the workroom brilliant with ornaments and tapers, and literally loaded down with toys and doll-babies and bags of candies. At 41 P. M., the room having been previously darkened in order to give better effect to the many lights upon the tree, the children of the Institution, thirty-three in number, marched into the room in procession, singing a Christmas Carol. After feasting their eyes upon the beautiful things before them, their hearts were made glad by the distribution of the different kinds of derful tree, and their little hands were soon full of the gifts of their kind friends. The Rev. Mr. Gernand was present, and distributed the articles which were on the tree.

After some time spent in the enjoyment of their newly acquired treasures, the children, accompanied by the Sisters in charge of the Institution and several ladies who were present, adjourned to the Chapel, where Evensong was sung by the Rev. Dr. Hammond, of St. George's Mission, the Rev. Mr. Gernand presiding at the organ. The Chapel was beautifully decorated, and the Altar brilliant with lights. The Service was well rendered, and the sweet singing of the children reflected great credit upon Mr. Gernand, who has taken great pains in their musical training. During the Service, Dr. Hammond made a short address, in which he endeavored to impress upon the minds of his young hearers, that, although they could not offer gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the Saviour, they could offer Him the gift of earnest, loving and contrite hearts, and souls and bodies devoted to His service.

In the evening, at 71 o'clock, a special Service was held in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, (for colored people), at which a number of young men and boys were formally received as Choristers. The Rector, the Rev. C. B. Perry, officiated; and during the Service, distributed a number of prizes to those Choristers who had been most faithful in the discharge of their duties.

After the Services were ended, a dramatic entertainment was held in the basement of the church. The first part was a representation of the different Gentile nations who have come to the brightness of the Saviour's rising; and the effect of the various costumes was picturesque and brilliant. After an appropriate carol had been sung, the three wise men, arrayed in Eastern costumes, entered, and sung the carol, "We three Kings of Orient are." The second part of the entertainment consisted of a representation of an old fashioned Christmas Eve. The old folks at home: the arrival of the married son and his wife and children; the bringing in the yulelog; the singing of Christmas songs; the Christmas cake; Snap-dragon; the Christmas mummers; the carol singers in the street without; the hanging up of the children's stockings; the children's good night; the visit of St. Nicholas, by way of the chimney,-all united in making up quite a little domestic drama; and the audience retired well pleased with the entertainment which had been given them, but not until a request had been made for its repetition.

An Episcopal Mission to be conducted by the Bishop of the Diocese, will be held in the Church of the Ascension (Rev. Dr. Fair, Rector), on Jan. 11, 12, 13 and 14. The Bishop will be assisted in the work, by several of the Clergy of the Diocese, whom he has detailed for this duty. At the close of each Service, the Bishop will converse with those seeking his counsel.

The Rev. Mr. Norton, of St. John's Church, Washington, having resigned on account of ill health, the Vestry has elected the Rev. Mr. Vibbert, of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, Penn., as his successor. It is not yet known if Mr. Vibbert will accept.

INDIANA.—The Bishop of the Diocese visited St. Mark"s, Lima, Dec. 12th, and confirmed a class of seven, all (with one exception) from the Sunday School. In the morning, the Bishop visited St. John's, LaGrange, which is once more in the charge of the Rector of St. Mark's. Lima. Both parishes are doing well. On Dec. 18th, the young ladies of St. Mark's held a fair for the benafit of the Sunday School library. They were assisted by friends in Chicago and Boston. The Christmas Sunday School Festival was held en Christmas Eve. Among the presents was a handsome lamp for the Rector's study, the money for which has been procured by his Bible Class; and a piece of silverware for his wife. This good custom has been in operation in this parish for the last five years, and it is one which makes the Rector thank God and take courage. The communicant-roll, so far as actual communicants are concerned, has been doubled during the present Rectorship.

The New York Observer tells of a man who

Our Washington Letter.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

From the Epiphany Parish Guide, which I To the Editor of the Living Church: wish I could copy entire, I cull you some of the happenings of that large and thriving parish. The Mission Sunday school now numbers about families were sent out. The Parish Sewing he charging that they are "Innovations." School now numbers 150. The Christmas Carol-Service, for the five schools of the parish, would have been enjoyed by 800 children and 100 teachers, had not a storm prevented. As it was, only about 250 attended. At a Hall, the morning and evening Sunday Schools met together, 500 strong; it was a goodly sight. The offerings at Diocese; Rector, Assistant priest, and a Deacon; confident, they have not sufficiently weighed. five schools; 800 children in them, and over one hundred lay-assistants, or teachers.

work department, which affords employment and | you assume. remuneration to a number of poor who are able

tions; and then, under the guidance of four sing a hymn and disperse. The ladies visit clergy, who, according to your understanding, these Christian sisters at their own houses. are opposed to these "novelties which disturb There are between fifty and sixty of these hitherto neglected women, whom the Church has thus nunciamentos" of sundry of our Bishops, to found out, and is helping in this way. Epiphany is solving a problem, viz; that the best way to do tablesa thing is-to go and do it. Instead of more brick and mortar, let the Church put its extra money into more clergy for the same parish. man can not do every thing. Give him a Priest and a Deacon, and let the Parish Church be the Home of the whole parish, and not the proprietary chapel of a few, and the result cannot be doubtful. The Rev. Dr. Paret's executive abilities are seldom equalled, and seldom if ever surpassed, and his parish responds to his slightest request.

Confirmation is expected in this parish, on the usual Sunday, that before Easter, April 10th. Bishop Morris favored the parish with his presence and a sermon on the evening of Jan. 9th. January 16th was the usual "Missionary-day." Last year the Offerings were over thirteen hundred dollars; it is hoped that this year they equalled, if not exceeded, that amount; but whether this were so, or not, your correspondent has not yet learned. A Christmas gift of a Communion-service for the Chapel of the Home, each vessel bearing the name of the Home neatly engraved, has been made to the Parish of the Epiphany. Some time since, an Altar was given to the same Chapel by a generous communicant. There are nearly one thousand volumes on the Catalogue of the Parish Library and Reading-Room of this live Parish. During November, 254 visits were paid to the Reading-room; during December, 271; so you see the room is not for show, but for use, and is used.

Jan 6, Epiphany day, was the "Name-day" of the Parish. On that day, the annual meeting of the qualified voters met in the parlor of the Home, at 7:30 P. M. The annual reports were read, and managers and visitors for 1881, elected. Every baptized member of the congregation who has contributed to the support of the Home, is entitled to vote.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

SIR:-Will your correspondent Stelliger, who entitles his article "Fact versus Common Law," kindly give us his definition of the term of Common Law? It would seem that his idea of it is quite different from what is commonly understood by it, and to many of his readers a definition of his own appears quite necessary to the understanding of his article. DISCIPULUS.

The only two European governments in which the right of voting is possessed by all the citizens of legal age, are France and Germany. In France 27 per cent. of the whole population are wished to make a minister a little present on or before Thanksgiving, and inclosing $20 in gold in a note, sent it to him as follows: "Rev. and Dear Sir:—Having no turkeys to give you for Thanksgiving, I send you two eagles instead."

voters; in Germany 21½ per cent.; while in Great Britain only 9½ per cent. are voters; in Sweden, 6.03; in Austria, 5.88; in Spain, 5.67; in Italy, 2.32; and in Belgium only 1.68. Concerning "Innovations."

A parishioner, whom I more than esteem for certain rare good qualities, and to whom I am gratefully beholden for equally rare kindness in 260 children. After the dinner provided for both word and deed, complains of things which them on a recent occasion, dinners for 22 needy I do, intelligently and conscientiously, as a Priest,

Knowing, as I do, that the charge has not only been unintelligently caught up from the current "hue-and-cry" against so-called "Ritualism," but is also embittered by certain personal complicacations which are wholly apart from my work, I might justly pass the matter by in dignified though sorrowing silence. But, as the individthe 8 A. M. Christmas Service, furnished dinners ual concerned does not seem to me to be beyond for fifteen poor families. At the 11 o'clock Ser- the reach of hopeful enlightenment, and as the vice, the offerings were $212, for the Aged and case is one of no infrequent occurrence, I ven-Infirm Clergy Fund, and for the widows and ture, in the hope of securing, both for myself orphans of clergymen. The parish tingles with and others, some relief from attacks of this kind, life and liberality, and was never so thoroughly to call the attention of my friend, and others of worked. It has 900 communicants—a miniature the class, to certain considerations which, I am

Now, I wish to ask such persons a few questions. You summarily condemn some things Just before "donation day," the friends of the that we do in the Church, as "Innovations." But Church Home" are the honored recipients of a what do you mean by that word? How much do neat invitation to be present at the Home, and you make it cover? Have you ever stopped to are delicately—and very properly—reminded of think just what you are saying? Yet, it would willingness on the part of the Home to be the seem no more than reasonable that he who uses recipient of useful contributions. At the last a sweeping term in condemning others, should 'donation day," $235 were handed in. Besides be able to define that term with some intellithis, flour, hams, apples, blankets, and a dozen gible precision. How else can one know what other articles came with it, either then or during is condemned? Or how can one know what the year now closed. The offerings at Church amount of confidence to place in the adverse for the benefit of the Home were $117; a lunch judgment pronounced? If now you cannot fairly table realized $133, and in all, over $500 have answerthese questions, it seems to me you must been added to the revenue of the Home. The confess yourself lacking in the very first qualifi-Home has now sixteen beneficiaries. It has a cation requisite to the magisterial functions that

But, supposing that you have some fair notion and willing to sew. Not only is plain, but even of what you mean by the word, there is another difficult sewing done by those who are thus help- question which might be asked. Are you, by ed; a capital plan, and one which has, these many competent knowledge, qualified to determine years, been in full and successful operation. A thus summarily that the use in question is really Mother's Meeting assembles at the Sunday an "Innovation," and as such so blameworthy? School Room, at 1:30 P. M. on Friday of each Are you so well read in Church History, or so familiar with the testimony of experts in the Now and then, the "Mothers" do something be- matter of Catholic rules and ceremonies, that you sides meet; they drink tea. They held a tea- truly know when you affirm? Or, aside from drinking on Jan. 7. This Mother's Meeting is that, is your attention to things which concern one of the most useful branches of the Epiphany the Church, so undivided, or your devotion to work. Through the children, some of the poorer her welfare and advancement so absorbing, that women of the parish are reached, and perhaps, you may be counted as being as apt and safe a in time, some of the fathers may be also. Some guide in these matters, as those who are placed of these women had not entered a church for over you in the Priestly office? I cannot but years; most, had no clothes to wear, fit for the charitably assume, that both your candor and Lord's House. But if they cannot go to Sunday your common-sense make you shrink from Services, they could and do go to the Friday claiming any such character or position; but, meeting, in the School Chapel. They hear a should not he who has need to be a learner, also few prayers, and some brief and needful exhorta- take the place and show the spirit of the learner?

But perhaps you plead "Our Rector is a young ladies, sew for themselves for an hourand a half; man; "or you urge the opinions of certain of the our peace;" or perhaps you appeal to the "prowhom even floral decorations and Credence-

"Are monsters of such frightful mien,

As, to be hated, need but to be seen"the light of "Godly admonitions!" It is no strange, perhaps, that you think that you have sufficient warrant for your adverse judgment. even though you are without any critical knowledge of your own for its basis.

May I not, however, raise a question even here? Is your young Rector simply airing his own notions, or is he striving to reduce to practice what he has learned? If the latter, there arises the question, who is the more competent to decide on these matters, his professional teachers, or the particular portion of the clergy to whom you appeal? Besides this, there is a learned and vigorous body of Parish Priests, to say nothing of some of our ablest Bishops, who distinctly disagree with those who are your chosen references. Which of the two classes is the better qualified to determine the truth concerning this burning question? "Who shall decide when doctors disagree?" Are you competent to do it yourself? If not, what is it, pride, prejudice, or passion, which persuades you to put yourself in so unlovely and unchristian a position and attitude, as that of denouncing that which has not been committed to your charge, and of which you know little or nothing,-the mere snarling echo of some bigot outcry? Verily, one might ask whether, in the Church, humility has not become one of the "lost arts?"

The Standard of the Cross, discussing the movement for enrichment of our Liturgy, says: "Is it dangerously soon to suggest, then, that one way to 'enrich' is to eliminate anything which serves as a diluting element? For our part, we can conceive of an Easter Service, for example, that would be considerably richer in effect for not beginning with the exhortation to dearly beloved brethren to acknowledge and confess their manifold sins and wickedness frequent omission of this exhortation under the proposed arrangements for shortened services will prepare clergy and people for the considera-tion of the question whether they need to say and hear it invariably even twice every Sunday and high festival.

The Nation, commenting on the state of the Church, as indicated by the recent General Convention, says: The withdrawal of the reformers, indeed, may be said to have had an ameliorating effect upon the general body. Their success, except in attaining the rewards of conscience, has not been brilliant enough to attract large accessions from the Low-Church party, and yet it has probably made ecclesiastical trials such as that of the Rev. Dr. Tyng, Jr., more unlikely

Montana's official population is 39,157, with but 10,977 women

Current Ebents.

The decrease of the public debt during December, was $5,199,430.

"Boycotting" still goes on in Ireland. A special cabinet meeting has been called by Mr. Gladstone, and no one is able to prophesy the result of all the agitation.

Ice on the Rappahannock river, in Virginia, is eight inches thick.

Augusta, Georgia, is enjoying fine sleighing for the first time in a quarter of a century.

The number of freight cars employed on railways in New York increased from 16,525 in 1867 cars employed on all the railways of the country the same years is about 12,000 miles.

The London Athenaum authoritatively announces that the price paid for "Endymion," also stated, that the work was began ten years members, and 100,000,000 of professing Chris-

While the regret at the death of George Eliot

M. Wiener, the French vice-consul at Guayaquil, who has been exploring the upper tributary of the Amazon, known as the river Napo, finds it a fine stream, navigable for a thousand miles above its mouth. The district through which it rhinoceri, hippopotami, and other animals. flows, as far as explored, is larger than France, and has a fertile soil. The climate is mild, and the country is well adapted for the production of sugar, coffee, cocoa, and India rubber.

By the breaking of dykes in the province of North Brabaut, Holland, eighteen villages have been flooded, causing immense damage.

Spain has contracted for the construction in England of several war vessels, and is building gunboats and fast sloops in the arsenals of the peninsula, for service in Cuban waters.

As an indication of the extent to which the anti-Jewish feeling has been kindled in Germany, it is reported that at a public meeting held in behalf of the anti-Jewish movement, such crowds came together, that the police were obliged to close the doors.

The porte has dispatched a note to the powers setting forth arguments against arbitration, and proposing that a meeting of the delegates of the powers, including Turkey and Greece, be held at Constantinople, to fix the Greek frontier.

Heavy rains have caused great damage in Sicily. At Barcelona, the river burst its embankments, creating a great panic.

fishermen out of the market.

It is said that the "Irish garrison," after the first of January, will consist of fifty thousand men. This is quite a large force, but not sufficiently numerous to cope with anything like a

The census office has nearly finished the first count of population in the United States, which shows that the aggregate will be a little over 51,-

The first spiral tunnel on the St. Gothard line, in Switzerland, has been completed. It is one thousand metres in length, and was bored through granite entirely by hand.

Hay is selling in San Juan county, Col., for far behind what was seen on the Comstock lode in early days, when hay brought 25 cents, and green grass, 10 cents a pound. Two new cables are to be laid next summer between the United States and Great Britain.

The Emperor, Dom Pedro, has translated a selection of Mr. Whittier's poems into Portu-

Petroleum has been discovered in Italy. Oil similar to that of Pennsylvania has been pumped in the valley of Cocco, and also in Piedmont, and it is believed that after a few more months' digging, the oil springs themselves will be found. The American mode of extracting the oil is used, and some expert Canadians are employed on the work by an Italio-French company formed at Paris. Companies are forming to prosecute the industry, which must prove very profitable, for there is a tax of 50 per cent. on the American oil, and the expenses of transport equal 20 per

At a ball at Schwarzenburg, Saxony, a young man entered, having what appeared to be a cigar in his mouth. He went to the chandelier as if to light it, and a terrible explosion ensued. The lights were extinguished, the walls partly gave way, some of the dancers were covered with blood, and the young man was blown to pieces. He had killed himself by means of a dynamite

It is whispered in Vatican circles, that Leo XIII. intends to resume quietly and by degrees the state ceremonies of the pontifical court as they were celebrated eleven years ago, even to going down to St. Peter's, and reviving the splendid ceremonies in that famous basilica.

Mr. Sassoon, of Belgravia square, London stables his horses in the topmost story of his house, and carries them up and down on an elevator. The purpose is to save the cost of ground, which is valuable in that fashionable neighbor hood.

Germany is preparing to celebrate, three years hence, the four-hundredth anniversary of Luther's birthday, Nov. 10, 1483. It is proposed to fix upon the Wartburg, near Eisenach, as the cial improvement, it is merely necessary to state. The new Rectory for middle point of the celebration. Dr. Kuster, the fact that, whereas the total amount of Offerthe burgomaster of Eisenach, is the president of a committee charged with making the needful arrangements. It was in the Wartburg that Luther labored at the work which was the complete of the complete of the complete of the president of the complete of ther labored at the work which was the completion of his activity as a Reformer—the translation of the Bible into German. The famous "Luther-room" has become the germ of a Luther museum, which will probably receive many acis contemplated to give the celebration an inter-national character.

wholly by electricity is Ogden, Utah.

Two bells found by a diver between Fort Sumter and Fort Moultrie, taken from the wreck of a vessel of about 350 tons burden, bear the date 1374, and must have been cast two centuries before the discovery of America.

The Passion play as presented at Ober-Ammergau in 1880, was a paying piece. The forty performances brought in $520,000, an average of $13,000 for each performance. The every-day theatre manager would be glad to secure a play that would bring him one-thirteenth part of that. The proceeds have been divided into four parts, one-quarter being divided among such inhabitants of the village as are householders, onequarter set apart for expenses of the theatre, and one-quarter divided among the actors, and the to 47,868 in 1879. During the same period the canal tonnage in New York decreased from 5,859,080 to 5,362,372. The number of freight fourth given to the public schools. The performances were attended by one hundred and seventy-five thousand persons, among them a increased between 1876 and 1879 from 384,903 to seventy-five thousand persons, among them a 480,190—an increase of 95,287 freight cars in three years. The increase of railway mileage in other distinguished people.

Dr. Legge, the Professor of Chinese at Oxford, England, says if the present rate of conversion of Chinese to Christianity continnes, by Beaconsfield's new novel, was £10,000. It is the year 1913 there will be 26,000,000 of church tians in the Chinese Empire.

Kirkdale Church, one of the most ancient ecis almost universal, it must have been something clesiastical structures in the kingdom, has been, to her satisfaction that she lived to see a cabinet for some time, undergoing partial restoration. edition of her works in twenty volumes, and an edition de luxe of "Romola," illustrated by Sir Frederick Leighton, whose designs are in remarkably close accord with the ideas of the days of Tosti the Earl, that is, between 1055 and 1065. A Runic inscription also seems to mention Œthelwald, King of Deira, A.D. 651 to 660. The church is situated close to the famous Kirkdale Cave; where, in 1821, were discovered the Parochial Work.

QUINCY.—The Carthage (Ill.) Republican thus speaks of the Christmas celebration at our mission there: "St. Cyprian's Mission Chapel was profusely decorated with evergreens and appropriate mottoes commemorative of the day. The decoration of the chancel and altar was especially tasteful and appropriate. In front of the chancel was a fine Christmas tree, and on it and at its base were the presents. The exercises opened by the evening choral service, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lloyd. The tree was then illuminated and the presents distributed. It was an occasion of great interest and pleasure to the people of the Mission and Sunday School. The Mission festival was held on Christmas evening."

| Mas, by helping to make others happy. The Rev. T. B. Lee, Rector of St. David's Church, Austin, was presented on Christmas

At the annual meeting of Trustees, held on Monday, Jan. 10, at St. Mary's School, Knoxville, Mr. W. N. Phillips, of Galesburg, was elected to fill the vacancy caused dy the death of Mr. S. H. Tompkins, of Knoxville. The three Bishops of the Illinois dioceses are members of the Board. A report was made by the Rector showing the unusual progress of the School A telegraph line extending along the coast, is used in Norway, to give fishermen intelliegnce of coming shoals of herrings; and the time which this saves over the old plan of hunting up the shoals, added to great care in preparing hermade last summer, the building would have been made last summer, the building would have been being built; here, hopes are entertained for building a church.

The Rector reported that work complete, at a cost of $4,000 and was presented by him to the institution. He regretted his inability to provide further accommodations at present, at his own expense, having given to the School property already, over $10,000. There is a conditional legacy of $10,000 in the estate of the late Hon. James Knox, waiting in bank to be drawn for the enlargement of the building, so soon as the same sum is pledged or given by others. It is to be hoped that some plan may be devised for securing this legacy and adding the needed accommodations to St. Mary's. All it asks is the bare walls, and a large amount (one-half) is already provided in this legacy.

ILLINOIS.—It may interest our readers to know that the Mission at Austin is encouraged in its good work, and that there is a prospect of speedy completion of the church. From St. James' Chicago, nearly $300 has been received. Within three months $1,066 has been raised and expended. The church is under roof and will soon The contract has been let for both, and the first is to be laid by July 1st. If "consolidation" does used for some of the parochial meetings, most not set in, we may expect a considerable decline in rates.

The Emperor, Dom Pedro, has translated a bis pastoral charge at Dixon, and assumed that of Grace Church, Galena, has had some very pleasant experiences in his new position. Being unmarried, a rectory was to him a superfluity: so the ladies of the parish, always kind and prompt in such matters, looked round, and succeeded in securing for his occupation a beautiful suite of And not content with that, they sent to rooms. New York for some elegant carpets, laid them down, and furnished the rooms throughout; so that all that the fortunate bachelor priest had to do, was, to walk in and take possession, which he did not fail to do, with great promptitude. Christmas-tide passed off joyfully at Galena; the church was beautifully decorated, and bril-7 and 11:30), on the morning of the Feast of the Nativity, the attendance was large. All the Ser-

LONG ISLAND.—An Epiphany Missionary Re-union was held in St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn, on Friday evening of last week, Jan. 14. Acording to the plan sent us, Bishop Paddock, of General Convention were strong and able.

We have been favored with a copy of the Anbaptized is 102, of whom 7 were adults; confirmed, 24; marriages, 29; burials, 61. There have been 25 Public Celebrations of the Holy Communion, and 28 Private; 160 Public Serlay-reader at St. Mark's, Longworth, Octavius

The first American city to light its streets to have accomplished a great amount of good work among the sick and poor. So judicious and economical has been the financial administration, that the Report of the Treasurer (Mr. H. E. Pierrepont, Jr.), shows a deficiency, between receipts and expenditure, of only $1.43. The entire Report was prepared and presented by Mr. Richard Lacey, Secretary of the Chapel Commit-

> Оню.-The Guild of the Holy Cross is an association which has been established in Cleve-land, in order to secure to the Church all the unemployed talents and oportunities of persons whose physical condition debars them from active work; and it is hoped at the same time that much may be done, by the mutual sympathy of the Members and Associates, to cheer and comfort the restless hours of those who bear pain and suffering. The Guild consists of Chaplain, Warden, Members, and Associates. The Chaplain has the care of the spiritual interests, and is the final authority on any disputed point. The Warden plans, systematizes, and has the entire arrangement of the work, which the members, of course, must carry out, with the assistance of the Associates. Any persons who are either permanently or temporarily unfitted for active duties, may become Members, and will receive upon admission a copy of the Manual, and a silver cross, the badge of membership. If they withdraw from the Guild, they will return the badge to the Chaplain. The Associates are on the 29th of December. On the evening of to be persons in good health, who will visit, Holy Innocent's Day, as we were listening to the write, read, and help the Members in any way merry voices of our Sunday school scholars, which suggests itself. The bond of union of the Guild, is Intercessory Prayer, to facilitate which, a Manual is provided; appropriate Offices, for the use of the TEXAS-The Rev. J. J. Clemens, Rector of Christ Church, Houston, gave his annual Christmas dinner to the newsboys of the city, this season. On this occasion, thirty-two of the little fellows assembled at the church, and thence adjourned to the choir-room, where they found a liberal repast spread for them. Mr. and Mrs. Clemens, with some lady friends, had been at great pains to provide everything to suit the tastes and administer to the comfort of their youthful guests, and their effort was crowned with success. The dinner over, gifts of substantial value, such as sacks of flour, were distrib-

Day with a fine gold watch, from the members of his parish.

The important parish of Grace Church, Galveston, is vacant, through the resignation of the Rev. Jeremiah Ward.

The Rev. J. E. Meredith has entered on his duties at Calvert and Georgetown, two promis-

At Calvary Church, Bastrop, Christmas was, in truth, a time of refreshment and joy. On Christmas Eve, the choir went around the town and visited nearly every Church family, and sang Christmas Carols. Christmas Day was mild and pleasant, and the sun shone brightly; the church was crowded, and, as usual, most tastefully decorated. The musical portion of the Service was well rendered by young ladies, graduates of Columbia, Tenn. The Offertory collection was $265, and a gold watch, which was devoted to the new church building fund.

A new church banding rund.

A new church is much needed in Bastrop, and hopes are entertained that one costing $2,000 will be built during the year. The parish is small and weak, but all are doing what they can. Two most worthy members have promis haul the materials, equal to a donation of several hundred dollars. A stained window for the Chancel is promised as a memorial. A most eligible site has been secured, and if the lovers of Church extension render a little help now, much would be secured for the future. At Belleville, a new church is in course of erection, to be dedicated to St. Mary. Belton, Tyler, and Huntsville, three struggling parishes are vacant. The localities are very healthy, and promise well for the future; few better fields can be found in this diocese for the exercise of hearty missionary zeal; and, for men who are not afraid of work, and willing to begin with a moderate salary, there would be not only a hearty welcome, but loving co-operation.

The Bishop of the Diocese resides now at Austin, where he has secured a comfortable home; and where he hopes, with God's blessing, to live for the rest of his days.

MINNESOTA-St. Paul's Church Guild Directory, dated in Advent, 1880, comes to us this year with a lengthened list of parishioners, and large additions to the various instrumentalities of liantly illuminated. At the two celebrations (at active parochial life. There are committees for every conceivable branch of Church work; and Nativity, the attendance was large. All the Services, including the weekly Celebrations, are very well attended; the church, which is quite spacious, being filled.

We conclude, from the published results, each committee in its place, does its work well and efficiently. We observe that there are as many as four missions connected with the parish. During the last six months, the church accommodation has been largely increased; and the general advance, all along the line of this flour-ishing parish can best be gathered from a brief statement of the increase in the various depart-Washington Territory, was to preside; addreses ments within the last four years. During that were to be made by Bishop Tuttle, Bishop Pen-period 201 persons have been baptized, and 110 ick, and by the Missionary Secretaries. Tea confirmed; the communicants have grown from was served in the hall under the Church, and 134 to 360; and, against 500 reported in 1876, as the occasion was, doubtless, altogether a delightful one. The Rector of St. Ann's, Rev. Dr. are now exactly twice as many. In 1876, the Schenck, is known to be deeply interested in missions as well as in all the general work of the Church. His speeches on these subjects in the has just closed is, $7,024.75. And this does not include the parish expenses, amounting to $4,732.38. So that the grand total is $11,748.13. nual Report of Grace Church Chapel, Brooklyn which, it must be acknowledged, is a very good (the Rev. R. H. Tighe, Minister in charge), showing. We could say more, but we prefer to which affords substantial ground for congratula-vices, and 206 sermons, etc. Connected with Longworth, Esq., who for twenty years has acted the Chapel are 136 communicants, of whom 21 licensed lay-reader for his neighborhood; and cessions by the time the anniversary arrives. It is contemplated to give the celebration an international character.

This Mission (for such, in fact, it is), appears for whom, some years since, a neat chapel was erected, to take the place of the log house in which they had been wont to assemble,

The Holy Communion was celebrated in St. Mark's, by Dr. Knickerbacker, the day before, when father and mother, three sons and three daughters, received together. It was a beautiful sight. The venerable couple were aided by friends from Minneapolis, St. Paul, and Clear Water, as well as by immediate neighbors, in keeping the anniversary; and they received many tokens of esteem from friends about, and present among these was a remembrance in the shape of a kind letter from a former pastor, Rev. Dr. G. M. Haskins, of St. Mark's, Williamsburgh, New York.

St. Luke's Church, Hastings, was burnt down on the evening of Holy Innocents, at the Christmas tree celebration. It was insured for $2,000, a sum that will cover about one-half of the loss, including a fine large organ. It was built by Father Wilcoxson, and consecrated by Bishop Kemper, on the 8th of October, 1857. No doubt it will be rebuilt in the Spring. Rev. J. Everett Johnson is Rector.

GEORGIA.—A reverend brother, writing from this diocese, under date of the Feast of the Epiphany, says:- "The cold wave that swept over the country, and spread the broadest mantle on the 29th of December. On the evening of frolicking in the parish school-room, the cry 'It snows, it snows!' aroused us. As we left at 9 o'clock for home, the feathery flakes of snow were just covering the ground. At 8 A. M., on members, are provided in the Manual. The support of the Guild is derived entirely from free-will Offerings. The Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., is Chaplain, and Mrs. C. P. Ramsey, was three degrees above, at 8:30, on the morning of the last day of the year. On the morning of New Year's Day, it was snowing again. Ta-ken altogether, the cold was very remarkable for this place. Considerable damage was done to the water-pipes throughout the city-the parsonage not excepted.

MISSOURI.-In addition to other handsome and useful Christmas presents, the congregation at Nevada, presented to the Rev. T. M. Thorpe and wife, a beautiful China tea-set of fifty-seven pieces. This may serve as a valuable and suggestive hint to other parishes. Even now, it is not by any means too late; for the light shed by Christmas-tide shines all through the Epiphany

Such manifestations of love and good-will always bring a blessing alike to pastor and to IOWA .- The parish at Oskaloosa is slowiy, but there is reason to hope, surely progressing. At Albia, the prospects are quite encouraging.

We know from personal observation, as well as from what we hear through others, that there are not a few "live" people among the members of the church in that thriving town, and we congratulate the Rev. D. C. Howard upon the probability of a new church being erected there, in the course of the present year.

ALABAMA.—On the fourth Sunday in Advent, just passed, the Rev. George H. Hunt, Rector of Christ Church, Tuskaloosa, preached an earnest and telling sermon from Haggar i:2-4. "Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying: This people say, The time is not come, the time that the Lord's House should be built," etc. As may be guessed from his having selected this text, his bject was, to rouse his people to a sense of their duty with respect to the repair and enlargement of their parish church. Having had an oppor-tunity of seeing a copy of the discourse (which was printed for circulation in the parish), we cannot readily believe that it will prove to have failed in accomplishing the object so earnestly and eloquently pleaded for by the faithful rector. And we confidently expect to be called upon before long to chronicle the fact that the much needed work has been inaugurated.

Racine College,

Will re-open Thursday, Sept. 9, 1880.
The College includes a School of Letters and a Scientific School, There is also a Grammar School, which prepares boys for college or business. Thorough intellectual training is combined with true discipline, religious care, and high culture.

New scholars will be received at any time during the year.

New scholars will be received the year.
Boys from ten years old and upwards are received in the Grammar School. Special care is taken of the younger boys by the matrons. For catalogues and other information apply to

The REV. STEVENS PARKER, S. T. D.,
Racine, Wis.

St. Agnes' School

717 Monroe Street, Chicago, Ill Will commence its Fifth Year Wednesday, September 8th, 1880, and remain in session till June 21, 1881 with the usual vacations. Any further information may be obtained by addressing the Principal.

Brownell Hall,

Omaha, Nebraska.

Protestant Episcopal Seminary. Seventeenth year begins Sept. 1st, 1880. The school is noted for good health. Situation delightful. Home comfortable.

Twelve able and experienced teacheas.

For Register and particulars apply to,

REV. R. DOHERTY, M. A.,

Hector,

Omaha, Neb.

JONES BROTHERS & Co.,

HICAGO, CINCINNATI, PHILADELPHIA. Publishers of the Inductive Educational Series.

Ridpath's Inductive Grammar.
Ridpath's Gram. School Hist. of the U. S.
Ridpath's Academic Hist. of the U. S.
Milne's Inductive Arithmetic.
Milne's Elements of Algebra.
Forbriger's Patent Drawing Tablets.
Smith's Practical Music Reader.
First Lessons in Philology. INTRODUCTORY PRICES VERY LOW.

We also want Agents for Ridpath's Popular History of the United States. Over 400,000 copies already sold.

Address, JONES BROS. & CO., Chicago, Ili.

PHONOGRAPH

If you wish to be taught the art of writing short-hand, you will do well to send your name and address to the oldest school in the country. Any one can learn easily and thoroughly. Address Phonographic Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.

REPAIRS FOR STOVES manufactured at Troy, Albany, Rochester, Cleveland, Cincinnati, and elsewhere, at W. C. METZNER'S, 127 West Handolph S. Chicago, Ill.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL

KNOXVILLE, ILL.

Founded, 1868; Enlarged, 1872 and 1880.

FIRST CLASS IN ALL RESPECTS. TOTAL CHARGES, $320 PER YEAR.

The next Term opens Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1881. C. W. Leffingwell, D. D., Rector.

School of St. John

BOSTON, MASS.

A Boarding School for Boys, Visitor, Rev. C. C. Grafton, S. S. T. E., Rector of the Church of the Advent. Head Master, Charles Hill. Prepares boys for college or mercantile life. For terms address the Head Master, 69 Pinckney St., Boston, Mass.

The Misses Nisbett,

43 East 41st Street, New York.

Two English ladies, the daughters and sisters of clergymen, receive a few boarding and day pupils. Instruction based on sound Church doctrine. Resident Parisian governess. The best professors and

The Selleck School,

Norwalk, Conn.

The Evangelist,

The academic year of this school commences on the third Wednesday of September, and closes on the last Thursday of the following June. Pupils received at any age, or prepared for College, for the United States Military and Naval Academies, or for business. Terms: for board and Tuition, $350,00 per annum.

St. Mary's Hall, Faribault, Minn.

Faribault, Minn.

RT. Rev. H. B. WHIPPLE, D.D., Rector.

MISS S. P, DARLINGTON, Principal.

Is under the personal supervision of the Bishop, with 11 experienced teachers. It offers superior advantages for education, with an invigorating and healthy climate. The 15th year will begin September 16th, 1880. For Registers, with full details, address the RECTOR. Prices reduced.

Brook Hall Female Seminary,

Will open on Wednesday, Sept. 15th. The high reputation of this School will be sustained by increas ed advantages the coming year. Several teachers of eminence will be added to the already efficient corps. For catalogues apply to M. L. EASTMAN, Principal.

233 East 17th St. New York. Under the charge of the Sisters of St. John Baptist. Terms, $275 per school year. Address the Sister Superior, as above.

ECCLESIASTICAL EMBROIDERY. Address: Church Workroom, 233 East 17th Street.

De Veaux College,

Suspension Bridge, Niagara Co., N. Y. FITTING-SCHOOL for the Universities, West Point, Annapolis, or business. Charges, $350 a year. No extras. Competitive examinations for scholarships at the beginning of College Year, first Wednesday in September; applications for the same to be filed ten days previously.

Rev. GEO. HERBERT PATTERSON, A.M., LL.B., Prest.

St. Margaret's Diocesan

School for Girls, Waterbury, Conn.

The sixth year will open (D. V.) on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, 1880. Instrumental music under charge of J. Baier, Jr., a private pupil of Plaidy, of Leipsic Conservatory. French and German taught by native teachers. The Rev. Francis T. Russell, M.A., Rector.

St. John's School. 21 and 23 W. 32nd St. New York.

Between Broadway and Fifth Avenue, New York. BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES AND CHILDREN. Rev. THEODORE INVING, LL. D., Becter,

TAKE THE

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

To ther line runs Three Through Passenger Trains Daily between Chicago, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln. St. Joseph, Atchison, Topeka and Kansas City. Direct connections for all points in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming. Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho, Oregon and California.

vaus, New Mexico, Arizona, idano, Oregon and California.

The Shortest, Speediest and Most Comfortable Route via Hannibal to Fort Scott, Denison, Dallas, Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Galveston and all points in Texas.

The unequaled inducements offered by this Line to Travelers and Tourists, are as follows: The celebrated Pullman '16-wheel) Palace Sleeping Cars, run only on this Line. C., B. & Q. Palace Drawing-Room Cars, with Horton's Reclining Chairs. No extra charge for Seats in Reclining Chairs. The famous C., R. & Q. Palace Dining Cars. Gorgeous Smoking Cars fitted with Elegant High-Backed Rattan Revolving Chairs for the exclusive use of first-class passengers.

volving Chairs for the class passengers.
Steel Track and Superior Equipment, combined with their Great Through Car Arrangement, makes this, above all others, the favorite Route to the South, South-West, and the Far

Try it, and you will find traveling a luxury instead of a discomfort.

Through Tickets via this Celebrated Line for sale at all offices in the United States and Canada.

All information about Rates of Fare, Sleeping Car ing Car Accommodations, Time Table will be cheerfully given by applying to JAMES R. WOOD. General Passenger Agent, Chicago T. J. POTTER, General Manager, Chicago.

Vitalized Phos-Phites.

A BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD

COMPOSED OF THE NERVE-CIVING PRINCIPLES OF THE OX-BRAIN AND WHEAT-GERM. Physicians have prescribed 300,000 packages with the best results in all forms of impaired vitality, mental exhaustion, or weakened digestion, it is the best preventative of consumption and all diseases of debility it gives rest and sleep to infants, children, and adults, by strengthening the brain and nerves with the food they actually require. For sale by Druggists or Mail, $1.00. F. Crosby, 664 and 666 Sixth Avenue, New York.

The Living Church.

January 20, 1881.

Entered at the Chicago P.O. as 2nd class mail matter ADVERTISING RATES Notice, per Line count), Remittances by P. O. Orders or Drafts on Chicago, C. W. LEFFINGWELL, 162 Washington Street, Chicago.

A Thought for Epiphany.

A beautiful symbolism has been discovered in the gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, presented by the wise men of the East to the infant Saviour. Of this we need not speak. A practical lesson seems to us to be taught by this event, associated with the Epiphany season, and to this we ask the attention of our readers.

It seems reasonable to infer that there was some providential purpose in the gift of gold, beyond the mere symbolism of the act. Might it not have been designed as a provision for the flight of the Holy Family? It might indeed be said that the we can adequately do the work which we prompt obedience of Joseph to the heavenly warning. Still it would seem no less have grace and power faithfully to fulfill a fact, that the gifts of the Magi made the same! possible the flight to the East, and the sojourn there. Then, as aforetime, the valley of the Nile was the resort of the Palestinian speaks, as

"The brook that parts Egypt from Syrian ground."

But this flight to and sojourn in the land of the Pharaoh's, involved no small expense value. From the circumstances of the case, it is fair to suppose that they were the Herod.

those wise men knew not that their offering that demands thoughtful consideration and the issue; and this can only result from would minister to the safety, and, humanly generous action on the part both of clergy their becoming well informed upon the speaking, to the very life of the Holy Child. and people, and cannot be disposed of by merits of the question. Toward this en-At the dictates of a loving faith, they "pre- any arbitrary legislation. Whatever is lightenment, the Church Press can accomgifts, blessed them, and made them the in- agreement of all Orders. strument of safety to His Son. What a part, Dr. Dix begins his Paper by comment Bishops and other clergy. The latter, Jewish rabble!

mi_istered unto him; and suddenly-

"A light shone round about the place, The leper no longer crouched at his side, But stood before him glorified, Shining and tall and fair and straight As the pillar that stood by the Beautiful Gate; Himself the Gate, whereby men can Enter the temple of God in man.' can fall in worshipping adoration before are tending. And thus our young men are spiritual things. As for Mr. Enraght, he our Incarnate Lord; can open the treasures of the heart, and lay, at Jesus's feet, of the Priesthood. The Messenger of the pressed his resolute determination not to gifts of the best and dearest of all that we Lord is not sent; he must stand idle till he accept his liberty on the terms stipulated have to give. Taking it in His holy hands, He will bless and sanctify our gift of faith. man of the Lord is watched, himself, with Since the above was written, we learn He will make, of our perishable riches, an a microscopic curiosity, to see whether he that both priests have once more been reimperishable store, so that they shall become as pearls in that heavenly crown ships the Lord the righteous Ludge shall there is no depend for them, but only for the proceedings. which the Lord the righteous Judge shall there is no demand for them, but only for the proceedings.

give us, if we love His appearing. Those wise men knew not nor dreamed of smooth things. how great a purpose their gifts would serve. But, as reward for such faith and who can bear painful witness to the truth in this number and addressed to "Godly love, God made their gifts to be for the of Dr. Dix's outspoken language, when he Layman." It is proposed in these letters safety and succor of the Holy Child. In points out, how the Minister, though to discuss, in a kindly spirit, the relations ble. The Rector (the Rev. W. J. Frost, D.D.) substance it has been repeated over and moved of the Holy Ghost, and armed at of pastor and people, with the sole motive deserves great credit for his admirable training over again in the history of His Church, the hands of the Bishop with all the pano- and purpose of contributing to the solution of those schools." and in the experience of us all. Some ply of God, must first get a "call" from the of some of the perplexing questions of years since, for Jesus' sake and through lay members of the Church; . . . and the day. We invite the laity, in the same sick. God accepted and blessed the offer- one was a horse, or a dog, or a slave in the ing. It has grown into a large and en- market. And perhaps there follows the during work, multiplied, repeated over and bitter humiliation of preaching on trial; will be received throughout the Church land owe their being, under God, to the temptuous denial and reversal of the origa Christian woman gathered around her a quately to set forth its infamy. few children on the Lord's Day, for instruction in the things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health. Of that work of faith, has come an important and flourishing parish. It is within the power of hundreds of men and women in Chicago, to day, to do like things for Christ. If only they would, their work will go on and increase and widen, when they have long gone to their reward. Make the most of the golden opportunity, if it is offered you, to be the merely brutal. founder of such a work. We need a Diocesan Church Home for aged and indigent Christian women. We need an endowment for the Episcopal Fund. We need endowment for Diocesan missionary funds, before was, humanly speaking, through the that we may not only perceive and know what things we ought to do, but also may readers. With this Report a pamphlet is of support), he strikes at the root of the Committee by the Rev. Morgan Dix, S. most efficacious means of giving effect to the T. D., and by Mr. Parker, an eminent principles laid down by him, a better eduas well as hardship and anxiety. The gifts of Rectors, Wardens and Vestrymen. the Church and of the Priesthood. This, we out grief and distress, of the wise men were evidently of large There is no subject of greater practical im- believe to be the point from which the providential provision, by means of which mittee will bear blessed fruit, and that the be taken in the premises, until the cordial the child Jesus escaped the sword of vexed question of the relations of pastor co-operation of the Laity shall have been and people will be satisfactorily settled by enlisted; and that they will not consent When they presented unto Him gifts, another General Convention. It is one to any action, until they clearly understand sented unto Him gifts." God took those done must be done upon conviction and plish much in various ways; but, after all,

Rectors, Wardens and Vestrymen.

what a pritolege given to those Gentile ing upon two irreconcilable views which while personally showing themselves as men! How we should have embraced it meet us at the threshold of the enquiry, as examples of humility, must not shrink from the heavenly bodies, which he first formed and then if offered to us! What a privilege, had it to the nature of the office of the Christian magnifying their office, as even St. Paul put in motion, and gave them laws which were to last been given us to help the suffering Saviour, Ministry; the one, looking upon it as a felt himself bound to do. And our opinion as, under the weight of the cruel Cross, mere profession, to be taken up and laid of the Laity, as a body, is, that when once He staggered along the Via Dolorosa to- down at the pleasure of the individual, and they see clearly in what direction the path Roman soldiery, and the jeers of the the other, regarding it as a Sacred Func- fearlessly, to the end. tion, ordained by God, and committed to If we have faith in Him and in the truth the Church by the delegated authority of of His Word, as great a privilege is within her Great Head. According to the former the reach of us all, to-day. Said He not, view, the Minister receives his commission "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the from men; according to the latter, from least of these my brethren, ye have done it God. The one is a spokesman, elected by peal agreed to take bail for the two imunto me?" We need not to go afar (as the people, the other is an ambassador sent legend says men did) in quest of the Holy by Christ, and a steward of the Divine Grail. If we do, our quest will be in vain. mysteries. No one who is at all familiar with As Mr. Dale's church was closed for re-Story tells of one making the attempt, who, the standards of our Church can fail to as he rode forth, turned with loathing from perceive that she holds to the last named a leper at his door. Returning, after years view; and it necessarily follows from that of wandering, disappointment, and hope view, that perfect independence of those deferred, a broken but a wiser man, he to whom the ambassador is sent, is essenfound the leper still by his door, and gently tial to the integrity of his office. He is to

Yes, like those Magi in old time, we too to such a condition as this, that matters Lord Penzance's assumed authority in discouraged from seeking the Holy Office still remains in Warvick Jail, having exgets an invitation to come. The Watch- by the Court of Appeal. agreeable entertainment, and the utterance faith in His name, one man began in a then comes the temptation to submit to spirit, to join in the discussion.

very small way to provide for the homeless personal inspection and examination, as if again. Our Church Hospitals all over the an ordeal which contains in itself the conberg. In this city, only a few years since, which defies the power of language adeconducive to reform:

munion with the Church should have a in a notice of his resignation, says: vote on the question of appointing or removing the pastor.

3. That the "starving out" system should be abolished, as being simply and Parish. They are almost more important at first than churches.

escape from the slaughter of the Innocents ought to do, and are not doing. God grant relieving the people, of men not fit for the

The Paper read by Mr. Parker is also a very able one; and, as coming from a prominent layman, possesses peculiar interest. Admitting the existence of the held as Rector of St. Paul's Church. evils referred to by Dr. Dix, and the the task must chiefly devolve upon the

The Report of the Committee we shall notice at some future time.

We gather from the English papers that a week before Christmas, the Court of Apprisoned priests, on condition that they would not go near their respective churches. pairs, his acceptance of the proffered boon view, that perfect independence of those to whom the ambassador is sent, is essential to the integrity of his office. He is to teach and to guide; they are to learn and to follow. The inversion of these relations neutralizes the Divine ordinance.

But it is this very thing, the reverend Doctor points out, which has come to pass among ourse!ves; or, to say the least, it is to such a condition as this, that matters month's confinement in gaol had greatly aggravated his previous state of ill health. He immediately left for his son's residence of advancing years and the infimities of age, presented to the Vestry his resignation of the Rectorship of St. Paul's Church; therefore Resolved, That we receive this announcement with profound sorrow; but we recognize in it the same devotion to the Church and to the parish which has always characterized the action of our revered pastor and friend.

Resolved, That in accepting this resignation, we decided against the persecuted priests, Mr. Dale will doubtless be prepared to return to prison, as he has no idea of yielding to Lord Penzance's assumed authority in the carness howaver feether. month's confinement in gaol had greatly were then unanimously adopted:

The Resignation of Dr. Shelton.

One of our oldest and most beloved To the Editor of the Living Church: pastors has resigned his charge. The news with sorrow, that Dr. Shelton, Rector of St. Paul's, Buffalo, has been compelled, by loving faith of William Augustus Muhlen- inal relation of Minister and people, and the infirmities of age, to lay down the great work which for many years he has conducted with signal ability. Dr. Shel-The following points are suggested as ton is a sturdy Churchman of the olden days, a man of strong individuality, and I have not time now to look up. My object is to 1. That the Bishop should have a voice purity of life. Nashotah has found in him state the plan originally adopted in the Church in the appointment and removal of the a true friend, and he has never turned a of the Advent, Boston, for which Dr. Croswell-Rectors of the Parishes within his Diocese. deaf ear to any cause of the Church that 2. That none but persons in full com- appealed to him for aid. The Kalendar,

Thus comes a noble ending to a noble lifework, one which has left its impression on the each aisle, was an alms-chest, or "sure coffer," city, the diocese, and the Church in which the bound with brass, for the Offerings for the poor. grand old doctor has been so prominent and sterling a member and upholder. May he who notice "Remember the Alms-Chest," with some has so worthily completed his task in St. Paul's suitable passages of Holy Scripture, such as, 4. That endowments should be secured live long in honored ease to enjoy the respect for the support of the Incumbent of the and affection of his parishioners and his fellow giveth to the poor," etc. "Inasmuch as ye did townsmen, and may the Vestry who have so it unto one of the least," etc. "I was an hunthoughtfully and kindly arranged matters for his comfort, long enjoy the venerable presence, in 5. That, wherever a real grievance their work and worship, of him whom they have Offerings, put them into a separate bag, and should exist, there should be remedies for so long followed and sustained in all laudable undertakings

> Church, the following letter was read by the Rev. BUFFALO, Jan. 11, 1881.

> I have asked you as a Vestry to meet me this evening, that I might resign the position I have so long day of usefulness, from age and infirmities, is essen" The Report of the Joint Committee ap- necessity that the parish minister should tially passed away. I wish to add, that I consider refugee. The Holy Family were safe pointed by the General Convention of be free to do his duty (which he cannot you have borne with me in my great age longer than others would have done in this selfish and sordid age. enough from reach of Herod, when on the 1877, has been published, and has doubt- possibly be as long as it is in the power of But you will understand that I have not lost my in- but because, in connection therewith, I made the other side of that river of which Milton less received the attention of some of our a Vestry to withhold from him his means terest in the parish nor with the individuals composing it. You will also bear in mind that I have no distrust, neither is there any want of the affectionate issued containing papers read before the matter, when he suggests, as the best and regard which I have so long had for everyone of you. It is simply because I am sure that I promote the best interests, the peace and happiness as well as prosperity of the congregation by the act I now perlayman of New Jersey, on the Functions cation of the people as to the true nature of form. But it is quite impossible fer me to free my-

> My parish, which I now relinquish, has been to me my only care, and the ceaseless object of interest, tian charity has been accomplished, affords the portance now before the American Church, entire movement has to take its start. For my only care, and the coascless object of interest. and we trust that the work of this Com- it is most certain that no effectual step can prosperous, united, and happy body of Christians. My many defects and infirmities have been borne with a uniform and kindly forbearance, and it has been at all times generous, kind and considerate.

great and grand doctrines of the Christian religion, according to the Catholic or universal teachings of the Church, as expressed in her Creeds, in her Liturgy, and in her History. Private opinion has had no

The changing opinions and views, both of doctrines and practice of others, have not been followed, because I have believed the Church to be supreme and infinitely above all novelties, both in practice and in

You have ever heard this great and fundamental truth-that God made and fashioned and gave authority, as well as all truth which is necessary to salvation, to the Church, as he did to the movements of sacredly, believing in them, notwithstanding the de- head, and bathing His feet with tears. nials, the errors, the confusion of the religious world, all of which would come to an end if these ward Golgotha, amid the shouts of the deriving its exercise from the will of man; of duty lies, they will follow it, loyally and views were adopted. I do not desire to express my great humility, which is felt when I look upon the errors and mistakes of a long life now soon to end. But I wish to say, that your indulgence, and that of those who have gone before you, have had much to do with the prosperity and harmony of the Church, both in the past and in the present.

I must trust that God will pardon what has been done so imperfectly, considering that He has entrusted so many and great and sacred duties to earthen Without intending to go more minutely into all that can be said, I respectfully subscribe myself as your old and long-tried friend, WILLIAM SHELTON.

The reading of the letter called forth many strong and earnest expressions of love and affecinvolved no breach of principle; and two tion to the Doctor, and the following resolutions holy offices of religion as health and strength may permit.

Resolved, That we wish to express, however feebly and imperfectly, our appreciation of the great ability, the noble and generous conduct, and, above all, the Christian faith and earnestness, as well as the marvellous fidelity to the poor, the sick, and the afflicted, which for more than fifty years has been exemplified by the Rev. Dr. Shelton in this parish. Whenever any effort was to be made involving self-sacrifice, he has always led the way with a courage and liberality which has ensured success. By the vestry and the congregation these qualities and these sacrifices can never be forgotten. They will remain among the chieftest treasures we possess, and they will leave an impression upon this parish which will not be effaced.

DELAWARE.-A correspondent says, in a re-We desire to call the attention of our cent communication to the LIVING CHURCH: "I There are too many among our clergy, faithful laity to the series of letters begun was lately present at a very interesting Festival Service of the Sunday schools of Trinity Church, Wilmington, where the system and order, as well as the admirable singing, were very commenda-> week, and this week we have two letters, both too little children in His arms and blesses them. late for this issue.

Free Church System and Alms.

The LIVING CHURCH has recently printed some communications, in regard to the practical difficulty, under the Free Church System, of the alms for the poor. Under the old regime of "St. First Sunday in the Month," the Offerings went to the Priest, for the poor; and the same, of course, can now be done, whether the parish is supported by pew rentals or by free-will offerings. However, there are some practical difficulties, mentioned by the correspondents, but which the first Rector-should have the credit; and which, in my judgment, is altogether the best of any I have ever known.

1st. Within each entrance to the body of the church, fastened to the side of the first pew of In the vestibule, and elsewhere, was a printed "The poor ye have always with you." "He that gered," etc. Then, every Sunday morning, the Rector opened the alms-chests, took out the placed them upon the Altar with the other Offerings, and then had the sole charge of them At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Paul's for the objects specified. These alms-chests never failed to yield an amount sufficient for the purpose, and eventually accumulated a fund. In my Report, of 1865, I stated the amount, in the course of the year, to be as follows: Almschests, exclusive of Christmas Offerings, $1,-496.18. I give the result for that year-one thousand four hundred and ninety-six dollars and eighteen cents-not because we never had more, nor because there was anything exceptional, following remarks, which I beg leave to extract from my Annual Report:

ALMS-CHESTS.-The quiet, silent, and almost invisible operation of our alms-chests during the year-actually invisible so far as the individual donor is concerned-must delight you all. Not that we have done more than we ought, or as much as God has enabled us to do; but, that the manner in which this blessed work of Chrisstrongest possible evidence of the deepest humility, united with the most self-denying faith. On one occasion, there was one hundred dollars, with no name, and no other record, than "a I need not say that I have steadily inculcated the thank-offering for recovery from sickness; to be given to the poor." On another-"fifty dollars for shoes for the poor." On another-"sixty dollars for the clothing department." On another-"one hundred dollars," marked with the words, "A poor widow." And this is but an outline, the most having been given for no special purpose other than that of enabling the parish to provide for her sick, suffering, and starving. No words of mine can express the gratitude of my heart for these Offerings in the Alms-chests; more blessed and sacred, because less worldy than all our other offerings of devotion, and manifesting, even in our degenerate age, the same love which once broke the alabaster box of I need not say that I have cherished these views precious ointment, pouring it upon the Saviour's

> So much for the success of the alms-chest. Now (2d.), for the plan of disbursing the alms. for which, also, the parish was indebted to Dr. Croswell, but which I hear, much to the sorrow of many has since been changed. Each family, or each one of the regular beneficiaries, was placed under the charge of some particular person, to be visited weekly, cared for, and reported about weekly to the Rector. Every Wednesday, after Morning Prayer, there was a meeting of the visitors or guardians, who then made their report to the Rector, and received the allowance from the Charity Fund, increased or diminished according to the necessities of the case. What a blessing this was to the poor of the parish, need not be stated. How they were cared for in every way, morally and spiritually, as well as physically, insomuch that the weekly visits of the persons having charge, were sometimes spoken of, and looked forward to, as those of guardian angels.

(3d.) One thing more I would like to say in regard to the operation of the Free Church System in the Church of the Advent. No envelopes were used for pledges. Every second Sunday in the month, special Offerings were received for stated Church objects, over and above the Offerings for the support of the parish, for which, of course, envelopes were placed in the pews, and, in case of any special application by agents or Bishop, the same plan was adopted; nor did I ever know of any failure to respond. Moreover, I feel it my duty to deny the common report that the parish was dependent upon one or two benevolent people, rich in this world's goods. Not at all. I think the poor gave more than the rich, as a general rule.

The ravages of scarlet-fever and diphtheria

J. A. BOLLES.

are very fatal in the city now, and many lovely children are falling victims to the dread destroyer. Grace Church Sunday School lost one of its little members, last week, by membranous croup. She was Louise, daughter of Ira Holmes, Esq. She had endeared herself very greatly to her Rector, her Sunday School teacher, and all her companions, by her tractable spirit, her sweet obedience, and her warm, loving nature. Her death was a terrible blow to her parents; and it was hard for them to lay her away in the full fury of the driving snow-storm of Thursday last. But they know her to be in Paradise, with the Our English Letter did not come to hand last Lord of Glory; Who, there, as on earth, tskes

Chicago, Jan. 17, 1881.

Church News.

WESTERN MICHIGAN .- The good people of Battle Creek had an intellectual feast last Monday night in the way of a most erudite and eloquent lecture by the Rev. Frederick Courtney, of St. James' Church, Chicago. This lecture was in response to an urgent invitation by the superintendent and teachers of the High School in this city, the proceeds of which were to be devoted towards the enriching the Museum. As the reverend gentleman did not wish to enter the popular lecture arena, as a platform speaker, it, was suggested that he take for his topic "the life and character of St. Paul," which would be a legitimate theme for any clergyman to discuss at any time, and at any place. Mr. Courtney kindly acquiesced, and painted with words a magnificent portrait of that many sided Apostle. He spoke extemporaneously for nearly two hours, and so attentive was his audience, that to use a French figure of speech, "you could almost hear the unfolding of a pocket handkerchief." The audience embraced many of the most cultured people of the city, and of every religious color. All alike were gratified, and united in pronouncing Mr. Courtney's lecture a masterly effort.

WYOMING.—At Evanston, Christmas Services were held in the Court-house, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Samual Unsworth, assistant to Bishop Tuttle at the new and beautiful chapel at Salt Lake City, is proaching departure of the Rector for another the missionary in charge and holds Services here field of work; he having accepted an urgent and once a month. The people of this little mission are very earnest, and devoted to the Church, del County, Maryland, made vacant by the death and the Services are well attended. They are of his father, in June last. The Rector baptised now preparing for a fair, which is soon to be held, for the benefit of the church.

MINNESOTA.-A Church Mission has been started at Glyndon, in this diocese. Last Advent, a Sunday school was set on foot, which now numbers about forty-six scholars. Evening Prayer is said, every Sunday, by the lay-reader, Mr. Johnston. There is an excellent choir; and the attendance, both at Divine Service and at the Sunday school, is very good. An association also, has been formed, by the name of "St. John's Aid Society," which meets weekly for Church-work. The Rev. E. S. Peake, pastor of the Church at Detroit Lake, visits this station once or twice a month.

At the Christmas celebration in Trinity Church, St. Charles, the Rector, Rev. L. F, Cole, was remembered by the children of the Sunday school, in the gift of a parish Communion Service. At Pine Island, the ladies of the parish presented him with a Webster's Unabridged Dic- adults 9, infants 19; total, 28. Confirmed. 28 tionary, and a book rest. At Zumbrota, the (one-sixth of the whole number in 18 years) church is nearly completed, wanting only win-

QUINCY .- The Bishop visited St. Stephen's Church, Pittsfield, on the 5th of January, and on the day of the Epiphany. The parish became vacant, by the removal, about the middle of October, of the Rector, the Rev. Edward P. Little. to the Diocese of New Hampshire. All the people deeply regret their loss. On the Eve of the Epiphany, after a sermon by the Bishop, two persons were confirmed. The Epiphany Service was well attended. Infant baptism was admin-Eucharist celebrated. About forty communicants were present. The Bishop was assisted by the Church, Wyoming. In the afternoon, the Bishop | the Church, and enjoys the privilege of Even officiated at the marriage of the youngest daughter of the Warden of the church.

On the first Sunday after the Epiphany, in Christ Church, Limestone Prairie, two persons all purposes; and the demand for suitable Sunwere confirmed. The church is of stone, built, twenty years ago, by settlers from England, with considerable aid from friends across the ocean. The Rector, the Rev. John Benson, one of the oldest of our clergy, faithful and deeply reverenced, is untiring in duty, though much enfeebled in health. In the evening, the Bishop preached baptisms, 155; confirmations, 47; communicants in St. Paul's Church, Peoria. Tuesday and added, 108, removed, 69, recorded, 103: mar-Wednesday, 11th and 12th, the Bishop spent in riages, 11; burials, 62; Public Services, 1,555; Bowling and Preemption, rural districts in the Sunday scholars, 145. Total receipts, $13,400; north-western part of the Diocese. Congregations here have been gathered, churches found $400; improvements, $4,000; debts paid. $800: and sustained, where are no villages, only farms, dividing among themselves the rich prairie land. Not a few of the most energetic of the Church, addition of chancel, organ loft, sacristy, and in parts of Nebraska and Kansas, had their tuition in these parishes and in that at Limestone. Could all have been withheld from the attraction of the far West and North-west, these had continued among the largest and strongest of the Churches in Quincy.

In St. John's Church, Preemption, the Bishop confirmed seven. It was indeed cheering to note, that the extreme cold of these coldest of nights of this coldest of winters, could not keep the people from assembling at the Service. The church was, on several occasions, crowded, and, at all times, well attended.

heavy loss in the death of the Rev. W. S. Gray, were present. A business meeting was held at missionary at Effingham, after only a few week's the Rectory on Tuesday afternoon. Missionary service at his new work. Mr. Gray was born in work of the county was reported on. The re-1834, in Sackville, near Halifax, Nova Scotia, port of the Treasurer showed that the Parishes where his father was Rector. He took his degree had generally contributed one-half of their apat King's College, Windsor, and was ordained portionment for the present convention year. both deacon and priest by Bishop Binney. After Rev. Mr. George, of Woodbury, presented an having temporary charges at Sackville and Gran- Exegesis on Hebrews xii. 1. An essay was read ville, Annapolis County, he was located at New by Rev. Hiram Stone, of Bantam, on the con-Ross, Queen's County, where he remained for tinuity of the Church through the ages. The over two years. He then entered upon his life- Church of England and the "Protestant Episcowork as missionary of the S. P. G. at Rosette, pal" Church of the United States being Historic and Dalhousie, in Annapolis Royal, Annapolis Branches of the Church of Christ, afforded a County, N. S. Here he labored successfully for basis of unity among Christians. Evening Ser-

With this purpose he was, in November last, first Service in his new field on Advent Sunday. pects were of the most encouraging kind, but Ft. Wayne, Secretary of Convocation. within two weeks he was taken with the sickness that ended his earthly life. During his illness he had his wife and son with him, and received every possible kindness and attention from his parishioners, and from the Sisters at the Roman Catholic Hospital. After five werks of suffering Bishops, there occurs the following paragraph. his spirit passed peacefully into Paradise, on Sunday night, January 8th. His body was committed to the ground with the Services of the course; but the plan having worked so well in Church, by the Rev. Jesse Higgins, of Centralia, on Tuesday morning, January 11th. Mr. Gray and I, therefore, send it to you, hoping it may was a man of fine ability and matured experi- reach the eyes of many who do not take, and of ence, and was characterized by a simple earnests others, perhaps, who take but do not thoroughly ness and self-sacrifice. During his brief work read, the Spirit of Missions. If I should exhere, he gained the affection of all his people, and both he and his bereaved family will be remembered in our prayers. May the Master soon send some one to take the work thus left without a pastor. May he rest in peace!

Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese visited this par- given. The Rector, with the faithful aid and coish on the eve of the Feast of the Circumcision and administered Confirmation. This is the attained under the vestry. The parsonage has second visit for this purpose during the past been much enlarged and improved, which adds year, and was made at this time owing to the aprepeated invitation to All Hallow's Parish, Aruntwo adults, and, after an eloquent sermon by the Bishop, on the last verse of the Gospel for the Feast of the Circumcision, presented eight candidates. They were led, one by one, to the Bishop, sitting in his chair, to receive the Laying on of Hands. After the Rite, they were briefly addressed by the Bishop, and special notice made of their number eight, which, as the to his death. number of perfection and of the Holy Name, was something to be remembered by them in connection with their receiving this Holy Rite on the Eve of that Day on which Jesus was named.

this parish only a year and six weeks, and entered the best wishes of many friends in Chicago who upon duty after a vacancy in the parish of nearly seven months. From a report made at Advent, it is of interest to record something of the work done in that time. Sunday Services, 123: other renounced the ministry. Bishop Neely acted for Holy Days, 48; Week-days, 130; total, 301. Holy the Bishop of New Hampshire who is in Europe Communion celebrated 56 times; Baptisms, Marriages, 2; Burials, 4. In addition, there have been duties of the Dean. Baptisms, 2 adults, and 2 infants. Four Celebrations of the Holy

PHILADELPHIA.-Church of St. John the. Baptist, Germantown .- On Sunday, Jan. 16th. the Rev. C. Kinloch Nelson, Jr., read a record of work during the five years of his rectorate, of John's, Washington. which the following summary is furnished. All sittings in the church are free, and the parish the interests of his missionary and educational depends for its support upon the Offerings of work in Utah, for which he hopes to gather was well attended. Infant baptism was administered, an address upon the manifestation of the Lord was made by the Bishop, and the Holy ficiency are noteworthy. A choir of twenty-four have been educated. men and boys supplies the music, without cost Rev. Thomas H. Eddy, Rector of St. Luke's The Sunday School is thoroughly identified with song, every Sunday. The parish is poor, but its members give liberally of their means. The church-building is of necessity used for almost all purposes; and the demand for suitable Sun-lacking one day. day School accommodation is most urgent. The Holy Communion is celebrated on Sundays and Holy Days. Four Services on Sunday, four through the week, and daily Morning and Evening Prayer in Lent, afford abundant opportunities of worship. Some of the Statistics arepaid in salaries, $5,500; missions and charities, ground rent, $693.20; unclassified, $1,492.78. The improvements of most importance are the choir-room; the building of a fine organ, and the paving and curbing of both fronts of the church lot. "Nisi Dominus, frustra."

> CONNECTICUT. - The church in Westville, vacated by Mr. Finlow, is taken by Mr. Sanford, nephew of Judge Sanford. Mr. Lusk succeeded Mr. Coleman in North Haven. The church in Guilford is not yet settled. Dr. Bennett, the former Rector, is officiating at present, till the vacancy shall be filled.

Litchfield Arch-Deaconry. - The quarterly meeting of this arch-deaconery was held in Trinity Parish, Walcotville, on Tuesday and SPRINGFIELD.—The diocese has met with a Wednesday, Jan. 11th and 12th. Ten clergymen

INDIANA.-A Convocation of the Northern transferred to Springfield, and assigned to work | Deanery will be held, D. V., in St. Thomas' at Effingham and parts adjacent, and held the Church, Plymouth, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursdry, Jan. 25, 26, 27, 1881. Rev. J. J. He went actively to work, and the Church pros- | Faude, Rector, is Dean; and Rev. W. N. Webbe, Financial Improvement.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

In a recent report of one of our Missionary Whether the good Bishop meant it to be taken as a hint by other parishes, we cannot say, of this instance, I think it deserves to be noted; press an opinion from my own observation, I would say I think it a capital plan:

"St. - Fork in the hands of the Rev. -, is doing its appointed work with pastor. May he rest in peace! quiet, persistent determination. The parish is at present without a vestry, having failed to elect one at Easter, although due notice had been operation of the treasurer, has worked the finances up to a better condition than was ever greatly to the comfort and health of its occu-

January 8th, 1881.

Personal Mention.

The Rev. John H. White, late of Saybrook Conn., has entered upon his duties as Rector of Christ Church, Joliet. He has taken hold of his work with vigor, and will, we are sure, restore this old parish to its old prosperity.

St. Paul's Church, Hyde Park, has called the Rev. Arthur Bixby, of Narragansett Pier, R. I. A lady at Tonica, Ill., has given $1,000 towards a rectory for the Rev. N. W. Heermans, of Am-Mr. H. ministered to her husband previous from a trip to Dakota, called yesterday at the office of the LIVING CHURCH.

The Rev. W. H. Knowlton has resigned St. Andrews Church, Chicago, to accept a call to The Rev. D. A. Bonnar has been in charge of Painesville, Ohio. Mr. K. will carry with him have appreciated his work, and admire his ser-

> Rev. William Stevens Tucker, deacon, has been deposed by the Bishop of Maine, he having The address of the Rev. Geo. W. Stickney is Charleston, S. C., and not, as stated in one of the Church Almanacs, Mt. Pleasant, S. C.

We had a welcome call, last week, from the Rev. C. Collard Adams, on his way to his new parish, at Escanaba.

Rev. J. W. Paige, of Sharon Springs, Albany, Communion, and 3 confirmed, outside of the N. Y., sails for Europe on or about the 24th of January to be gone some months. Rev. R. A. Olin, of Glens Falls, Albany, N. Y.

has received a call to Watertown, Central New York, vice Rt. Rev. Dr. Brewer, of Montana. Rev. Dr. Vibbert, of Germantown, has declined his recent election to the Rectorship of St.

Bishop Tuttle is now in the East, looking after Deaths.

RUSSELL.—At St. Paul's Rectory, Paterson, N.J., on the eve of the Epiphany, Mrs. Lydia Russell, aged 79 years, mother of Rev. E. B. Russell. "Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee."

OLIVER.—At his home in Chesterfield, Ill., Jan. 8, 1881, Robert Oliver, Junior Warden of St. Peter's Church, aged 62 years.

"In the Communion of the Catholic Church; in the confidence of a certain faith." A good man, greatly Potices.

Grace Church: Cedar Rapids, Iowa, having just built (and paid for) a handsome Mission Chapel, at a cost of $5,000, in which are already gathered a Sunday School of 150 scholars, and a good congregation. desires to secure the services of a young unmarried clergyman, as an Assistant to the Rector.

For particulars, as to salary, etc., address the Rector,

REV. SAMUEL RINGGOLD.

Wanted.—For Christ Church, Houston, Texas, an Organist—one used to Surpliced Choir, a Communicant, and a Churchman. Good opening for Music Teacher, either vocal or instrumental. Terms for Organist, $40 per month. Apply to the Rector, with credentials.

A Priest (married) desires the temporary charge of a Parish. Musical, High Church views. Address H. G., office of Living Church.

A Bed for Incurables.

Contributions are solicited for the endowment of a bed for incurables in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago. bed for incurables in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago. No hospital receives incurables, except in very rare instances; and the unfortunate people who cannot recover, are often reduced to great suffering for the want of proper care. One bed at least in St. Luke's will be set apart for that class, for which purpose $3,000 is absolutely necessary; on its being obtained the income of that amount will be used for its support. Any sum will be acceptable, and acknowledgement will be made in this paper. Rev. Clinton Locke requests that all who feel inclined to aid in the good work will inclose their contributions to Miss Olive Lay, 321 Michigan avenue, who has kindly consented to take charge of this fund.

Through Mrs. Locke... Sunday School of Christ Church, Ottawa, Ill... "A Prairie Home," Morgan Park S. S. St. Mark's Church, Evanston, Ill.

Previous contributions..... MISS OLIVE LAY, Treasurer.

twenty years, and it is here that he is known and loved. About two years ago his health was broken down by the long missionary rides in his rural parish, and after trying in vain to recuperate, he felt that the only way to prolong his usefulness would be by an entire change of climate.

Dasis of unity among Christians. Evening Services was said in the church, at 7:30 P. M., after which, missionary addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. Seymour, Walker, and Johnson. The Holy Communion was celebrated on Wednesday morning, the sermon being preached by the Arch-deacon, Rev. Mr. Seymour.

A CHALLENGE TO SAWING MACHINE MEN.—The United States Manufacturing Company, of Chicago, Ill., claim that their sawing machine in America, and the President of the company has deposited one thousand dollars in the bank of Preston, Kean & Co., of Chicago, as a challenge against any other Sawing Machines, but, so far, none of them have accepted this challenge.

Grand Avenue Hotel, Milwaukee. 909 Grand Avenue, C. A. Buttles, Proprietor. Hotel contains 90 rooms, with dining room 40 feet square. New and elegantly furnished, and surrounded by a large lawn. All the home comforts can be had which could be desired by tourists or travellers. Terms $2.00 to $2.50 per day, or special rates made by the week or month.

Important to Travellers.

Special inducements are offered you by the Bur-tington route. It will pay you to read their adver-tisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The Chicago Scale Company sell 2-ton wagon scale for $40, 3-ton, $50, 4-ton, $60. These are the best and cheapest scales made. Price-list free.

FOR SALE.—At a bargain, a Type Writer, good as new. Address Rev. d'E. J., Fiskdale, Mass.

KOUNTZE BROTHERS.

BANKERS,

120 Broadway (Equitable Building), NEW YORK.

LETTERS OF CREDIT

AND CIRCULAR NOTES

Issued for the use of travelers in all parts of the world.

Bills drawn on the Union Bank of London. Telegraphic transfers made to London and to various places in the United States. Deposits received subject to check at sight, and interest allowed or belonger.

lowed on balances. Government and other bonds and investment securi

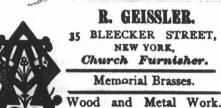

NINE to TWELVE per Cent. Interest On long time loans, with best security in the world.

DAKOTA WHEAT LANDS,

In the famous valley of the Red River of the North constituting what is known as the "Golden North oy. Mr. H. ministered to her husband previous o his death.

The Rev. Charles De Lancey Allen, returning rom a trip to Dakota, called yesterday at the company of the compan Loans negotiated without charge by the Valley

HERBERT ROOT, Valley City, Barnes Co., Dakota.

Send for Circular. TEXTS in Velvet Paper for Christmas Decorations. White Cloth 72 inches wide, $5. Per Yard. Circulars free.

To be Published January 1st.

'Hours With the Bible.

BY CUNNINGHAM GEIKIE, D. D., AUTHOR OF "THE LIFE AND WORDS OF CHRIST." 500 Pages in Cloth $1.50.

CONTENTS. Genesis. Ancient Ideas, Sacred and Profane, of God and Nature—A contrast. Ancient Legends of Creation. The Bible and Modern Science.

The Bible and Modern Science.
Jewish Ideas of Nature and of Creation.
The Age of the World.
Adam and Eve.
The Story of Eden.
The Antiquity of Man.

IX. The Antiquity of Man.

X. The Antiquity and Origin of Man.

XI. Origin of Man, and his Primitive Condition, etc.

XII. The Descendants of Adam.

XIII. The Flood, concluded.

XV. After the Flood.

XVI. The Table of Nations.

VII. The First Glimpse of National History.

VIII. The First Beginnings of the Hebrew Nations.

XIX. The Migrations of Abraham.

nations.
The Migrations of Abraham.
The Friend of God.
Palestine and Egypt in Abraham's Days.
Abraham's Second Residence in Canaan.
Isaac and his Sons, XIX. The Migra XX. The Frier XXI. Palestine XXII. Abraham XXIII. Isaac and XXIV. Joseph.

DIVINELY LED,

ROBERT OWEN'S GRANDDAUGHTER. In Paper, 10 cents. In Cloth, 50 cents.

I have read your autobiography with profit and pleasure. The facts are of passing interest, and you have stated them with singular grace and felicity. It must arrest attention and be of wide use. C. F. ROBERTSON, Bishop of Missouri I consider it the most beautiful prose Epic of t age. H. H. COLE

For Sale by JAMES POTT, 12 Aster Place, N. Y.

TO CLERGYMEN.

OUR CLEARANCE LIST No. 5

Valuable Theological Books To close out editions, will be mailed free on application.

E. P. DUTTON & CO., CHURCH PUBLISHERS, 713 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Vermont and New Hampshire

DIRECTORIESEither Mailed on Receipt of 25 cents, by

S. L. FORMAN, Publishers.

Claremont, N. H. Authors & Publishers

onsult their own interests if they consult the

CLAREMONT MANUFACTING CO. CLAREMONT, N. H., Before they make contracts for the MAKING OF BOOKS.

Valentines, Stationery, Toys, Notions and Willow 222 N. CLARK ST., Between Chicago Ave., and Superior Street. FRED BEEMER.

(CHEAP JOHN.)

Sermons of the City.

By HENRY C. POTTER, D. D.,

Rector of Grace Church, New York. 12mo, 22 Sermons, 348 pages, $1.75.

CONTENTS:

1—St. Paul in the Market place.
2—"He beheld the City."
3—The Citizen's Twofold Stewardship.
4—The Homes of the Poor.
5—The Social Indifferentist.
6—The Perils of Wealth.

6—The Perils of Wealth.
7—The Slaughter of the Innocents.
8—Pearls before Swine.
9—The Duty of Women to Women.
10—Institutionalism; Its Dangers and Failures.
11—Related Life.
12—Our Debtors.
13—"Owe no Man Anything."
14—Faith in God and Man.
15—One Another's Burdens.
16—The Impotence of Money.
17—The Christian Life Organic.
18—The Empty Life.
19—Amusements.

19—Amusements.
20—Cost and Beauty in Christian Worship.
21—Faith and Culture.
22—The Ultimate Temple.

"The questions which I have considered in the following pages are among the most urgent of those that at present challenge attention. A living Church must needs have something to say to such questions, and unless at least their gravity and importance are candidly recognized, it cannot expect to retain its hold upon thoughtful people."—From Introductory Note. THE BOHLEN LECTURES, 1880. THE EVIDENTIAL VALUE

OF THE Acts of the Apostles.

By the Very Rev. J. S. Howson, D. D., Dean of Chester, England. 12mo, 186 pages,

RE I.—General Characteristics of the Book. II.—The Relation of this Book to the Gospel History. III.—The Book of the Acts in Connection with the Apostolic Epistols.

IV.—The Usefulness of the Book for Instruction and Edification. THE NEW AND CHEAP EDITION OF Church Doctrine, Bible Truth. By the Rev. F. M. SADLER, M. A. Twenty-fourth Thousand, 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

CANON BARRY'S BOYLE LECTURES. The Manifold Witness for Christ

Being an attempt to exhibit the combined force of various evidences of Christianity, direct and indirect. The Boyle Lectures for 1877-78. By Canon Barry, D. D. 8vo, 422 pages, $3 00.

Part I. CHRISTIANITY AND NATURAL THEOLOGY.

Part II. THE POSITIVE EVIDENCE OF CHRISTIANITY.

"Dr. Barry is the Principal of King's College, London, and almost more than any other Christian writer on apologetics in our day has brought together the various evidences of Christianity, direct or indirect, in such a way that their combined force is expressed in the terms of present thinking. He is one of the first writers of our time on this class of subjects." -New York Times.

THE NEW BAMPTON LECTURES.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH. The Bampton Lectures for 1879. By the Rev. Henry Wace, M. A., Professor of Ecclesiastical History in King's College,

London. 8vo, $3.50. "The book is not only a real help toward the confirmation of faith, but also one which can hardly fail to quicken and deepen the reader's spiritual life."-London Literary Churchman. "The author never loses sight of the special errors which are to-day rife in the world, and his arguments are always fashioned to meet present wants. In some parts the volume is remarkably strong, and, as a whole, it is a most valuable contribution to the theological literature of the age."-The Churchman.. For sale at the bookstores, or sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price.

E. P. Dutton & Co., PUBLISHERS,

713 Broadway, New York.

The Church League Tracts.

1. The Real Presence; 2. Prayers for the Dead; 3. Catholics and Roman Catholics; 4. One Religion is as Good as Another; 5. Outward Reverence; its Logic and Its Law; 6. Anglican Orders and Jurisdiction; 7. The Bible and the Prayer-Book on Confession; 8. What Church Service Must I Attend; 9. The Christian Priesthood; 10. Plain Words on Confirmation; 11. What is Public Worship; 12. Our Own Advantages; 13. Baptism Scripturally and Historically Considered; 14. The Scriptural Proof of Episcopacy; 15. Doctrine and Ritual; 16. The Holy Ghost the Life of the Church; 17. Spiritual Communion; 18. Why the Anglican Church Rejects Transubstantiation; No. 19. The Necessity and Nature of Public Worship; No. 20. Reasons for Receiving the Holy Communion Fasting; No. 21. A Card of Private Devotion; No. 22. I Have no Time; No. 23. But I Have Tried; No. 24. I Am no Worse Than Others; No. 25. I Can Read my Bible at Home; No. 26. I Cannot Afford to go to Church; No. 27. Family Relations and Church Going.

A complete set of the Tracts, (excepting 21) will be sent to any address on receipt of 30 cents. A complete set of the Tracts, (excepting 21) will be

A complete set of the Track, (excepting 21) with be sent to any address on receipt of 30 cents.

Price of Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, and 17, 19, 20, fifty cents per hundred, of Nos. 3, 4, 11, 16, 18, 22, 27, thirty cents per hundred, and of 23, 24, 25, 26, twenty cents per hundred. Nos. 12, and 21, By mail, 5 cents each. No. 13, $1 a hundred. No. 14, $1 50 a hundred. Address JOHN F. CABOT, Secretary,

18 Liberty Street, N. Y

Music for the Million.

My Angel Mother. Stewart.
School Girls dream, Instr. Messinger.
When the Dew Drops Klss the Roses. Williams.
Little Sweetheart Smile Again. Keefer.
Cottage in the Lane. Jolley.
Don't Mourn After Me, Darling. Hoyt.
Kiss the Baby Once for me. Hays.
Only to see Her Face again. Stewart.
Daily Gray. Fairfield.
Listen to the Old Church Bell. Fairfield.
De Darkies Holiday. Keefer.
Mary's Gone with a Coon. Stewart.
Listening to the Band. Stewart.
Listening to the Band. Stewart. Address Geo.D. Newhall & Co., Cincinnati, O. LYON & HEALY, Chicago, Ill.

Church Calendar.

JANUARY, 1881.

Feast of Circumcision.

Feast of Circumcision.
2d Sunday after Christmas.
Feast of the Epiphany.
1st Sunday after Epiphany.
Friday. Fast.
2d Sunday after Epiphany.
Friday. Fast.
3d Sunday after Epiphany.
Conversion of St. Paul.
Friday. Fast.
4th Sunday after Epiphany.

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come under my roof. S. MATTHEW, viii.8.

By calling himself unworthy, the centurion he have said this with so great faith and humil- one.' ity had he not borne Him in his heart, of Whose For this Master of humility, both by word and any one can be." example, sat down even in the house of a certain S. AUGUSTINE.

I could sit, and sit and weep Over my heart's sorrow; But on Thine Arm Thou bidst me sleep, And wait Thy morrow.

If most forgiven could most love, Sweet were my sadness. I should be a winged dove, And drink wells of gladness. ISAAC WILLIAMS.

Not Knowing.

mist o'er my eyes, And o'er each step of my onward path He makes new scenes to rise: And every joy He sends me, comes as a sweet and glad suprrise.

But the past is still in God's keeping, the future His mercy shall clear; what looks dark in the distance, may brighten as I draw near.

For perhaps the dreaded future has less bitter things than I think; The Lord may sweeten the water, before I stoop

Or if Marah must be Marah, He will stand beside the brink. It may be He has, waiting for the coming of my feet. Some gift of such rare blessings, some joy so strangely sweet, That my lips can only tremble with the thanks I can't repeat. O restful, blissful ignorance! 'Tis blessed not to

It keeps me quiet in the arms which will not let me go, And hushes my soul to rest, on the bosom which

So I go on, not knowing—I would not if I might; I would rather walk in the dark with God than go alone in the light—
I would rather walk with Him by faith than walk alone by sight. My heart shrinks back from trials which the future must disclose, Yet I never had a sorrow but what the dear Lord chose;

pered words, "He knows." -Selected.

"He giveth Snow like Wool." Written for the Living Church.

None but the finger of God could scatter upon the landscape such beauty as appeared in a winter scene, December 30

We were speeding along with the keenest relish of the fresh healthful air, while all about us were tokens of the Frost-King's reign. Excepting where the sleighs had made travelled paths, an unbroken sheet of white covered the earth. The shrubs were adorned with fleecy tufts, and the evergreen boughs upheld great heaps of snow. Even the tall boles of the walnut and chestnut presented a pearly aspect on the leeward sides.

How grand and glorious were fields, and woods, and hedges, with crystal wreaths and feathery flakes, and a dazzling encrusted surface! Now and then a fringe of icicles varied the beauteous display.

Our hearts were full of gratitude for the changing seasons that leave no room for weariness, but rather impel the ejaculation, "O ye Winter and Summer, bless ye the Lord; praise Him, and magnify Him forever!'

Once in awhile, to be sure, the frigid breath of this December day touched us pretty sharply; but, even while we felt its discomfort, we knew that to the soil, and to the tender plants, the Word of God is true. "He giveth snow like wool," so we bore with patience the nipping frost, in view of the good that comes to our mother earth; and to the silent things that will by and by spring up, and burst forth into brightness and gladness. F. B. S.

pose in what it says, and habitually sneers what the lady had said to her, and grew and jests, that paper is a good one to let dark and troubled, and she answered al- have passed her by if he hadn't been drinkalone. To this class belong too many of our daily newspapers, in which a real apprehension of the seriousness of life, and of its nobility and beauty, seems utterly lacking. The habitual reading of such papers is enough to make a joker without with a lack of the seriousness of life, and of than a worker, a grimacing, monkey-like looker-on, rather than a soldier in the battle of life.—Good Literature.

In good to us, and how tell his mates where it came from; and so he took it out of poor Netty's hand with a rough laugh, telling her she was "a good looker than a soldier in the battle of life.—Good Literature.

In good to us, and how he took it out of poor Netty's hand with a rough laugh, telling her she was "a good laugh, telling her she was "a good and left her furible to be in the manage of the accomplishments as you can afford, and Netty's face grew soft again, as she girl to treat her father," and left her furible to be in the manage of the accomplishments as you can afford, and Netty's face grew soft again, as she girl to treat her father," and left her furible to be in the manage of the accomplishments as you can afford, and Netty's face grew soft again, as she girl to treat her father," and left her furible to be in the manage of the accomplishments as you can afford, but never neglect their home training.—Ex.

The Lady Rahel's Dream. Written for the Living Church.

Who was the "Lady Rahel?" One of the most brilliant women of Berlin. Born a Jewess, by faith a Christian, and in 1814, by marriage, the wife of August Varnhagen Von Ense.

No beauty, no riches, yet at forty-three years of age captivating a man twelve years her junior, and happily wedded too! Of positive intellectual ability, but humble; desiring no publicity in life, yet winning the admiration and esteem of all who met

Goethe calls her, "a right woman, with the strongest feelings I have ever seen, and showed himself unworthy for Christ to come not the completest mastery of them." Richinto his house, but into his heart. Nor would ter addressed her by the title "winged

The Marquis de Custine says of her: coming into his house he was afraid. For it "She had the head of a sage, and the were no great happiness for the Lord Jesus to heart of an Apostle, and in spite of that, enter into his house, and yet not to be in his heart. she was a child and a woman as much as

Speaking of "the flashes of genius which proud Pharisee, by name Simon; and though He she threw from her in conversation," he sat down in his house, there was no place in his says: "Whence came they? Was it the heart where the Son of Man could lay His head. effect of long studies? Was it the effect of sudden inspriation? It was the intuition granted as recompense by Heaven to souls that are true."

"Sincerity, pure tenderness, and genuineness," are the characteristics with which Carlyle endows her, in his review of her letters, as given to the world by her husband after her death. It was this brilliant woman who speaks thus of her childhood: "In my seventh year, I dreamt that I saw God quite near me; He stood expanded apove me, and His mantle was the whole I know not what will befall me; God hangs a sky. On a corner of His mantle I had leave to rest, and lay there in peaceable felicity, till I awoke. Ever since, through my whole life, this dream has returned on me, and in the worst times was present, I see not a step before me, as I tread the days of also in my waking moments, and a heavenly comfort to me. I had leave to throw myself at God's feet on a corner of His Mantle, and He screened me from all sorrow there; He permitted it.'

Precious thought! that all above is the Mantle of God's love; Him enwrapping, yet so wide As to cover earth beside!

Little Jewess sweetly dreaming, Of the real,—not the seeming, Now it proves the peace and rest Dwelling in thy gentle breast!

Weary of the care and woe Scattered in our path below, We may mount and soar on high, And upon God's Mantle lie. By His sacred nearness blest,

We shall have our perfect rest; And, secure from every harm, May partake God's holy calm. F. BURGE SMITH.

Stories on the Catechism. By A. C. Jones.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth.

PINEAPPLE COURT.

from her little life, for she was a cripple, and could never go into the streets, and see the beautiful sights that Netty told her about; and she was alone all through the long days, with sometimes very little to eat. and nothing to do, but lie on the hard bed and bear her pain as well as she could, and long for Netty to come in from her work. At last, she heard her coming up the stairs, and she started up in bed, and looked eagerly toward the door, and it was a very bright little face that Netty saw when she came in.

Poor Netty! She looked tired enough with her day's work, and her long walk through the August sun back to her home; but she was never too tired to hear anything Maggie had to tell her; and she sat down on the bed, and took her little sister in her arms, and listened to her eager tale.

"Oh, Netty!" she began; "I have wanted you so; more to-day than ever, 'cos I'd got so much to tell; but I knew you could not come, so I tried not to mind, and the pain hasn't been very bad; and, oh, Netty, look at my flowers! The kind lady gave 'em to me; and she's coming again soon to see you, and she's told me more about the Father we've got in Heaven. She says it's all true as true, and that He does love us; and that He can do anything, and that if we ask Him very much, she thinks p'raps ain't bad, she says.

Maggie stopped here to take breath, and looked at Netty, but she looked too late; for Netty's face had been bright and happy, while she listened to her little sister's account of how much she had wanted her, and how the pain had been better, and how pleased she was with her flowers; but When a paper lacks sincerity and pur- it changed when Maggie went on to tell her, Maggie; but, oh, mother was kind to her, and terrified at the information he me when I was a little 'un."

Little Maggie didn't know what to say, for she always thought Netty must be right; dered very often how it was she never took so she looked lovingly at her flowers, and to bad ways herself, with no one to look said nothing; but hoped down in her heart after her, and working amongst the rough, that the kind lady would come again soon, bad girls at the factory. But we know and tell Netty all she had told her; for that it was because the Father in Heaven then she was sure Netty would believe it. | watched over His child, and put this great met father this evening, Maggie, and he tions. says he shall come along home again very soon now, and he don't think he shall let when she left Maggie's bedside; for though us bide here, for he wants the room to she was used to meeting with all sorts of sin himself; and, oh, Maggie, he took away and sorrow, it was a new experience to her my money, and now I can't buy the bit o' to find almost under the shadow of the flannel to keep your leg warm;" and poor Church in which she worshipped, and Netty laid her head down by Maggie's which she so dearly loved, a little girl livside, and cried as if her heart would break. ing in a tidy sort of a way, and not by any said: "Never mind, Netty; my leg's warm- yet having no knowledge whatever of the er now than it is when it is cold weather; earliest truths of religion; so it was with a and perhaps when winter comes we'll be heavy heart she rang the bell at the clergyrich. And I knows my kind lady 'll come house gate, and asked to see Mr. Heriot. again very soon, and if I ask her she'll tell He listened with much interest to her ac-Father up in Heaven to help us. I think days, only brightened by the expectation there must be; for the lady says He made of Netty's return, and the feeling of Netty shook her head; but she wouldn't appeared to entertain for her father; and say anything to make Maggie cry any he readily promised to meet Miss Graham for the thought of the "Father in Heaven" had found its way into her little heart; and in a vague, dreamy, sort of way, she began to believe that He could and would help them to "get along better."

It was a strange sort of life the little girls led. Sometimes for weeks together they never saw their father; and yet in a way he took care of them, for he always left money enough with the woman at least to find them in bread, and some sort of clothing. Odd enough that was, it must be owned, but still there it was; and whilst he was away they were happy after a fashion of their own; for they loved each other very dearly, and Netty would go out into the streets, and come back and tell Maggie all the wonders she had seen; till Maggie almost thought she saw them.

Mrs. Mahoney, the Irish landlady, was kind to them in her way; or, at least if she was rough, she did not let any one else be so; but she lived very much to herself, and had very little to say to Miss Graham, Maggie's kind friend; and so it was quite by chance that, a few days before my story begins, she had found out that the two little girls were living this strange life in the back room at the top of the house; and there, as we know, she only saw Maggie, for Netty was away at the factory, where she made match-boxes from six o'clock in the morning till six o'clock at night; very tired very often, and half inclined to give it up, but keeping at it in spite of her aching bones, out of love to Maggie; for whose sake she had begun to go there. She Poor little Maggie! she was rather a did not mind having bread, with somepretty little girl; but when you looked at times a bit of herring, for her own dinner, her, you saw at once that a great deal of day after day; but when she was out in the pain, and not much happiness could come streets, and saw the pies and cakes in the shop-windows, she did wish she could take some to Maggie. And a few weeks before my story begins, she had made Mrs. Ma- evitable. The genius of Anglo-Saxon of Ages.'" And as the sweet strains hony very angry by telling her she wanted Maggie to have meat for dinner.

Mrs. Mahony told her: "Maggie might think herself lucky that she always got mighty torrent, irresistible in its force, whom they comforted. bread, and if she was to have meat, Netty must get it for her somehow herself."

And then Netty remembered how a girl about her own age, who spoke to her sometimes in the street, and told her if she'd come and work where she did, she'd be able to buy "a 'at and feather" to wear, instead of the battered bonnet that she shared with Mrs. Mahony.

Netty didn't care much about the "'at and feather," so she didn't think any more about it till the day Mrs. Mahony was so angry with her for saying she wanted Maggie to have meat for dinner; but that evening she waited for her friend, Sally, at the top of the court, and told her she'd come to work with her the very next morning. And ever since she had kept steadily on; and though Sally thought her 'a great stupid'' for not buying finery for herself with her earnings, she little knew how much happier Netty was in getting the cakes or the meat-pie that she took home to Maggie. This week she meant to buy "the bit 'o flannel" she spoke of, be-He'll make father good; 'cos all fathers cause she had heard Mrs. Mahony say that was what Maggie's leg wanted to keep it warm; but now the money was gone, and we cannot be surprised that she cried so passionately, and said hard things of her father, when it was he who had stopped her work of love for her little sister.

John Ross knew she went to the matchbox factory, and didn't mind, as it didn't in any way interfere with him; and when he met her to-night he would most likely gave her about his speedy return home.

Poor little Netty! Mrs. Mahony won-After a little while Nettie spoke again; love for her little sister into her heart as this time in a harder voice than before: "I her safeguard in all dangers and tempta-

Miss Graham was very sad that afternoon And for a little while Maggie cried in means dirty or disagreeable like the misercompany; but soon she brightened up, and able little gutter children around her, and if there ain't some way we can get the count of the poor little cripple's lonely everything, and can do everything." shrinking dread, almost hatred, which she times of old Cotton Mather, and his supermore; and the two wound their arms round in the Ross's room, the next afternoon, miles away; and the only visible means of one another and soon forgot their troubles and try what he could do to strengthen the communication is a small ebony trumpet. belief in a Heavenly Father's love and Maggie, with a bright smile on her face, care, which he hoped was already begin- sounds so strangely conveyed; and to me ning to dawn there.

(To be continued.)

A Tramp's View of the Indian Problem.

The other day, says a Nebraska newsweather was, the nature of the work forced bored, a sturdy tramp, with a florid face and a very high forehead, approached. He stood for some time idly watching the Indian, and, growing cold in contemplating the interesting sight, the tramp picked up followed in great distress. A deputy constable was attracted by the noise, and when the poor old Indian had, in broken English, explained the cause of his woe, the tramp was taken into custody and the blanket turned over to its owner, who hobbled back to his work.

The next morning the tramp, who gave his name as James Belford, was brought before Justice Knox.

"What's your plea?" asked the Court.

"Petit larceny."

tarting back, "do my ears deceive me?" "No, your ears are all right," said his Honor. "What're you making a noise for? Didn't you steal the blanket?'

sweeping all before it. That which but plenty. Where the red man roamed, fol- ing, pleading prayer: lowing the chase, are now busy cities and fields of golden corn. The Indian has passed away. Who shall say the cruelty which expelled him from his hunting grounds was not a work of mercy after all? For every savage who drew his bow in the solitudes, a thousand civilized men and women now toil, sow, reap and are happy. Standing on the peaks of time, and taking the continent for the field of observation,

"Yes, but what about the blanket?" interrupted the court.

"Well," replied Mr. Belford, "I can't see but I had as much right to nab that old buck's blanket, as Congress has to fire the Utes off their reservation, just because there's been some good ledges struck on

"I agree with you, Mr. Belford," said the court. "Thank you, your Honor," returned

Mr. Belford, reaching for his hat. "But permit me to add," continued the

the Indian question.'

I Shall be Satisfied.

Not here! not here! not where the sparkling waters

Fade into mocking sands as we draw near; Where in the wilderness each footstep falters, I shall be satisfied; but, oh! not here.

Not here, where every dream of bliss deceives us, Where the worn spirit never gains its goal, Where, haunted evermore by thoughts that grieve us

Across us floods of bitter memory roll.

There is a land where every pulse is thrilling With rapture earth's sojourners may not know, Where Heaven's repose the weary heart is stilling, And peacefully life's time-tossed currents flow.

Far out of sight, while yet the flesh infolds us, Lies the fair country where our hearts abide, And of its bliss nought more wonderful is told us Than these few words, "I shall be satisfied."

Satisfied? Satisfied? The spirit's yearning For sweet companionship with kindred minds? The silent love that here meets no returning, The inspiration which no language finds?

Shall they be satisfied? The soul's vague longing The aching void which nothing earthly fills? Oh! what desires upon my soul are thronging, As I look upward to those heavenly hills. -Selected.

Witches in the House. Written for the Living Church.

It is fortunate that we have outlived the stitious co-temporaries! We hear people speaking miles and

There is something almost ghostly in it is small wonder that the people who are constantly employed in a Telephone office, become the subjects of nervous or brain affections.

I was reading a very curious article from a New York journal, the other day. A gentleman who has for years been afflicted paper, a weazened old Piute was painfully with paralysis, and deprived of all public sawing wood in the street. Cold as the amusements, is now able, by means of this marvellous invention, to hear distinctly the Indian to lay aside his blanket and toil the words and music of the Opera, though in his shirt sleeves. As the old man la- he lies solitary in his room at some distance from the Opera House.

What an alleviation to a great trial and infirmity! Instead of ascribing to the influence of witches these new operations, we can give the blanket and walked off with it, despite the praise and honor to God, Who puts the expostulary cries of the Indian, who into the minds of men every wonderful idea, and enables them to bring an intricate thought to such a degree of perfection as seems almost miraculous.

Indeed it is a miracle, if that mears something super-human;—for these marvels all come through Infinite Power. It is the gift of the Divine One. F. B. S.

A TRUE INCIDENT. -On board the illfated steamer Sewanhaka was one of the "What's your charge?" demanded the Fisk University singers. Before leaving the burning steamers and committing himself to the merciless waves, he carefully "Great heavens!" cried Mr. Belford, fastened upon himself and wife life preservers. Some one cruelly dragged away that of the wife, leaving her without hope, except as she could cling to her husband. This she did, placing her hands firmly "Steal it, sir? No, sir; I took it. It his shoulders and resting there until her was mine because I wanted it. The irre-strength becoming exhausted, she said, "I pressible antagonism of race justified the can hold on no longer!" "Try a little transfer of ownership. Sad, sir, as the fate longer," was the response of the wearied of the Indian undoubtedly is, it is yet in- and agonized husband, "let us sing 'Rock civilization in its onward march across this floated over those troubled waters reaching broad and glorious continent crushes the the ears of the sinking and dying, little did red man beneath its progress. It is as a they know, those sweet singers of Israel,

But, lo! as they sang, one after another maintains the Indian in savage and ill-fed of those exhausted ones were seen raising idleness, under the peaceful arts of the white their heads above the overwhelming waves, man, blossoms and blooms and teems with joining with a last effort in the sweet, dy-

Rock of ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thce.

With the song seemed to come strength; another and yet another was encouraged to renewed effort.

Soon in the distance a boat was seen approaching! Singing still, they tried, and soon with superhuman strength laid hold of the life-boat, upon which they were borne in safety to land. This is no fiction; it, was related by the singer himself, who said he "believed Toplady's sweet 'Rock of Ages' saved many another besides himself and wife."-Western.

WHAT TO TEACH GIRLS.—To darn stockings and sew on buttons. To say no, and mean it, or yes, and stick to it. To keep a house in neat order, with everything in its place. To have nothing to do with intemperate and dissolute young men. Teach them to regard the morals and not the money of their beaux. That the more one court, "that the moral ideas of Congress lives within one's income, the more one don't always jibe with my notions of will save. That tight lacing ought to be what's square. In the opinion of this prevented by law, as opium smoking is in court, Mr. Belford, you're about the meanest thief I've had before me for a long time. Because the Indian was poor long time. Because the Indian was poor poor-house. That a reliable young man and helpless, you thought he had no rights with good business qualities is worth a you need respect. I'll give you just six dozen loafers in fine harness. Teach months in the county jail, to study up on them every day some dry, hard, practical common sense, and they will yet "This could not have occurred in a civifind time for idealism. That any amount ilized community," muttered the dazed of tight lacing and pinching corns cannot Mr. Belford as he was led off to the bastile. improve a form that the Almighty made in

The Household.

All communications for this Department should be ddressed to The Household, 225 East 19th St., New York City.

The Difference.

BY MARY D. BRINE.

Ha! now I have caught you, my burglar! Come, what have you to say? What shall be done with a rogue like you, For the mischief you've wrought to-day? Searching my drawers, and spilling

Their contents upon the floor; Having a beautiful time with things You never have found before!

And what have those little fingers Unrolled from that linen wrap? "A little doll's dwess, so tunnin' and long, And a dolly's dear little cap;"

And a pair of little "blue sockses," Just ready for Dolly's feet; And a cloak and hood and a tiny bib! Oh! won't Miss Dolly look sweet?

But wait a minute, my darling-You golden-haired burglar small; Those treasures, I'll have you understand, Weren't meant for a dolly, at all,

Weren't meant for a dolly, at all,
But just for a little live baby,
Dimpled and blue-eyed and fair;
And that little lace cap sat daintily, too,
On the rings of golden hair.

And that, "sockses"—the feet that wore them
Were warm, and were soft and white
And restless, like some other feet I know,
From early morn till night.
Who was that little live dolly? Who was that little live dolly?

Come hither and look in the glass And see how the golden-haired baby has grown To a four-year-old rogue of a lass.

Some of the small leaks in the Household Ship: Much waste is experienced in the boiling, etc., of meats. Unless watched, the cook will throw away the water without letting it cool, to take off the fat, or scrape the dripping-pan into the swill pail. This grease is useful in many ways. Bits of meat are thrown out which would make hashed meat or hash. Pie crust is left and laid by to sour, instead of making it up into tarts. Cake batter is thrown out because but little is left. Cold puddings are considered good for nothing, when, often, they can be steamed the next day, or as in the case of rice, made over into other forms. Vegetables are thrown away ant, attractive and happy home if they will. A really the religion of the age, so far as it had any rethat would warm for breakfast. Dish towels are thrown down where mice can destroy them. thrown down where mice can destroy them. though they be but copies, shall be of a character soap is left in water to dissolve. The scrub brush to cultivate the taste; choice books, always a is left in water; tubs and pails left in the sun to source of improvement and pleasure; and a few fied fatalists, and held a high principle of morality. dry and fall apart; nice knives are used in the kitchen, silver spoons are used to scrape kettles, or forks to toast bread. Tea, roasted coffee, pepper to stand open and lose their strength. Sweetmeats are opened and forgotten. Dried fruit has not had proper care and become wormy. Potatoes in the cellar grow, and the sprouts are not removed until they become worthless. Apples decay for want of being looked over. Hams become tainted or filled with vermin for want of right protection. Bones are burned that may be put into the soup. Brooms are never hung up and soon spoiled. Carpets are swept with stubs, and new brooms are used for scrubbing. Towels are used in place of holders, and good sheets to iron on. Table linen is thrown carelessly down and is eaten by mice, or put away damp, and is mildewed, or the fruit stains are forgotten, and the stains washed in. Table clothes and naphins used as dish wipers. Tea pots melted by which will take a half hour or more, then spread. and is eaten by mice, or put away damp, and is the stove. Water forgotten in pitchers and al- When it gets too cold and stiff I add a little hot Through a series of biographies, which well deserve lowed to freeze in winter. Thus in small ways water. Put in a spoonful of starch to make in the financial affairs of a family, though the large outgoes may be canvassed and avoided, the whole income may be dribbled away and no advance be made towards competency, wealth or position.—American Agriculturist.

COOKERY FOR THE SICK. Miss Corson' Receipts.

Beef Tea.—In preparing beef tea, use only that which is lean, and chop it very fine. Put a pound of chopped beef into a pint of cold water. and soak it for an hour. Then put the beef over the fire in the same water in which it has soaked. and let it cook very slowly until it comes to a boil. Then remove it, and it is ready for use. Strain it, if you like, and season with salt, and add pepper if the patient is allowed to use it. If you wish beef tea with crackers, prepare as above, and break a couple of milk crackers into the tea. A superior nutrient tonic is prepared by adding to the beef tea an infusion of coca leaves (a plant growing wild in Peru). Pour half a pint of boiling water on one ounce of dried cocs leaves, and let it stand for an hour. Do not let it boil, but keep it hot. Then strain and mix the coca infusion with an equal quantity of the beef tea, when it is ready for use.

VALUABLE RECIPES .- For preserving the complexion: temperance. To remove stains: repentance. For improving the sight: observation. The most valuable ring: the home circle. For improving the voice: civility. The best rouge: modesty. The best eye-water: charity. A cure for deafness: attention. A mixture to clear the throat: cheerfulness. A wash for wrinkles and a general beautifier: contentment.

The true art of useful cooking is not so much the carrying out of certain recipes as the tact of using to advantage the ingredients within reach, and producing variety by delicate flavorings, etc., which cannot always be trusted to servants.

A tastefully laid table has more to do with the enjoyment of a repast than many are aware of.

It cannot be too often repeated that it is not the so-called blessings of life, its sunshine and the so-called blessings of life, its sunshine and calm and pleasant experiences that make men, but its rugged, experiences, its storms, tempests and trials. Early adversity is often a blessing in disguise. The school of adversities graduates the shlest pupils, and the hill of difficulty is the best of all "constitutionals" for strengthening of mental backbone.—Selected.

Burdick, eldest daughter of the late Tabor Babcock, formerly of Leyden, Mass., widow of the selections, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, and the number of the section or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their or skeletons, and the number of the section or skeletons, and the section or skeletons, and the sum or skeletons, and the section or skeletons, and the sectio

THE HABIT OF SELF-CONTROL.-If there is one habit which, above all others, is deserving of cultivation, it is that of self-control. The habit of self-control is but the accumulation of continued acts of self-denial for a worthy object; it is but the repeated authority of the reason over the impulses, of the judgment over the inclina-tions, of the sense of duty over the desires. He who has acquired this habit, who can govern himself intelligently, without painful effort and without fear of revolt from his appetites and passions, has within the source of all real power and of all true happiness. The force and energy which he has put forth day by day, and hour by hour, is not exhausted, nor even diminished; on the contrary, it has increased by use, and has become stronger and keener by exercise, and, although it has already completed its work in the past, it is still his well-tried, true, and powerful weapon for future conflicts in higher regions .-Baldwin's Magazine.

A convenient method of cleaning a jar, bucket, tub or barrel, is to place a small quantity of lime on the bottom, and then slack it with hot water, in which as much salt has been dissolved as it

Dr. Richardson insists that on the wife devolves the entire health of the household. "She each, there is an act of faith—faith in a divine should demand to have marked for her on a map or plan the precise position of every drain pipe in the establishment, and would insist, with intelligent skill, in having every drain kept as systematically clean as the china in the housemaid's cupboard, or the metal covers that make so many bright and effective objects over the dresser of the well-arranged kitchen. * * * She would see that sunlight found its way as freely as possible into every department.' would insist that where any living thing that ought not be present in a house exist in it, that house is unclean, and in some way uninhabitable for health, since health will not abide with anything which is uncleanly.

The splint of a broom has occupied a prominent position among aids to cooking for an indefinite period of time, and housekeepers who are immaculate in all other matters often take a splint from a broom with which they have perhaps society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and imswept the kitchen, and "try" a delicate cake with ported by Pott, Young & Co., New York. They should "brush broom" and keep it for this and no other purpose; one will last a lifetime; hang it in the dining-room near the kitchen door. If so disposed you can make a pretty case for it, of fancy

There are very few who cannot have a pleasfew needful and comparatively inexpensive articles tastefully arranged; a few pictures which, plants, which cost nothing but care—these will render a home attractive, and surely they are within the reach of all. A little self-forgetfulness, a bearing of one another's burdens, and a tender care for the comfort of each, cannot fail to produce happiness, cannot fail to make a true that these had any control of human affairs. Death enough to bake potatoes, and that your oblong iron or tin pans are hot and greased with olive oil. Now mix wheat meal or Graham flour with such men as Socrates, Seneca, Epigtetus, and Margus such men as Socrates, seneca, and seneca such men as Socrates, seneca such men as Socra cold water, or milk and water if preferred, to the consistency of corn bread batter, with the greatest possible rapidity, and put instantly into the pans and bake twenty-five or thirty minutes. Success depends upon the speed of the whole process.—Herald of Health.

FROSTING.-One pound of sugar, the whites whiter, and season with lemon.

Water for making tea should be used the noment it boils. The reason assigned is, that if it is boiling for some time, all the gas that is in it escapes with the steam, and it will not then make tea of the best flavor.

TENDER FEET.—The following is said to be a remedy for tender feet: one tablespoonful of carbonate of soda dissolved in a half pint of cold water. The feet are to be sponged with the solution night and morning.

Brain workers who are suddenly called upon for an extra amount of work too generally, says that the coup de grace be administered to the idea the London Truth, fly to tea or coffee, powerful that physical science, be its highest law gravitation auxiliaries, undoubtedly, but they exact too or evolution, has no competency whatever to answer, heavy payment for their services. Brillat-Savarin recommends a cup of chocolate, with the smallest piece of amber powdered and added as one would conquering the realm of changing phenomena, and sugar, though not as a substitute for sugar. He declares that this mixture enabled him to get through an immense amount of work, while althrough an immense amount or work, while allowing him to sleep tranquilly when his labors were over. On the other hand, two cups of strong coffee prevented him from sleeping forty hours. Marshal Richelieu, who took Minorca from the English, was the inventor of this innocuous stimulant. Its only fault is that it costs

H. R. Haweis closes an article on James Russell Lowell in the Gentleman's Magazine as fol-

"It has been sometimes a matter of interesting conjecture in England what may have been the motive which influenced the American government in its choice of ministers for the Court of St. James, and why at times politicians have arrived here, not only unfamiliar with our insular habits but apparently averse to acquiring a knowledge of them; but no one who has any acquaintance with the 'Biglow Papers' or their author will ask such questions about Mr. Lowell. He has been sent here, perhaps, among other reasons, because he is not a professional politican. There is nothing sectarian about him, nothing of the 'stump,' nothing 'shoddy;' he is simply a scholar, a man of letters, and a true patriot, and by virtue of his wide culture and generous sympathies, in the best sense, a citizen of the world."

The following death notice sppeared in a New York journal a few days ago: "BURDIOK—Crossing the narrow stream which divides the little island of this existence from the grand continent of unmeasured destiny, Anne Maria Burdick, eldest daughter of the late Tabor Baback formerly of Leyden Mass, widow of the

From my Note Book.

There is a good in mere external innocence. the innocence of habit; but the innocence which is rooted in inward principle has something bet

—There are no bigots so unreasonable as the bigots of incredulity; and the fiercest illiberality is seen with those who plume themselves on be ing liberal.

-When a person commits himself to a glaring sin, he is sometimes aroused to a dread that other sins are waiting to claim him. Just as Cain, after the murder of Abel, said that every one who found him would slay him.

—It is a fruitful thing in a Christian life that the disciple of Christ learn humility from humiliation; but how rarely is this done. Therefore we murmur at a gift of God, than which none is better for the soul.

—Much of the disputation between Protest-ants and Romanists, about justification by faith, is owing to the fact that they do not call the same will take up. It will purify it like a charm. The vessels should be covered to keep the steam in.

18 owing to the fact that they do not call the same name. What the Protestant calls Justification, the Romanist calls Penance. The essential fact in each is a divine sentence of acquittal, restoring to a state of grace. With power beyond man, which is able to give absolution. As presenting the gift, the Romanist resposes faith in the priest's sentence of Absolution. The Protestant reposes faith in his own sentence of Absolution, to which he gives the name of assurance. On the other hand, what a Romanist calls Justification, a Protestant calls Sanctifica-

Current Literature.

ANCIENT PHILOSOPHIES FOR MODERN READERS.—STOICISM. By the Rev. W. W. Capes, Fellow of Hertford College, &c., Oxford.

CHIEF ANCIENT PHILOSOPHIES.—EPICUREAN-ISM. By William Wallace, M. A., Fellow of Merton College, Oxford.

These two admirable books are published by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and im-A much better way is to buy a cheap little be read in succession, furnishing a complete and was related to the life and character of men. There were, it is true, the schools of Plato and Aristotle, paper or Turkish towelling, then one will not be the Academic and the Peripatetic. But these were tempted to use it for anything else in the kitchen. only phases of intellectual life; they were purely idealistic, philosophies of poetry rather than of principle. The Stoic and Epicurean philosophies were ligion beyond the coarse idolatry of the ignorant and superstitious. Stoicism was pure Pantheism; all things are emanations from God, and will, in time, return to be absorbed in Him. They were unqualior of conformity with destiny. The summum bonum was found to be in virtue, the rule of reason. On the other hand, the Epicureans were practically Atheists; though they admitted the existence of gods, not daring to deny the witness of conscience, they denied was destruction of soul as well as body. The highest good was happiness; a moral philosophy that Paley To MAKE GEMS.—See that your oven is hot advocated, from a Christian stand-point. The ruling such men as Socrates, Seneca, Epictetus, and Marcu Aurelius, is not to be condemned as altogether bad. The world was better for the Stoic philosophy, though it justified suicide, and had no comfort for the sorrowing, no help for the weak, no sympathy for the suffering.

BRITISH THOUGHT AND THINKERS. By George S. Morris, Chicago: S. U. Griggs & Co.

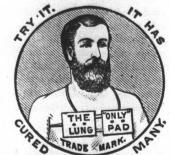

"A thinker's life is one of the indispensable keys to the due appreciation of his thought." So says the author in his preface; and a perusal of his book shows that this idea has guided him in his work. to be called philosophic, he allures the re philosophic study of the English mind in Literature from John of Salisbury to Herbert Spencer. Nor are these treated as merely disconnected themes: but these lives of great men, these "British thinkers," serve to show " the essential nature and value of the current of abstract thought in the English language.' The chapters that have the most interested us ar those on Shakspere, on John Stuart Mill, and on Her hert Spencer. To the author, Mill "presents the appearance of a noble nature confined in intel lectual fetters which, forged for him, he did his best to rivet upon himself." Spencer, he convicts of a pre-determination to regard the knowable universe as "under the one category of mech anism." He insists, in behalf of British philosophy even negatively, philosophical questions. And he concludes thus: "Let science grow, by all means ensuring to man the empire of physical nature; but let not this kind of knowledge obscure for us-what it can never change—the immutable pillars of vital reality and everlasting truth.

THE LIFE OF JESUS THE CHRIST. By the Rev. James Stalker, M. A. Chicago: Henry A. Sumner & Co. pp. 166. Price 60 cents.

This is a new edition (the second) of a book that seems to have found acceptance in some quarters, as a hand-book for Bible Classes. The story of the Scriptures is given, under various divisions, rather fanciful than real: and not a little "fine writing" is substituted for the simplicity of the Gospel narrative. There is an introduction, by Dr. Lorrimer, of the First Baptist Church, Chicago, which is very good; and at the close of the book are some very suggestive questions for scholars, and hints to teachers. The idea of the book is to give more particular attention to the early life of our Lord, and that phase of it which is purely material, as opposed to the supernatural. As a consequence, the author, at times, is not so reverent in his treatment of the Divine Man as he might be. The chronology and synopsis seem to be those of Bishop Ellicott: and, of course, are worthy of all praise. The book is neatly bound, and cheap enough to correspond with the place it is in-

HELPS TO MEDITATION. Sketches for Every Day in the Year. (Part II.) From the Epiphany to Septuagesima. Fifty-one Sketches. By the Rev. Alfred G. Mortimer, Rector of St. Mary's, Castleton, L. I., and Chaplain of the House of Mercy, New York. E. & J. B. Young & Co., Cooper Union, New York. Price 60 cents.

The more that we see of these remarkable sketches or skeletons, the more impressed we are with their

Cures by ABSORPTION (Nature's way)

LUNG DISEASES. THROAT DISEASES, BREATHING TROUBLES.

It Drives Into the system curative agents and It Draws From the diseased parts the poisons Thousands Testify to its Virtues.

You Can be Relieved and Cured. Don't despair until you have tried this Sensible, Easily Applied and Radically Effectual Remedy. Sold by Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of Price, $2.00, by

The 'Only" Lung Pad Co.,

Send for Testimonials and our book, "Three Milons a Year." Sent free.

House.

MOBILE, ALABAMA.

As a WINTER RESORT, Mobile, situated on the western shore of her beautiful bay, and in close proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, enjoys a climate, which, for mildness and salubrity equals the most noted Florida resorts. It is easy of access from all points of the Northwest, being only 43 HOURS BY RAIL FROM CHICAGO.

FROM CHICAGO.

The Battle House, long noted as one of the best hotels in the South, has, during the summer of 1880 been thoroughly refitted and newly furnished throughout. Accommodations for 400 Guests.

Passenger Elevator and all Modern Conveniences.

For information address ROBBINS & ST. JOHN , Prop'r

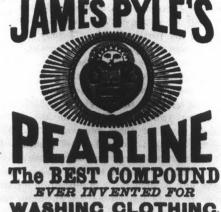

Chas. N. Hammond, (Formerly of Bas-set & Hammond,) Manufacturer of

Dr. PEIRO special attention to the CATADDL HEAD and THROAT.

ces: 88 Madison St., (opp. McVicker's Theatre Hours: 9 to 4.

WASHING CLOTHING. and everything else, in Hard or Soft Water, without danger to fabric or hands

Saves Labor, Time, and Soap, amazingly, and is of great value to house Sold by all Grocers—but see that wile Counterfeite are not urged upon you. PEARLINE is the only safe article, and always bears the name of JAMES PYLE, New York.

is, we all want it. They suit all sizes, from the two-year-old baby to the champion member of the Fat Men's Club."

Every chair made upon honor and Warranted Perfect. Prices range from 75 cts to $9 each.

Special discount to Clergymen and Hotels. Send for Catalogue. Manufactured by F. A. SINCLAIR, Metaville. N. Y.

$100 A MONTH We offer paying employor woman in every AGENTS for our town. We also want AGENTS unique, superb, highly commended, immensely popular and fast-

And all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs by wearing the

Improved Excelsior Kidney Pad. It is a MARVEL of HEALING and RELIEF, Simple, Sensible, Direct, Painless, Powerful.

It cures where all else fails. A revelation and revolution in Medicine. Absorption or direct application, as opposed to unsatisfactory internal medicines. Send for our Treatise on Kidney troubles, sent free. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail, on receipt of price, $2. Address

The "Only" Lung Pad Co., Detroit, Mich.
This is the Original and Genuine Kidney Pad. Ask for it and take no other.

C. E. Wiswall & Co.,

86 State St., Chicago. RETAIL DEALERS IN

Common

Sense

Shoes.

These goods have Wide Soles—Low Heels; yet well adapted to the natural shape of the foot as to look and tidy. They will keep your feet free from Corns greatly premote your comfort.

Orders by mail carefully attended to.

WHITENESS AND PRESERVATION OF THE SKIN.

Pure SWRET GREAM and GLYCERINE is a NEW COMBINATION for toilet soap. These articles have long been prized for their refreshing and healing properties. Sweet Cream Toilet Soap BRAUTIFIES the COMPLEX'N, cures CHAPPED HANDS and keeps the skin SOFT and WHITE. It is a wholesome, simple, pure soap, containing no poisonous colorings or oils. Is specially prized by ladies and children, whose tender skin precludes the use of a less delicate soap.

G. A. WRISLEY, Chicago, Sole Inventor and Manufacturer.

Littell's Living Age.

Jan. 1, 1881, The Living Age enters upon its 1482h
Volume, admittedly univalled and continuously successful. Acceptly magazine, it gives more than

I. A weekly magasine, it gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octave pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satifactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE complication of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the

ABLEST LIVING WRITERS

in all branches of Literature, Science, Politics and Art.

"In no other form can so much thoroughly good reading be got for so little money: in no other form can so much instruction and entertainment be got in so small a space."—Philadelphia Times.

"There is no other publication like it. It is known and read phia Times.

"There is no other publication like it. It is known and read by all who desire to keep abreast with the cultivated thought of the English-speaking world."—Episcopal Register, Philadelthe English-speaking world."—Episopal Regisser, Filmanphin.

"It reproduces so fully the choicest articles from the foreign magazines, that one who take it does not feel the need of anything else in the way of foreign periodical literature."—The Advance, Chicago.

"Its frequent Issue and ample space enable it to give all that the very ablest of living writers furnish to periodical literature on science, history, biography, philosophy, poetry, theology, politics and criticism, and to add to this the full complement of the best that there is in faction."—The Interior, Chicago.

"Gives the best of all at the price of one."—New York Indoreadent. pendent. "Teems with the choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune. "It is, by all odds, the best eclectic published."—Southern

"It is, by all odds, the best celectic published."—Southern Churchman.
"It enables the reader, at trifling expense, considering the quantity and quality of the reading furnished, to keep pace with the best thought and literary work of our time."—Christian Union, New York.

"One cannot read everything.... No man will be behind the literature of the times who reads The Living Age."—Zion's Herald, Boston.
"We know of no investment of eight dollars, in the world of literature, that will yield equal returns."—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

"It has no rival."—New York Evening Post.
PUBLISHED WERKLY at $8.00 a year, free of postage; or for $10.50 The Living Age and any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Basar) will be sent for a year, postpoid; or, for $9.50 The Living Age and the St. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal, or Lippincott's Monthly.

Now is the time to subscribe, beginning with the New Fear.
Address

LITTELL & CO., Best W. G. CUMMINS. DENTIST,

70 STATE STREET, Room I. CORNER RANDOLPH STREET,

CHICAGO.

AN Moderate and consistent Prices. W.

GLAD TIDINGS TO ALL. Gifts of gold or silver do not compare with our celebrated Automatic Fire-lighting Clocks. Send your address on a postal, and we will send our illustrated circular, describing the most wonderful clock in the world. Address Patent Clock Works, Tevre Haute, Ind. Mention this paper. Continued from page 1.

3. Resolved, That the Board of Missions be directed to continue their appropriations as during the past year, not increasing them until their actual receipts justify it.

Mr. James Gibson offered the following:

Resolved, That the plan adopted by the General Convention, of providing for missions by means of subscriptisns, be adopted by this Convention for our diocesan missions.

After extended discussion by Bishop Doane, Hon. H. R. Pierson, Mr. G. P. Keese, Mr. James Forsyth, Rev. J. V. Lewis, D. D., Rev. Dr. Morrison and Rev. W. W. Battershall, the resolution was adopted. This was a departure from the custom of previous years; a definite sum being appropriated and raised (?) by quarterly offerings in each Parish and Station.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons made a report, recommending a reference of the boundaries of Convocations to the arch-deacons of thé Diocese. The arch-deacons, later, reported favorably on some radical changes; but the matter was postponed until the next Convention.

5. In response to the Report of the following Committee, the Bishop invited the Rev. Chas. H. Malcolm, D., D., of Newport, R. I., to address the Convention on the work of the Church Building Association; which he did on Wednesday evening.

The result of Dr. Malcolm's address was the appointment of a Committee, in obedience to the following Resolution.

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to organize a Society in the diocese, auxiliary to the Western Church Building As-

The Rt. Rev. president appointed as such committee, Rev. Dr. Battershall, Rev. Dr. Walter Thompson, and Messrs. James M. Warren, T. S. Clarkson and Walter A. Wood.

Rev. Mr. Morrison offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

6. The Convention of the Diocese of Albany, recognizing the fact that the Church is not a human Institution, but the Kingdom of God in the world and its officers "ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God," desires to place on record its emphatic condemnation of the practices of parishes calling a clergyman to preach on trial, and of clergymen accepting such

This was called forth by a statement made in the Bishop's Address, that nearly one-eighth of laity involved. A very curious combination dethe Clergy of the Diocese had left during the past year, and by a further statement of the evils consequent upon these frequent changes. By this Resolution, the Diocese of Albany places herself by the side of Connecticut, in an expression of opinion upon the subject of "Preaching on Trial." Connecticut passed this Resolution in 1880 at the Diocesan Convention, viz: Whereas the custom of clergymen preaching on trial in vacant parishes, as candidates for the rectorship, to the degradation of in public of their holy Office, is becoming more common:

Therefore, Resolved, that this Convention does hereby urge all parishes in the Diocese, needing a Rector, to adopt some othes method of becoming acquainted with clergymen; and also strongly dissaproves of any Clergyman's accepting any invitation to officate in any church as known candidate for its Rectorship.

7. Another point of great interest to the Diocese was the change in the mode of nominating members of the Board of Missions. This had been advice of the Committee on Constitution and late, for Episcopal control." Canons, the Canon was so changed, that all the members of the Board became mer nominated in open convention, and there elected. Nominations were made, in accordance with the above change, and the present Board now consists of Rev. W. W, Buttershall, D. D., Rev. J. Woodbridge, Rev. Walter Delafield of the clergy: and Messrs. J. N. Tillinghast, T. S. Clarkson, H. B. Dundey, J. H. Vanantwerp, and G. B. Mc-Cartee.

8. The following abstract of proceedings tells its own story, viz: The committee on the Episcopal fund of New York were authorized to apply to the Legislature for an act amendatory of the act of 1875, creating the corporation called that about one-eight of the clergy had removed "The trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the during the year. Insufficient income is the Diocese of New York." to enable the said trustees to pay, upon the order of the Convention of New York, out of any funds in their hands, any and all money due or to become due to the diocese of Albany. It is the indication of the approach of a hoped-for settlement, by the Diocese is made impossible; parishes are un-Diocese of New York, of the claim made upon settled with long interruptions of Services and it by Albany for her share of the Episcopal Fund.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Harrison, it was Resolved. That the whole subject of the diocesan finances and assessments be referred to a settle the long vexed question of multiplied assessments, and thus simplify matters.

10, Rev. Dr. Bostwick moved that the clergy be earnestly requested to present the subject of separate aid to infirm clergymen to their congregations; and that the laity be respectfully asked for liberal contributions to increase the fund of this diocese, devoted to that purpose. Carried. The Resolutions offered were heartily endorsed. and the Secretary ordered to print the Rev. Dr. Bostwick's address, on a special appeal to be issued about Thanksgiving time.

11. A resolution was offered, and heartily endorsed, requesting the Bishop to call his clergy together, at times and in places that might best suit his convenience, to give them instruction in spiritual things.

ary Treasury, and in many ways, this 13th Convention of the Diocese of Albany has been a very noteworthy one, and one that will be remembered by all who had a share therein.

ABSTRACT OF ADDRESS.

The Bishop gave, instead of a sermon, a porion of his annual address.

Speaking of the results of the General Convention, Bishop Doane said: "I am sorry for the loss of four measures. I had greatly hoped that some progress, at least, might be reported in the matter of the division of this great continent into provinces. It is not a theoretical measure, to my mind, and it is only a decision deferred. The Provincial system is marvellously muddled in some men's minds. It is the very strongest hindrance to any usurped domination to-day, as it was always the great bulwork against the Papacy. In fact, the first step towards the Roman domination was the absorption of the Provinces by the subjugation of the different metropolitans in Italy; the truth being, that at the end of the of Rome. And yet, the Province is considered very Romish, by some people! Again, it is objected that it will break up the fellowship of the Church. But there is no necessary connection between the Provincial system, and any less frequency of meeting in the General Convention.

My own judgment is against any change, except in the constituency of the House of Deputies, which should not represent Dioceses, but property, on behalf of Convocation; keeping a Provinces; and that in a representation proportionate to the number of their clergy and communicante

I greatly regretted, too, the failure of the two carefully considered canons on the discipline of the laity, and on Sisterhoods and Deaconesses. Of the first, it is certainly safe to say, that with our Book of Canons filled with provisions for the discipline of Bishops and Clergy, it is time that some provision were made for the possible case of a layman needing Disipline. Besides this, there are questions of the protection of the feated the Canon on Sisterhoods-an unwillingness on the part of some people to recognize religious orders in the Church, and the extreme anxiety of some others lest the Bishops should bear some power of ruling. To enact laws which recognize Deaconesses and ignore Sisterhoods is, in my opinion, to reflect unfairly upon the great value of associated work in women; while on the other hand, to have the self-will of organized bodies choosing their own superiors, subject to foreign authority, selecting a chaplain to represent their own preferences, and defying the authority of the Episcopate, is to repeat a mistake which has reacted in the case of the Roman religious orders, till, through monastic and conventual assumptions, the breach came which lost England, thank God, to the Papacy; and now, in spite of their good works, has made the religious orders in Italy, Germany and France, odious and obnoxious to the governments, and has subjected them to civil incivilities and cruelties tion in America. done by the different Conventions; but, under which they would gladly exchange, when it is too

was the last

ed of the past year, among the laity, and espec-ially of two—Eliza Shearer, a domestic, who School. The effort to secure the removal of the B. Pitman, Rev. F. M. Cookson, Rev. W. R. left her property to the Orphanage of St. Peter's chapel to a point more thickly settled, and within Church, and the Childs' Hospital, Albany; and the actual limits of the city, has not proved ac-Catherine Johnson, of Kinderhook, factory girl and small store-keeper who left her savings, ent movement is a concession to the $1,800, to her parish church. "I pray God to the immediate vicinity of the chapel. impress these examples upon the men and women of this Diocese," the Bishop adds.

The frequent changes among the clergy of the Diocese was brought up, and the statement made prevalent cause of these removals. "But the perpetual change is none the less painful. It takes the heart and hope out of me, more than any one thing. Personal ties are broken, continuous and systematic administration of the Offerings; and that wretched spirit of earitching, with its antithetical devil of eartickling, possesses people beyond the power of Episcopal exorcising."

The Bishop further added: "Another question Committee of five laymen, to report to the next is, I am glad to say, coming more and more into Convention with instructions to consider whether the minds of the clergy, namely, the developall assessments may not wisely be consolidated ment and advancement of their spiritual life. into one. It is hoped that this Committee will Brought to my attention in various ways, but more recently and formally by an association of clergy from the North, I certainly desire to throw myself into such methods as may seem wisest for our mutual upbuilding in holiness," and with an exhortation to increased holiness of life, the Bishop closed the first part of his address.

On Tuesday evening, the remainder of the address was read. It consisted of a detail statement of the Episcopal acts and visitations, and among other points, contained the following The adoption of the subscription system as a means of raising funds for the Mission work of the Diocese; the blessing of the parish building for Trinity Church, West Troy, and the benediction of the new building of the Childs' Hospital, Albany; the organization of a new Mission at St. Hubert's Island in Raquette Lake; the admission

The address closed with the following summary: Confirmations, 866: Celebrations of Holy Communion, 76; sermons, 129; addresses, 16; Clergy died, 1; dismissed, 14; received, 7; added by ordination, 7; present number of clergy, Bishop, 1; Priests, 103; Deacons, 14; total, 118. Priests ordained, 4; Deacons, 8; total, 12. Postulants admitted, 4; total Postulants, 10. Candidates for Deacon's Orders, admitted, 3: for Priests Orders, 3; total, 6. Candidates for Deacons Orders, 8; for Priests Orders, 13; total Candidates for Orders, 15; transferred, 1; licensed as Lay-Readers, 9; churches consecrated, 1; cornerstones laid, 2; Infant baptisms, 3; marriages, 2; burials, 3; inhibition, 1; buildings blessed, 2; notices of depositions received, 7; of depositions withdrawn, 2; missions organized, 2.

Michigan Church News.

From out Detroit Correspondent. On Tuesday, Jan. 4, the Wayne Convocation tion of Convocation by-laws. Besides the offiers already named, provision is made, under the by-laws, for two additional officers; namely, an by-laws, for two additional officers; namely, an Actuary and a Curator. The former is to assist the Rural Dean in securing and tabulating the quarterly reports of missionary work in the Convocation, and to serve in general as statistician. The Curator is to be a Superintendent of Mission

According to the Authorized Version, with Introductions and Notes. By John P. Norris, Canon of Bristol. Author of "Rudiments of Theology" &c. $3.00. In the midst of the great and constantly increase in gnumber of books of a like sort, it is a small commendation to say that the publication of this is a real gain to the world.—Churchman. friendly eye on titles and insurance policies, and Messrs. E. & J. B. YOUNG & Co., have pleasure noting from time to time the condition of the noting, from time to time, the condition of the buildings. In a county representing at least in this diocese, with a large number of Missions duly organized, and others likely to be planted very soon, the practical importance of such an ffice will be readily seen. The evening session A on this occasion was of an interesting character; brief addresses being made by various clergymen and laymen, and missionary hymns being sung with great spirit. The Rev. M. C. Dotten was elected Actuary, and Mr. A. H. Adams (a prominent Churchman, and head of one of our neaviest banks), was elected Curator. At the next quarterly meeting, on Tuesday, April 5, the morning session will be held at Mariners' Church; the evening session, at the chapel of St.

On Sunday, the 9th inst., Bishop Harris visted the parish of St. Luke's, Ypsilanti, preachng in the morning; addressing the Sunday School n the afternoon; and, in the evening, preaching again, and confirming a class of thirteen persons, presented by the Rector, the Rev. John A. Wilson, D. D. The Bishop was prevented, by llness in his family, from fulfilling an engagement to deliver the Matriculation Address at Kenyon College, on the Feast of the Epiphany

Detroit has been enjoying a brief visit from the Rev J. H. Quinby, one of our missionaries in Japan; who, after eight years of constant service at his missionary post, is now taking a vaca-

Services and Sunday School have been resumed at the pretty chapel in the fields-All Saints', The rejection of the report of the Commission Detroit Junction. A number of the parishioners of St. Paul's Church, Detroit (the parish under point referred to.

Bishop Doane then spoke freely of the depart-have interested themselves in its behalf, offering ceptable to the entire congregation; and the present movement is a concession to those living in > DEACON'S DEVOTIONS.—The curious book of C. H. DYER. prayers, the title of which is given by your correspondent, Frater Fidelium, in your last issue, is the Prayer Book of a small section of the "nonjurors," who followed the lead of its compiler, Thomas Deacon, a Bishop of that body. 'Deacon's Devotions," from a volume of Hall's Fragmenta Liturgica" Documents, illustrative of the Liturgy of the Church of England; exhibiting the several emendations of it, and substitutions for it, that have been proposed from time to time, and partially adopted whether at home or abroad." In seven volumes. Bath: England, 1848. This important work, together with its companion series the "Reliquiæ Liturgicæ," in five volumes, published in the preceding years, can be had, I am quite confident, from Messrs. Pott & Young, Cooper Union, New York. They form a liturgical library in themselves.

Davenport, Ia. W. S. P.

In two and a half centuries, only thirty-eight clergymen of the Anglican Communion have taken Orders in the Roman Catholic Church; six of them originally Congregationalists; eight Presbyterians; six Methodists; and one a Romanist. Since the Reformation, 300 years—two Bishops have "gone over to Popery;" Bishop Gordon, of Galloway, Scotland, in 1668; and Bishop Ives, of N. C., in 1852. During the very same time, fourteen Roman Bishops have re nounced Popery.

DANVILLE, HENDRICKS Co., IND., January 12th, 1881. C. Cushman Esq.
Manager Electro Magnetic Co.,
205 Clark St., Chicago.

At the close of the convention, Mr. Owen
Erastus Corning gave a reception to the Bishop, the clergy and laity.

The proceedings of the Convention were remarked by earnestness, and by a desire for mutual good; and underneath, all was apparent

Hubert's Island in Raquette Lake; the admission of a gent for the sale of your valuable Pads for the past year, in Middletown, Butler Co., Ohio. I have been in this place a few months visiting friends. I had one or two of the Pads with me which I have sold to friends here who were desirous to try them and have done so with such satisfactory results at East Lynn; the admission of a sister as Promoted and underneath, all was apparent a spirit of awakened spirituality, and a seeking for these things that made for peace. In the work done, in the important steps taken, in the numbers present, in the balance in the Missionhave seemed to work like a charm where fried in these two cases, as in cases in my own place at home. My faith in them is very strong. I inclose P. O., order for one dozen Pads and the remainder in Porous Plasters. I will send direct to you, and you can forward to your State Agent at Indianapolis that ha may send to me at once. I hope he will do so promptly, and desire to supply the people promptly. I will still retain my agency in Ohio. Direct to my address, care Dr. C. E. Harlan, this place.

Yours Respectfully,

LIZZIE H. LYNCH.

519 WABASH AVE., CHICAGO.

J. C. Cushman,
205 Clark St,
DEAR (SIR:—Please let bearer have one dozen Magnetic Plasters, they are giving splendid satisfaction.
Yours, &c.,
E. A. Thurston, M. D.

NEW YORK

Church Book Store

A NEW AND REVISED EDITION OF Helps to the Reading of the Bible. By the REV. R. E. NICHOLLS, M. A. Completely Revised and Corrected

By the REV. HENRY HOUSMAN. in Italy; the truth being that at the end of the fourth century out of twelve Provinces with independent metropolitans, only two, Sardinia and Sicily, had not been swallowed up by the Bishop the completion of its organization by the adopton to the completion of its organization to the completion

The Four Gospels

The REV. M. F. SADLER'S

three fifths of the material wealth of the Church Church Doctrine, Bible Truth AT THE GREATLY REDUCED PRICE OF 50c, less the usual discount to Clergy and Students.

> By the REV. F. C. EWER, D. D. GRAMMAR OF THEOLOGY. nianual of Instruction in Churchmanship, for adults and the more intelligent youths, to be used either before or after their confirmation. By the Rev. F. C. Ewer, S. T. D. Paper, boards,

A Revised and Cheap Edition of DEAN HOOK; His life and Letters. Edited by the Rev. W. R. W. Stephens, author of "Life of St. John Chrysostom," etc. A new edition, with Index and Portrait. 1 vol., 12mo, 628 pp., cloth, price $2.50.

The Tenth Thousand of THE TRINITY CHURCH CATECHISM.

Prepared for the use of Trinity Church, New York. With an Introduction by the Rev, Morgan Dix, S. T. D. 18mo, paper, 10 cents; or in stiff board covers, 15 cents.

day in the year. By the Rev. Alfred G. Mortimer.
PART I. Advent to Epiphany, 50 cents.
PART II. The Epiphany to Septruagesima, 60c.

KALENDAR of the ENGLISH CHURCH for the Year of our Lord 1881. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

THE CHURCH ALMANAC for 1881, price 15 cts. The Edition with the PARISH LIST, 40 cents.

All the above books can be obtained from any book

E. & J. B. YOUNG & Co.

Successors to Pott, Young & Co., COOPER UNION, FOURTH AVE., N. Y.

R. J. WALSHE, Draper and Tailor, 119 Dearborn St., CHICAGO.

STEWART CLARE C. H. DYER & CO., Dealers in Anthracite

97 Dearborn St., CHICAGO. Erie, Blossburg, Cannel and other grades of Soft Coal. DOCK, FOOT OF 21st, ON GROVE STREET.

Shipments by all Rail Roads Leaving Chicago

Trinity College,

Hartford, Ct. Examinations for admission will be held at Hartford, on Monday and Tuesday, June 27th and 28th, 1881; also on September 13th and 14th. Commencement is Thursday June 30th, 1881. For Scholarships and for Catalogues application should be made to the President, T. R. PYNCHON, D. D., Hartford, Ct.

School of St. John,

THE EVANGELIST, Boston, Mass. Visitor, Rev. C. C. Grafton, S. S. J. E. For Terms apply to CHARLES HILL, 69 Pinckney Street, Boston, Mass.

saws off a 2 foot log in 2 minutes. 20,000 in use. The cheapest machine made, and fully warranted. Circular free. United States Manufacturing Co., Chicago, Ill. $1,000.00 HAS been deposited in the bank of Preston, Kean & Co., of Chicago, Ill., as a wager that the above sawing machine will saw EASIER and EASTER than any other machine in America.

FIFTY YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC Upon their excellence alone have attained an UNPURCHASED PRE-EMINENCE
Which establishes them as unequaled in

TONE, WORKMANSHIP & TOUCH, DURABILITY. WAREROOMS: 112 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.
204 & 206 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

J. & R. LAMB, 59 CARMINE St., N.Y.

CHURCH FURNISHINGS Polished Brass Altar Vases. ALTAR COVERS, DESKS, Etc.

FAIR LINEN. Corporals, Sacramental Covers and Hand-Made Linen Fringe.

Special Heavy Linen for Linen Cloths

Send for Hand Book. Free by Mail.

McCULLY & MILES

MANUFACTURERS OF

STAINED, ENAMELED, EMBOSSED, CUT AND COLORED

GLASS. 183 & 184 Adams St., | CHICAGO.

Stained Class.

For Churches. Manufactured by Geo. A. Misch 217 East Washington Street, Chi-

Mitchell,

Vance & Co.

836 & 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Designers and Manufacturers Ecclesiastical

Gas Fixtures & Metal Work. Clocks and Bronzes, Metal and Porcelain Lamps, and Artistic Gas Fixtures for Dwellings.

TREAT & FOLTZ.

+ARCHITECTS.+

80 DEARBORNST CHICAGO.

RascoPamper 243 WABASH AUE CHICAGO

GIOVANNI CARETTI,

Fresco-Decorative Painter

Churches, Halls, and Private Residences decorated in the best style. Estimates and Designs of every description furnished upon application.

CHINA PAINTING. The most complete line of Enamel Colors, and Dresden Porcelain plates, etc, and Mineral Decalcoma can be found at The Western Decorating Works.

FIRING & GILDING This Department receives our personal attention. A china entrusted to our care receives that Superior Firing which has given us a reputation second to none in Americal All orders filled with promptness. Price list sent on application.

Grunewald & Schmidt Propersonal Control of Chinage, M.

A. H. ABBOTT & CO.

147 State Street, Chicago,

IMPORTERS OF Painting and Drawing

Materials

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

CLINTON H. MENEELY BELL CO. MENEELY & KIMBERLY. BELL FOUNDERS, TROY, N.Y.

Manufacture a superior quantity of BELLS. Special attention given to CHURCH RELLS.
Catalogues sent free to parties accding bells.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free. VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE

MENEELY BELL FOUNDERY SETABLISHED 1826. Bells for all purposes. War ranted satisfactory and durable. MENEELY & CO., WEST TROY, N. Y.

E. R. P. SHURLEY & CO., WATCHMAKERS AND

JEWELERS Removed from 55 S. Clark St., to No. 103 Randolph Street, Chicago.

(Round the corner.)
HOLIDAY GOODS VERY LOW. Orange Groves and Winter Homes

IN FLORIDA. A safe and profitable investment. Orange Groves made for non-residents. Information and references on application.

R. G. ROBINSON.

Zellwood, Grange Co., Fig.