

Living Church.

NEW YORK, No. 40 Bible House

A Weekly Record of its News, its Work, and its Thought.

TWELVE PAGES.

CHICAGO, 162 Washington St.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1881.

WHOLE No. 128

An Easter Hymn. BY THE REV. H. G. BATTERSON, D. D.

Written for the Living Church.

ALLELULIA ! ALLELUIA ! ALLELULIA sing to-day Christ has opened death's dark prison. Bright the tomb wherein He lay, Sing with gladness, Alleluia, He has brought Eternal Day.

Sing ye Christians Alleluia ! Darkness from the grave has fled: Sing the joyous Alleluia ! Christ is now our King and Head: Lift your song with thankful voices, He is risen from the dead !

Sing all nations, Alleluia ! Christ is Victor o'er the grave: Sing again loud Alleluia ! He has passed through Jordan's wave; O how glorious is the triumph, He is mighty now to save !

Sing once more the Alleluia ! In this happy Easter-tide: Sing undaunted, Alleluia ! Now is healed the Wounded Side: Christ, of death the First-Begotten, Is our Brother, Friend, and Guide.

Bring the lilies, bring the roses, Let the altar gleam with light: Shout with rapture, Alleluia ! Christ has conquered death and night, He our Paschal Lamb will feed us, Guard us, keep us, in His might!

Among the classmates of the young Seabury, other than William Johnson, and John Ogilvie, Clevelands, remained unchanged. That law was, afterwards "S. T. D.", of Aberdeen, Scotland, and King's College, New York, who both took | day, under pretence of religion, shall go to any Orders, was the celebrated Naphtali Daggett, public or private meeting, not established or alsubsequently Theological Professor and President of the College; Richard Morris, who be- President, under penalty of a fine, confession, came Chief Justice of the State of New York, public admonition, or otherwise according to the and General James Wadsworth, who was a member of Congress. Twelve, besides the three clergymen of this Church, are italicized as "ministers". Of the thirty-six members of the class, all but six took their Master's degree, and of these six, four died before the time of conferring it. | eral thing, the clergy and Churchmen of Con-In College with the young Seabury, during more | necticut were compelled to see their parishioners or less of his residence, were several who became noted in Church or State, in after years. Among these were the able and excellent Thomas Bradbury Chandler, S. T. D., first Bishopdesignate of Nova Scotia; the pious and learned | with these hindrances to overcome, there was a Jeremiah Leaming, S. T. D., who was from his definiteness and intensity to Connecticut Churchyears and devotion the first choice of the Connecticut clergy, among whom his ministerial life | To Seabury and his fellow-students the Church had been spent for the Episcopate; the celebrated was endeared by the very assaults made upon it, Ezra Stiles, S. T. D., LL. D., President of the and the persecutions its members were forced to College; Oliver Wolcott, D. D., Governor of endure, and they became, during their year of Georgia, both signers of the Declaration of Independence.

It requires but little exercise of the imagination to picture the daily walks and conversation, the studies and the pastimes of these young men of a century and a half ago. The College was now view of increasing his future influence. While rapidly growing in numbers and dignity. Half he was thus engaged, the people of Huntington, of the students were forced to live out of the eighteen miles from his father's home. conbased on those of Harvard and the University of | Gospel, that "Mr. Samuel Seabury, a young gen-"Connecticut Hall". In the Library was cona thousand volumes, costing at least £400, which was, as the historian of Connecticut tells us (Trumbull, ii. 302), "the finest collection of books ever sent into America". Among these treasures were two hundred and sixty folios, and here at the option of the young readers were the Anglican fathers with the choicest divinity of the Church's past and present, mingled with the volumes of metaphysical philosophy, which were so | and give him a place on their books, and grant dear to the worthy Dean, who wrote the "Minute Philosopher", while in the neighboring colony of Institution, which was put in force against the sive seal, which give to the original or the fac "That no scholar, upon the Lord's, or another lowed by public authority, or approved by the state and demerit of the office." (Ibid ii. 182.) Under this rule, the infraction of which was occasionally winked at by the Faculty, if at all kindly disposed towards the Church students, but which was maintained to the letter as a genand sons go unwillingly to "meeting", or else deliberal education within their own borders.* We need not wonder that under these influences, and manship, which has marked it to the present day. Connecticut, and Lyman Hall, Governor of study, earnest, intelligent, and devoted Churchmen, able and ready to give a reason for the faith they cherished, and seeking to spend and be spent for Christand His Church.

Immediately after graduation, Mr. Seabury devoted himself to the study of medicine, with a he be of age to present himself to the Society in happen to have on their hands. person, I intend, God willing, that he shall spend one or two years at Edinburgh in the study of Physic. I have been led into this manner of educating him, from an hint taken from one of the Honorable Society's Abstracts concerning their had received 4012 signatures; Bishop Perry's designed economy of their College at Barbadoes. I shall, therefore, esteem it a great favor if the Society will be pleased to approve this method, what may be recommended in his favor by our vassing for the Dean's Memorial. I hear that Rev. Commissary, in regard to Huntington." New York MSS., in the writer's keeping.)

simile, so much of its antiquarian interest: "JOHN, by divine permission Bishop of Lincoln. To all to whom these presents shall come or whom they may in any wise concern, Know Ye that at an Ordination holden by Us with the Aid and Assistance of Almighty God at the request and in the stead of the Right Reverend measure which does great credit both to his infather in God Thomas by divine permission Lord Bishop of London In his Lordship's Palace at ffulham in the County of Middlesex on ffryday the twenty-first day of December in the year the absolute owner during his life, and can make of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and what leases he pleases. It also does away with fifty-three We did admit and promote our belov-ed in Christ Samuel Seabury to the Holy Order of a Deacon according to the Rights and Ceremonies of the Church of England in that behalf the value of the property. The law, and not published and provided he having been well rec- the landlord, is heneforth to control leases. ommended to his Lordship for his good Life and virtuous Attainments and proficiency in Learnprive them of the only opportunity to obtain a ing with a sufficient Title and having been also ing that term the tenant who pays his rent is first examined and approved by the Examiner of independent of the landlord. If he build a house the said Lord Bishop. In Testimony whereof or outbuilding, it is part of his property, which We have caused the Episcopal Seal of London to be hereto affixed. Dated the day and year above written and in the tenth year of our translation. Pr W. SKELTON, Reg'r.

(Signed) JOHN. ..LINCOLN The Seal of Thomas Sherlock Bishop of London: A. D. 1748

Registered in the Registry of London."

In Perils among Brethren. From our English Correspondent.

LONDON, March 24, 1881. You are aware that Mr. Enraght, of Bordesley, and Mr. Green, of Miles Platting, demur to the jurisdiction of Lord Penzance's Court, and re-College building, for lack of accommodation, formed in considerable numbers to the Church, fuse to acknowledge it. They have never apand during Seabury's junior year the energetic and erected a house of Worship. They prayed peared before the noble lord. Of course, the justice and oppression, and to protect him in the President, who had compiled a new body of laws the Venerable Society for the Propagation of the mere fact that an accused person chooses to ignore the tribunal which claims to have cogniz-Oxford, and had digested into a concise form the tleman (lately educated and graduated at Yale ance of his alleged offence, is no absolute rea-College "customs", which had from time to time College), of a good character, and excellent son why he should be allowed to go scot-free; obtained, secured the privilege of having a lot- hopes" (Hawks and Perry's Conn. Church, i. but, when his objection to the court is endorsed tery, which netted £500 towards a new building 248), might be appointed Catechist and Lay by a very large number of the public, and when for dormitories and studies, afterwards called Reader. The Missionary at Hempstead, in a let- the rulers of Church and State alike admit that ter to the Secretary of the Venerable Society, un- there is prima facie ground for enquiry, it tained, "at one end", the Berkeley gift of nearly der date of Sept. 30, 1748, thus refers to his son: does seem the ne plus ultra of spite to enforce "My son is now studying Physic, and before a couple of judgments which the association

I may state that according to the last account which has been published, namely, to the 16th inst., the Dean's Memorial against Persecution Counter-Memorial having on the 25th, received 3862. There is, however, a great difference between the two cases. There has been no canthe English Church Union was requested to dwelt on the hardship of turning into the street,

POLITICS AND PROGRESS.

Legislation, Arbitration and Annihilation.

The new Land Bill for Ireland which Mr. Gladstone has introduced into Parliament is a blow at entails, declaring that the landlord is so many sales. They are generally one-third of Now, all leases are to run fifteen years ; and durhe can sell with his lease, and the value of which he can demand when the lease expires. He can increase his stock, can employ machinery, can improve his cultivation, can provide proper drainage, can double the productive value of the farm, and all this without having his rent increased in consequence. This reformation will put an end to the squalid, poverty-stricken system of cultivation now in use. It will lead to better habitations than mud cabins, and it will add largely to the productions of the island, and to the general comforts of the people. It will give to every tenant a right of property during his occupancy, and that fixity of tenure which is now wholly wanting. The bill further provides a court of justice to which every tenant may appear to enforce the law, to restrain all acts of inrights and privileges granted him by this law. It will take some time, doubtless, to get this passed; but it meets with great favor, and is drawn up with masterly skill.

The Jesuit ghost is not yet laid in France. The law is that all the Jesuit schools retaining any Jesuit teachers, are to be closed at Easter; and one of the deputies has just called attention to it. M. Jules Ferry justified the warning given to the schools which had not already complied with the law. It was impossible to wink at the clandestine restoration of Jesuit communities, or the retention of Jesuits in all the higher posts, while the subordinate Jesuits were dismissed. The Supreme Educational Council had decided against such an evasion of the decrees in ten cases, and the remaining twenty could have no partiality shown them. M. Bocher complained that the law of 1850 was virtually annulled, and

THE EARLY AMERICAN BISHOPS. A Series of Biographical Sketches.

BY THE BISHOP OF IOWA. [Copyright by William Stevens Perry, 1881.]

CHAPTER II. •

EARLY LIFE AND EXPERIENCES.

The young Seabury was nearly fitted for college, when, in the midst of the Whitefield excitement, known in ecclesiastical history as "The Great Awakening," his father removed from New London to Hempstead, Long Island. Shortly after, in the year 1744, he was admitted to the Freshman Class at Yale College. Four years later the good Dr. Johnson, in writing to the Secretary of the venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, thus refers to the subject of this sketch:

"There were nine of our clergy together at the Commencement, at New Haven, about a fortnight ago, among which the worthy Mr. Commissary Barclay favored us with his company. We all consulted the best things we could for the Church's interest. Among the candidates for their degrees, there were no less than ten belonging to our Church, five Masters and five Bachelors; among the former, two in orders, Messrs. Sturgeon and Leaming, and two candidates, Chandler and Colton. Of the Bachelors, beside my youngest son and Mr. Ogilvie, Seabury had a promising son, and as he designs him for the Society's service, he desires me to mention what I know of him; and as he had lived four years much under my eye, I can truly testify of him, that he is a solid, sensible, virtuous youth, and I doubt not may, in good time, do good service. (Hawks and Perry's Connecticut i. 245.)

There was need of good Dr. Johnson's supervision of the young Churchman at Yale. Compelled, as we shall see, to attend the Congregationalist "meeting" save when with the younger Johnson, he traversed the fourteen weary miles between New Haven and Stratford, "once in three weeks or a month, at least, at the Communion"; or else, on occasional Sundays when Service was held at West Haven, Seabury must have gone at least 4 miles to "worship God in the beauty of holiness". By special indulgence he might sometimes stay at home in his chamber, and read the Church prayers, with a little band of fellow Churchmen, suffering the same privations, and act being formally adjudged "contrary to the looking forward to the same life work. (Com- rules of the Gospel, the laws of the Colony and pare an interesting letter of Dr. Johnson, in Hawks and Perry's Connecticut i. 204, 205.) It is not drawing on one's imagination to picture the young student as not only "solid, sensible, and virtuous", but also as scholarly and enthusiastic in his work, and showing, even in his youth, the earnestness and zeal that marked his manhood and later years.

Rhode Island, but a short time before. Days and years were these which left their impress on the mind and heart of Seabury. Compelled to attend the uncomfortable and unsatisfying 'meeting", save when he could steal away to the West Haven or the Stratford Service and Sacrament, he was doubtless strengthened in his Churchmanship by the very restrictions intended to prevent its growth; while the wild enthusiasm enkindled by the evangelistic labors of Whitefield, Davenport, Teunant, and their followers, which during these eventful years swept over the Colony and College, deepened within him that sober, reasonable and religious hope, which characterized his personal character, and bore fruit in earnest and complete consecration to the Master's cause and Church, all through his life. Seabury, with the natural curiosity of a boy. had doubtless been a witness of that remarkable display of fanaticism recorded in his father's letter to the Venerable Society (Hawks and Perry's Documentary History of the Church in Connecticut, ii. 119, 120), when, on Sunday, the 6th of March, 1743, in the public street of New London, a large gathering of "New Lights", as they were styled, burned a great number of books of divinity, and among others Bishop Beveridge's 'Thoughts about Religion". The enactments of the Assembly against the intrusion of these itinerant evangelists into the parishes of the established (Congregational) order, and the formation of separate congregations, resulted in an intense excitement. The arrest and imprisonment of the "New Lights", and the summary punishment visited upon their preachers, could not fail to arouse a wide-spread indignation, when so excellent and exemplary a man as Samuel Finley, a distinguished Presbyterian minister, afterwards President of Nassau Hall, now Princeton College, New Jersey, was transported out of the Colony as a vagrant for preaching the Gospel. The studies of Seabury's Freshman year were but begun, when one of his classmates, Ebenezer Cleveland, and an older brother, were brought up before Rector Clap and the three Tutors, Whittlesey, Whiting, and Darling, who constituted the Faculty, on the charge of having attended a Separatist meeting at their home in Canterbury a couple of months before. This consequence expelled, as the Indian Missionary, David Brainerd, "whose praise is in all the Churches", had been a few years before. Although the President and Tutors were accused of having "allowed young men of the Church of England to be in College without renouncing their principles" (!) (Ibid ii. 183), the law of the

The worthy Missionary's request was granted,

the young student received a salary of £10 per Bishop Perry's friends seem to have created a annum. Here he remained in the quiet discharge of the duty assigned him until July, 1752, when he resigned his post, and in August embarked from New York for Edinburgh for the purpose a year, ere he should "make a tender of his future life to the service of his great Master" (Ibid), under the direction of the Venerable Society. Here he appears to have remained for nearly or quite a year, as was his original purpose.

The story is told by the Rev. Dr. Beardsley, in his recent Life and Correspondence of Bishop Seabury, "that on the Sunday after his arrival. he inquired of his host where he might find an Episcopal Service. The penal laws were then in force which prohibited the Episcopal clergy in Scotland from officiating, except in private houses for four persons only, besides the family; or, if in an uninhabited building, for a number not exceeding four. His host replied, 'I will show you; take your hat and follow me, but keep barely in my sight, for we are watched with jealousy by the Presbyterians.' He led him through winding, narrow lanes, and unfrequented streets. and finally disappeared suddenly into an old building several stories high, followed by Seabury, to an upper room, where a little band had gathered to worship God in the forms of the Liturgy, according to the dictates of their conscience."

A stained and somewhat faded parchment, in the keeping of the Rev. Professor Seabury, D. D., of New York, which has lately been reproduced in photo-lithography, by the Historical Club, (Fac Similes of Church Documents: Paper issued by the Historical Club of the American Church, 1874-79. Bp. Perry and the Rev. Dr. C. R. Hale, editors.) thus records the admission to Holy Orders of the future Bishop. We give it in full only regretting that we cannot reproduce the quaint and crabbed chirography, and the mas-

the quaint and crabbed chirography, and the mas-* The persistent refusal of the Assembly to grant a charter for a Church College in Connecticut, was not overcome till, by a political coalition in 1817, the "toleration" party came into power, and the power of Congregationalism, as an established or State re-trigion, was overthrown. The Charter of Washington, new Trinity, College was finally granted in May, 1823. A striking illustration of the intolerance of the au-thorities of Yale College is found in the Triennial Catalogue of 1796, the year of Bishop Seabury's de-cease. The Bishop's name appears fourth in order in the arrangement of the class, a position due to his social standing, or rather that of his fallows, but although mention is made of the "S. T. D." con-ferred by the University of Oxford, no notice of his Episcopal office is found. In later days, the pitiful prosoription has disappeared, and the modern "Tri-emial" gives with the clarum et venerabile nomen of Samuel Seabury the added, "Recles. Anglic. Conn. et Ins. Kho. Episc."—Bishop of the Anglican Church of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

take it up, but declined to do so; and that Archdeacon Deninson's Memorial has had nine hunand as Catechist and Reader, in this Mission, dred names appended to it. On the other hand, > regular department for the purpose of touting for signatures The fact that the Counter-Memorial is not likely to come within a thousand of the number of signatures which have been sent present manifesto was got up by Canon Scott-Robertson; and, unless I am much mistaken, it received some fifteen hundred adhesions more ing-off is an important item in the consideration friends to make dukes of themselves. of the case.

Mr. Green is the gentleman who was favored with the famous Bill of Costs. You are aware passed for the purpose of facilitating and cheapening legal process; but although Mr. Green never appeared, and although the proceeding curious. They included charges with reference to steps taken on behalf of an "Aggrieved-one," entitled by the Act to be aggrieved at all; charges for the loss of time incurred by the "Aggrieved" in expressing their sorrows; charges on account of the attorney's trouble in interviewing Lord Penzance at his private house; and many other items that caused much scandal. Mr. Green know. has refused to have anything to do with it; and. for the last three weeks he has had two bailiffs thrust into his house to seize and keep possession of his goods. As if this had not been enough, Mr. Green was arrested on Saturday, and dragged off to gaol. There is some hope that it will be possible to attack the Privy Councils's judgment on its absurd ruling about the Elizabethan Advertisements. Admitting-which is indeed monstrous-that the said Advertisements could have any possible bearing upon the rubric of Charles II.; and admitting, what has never yet been proved, that there were "other orders" taken under Elizabeth's Act of Uniformity, the fact remains, that the only authority alleged for them was a letter written to the Archbishop of Canterbury. There cannot, therefore be the smallest ground for asserting that the Advertisements extend to the Northern Province. But if not, it has been ruled by the Privy Council, that the Ornaments Rubric is undoubtedly the law which is binding upon the clergy. As regards Mr. Enraght, notice has been given of an application to re-commit him next Saturday, but as an appeal has been entered, it is thought that the motion may stand over.

in the middle of the scholastic year, the 800 day pupils of the Rue de Madrid, whose teachers all lived and boarded outside the school.

One of the Bonapartist members gravely proposed the sale of life titles at the rate of 10.000f. a year for duke, 5,000f. for marquis, 4,000f. for count, 3,000f. for baron, and 2,000f. for the parof pursuing the study of Physic and Anatomy for to Dean Church and Archdeacon Denison, is ticle de. He calculated the receipts at 100,000,significant. Some years ago, a declaration of 000 and considered this better than the present much the same character as Bishop Perry's system of usurping titles, under which it was not easy to ascertain the spurious from the genuine. The proposal was referred, in the ordinary course, to the Bureaux. If it be passed, than the Bishop's is likely to obtain. The fall- there will be a fine chance for some of our shoddy

> We return to the weary Greece and Turkey business. Things have got on a little. That is that the Public Worship Regulation Act was to say, Turkey has made a definite offer of a good slice of Territory to Greece, and the Powers have virtually said: "Take it and stop your growling; and if you won't take it, we will not took place behind his back, he was charged con- lift a finger to help you in any of your fights." siderably more than a thousand dollars, in the But Greece is not so easily deterred. She says. shape of costs. Many of the items were very in effect; "I will have my whole cake, or I will not have any." The Greeks still pin their faith on English aid, and an ominous rumor is current who, by reason of insufficient residence was not that they have better grounds for so doing than have been allowed to transpire. The honest, open, and aboveboard Ministry, which professed itself so shocked at secret negotiations and personal engagements, is believed to be more deeply committed than the country has been allowed to

> > The Nihilists have already begun to threaten the new Czar, he having found on his pillow a charming note from them. Thus it is shown that not merely a desire of vengeance against the late Czar personally, but a determination to annihilate Imperialism in Russia lies at the bottom of the movement, which has its most open manifestation in his murder. The voice of civilized Europe has denounced that crime, but a small portion of uncivilized Europe, including M. Rochefort, not only applauds but glories in "it. The new Czar is purging his house, which had got pretty dirty. Dolgorouki and her brood are packed off, and so are the Czar's very scaly uncle and his still scalier son, the diamond stealer; and it is evident that some liberal political measures will soon be inaugurated.

> > On Easter morning it is a pleasant custom in St. Mary's School for a chorus of girls to awaken the household with an Easter Carol. All then go together to the parish church for a choral Service and Celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

their Families

MEDFORD, MASS., April 2, 1881. To the Editor of the Living Church:

May I be permitted to call the attention of your readers to the following report of a special committee of the late General Convention: "On "On reasing the Fund for Disabled Clergy, and the "household of faith"? the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy-men ?" The resolutions which accompany the report, after having been unanimously adopted

"Resolved. That the House of Bishops has eived with lively satisfaction the communication from the House of Deputies, contained in its message No. 70, informing it of the action taken looking to the increase of the Fund for House:-Disabled Clergymen and their families. The Bishops hail with joy this prospect for the relief of our suffering brethren. and of the families of ose departed, and heartily approve the action CHAS. L. HUTCHINS,

Secretary of the House of Deputies. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

On the fourth day of the present session of Deputation from the House of Bishops, consisting of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lee, Bishop of Delaware, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lay, Bishop of Easton, and the find it expedient, approve, commend, and endorse Rt. Rev. Dr. Dudley, Assistant Bishop of Kentucky, presented to the House of Deputies, in cause of disabled clergy and the widows and time forth, out of "the alms and other devotions" orphans of deceased clergymen.

Deputies the earnest consideration of a measure, was avowedly designed to impress upon the latter the eminent estimate which our Rt. Rev. Fathers entertained of the importance of the Disabled Clergymen. cause they thus presented for consideration.

With the earnest words of the Bishops still ments still warm in our hearts, it is scarcely necessary that your Committee should enlarge upon the merits of the matter referred to their consideration.

That the Church should first of all extend a helping hand to those who have ministered at her their powers, is a self-evident proposition.

The sentences selected to be read, while "the alms for the poor and other devotions of the people" are being received, in the Office of the Holy Communion, do most unequivocally set founding a Sustentation Fund, for supplementforth the great idea that the support of the clergy is properly derivable from the offerings of the people,-that "they who preach the gospel should of Deputies be instructed to publish this Report live of the gospel." The soldier who fights his in the Church Press, to send copies to the Bishcountry's battles is amply supported by the government which he serves; and when he is wounded. or disabled, or incapacitated by old age, the the Report be submitted to the consideration of State still supports him and his family, and when the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils. he dies there is a pension, to his widow. This honoring of the Lord Jesus Christ, are in many instances left to terminate their ministry of toil and self-denial in circumstances of suffering Shall not the Church care for he verty. children as the State does for hers? The Church presents us the manifest duty, come before us, and urged to immediate action in pont. this pre-eminent charity, this paramount duty of All contributions by way of percentage on the humanity. Your Committee recognize the grate- Communion Alms, etc., designed for the increase ful fact that a step has been taken in the direction of the General Disabled Clergy Fund, should be lively interest; and, it is hoped, was conducive to to which we are bidden, by depositing with the remitted directly to Mr. Lloyd W. Wells, Treas-Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen, a royalty upon the publication and sale of our Hymnal. The money thus received and disbursed Course of Sermons in Trinity Church, New Haven. by the Trustees of this Fund has been the means of relieving much suffering, but the amount is wants. greatest and the means of help the feeblest. tribution? Your committee have had a number clergy.

pressing import, of as high and holy character, science in amusements and recreations, and in of as appropriate and divinely ordered descrip-tion, as giving relief to our suffering brothers, being of society in the loyalty of every citizen to rence's. Goldston; Deputy, etc., from the Diotion, as giving relief to our suffering brothers, being of society in the loyalty of every citizen to who have spent their lives in fatherly offices in his conscience, witnessed in his piety and puri-

once, upon any method which shall be general vice, wink at public wrongs, admire successful by the House of Deputies, were communicated to the House of Bishops, and were approved by that House in the following resolution: investigation in the way of correspondence and powerful with the protection of the source of the investigation in the way of correspondence and the compilation of statistics.

following Resolutions for the approval of this benefactor of mankind. But this is an age too consider the subject of the increase of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen, be continued, with an increased membership, with instructions to act in the premises during the time intervening before the next General Convention, to the end that they the General Convention, (October 11th), a may the better accomplish the objects for which the Committee was raised.

2. Resolved, That this House do earnestly request the several Diocesan Conventions or ouncils that they duly consider, and, if they the eminent charity embraced in the purpose and effort of this Committee. 3. Resolved, That every minister in charge of cogent and convincing appeal and argument, the a Congregation be requested to reserve, from this of the people, collected upon each and every occasion of the administration of the Lord's Sup-This almost unprecedented action of the per, a percentage of the whole amount, not less House of Bishops in urging upon the House of than one nor more than ten per cent., at the discretion of the minister, the same to be forwarded and paid over to the Trustees of the Fund for ineffective, and that methodically to enlist the the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of members of a community with due record to Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm, and

4. Resolved, That This Committee be instructed to correspond with the Authorities of each powerful and healthful, to give a firm seat to its Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction, for the fresh in our memory, and their glowing senti- purpose of collecting facts and statistics bearing upon the subject committed to them, such as the local provision now made in certain Dioceses for the relief of disabled Clergy and their families, the wants that now exist and that are unsupplied, the irregular and unorganized assistance that is now being extended, and all other information that shall contribute to a full exhibit of the pre- pardoning power, a traitorous conspiracy to desent condition of this charity and its probable altars until age and infirmity have weakened future; and that this Committee prepare and present to the next General Convention a digest of Look at intemperance, the burning question of > to further and more formal action 5. Resolved, That this Committee be further instructed to inquire into the practicability of ing the salaries of Clergymen who have not suitable support.

> 6. Resolved, That the Secretary of the House ops of the 'Church and to the Secretaries of the Conventions or Councils of the Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions, with the request that communicated to the House of Bishops, as the usage obtains in many other relations of secular response of this body to their request that some life; but we are left to mourn the fact, and a action be taken upon the subject of the relief of together, and all ended with well, I suppose we humiliating fact it is, that they, who give their disabled Clergy and their families, and that, in neither of us can bear to part with the other, so lives for the welfare of their fellow-men and the submitting this Report, it is hoped that it will you must try to overcome your bad habits." meet the approval of our Rt. Rev. Fathers. All which is duly submitted

NOAH HUNT SCHENCK, (Signed,) ALFRED B. BEACH. J. PETERKIN,

THE LIVING CHURCH.

The Fund for Disabled Clergy and rightly be called the "Alme,"-what "pious and came John the Baptist." Christianity as the charitable use" can possibly be made of the other mind of Christ carried out into human life, part, called "Contributions," of as great and means a conscience in trade and business, a con-

ty, duty and benevolence, justice and honesty. Your Committee feel the difficulty of fixing, at | Many who would not countenance a personal powerful with the party. The age's greatest criminal went down to his grave in a flood of

Your Committee therefore beg to submit the flatteries and with something of the honors of a

of awakening conscience. A school of current 1. Resolved, That the Committee appointed to convictions is coming to the front. It was a wise saying of the ancients that the "end of the State is not to live, but to live nobly," and the latest modern thought treats it as a moral person, subject to moral obligations, like an individual. There is a false conservatism, a selfishness and supreme regard to one's ease, and an indifference to the general good, which is to-day as of old, undermining public ' rength and goodness. Do Christians realize that to withdraw from public affairs, may be a guilt like treason, in a day when the interests of liberty and honor call every citizen to the field? Shall we require the enactment of Solon's law, that no Athenian shall remain neutral on any great question of public life, under the penalty of death or disfranchisement? Mr. Gladstone thus writes to Bishop Skinner: I am deeply convinced that all systems resting on a principle of absolutism, must be feeble and members of a community, with due regard to their several capacities, in the performance of its public duties, is to make that community rulers, and to engender a warm and intelligent devotion in those beneath their sway." In suggesting opportunities of action and spheres, I might speak of politics, bad faith in the government, corruption in the legislature, partnership with crime, or indifference to it, abuse of the fraud the country of its nobiest inheritance, etc. all the information thus gathered, with reference the hour. What sane person will deny that here lies the greatest shame and sin of the times? Akin to this, is the polarization of society, an increasing alienation of classes, which leads to the disintegration of patriotism. Mr. Baring Gould illustrates the mutual dependence of master and man, when he describes in his own inimitable way, how often his father, annoyed by his coachman's infirmity, would after expostulation. invariably announce his decision to let him go, but with evident pain. "And then old Richard's eve would fill and his tongue would stammer in tell-7. Resolved, That this Report be respectfully ing what was wrong in his heart, and thereupon my father's anger and courage would melt away

The fifth sermon of the series, by Dr. Beardsley, upon Religion in the family, will be out- responsible and for which therefore he is bound "will make us of no more weight in the parish lined in another letter. Though the Lenten to have regard, lie also outside; four-fifths of the than such folks as the Calmers and Truefaiths, season will be past before its appearance, the active service in the various Church works are who could not give a hundred dollars a year beimportance and interest of the theme will continue, and I hope you may be able to afford space for a more extended notice than I have ventured to make of those mentioned above.

The Clergy in the Parishes. IX.

Written for the Living Church. CAPE LOOKOUT, MARCH 17th, 1881. cese of Rutledge.

MY DEAR SIR:-There was present at our Litany Service this morning, a worthy sailor who, living by fishing and such miscellaneous offshore duty as he is fit for. I walked homewards "It's blowing up a gale, sir," said he as our pines, he added "God help the mariners that are coming round Hatteras to-night!"

"Amen!" said I, for those who might soon be thus in danger; and then my thoughts returned minister; "do you know, that our last pastor vears ago that he was himself shipwrecked and ruler!" so injured by the rocks upon which he was dashed by the waves, that he could never after either go up a mast or reef a sail.

slowly back again alone, the while watching the that department, said the new rector was growing waves and the distant gathering gloom, "secular governments erect beacons, and lighthouses, to warn sailors off dangerous coasts and and rocky rectorships. Many a true Christian on some of these, as poor Jack Surge was on Hatteras.

others may have been, there need be no trouble to grow cool. for them.

attempt to exercise any controlling influence.

pretend to be a religious man at all. He gave the lot for the new church, and says he will invest liberally in any further improvements which will increase the value of his own neighboring property; and sums up his ecclesiastical views tersely in the dictum that "the rector who makes the Church pay, must be sustained. and the rector who does not, must go." He generally votes with Mr. Ironsides; but Col. unable longer to follow the sea, makes a scanty Pedigree has active allies in Mrs. Raynor and Mrs. Captious, both of whom are faithfully represented in the Vestry by their husbands. I do with him along the sandy beach, to talk with not know which party was responsible for the him and to give him some Lenten counsel and election of Dr. Trustall; but the first year he was encouragement of which he stood much in need. at Selfwilton, neither party could sufficiently praise him. "He is evidently a gentleman of talk slackened, pointing at the same time to the family and culture," said Mrs. Pedigree. "That white caps on the waters in the offing; and then, man means work; he has no nonsense about listening to the winds soughing through the him," said Mr. Ironsides. "The Dr.'s preaching will make it a good investment to own some more pews." said Mr. Selfends. "We expect quite a new order of things," said Mrs. Raynor to the

to him, for it was coming round Hatteras five | actually told us once that the word 'rector' meant But when Dr. Trustall took charge of the Sunday School himself, and began to catechize the children systematically and regularly, Mrs. "Secular governments," thought I, as I walked Raynor, who had been a volunteer dictator in arbitrary. When, as the rubric directs, he undertook "to give order concerning the tunes to be sung," and insisted that they should be such rocky shores. The Church ought no less to give as the congregation could join in, the two young warning to her clergy of her dangerous parishes Warbles and their sisters, who were the family quartette choir, resented his interference, and minister is as utterly unfitted for future service, old man Warble declared that he would never again go where his children had been so treated.

Mr. Ironsides, thought this a good move; but There is that Christ Church, Selfwilton, where when the Dr. quietly but firmly objected to the Trustall was wrecked. There should be a bea- customary fairs, concerts and picnics to raise con out to give every clergyman warning of that money for Church purposes, then he and his parish, for many a ministerial reputation has party scouted him, while the Pedigree faction gone to pieces there for want of it. To be sure, applauded. When, on the other hand, the recit is pretty well known now, for the bad repute tor said that the missionary interests and work of a parish spreads at length among the older of the parish ought not to be given up exclusively clergy as surely as that dangerous shore among to a few select ladies, who could enjoy holding wary and experienced sailors; but there are ever their missionary meetings at each other's houses, sailors new to the coasts and over confident; and but that it should be a common field of united there are ever young clergymen who have not as activity for the whole parish, Mr. Ironsides said yet been rudely awakened from their dream he was showing his sense, while Mrs. Captious of smooth seas, or who are self confident said that the Dr. was really trying their patience enough to feel that, whatever the experience of too far; and the Pedigrees and their clique began

Finally, however, the rector laid before the Selfwilton and Goldston are, next to Ruth- whole parish, and, with the hearty approval of ledge, the two most important parishes in your more than three-quarters, both of families and Diocese. Now, there are, we will say, in the of communicants, carried out a change in the former parish one hundred and fifty families or entire financial system, by which the pews were thereabouts, all told. Of these, it is fair to as- made free, and the income from the voluntary sume that not over a dozen or fifteen families offerings of all so raised, that the Church would be thenceforth entirely free from dependence The congregation is made up, of course, over- upon a few families. Then both Col. Pedigree overwhelmingly, "gentle and simple," of the oth- and Mr. Ironsides agreed that they could no er one hundred and thirty odd families. Four- longer submit to this state of things. "We shall fifths of the souls entrusted to the Rector's care have the church tilled up with nobody knows are found outside of this smaller circle; four- who," said the former to his wife at home. "This fifths of the spiritual interests for which he is new plan," said the latter to Squire Selfend,

Th

Clev

new ton

orga

cour

all t

cept

dista

dred

to r

in t

irre fail.

but,

kno

ten

cur

and fou

Lai

neo any in

Dr

reg

yes

by

of the Digest], speaking of "the Alms and Con- ily ties, and for what is pure and wholesome, is tributions of the Holy Communion" as proper to to be strictly drawn.

O. MEADS. CORTLANDT PARKER.

The foregoing Standing Committee was, by acnay, in the revelation of God, even from the tion of the General Convention, enlarged by the beginning, it is clearly enforced, that "they who addition of the following members, viz: The minister about holy things (should) live of the Rev. A. M. Aberermobie, D. D., the Rev. T. Stafsacrifice." Now, our Rt. Rev. Fathers have ford Drowne, D. D., and Mr. Henry E. Pierre-urer, 22, Bible House, New York.

Winter Lenten Services.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

The admirable sermons resulting from the quite inadequate to meet the great and painful combined Lenten Services in NewHaven, drew mons were preached by the Kev. Henry Kittson, large numbers to Trinity Church, on Wednes- of St. Paul. On Thursday evening, the sermon Your Committee further recognize the several day evenings. The third discourse of the series was exclusively for men, on the subject of Diocesan efforts in this direction, which have was preached by the Rev. E. S. Lines of St. "Christian Manliness." A greater degree of inbeen organized and administered with varying Paul's Church; his subject being "Christianity terest and a larger attendance than ever before, measures of success; but while these serve in in Amusements." His text was from 1 Cor. x:31. part to relieve the need of the disabled clergy in "Whatever ye do, do all to the glory of God." the older and richer Dioceses, where they are Whatever makes for the glory of God, is worthy at 7 A. M. has been maintained since Advent, chiefly to be found, still they do not contemplate of our regard. With whatever fails to accomplish with great success in point of attendance; while, the extension of aid to the feebler Dioceses, this, we can have nothing to do. In so far as of course, the "success" spiritually can only be where no such organizations exist, nor to the any course of action meets this requirement, in known in the Hereafter. vast missionary jurisdictions, where now, and for so far it may be adopted. We must recognize many years to come, the want will be found to be the fact that the desire for amusements or for

The immediate question is, What can be done is not an evil desire to be crushed out, but like was called to Kansas by the death of a sister; the to increase the Fund designed for general dis- the natural appetites it is to be kept under re- Rev. Mr. Breck was taken seriously ill just at the straint, and to be made to minister to good rathof projects referred to them, all of which have er than to unworthy ends. The Church of God though not able to renew work; the Rev. Mr. received their respectful consideration. There has a message for all men as regards work and Ward has not yet sufficiently recovered from his are difficulties insuperable to almost every plan, play. It is her duty to bid many busy men in long prostration, to do much active work; but, save that which is manifestly set forth in the this busy time to think more of play, to give Church's theory, as translated to us in the Offer- place to rational amusements, to innocent recrea- vices have been kept up without failure, by the tory Sentences. The rubric in the Communion tion, that so their working power may be in- remaining members of the staff. Office is in harmony with this, when it provides creased or prolonged. But it is more necessary, for the collection, not only of "alms for the as men are made, to plead that men will take sepoor," but for "the other devotions" (or con- rious views of life, that they will think of the pared a box of fancy and useful articles to be secrated gifts) "of the people." Now, for what worth of work, that they will not allow the disare these "other devotions" of the people de- position to waste time, or to use it unworthily, be held after Easter, for the benefit of the missigned, if not for that very purpose set forth in to gain a strong hold upon them. A Christian sion. the Offertory Sentences which ask for them ? It man must not countenance impurity or dissipacan scarcely be too much emphasized in this con- tion. He has no right to be found in places asnection, that the Offertory appeals only for the sociated with evil. The line as regards amuserelief of the poor and the sustentation of the ments which suggest evil thoughts, which break down reverence for holy things, which present And then the Canon [Title I., Canon 14, ¶ 3 low ideas of life, which lessen respects for fam-be applied by the minister, or under his super- The fourth sermon in the series, was preached nce, to such pious and charitable uses as by the Rev. Joseph Brewster, Rector of Christ thell by him be thought fit,-after dividing a Church, on "Christianty in Public Life." His barefoot a hundred miles over mountains, and tain part for the relief of the poor, which may text was Matt. iii:1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6: "In those days publicly shot, after three days.

All Saints' Cathedral, Milwaukee. Correspondence of the Living Church.

The Mission held in All Saints' Cathedral, Milwaukee, last week, was one that created a spiritual growth. Services were held at 6:30 and 7 o'clock, A. M., for the Celebration of the Holy Communion; Morning Prayer at 8:45; an Instruction at 11 o'clock; a Meditation at 4 o'clock; Evening Prayer at 5 o'clock; Sermon at 8 o'clock. The Services were all well attended. The Instructions and Meditations were conducted by the Rev. T. M. Riley, of Minneapolis; and the serbeen encouraging features. A daily Celebration

The Clergy of the Bishop's staff at All Saints Cathedral have been singularly afflicted just in some form of of recreation is a natural one. It the midst of Lenten work. The Rev. Mr. Todd beginning of Lent, but is now convalescent, alunder all these discouraging circumstances, Ser-

The congregations of All Saints Cathedral and of St. Paul's Church, Milwaukee, have each present to the Church in Hudson, Wis., for a sale to

A horrible story comes from Guatemala, of the public execution of a Roman Catholic Priest, Father Henry Gillett, for no other crime than being a Jesuit. It seems that there is a law in force in the Republic banishing Jesuits, under penalty of death. Father Gillett, who was an Englishman, entered the country, not as a Priest or Missionary, but simply for the benefit of his health. As soon as it was discovered that he was a Jesuit, he was arrested, compelled to march done by members of this large majority.

of members of these few leading tamilies, who are divided into two cliques. The election of a rector has ever been a struggle between them. The first year or two of every new rector's ministry has ever been a contest, on the one side to maintain their influence over him, on the other, to gain him over; and from that time forward, on the part of those who could not control him, in one or another, to get rid of him.

Col. Pedigree's party have the advantage socially, and they hold their heads a little higher among the old families of the place; and the military reputation which he himself brought home from the war, was not unaccompanied with the habit of ruling. But on the other hand, Mr. Ironsides, who no doubt made quite a fortune by government contracts, can give far more largely when money is needed, or more seriously hamper the Vestry by shutting up his purse. The sway of Vestry politics depends, therefore, very much upon the financial state of the parish at any given time; upon the relative importance, for the time upon the Lenten Services, at the Cathedral, have being, of money or of social influence. The chronic question over pending-never permanently settled in that Vestry and congregation, is who is to have the control of the rector. It never seems to occur to any one of these two rival cliques that the rector is the rector over them both, that he is responsible to God and to the Church for the state of the parish, and that he is charged with the spiritual care of all his parishioners. It is tacitly assumed that he is there to carry out some one's personal preferences and private plans. The only question is-whose?

> Now, I put it to you, my dear Sir,-to you who know something of these people, which one do you honestly think competent either to select a spiritual guide for that whole parish or to determine his policy? Col. Pedigree is a gentleman by birth and breeding, and has the tastes and habits of an educated gentleman; but his early life was dissipated, and though he has sown his wild oats and settled down to eminent respectability and is, indeed, an occasional communicant yet certainly no one would call him a devout man; and his somewhat haughty and aristocratic temper has no sympathy with anything that would gather the trading and poorer classes into the same church with him and his family. Mr. Ironsides, on the contrary, is a self-made and almost uneducated man, who has little idea of any objects more important than business success, and little appreciation of any kind of ability save the power to manage men and to May likewise love thee for the same again; make money. He holds that power and influence go of right with the fullest purse: he is So let us love, dear love, like as we ought: something of a demagogue, and is ambitious of Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught. going to Congress. Squire Selfends does not tween them." "What could we expect," said Mrs. But the Vestry is ever and inevitably composed Captious to Mrs. Raynor, "from a rector whose wife gives herself up to her home and children and to the parish poor, instead of attending to her duties to society?'

A vote was, therefore, passed at the next vestry meeting, that the Rector's usefulness in that Parish was at an end, and his early resignation was requested. Mr. Meek did indeed remonstrate, and reminded them that the Church was never fuller, the congregation generally never more interested in the Services and in Churchwork, and the parish finances never in a better condition. It was useless: the two citizens were this time agreed that a rector who could not be controlled by either of them, but who was evidently determined to prefer the general interests of the congregation to their wishes and preferences, must go. It was now or never; had they given up, their control over the parish would have been gone forever.

You know the result. In vain four-fifths of his people protested; the official power of the vestry and the social influence of the two citizens were irresistible. The Warbles had already left. Both Col. Pedigree and Mr. Ironsides declared that they would not enter the Church again while Dr. Trustall remained. He, poor man, utterly astounded and stung to the quick, put himself into the hands of the Bishop; and he decided that while the Rector had done nothing but his duty, yet that matters had now gone so far that there could be no hope of restoring harmony; and that, therefore, it was better that he should resign.

Dr. Trustall, of course, promptly submitted to this decision; and then found himself, like poor Jack Surge, ecclesiastically disabled and turned over for life to "offshore duty," in consequence of a shipwreck, which he might have escaped, had the Church given due warning of the shoals, rocks, and perils, which awaited the trusting minister of Christ "going round" the Parish at Selfwilton. Let us say with poor Jack, "God help Ever yours, them.

VOX CLAMANTIS.

Most glorious Lord of Life! that on this day Didst make thy triumph over death and sin, And having harrowed hell didst bring away Captivity thence captive, us to win; This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin; And grant that we, for whom thou diddest die, Being with thy dear blood washed clean from sin May live forever in felicity! And that thy love we weighing worthily And for thy sake, that all like dear didst buy, With love may one another entertain. -Spenser.

THE LIVING CHURCH.

The Libing Church.

April 16, 1881.
Entered at the Chicago P. O. as second-class mail matter.
Subscription, To the Clergy, Advertising Rates, per	*2.00 a Year. 1.50 " agate line, 15 cts.
C. W. LEFFING	WELL, D. D.
CHICAGO. 162 Washington Street.	NEW YORK. No. 40 Bible House.

Until June 1st, 1881, the Liv-ING CHURCH will be sent to new Subscribers,

Three Months for 25 Cents.

Only the first thousand subscrib ers on this plan can receive backnumbers of Bishop Perry's and of the mother Church in India; there are Dr. Warring's Series.

Easter Day.

"This is the Day which the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it.' The Lord hath made this day, its mighty work is all His own. No element of human weakness dims its radiance, no shadow of humiliation obscures its splendor. We will rejoice to-day that life and immortality are brought to light, and all the yearnings of a waiting world are satisfied. We will rejoice to-day in hope, for the was. stone is rolled away from the door of the sepulchre and from the hearts of mourners.

hail! to the faithful women who were first God forgive us that we sorrow most of all In questions of maritime law, experts at the tomb; all hail! to friends and enemies! all hail! to the great brotherhood of humanity in whose behalf the victory was won.

"Behold He is alive forevermore." Be cause he lives we live also. Our souls are living souls once more, and the breath of God has returned to us. "Alive forevermore!" What imagination can pass even beyond the vestibule of that vast existence By faith we can see only the merest stars of the galaxy of glory that shines in the heaven of deathless souls.

Those that sat in the shadow of death the Day-Spring from on high hath visited. The serpent's head is bruised, and the curse has been endured. The power of an endless life returns to man by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the life of God once more quickens dying souls.

"In Christ shall all be made alive." is not merely duration of existence, pro-

The Spirit of Missions.

The managers of the Board of Missions seem to be working the new plan with commendable energy and promise of success. Books and circulars explaining the scheme may be had of the secretaries, 22 and 23 Bible House, New York.

The Spirit of Missions for April is a very interesting number. Several letters from Bishops recommending the subscription plan to their dioceses, are published; Bishop Spalding gives a graphic description of his work and its needs; a lay reader gives an account of work among the Indians; the testimony of Dr. Christlieb, of Bonn University, is given, as to the growth in Germany of interest in Foreign Missions, and Sir Richard Temple is quoted in praise of the efficiency of the missions reports from Greece, Africa, China, Japan, Haiti and Mexico.

Bishop Tuttle, writing of the death of the late Rev. James Lee Gillogly, at the age of thirty-seven, says:

"All Ogden has been in mourning. The Mormons themselves, though they liked him not, thoroughly respected him. A steadfast friend, an honest enemy, a righteous man, a citizen of unusual value, a loving husband and father, a sturdy soldier of the Cross, a pastor of devoted faithfulness, pure in heart, simple in habit, single of aim, and unselfish in life—all these he these studies, impaneled to render a verthat he shunned not to declare all the counsel of God, and is pure from the blood of all men, God be thanked, for the help-The risen Lord bids us "All hail!" All ful example of his upright and holy life? to get a jury familiar with its principles. for that here in the place and time of great in that department are sought. In quesneed, we shall see his face no more !'

Some statistics are quoted from a contemporary, which, though not designed so to be, are misleading. Thirty of our principal cities are given in the order of their population (census of 1870) and again in sions. Hartford comes in the second list, though not in the first, which deserves mention and praise. Chicago comes near the head of the first list but near the end of the seeond, seemingly to her discredit. Such statistics are misleading for this reason, that population is no test of ability to contribute to work outside. Wealth is no

Genesis I. and Science.

A Series of Papers by Charles B. Warring, Ph. D. [Copyright, 1881. "It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the onor of kings is to search out a matter."—Proverbs PREFACE.

In these papers, I have endeavored to throw what light I could, upon the Mosaic Story of Creation. The first and longest is entitled The Appeal. The principal papers besides, are: This Account not the Work of some Ancient Scientist; Other Theories; The Chaldean Genesis; The Quichi (Central America) Genesis, What the World might have learned from this Chapter. The last is perhaps the most suggestive of all save the Appeal. Several shorter papers are ready, and, possibly one or two more may be added, the whole making three hundred duodecimo pages. The modern rejector of revelation affirms that the Mosaic Account of Creation is no more than any other Eastern myth. and offers to prove his assertion by an ap peal to the facts of the world's history. On this I join issue, and, in the first of these papers, unite with him in the appeal. As the questions which arise, are questions in Astronomy, Geology, and other departments of Natural Science, nothing better could be desired than that they should be decided by a jury of experts in We take ourselves to record this day dict for or against this narrative, on each count in the indictments. In trials involving commercial law, it is desirable

tions of mechanics, or engineering, men who are to decide them, ought to have a knowledge of their principles. With equal justice, it is claimed that men acquainted with science are best qualified-I should say, ought to be best qualifiedthe order of their contributions to mis- to judge of the character of any document purporting to state facts in the ante-human history of our world. To such I appeal. The desirableness of such a jury needs, however, a two-fold qualification; first, that the "science" which they hold, is itself true-the world has seen an amazing amount of "science" which, it is now told, is rubbish; and it very strongly inclines to better standard of estimation. Chicago is the belief that much which is now held in the centre of a vast missionary field, and Biology, Atomics, and other metaphysicois really missionary ground. It has built physics, will eventually prove to belong to all its own churches within this generation, the same class. And, secondly, they must and has rebuilt most of them during the be so clear-sighted as not to mistake their last decade. It has helped to build own ignorance for negative evidence, mon center," and then a Vice President of churches all over Illinois and in the far since there are many matters of which the American Association for the Advance-West. It is providing now for numerous science as yet knows nothing. They must ment of Science adds the fling, "And now missions in northern Illinois, and receives also be so honest as to be heartily willing the Church is no better satisfied !"* No; nothing from the Missionary Board. More- to give a verdict in accord with the evi- nor will it be, until "science" shall gy over, its population, unlike that of the dence, even though it should overturn rate into harmony with the account given its Church people, lay-readers, Sunday the reality of that "impossible" thing, a Truth. "Science" is human and fallible; School teachers and clergy, to occupy new revelation. One, for example, who advocates the Nebular Hypothesis, and scouts often misleads its votaries; the latter, never. idea of the demands which business men of theologians for not accepting it, but declares Moses contradicts science when he that the Church is not dissatisfied, as he points, and should treat solely of those they would distract the reader's attention doubt. In other words, it should avoid theories, and state facts. It would not be too much to ask the distinguished Professor to clothe his account in simple language, that those not versed in science may understand."

The motive for this request was stated to be a desire to compare the account of Crewith that which Moses has left on record, and which, rightly, or wrongly, so many believe to be true.

It is greatly to be regretted that Prof. Huxley did not comply with this request. Instead, he repeated that story of Creation which is found in Paradise Lost, adding, with ill-concealed irony, "I do not for one moment venture to say that this could properly be called the Biblical doctrine." And then, referring to conflicts of opinion and changes of exposition among writers on Genesis, he adds a sneering fling at the "marvellous flexibility of the Hebrew,"a fling which comes with ill grace from scientists whose theories are ever changing. The reader will find no difficulty in recalling instances of the flexibility of science. To say nothing of old examples, one of recent date will suffice.

A few years ago, it was the fashionable 'Science"-for "Science" has it fashions and its Worths-to affirm that the different races of men could not have descended from one pair. It is easy to recall the arguments at that time so glibly used. "The hair of the Caucasian is specifically different from the wool of the Negro.' Then there was "the broad shin bone, the long heel, and the thick skull." If one ventured to regard these as insufficient, he was sneeringly told that no one of any standing as a scientist believed in the unity of the race. It was clear to these gentlemen that the "anonymous author of Genesis" had no "science," and consequently that he blundered grossly when he represented mankind as sprung from onepair. Theologians, as usual, showed their inability to rise above their traditions, and take broader and more reasonable views, and accept the true scientific doctrine that the human family was descended from an unknown number of independent pairs. and all the opponents of Revelation said, "Out upon such bigotry and folly !"

But to-day, scientists tell the world that "after all, men have originated from a comAPRIL 16, 1881.

From Christ great for who co day for custor The b

lay. Itar V

ing.

exting

interc

recte

In ver

prohi

penite

there

the re

at one some time

This

Toled

that day,

pardo fitted

the

Fre

it see

East

ities. twel

ing sundead

St

week

thing

deat

devi

Hea

wall

reco

Chu

Lav

Ne

matters as to which there is no longer any and draw him from the question. If such a history should be written, all intelligent persons could see wherein the "gross errors" of Moses really are. This surely is not too much to ask of those who are constantly lauding "science" at the expense of the Bible. But I fear it will never be done. Is it not time that those who scout ation as given by so eminent a scientist, this account should do something more than talk about its falsehoods, and come to particulars, and show, in its own words, just what it is that is contradicted by science? It will not do to quote, as did Prof. Huxley, what Milton, or Father Suare says Moses said, or intended to say. No Court of Justice would, for one moment, accept such evidence when the original documents were at hand.

I have looked in vain through Dr. Draper's "History of the Conflict between Religion and Science," thinking that so able a writer, who had become, as he himself assures us, "accustomed to the comparison of conflicting statements, the adjustment of conflicting claims," would tell his readers plainly what it is in the Mosaic Cosmogony which conflicts with science. The indictment which he has drawn, does not meet the expectations excited by the title of his book. To be sure, he mentions several matters about which there have been fierce disputes, as, for example, the length of time since the creation of the earth; the shape of the world, whether flat or spherical; the existence of antipodes; whether animals died before the fall, etc.; but as the Mosaic Cosmogony does not say one word about any of them, their relevancy is far from apparent.

Although Prof. Huxley did not give that outline of the world's history asked for, yet he placed upon record three statements of great importance in this discussion, which the reader will do well to bear carefully in mind. He told his hearers, as the teachings of the most advanced science, that, "The world had a beginning"; and that "The physical form of the earth can be traced back to a condition in which its parts were separated as little more than a nebulous cloud, making part of a whole in which we find the sun and the planetary bodies also resolved;" and that, So at least we were told again and again, "All that is now dry land was once at the bottom of the sea."

> The interest in these statements does not arise from their novelty, but from their clear enunciation of facts essential to a longed vitality, that is promised to us. To be made alive by the quickening spirit of the Second Adam, is to be renewed in righteousness and true holiness and made heirs of everlasting blessedness and glory. Being risen with Christ from burial by baptism, we have already passed from death unto life. The miracle of the Resurrection still goes on, no less a miracle in the souls of men, than at first in the guarded tomb, "according to the working of His mighty power which He wrought in Christ when He raised Him from the dead."

Of the Resurrection of Christ the Church gives perpetual proof, in her Apostolic Order ordained as witnesses by the risen Lord; in the solemn assembly of her members on the first day of the week, "for the Breaking of Bread and for the Prayers;" in this great annual Feast of Easter; at the font and at the altar and by the open grave of those that sleep in Jesus.

This risen Life is bestowed in power by the quickening Spirit, and its presence is manifested in His Body, the Church. Whatever be our state of earthly misery, of poverty or bereavement, we are still blessed with all spiritual blessing, in heavenly places with Christ. Amid the darkness of departed hopes, under the shadow of earthly sorrows, we have the light of immortality to illumine the soul ; we have an inheritance that is incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away. "In thy Resurrection, O Christ! let heaven and earth rejoice !"

One of our editorial writers, in an article recently published on the Priesthood, made a remark with regard to 1 Cor. i:17, which was not properly guarded. It is as far as possible from the purpose of the Liv-ING CHURCH to indulge in rationalistic views of the Holy Scripture. The sentence in question should have conveyed the idea that there is no evidence that the anti-Sacramental interpretation of that passage had the Divine approval. See St. Matthew XXVIII:19.

fields. Church people of the East have no a new city must meet for local taxes, imtions that are to follow.

Missions pay? From these we learn that I would set him aside. the New England field has returned to the general fund 14 per cent. of the appropriacentre, has returned 65 per cent. The report concludes:

most rapid and satisfactory growth of Diocesan independence has been in the great lake states; that the most expensive field is in New England, and it may be added at the start. There is no authoritative that the Southern States are probably the statement in which are gathered the facts thousands of other instances. most immobile."

The figures do not seem to justify this conclusion about the Southern States, though it may be a fair inference with regard to New England, considering the opportunities and advantages that the Church has had there for generations. It certainly ity, and one so free from any suspicion of does read to the credit of the Northwest.

We observe, in concluding the article, that it is copied from the Episcopal Register.

For a time we shall be able to supply new subscribers with back numbers of Bishop Perry's and Dr. Warring's Series, having printed a large number of extra copies on slips. We beg to call attention that Prof. Huxley would give an outline of to the special offer made at the head of what is known of the ante-human history this page. One rector has already sent in of the globe. In the nature of the case, twenty-five names under this offer.

of uttering a simple Yes, or No, the matter | force it.

in dispute would become so involved in a • The foregoing statements show that the cloud of words that no conclusion would be reached.

which will be needed. They must be looked for through the scientific literature and his lectures. I return merely to say the present it refuses to pass the threshold of the century. This is greatly to be regretted. Feeling this keenly, I availed Milton, but with the assumption constantly It is very foolish, though, to assert that "no myself, a few years ago, of the announce ment in the papers, that so high an authorformer.

theological bias as Prof. Huxley, would on matters pertaining to the early earth-the New York Tribune, from which the following is an extract:

it should set forth only the most salient * Proceedings A. A. A. S. 1876, page 145.

Truth is divine and infallible. The former The learned Vice President well knows

It would only be following the example into a Venus de' Medici! It may be that I Evangelical bodies, including our own." of every court of justice, to require the am blind, but it seems to me far easier, But who made the Standard the mouthpermit each juror to make a speech instead law without Intelligence or Will to en- up a peculiar claim to being "Evangelical."

This, however, is not the time to discuss of the Dutch optician's children, and in

But I have wandered from Prof. Huxley prominent that he was demolishing the

I now renew the request made in the New York Tribune-I have made it many deliver a course of lectures in New York, times-and ask any scientist of the school of Prof. Huxley, to give, in his own way history, and wrote an open letter through and in plain English, the early history of the world. I would ask him to place the matters of which Genesis says nothing, since, however important they may be, comprehension of the Mosaic story.

The remainder of Prof. Huxley's lectures may, or may not have been in harmony with the actual history of our planet; its discussion would be out of place here, older cities, is fluctuating, and it is sending some favorite theory, or tend to establish by the Author, not of "Science" but of the first chapter of Genesis, the fossils of which he spoke, long ante-dating the "living" creatures of that account.

[To be continued.]

provements, charities and churches. The asserts that the earth was once without intimates, with the conclusion of which he spirit of the new dispensation is opposed older cities are reaping what past genera- form and void; or, one who admiting it spoke, but with another and widely differ- to such practices' as the observance of tions have sowed. Chicago is planting to be true elsewhere, that darkness pre- ent one, viz., that men, and brutes, and Lent, and that "no time is better than ceded motion, and that motion preceded plants too, are descended without super- another for the exemplification of the simlight, denies it in the story of creation, is natural help from some one, or more, orig- ple virtues of moderation and pious humil-A fairer estimate can be made from the too much under the influence of some inal cells which somehow got into existence ity." This, it says, is the opinion of "the figures given in the article, Do Western strong prejudice to serve on such a jury. —a matter of spontaneous development, Evangelical bodies including our own."" as if the refuse of a lime-kiln should turn Is it? Then so much the worse for "the tions made to that field; the Southern jury to answer simply, Guilty; or, Not and far more in accord with the experience piece of "the Evangelical bodies?" Does field has returned 12 per cent.; the trans- guilty; or the Scotch verdict of, Not of mankind, to believe that such changes it never occur to our contemporary that it Mississippi field, eight per cent.; while the proven; to each count. Did the judge are the result of intelligent Will, than of is very silly for any body or bodies to set

As to the Standard's objections to Lent, it is not necessary to speak. We used to evolution. I am a believer in it, e. g., a hear the same objections to the observance ship from a canoe; farms from prairies; of Christmas and Easter, but now Baptist A very serious embarrassment meets us the telescope from the play with spectacles, and Methodist vie with each other in providing and advertising Christmas celebrations and Easter observances. But the Standard must draw a line somewhere. For that he ostensibly left Moses and attacked of Lent. Very well. It is not obliged to. time is better than another" for the work of Lent. Would the Standard have Baptist revivals come in mid-summer? Would the Methodists have their camp-meetings in mid-winter? It is useless to meet these captious objections. We always hear them about this time. It is a way that "Evangelical" Christians of the Standard order, facts, so far as known, in their true order, have of keeping Lent. We Churchmen "I am sure that all will join in the wish and would beg him not to wander away to are a superstitious, prelatical, papistical people, who care nothing for the "Gospel" and are not to be reckoned among "Evangelical" bodies. Alas for us !

APRIL 16, 1881

Good Friday.

From very early times the anniversary of christ's death was observed by the Church with reat solemnity, a strict fast being kept, by those the could endure it, till beyond midnight on the day following. In time, a peculiar ritual and anstoms marked the solemn character of the day. The bells were silent from midnight of Wednesav. The kiss of peace was prohibited. The altar was stripped of its ornaments and its coverng. The lamps and candles were gradually atinguished during Matins. A long series of intercessory collects was used. A cross was erected in front of the altar, blessed and adored. In very early times celebrating the Eucharist was prohibited, as being out of harmony with the penitential character of the day. Though there was no consecration of the Lord's Supper. the reserved sacrament of the previous day was at one period partaken of by the faithful. In ome countries, particularly in Spain, for a long time the churches were closed on Good Friday. This practice was condemned by the Council of Toledo (A. D. 633). "The Council ordained that the Lord's death should be preached on that day, and that the people should pray for the pardon of their sins, that they might be better fitted to celebrate the Resurrection and partake of the Eucharist at Easter."

From the very first ages of the Christian Church it seems to have been customary to fast before Easter. The fast was, according to some authorities, at first one of forty hours; began about twelve on Friday (the time of our Saviour's falling under the power of death) and continued till Sunday morning, the time of his rising from the dead.

St. Chrysystom says of holy week: "This is the week in which truly great and ineffably good things were purchased for us. Within this time death was conquered, the curse destroyed, the devil's tyranny dissolved, his instruments broken: Heaven opened, angels rejoiced, the partition wall was broken down, and God and man were reconciled."

On Monday afternoon last, the venerable Archdeacon Kirkby gave an Instruction to Church-women, under the auspices of the Royal Law, at the Church of the Holy Communion, New York. His subject was-"The Christian's Work, and the Christian's Reward." The church was completely filled with ladies. His Address, which was not of a specially Missionary character, went far to explain the secret of his wonderful Missionary triumphs; that secret being chiefly his Apostolic earnestness. Combined with this, however, there is a most child-like simplicity and directness, a contagious sympathy of expression, and admirable clearness of thought. And over all, there is a great and intense quietness. The enthusiasm which prevailed brought to 1881

Atchison is cut off. ---- Earthquake shocks continue at Scio, and forty-five villages are in ruins. -The fasting woman in Iowa City died on Monday, after going without food forty-seven

THE LIVING CHURCH.

A HEALTHFUL AMUSEMENT. The Chicago Roller Skating Rink Company, under the management of Mr. M. W. Ferguson, opened early in the winter, to the amusement and pleasure seeking people, of this city and suburbs; a novelty,

BELL WANTED.

KOUNTZE BROTHERS

BANKERS.

120 Broadway (Equitable Building),

NEW YORK.

AND

Issued for the use of travelers ties bought and sold on commi

LETTERS OF CREDIT

RARE INVEST

Notices of Deaths, free; Business Notices, two cents a word: Obituaries, Appeals, Acknowledgements, Mar-riages, etc., one cent a word. All notices must be prepaid.

Potices.

Obituary.

SHEPARD.—In Birmingham, Ala., February 5th, of pneumonia, Eliza S. Shepard, wife of F. C. Shepard, and daughter of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the late Dr. Henry Ritchie, of Be-ter and the state of the st loit, Wis., aged 44 years.

Official.

On Wednesday in Easter week (April 20) is to be celebrated the Thirteenth Anniversary of St. Mary's School, Knoxville, Ill. All the Bishops of the Prov-ince, and many of the other clergy and the patrons of the school, are expected to be present. An invi-tation is given to all. Notice should be sent to the Bortor if pressible that not obtained by the school and the school and the school are supported by the school of the school and the school are specified to be present. Rector, if possible, that entertainment may be provided

May Visitations.

- FOND DU LAC-BISHOP BROWN. Second Sunday after Easter, Sheboygan.
- Ahnapee.
- Sturgeon Bay Fish Creek.
- Jacksonport. Third Sunday after Easter, Manitowoc.
- The Branch. Fourth Sunday after Easter, Marinette.
- Peshtigo.
- Oconto Suamic
- Duck Creek
- Shawane
- Fifth Sunday after Easter, Oneida. Menasha
- Sixth Sunday after Easter, Chilton
  - Hayton
- MISSISSIPPI-BISHOP GREEN 1 to 3, Brandon.
- Kosiusko
- Jackson (Council)
- Jackson (Council),
  18. Lamar.
  20. Early Grove,
  Ripley,
  25. Corinth,
  27. Tuka.

A liberal contribution to the cause of Diocesar Missions will be expected at every place.

TEXAS-BISHOP GREGG

- Crockett.
- Pennington. Columbia.
- Brazoria, Sunday.
- Canev. Caney, Matagorda, Sunday, Wharton, Ascension Day, Eagle Lake, La Grange, Sunday, Columbus,

- 31. Columbus. The offertory to be applied to the Diocesan Mis-
- nary fund.
- MASSACHUSETTS—BISHOP PADDOCK. 2d Sunday after Easter, A. M., St. John the Evangelist's, Haverhill, P. M., St. James', S. Groveland, Evening, Trinity, Haverhill, Evening, Grace, Medford, Evening, Algorit Datton 1. 21
- - Evening, Advent, Boston. 3d Sunday after Easter, A. M., St. John's Taun
  - ton.
  - P. M., St Thomas', Taunton.
  - Evening, Trinity, Bridgewater, 4th Sunday after Easter, A. M., St. Anne's, S. Lincoln.
  - r., Mission, Waltham, Trinity, Boston; Ninety-first Annual Con- vention.

Acknowledgements.

The undersigned, in behalf of Nashotah Mission gratefully acknowledges the receipt of the following offerings, during the months of February and March,

The enthusiasm which prevailed brought to mind the recent visit to our border of Knox-Little. The papers report to-day the evacuation of Candahar begun and prospect of immediate war between the rival Khans.—The flood resulting from the ice-gorge at Rock Island has reached the railroad tracks on the Levee. The Missiouri is also raging. Railroad communication with Atchison is ent off —Farthonake shocks con-

FOR SALARIES.-Rev. Wm. D. Christian, $5; Rev.

THOS. NELSON & SONS, A great variety of Cards in various sizes; plain nd with silk fringe borders. Decorations on Silk, OXFORD BIBLE WAREHOUSE, 42 Bleecker Street, - - New York.

Church Music.

Benedicite, by W. B. Trott; 10 cents. "Venite," "Jubilate," "Benedictus," "Cantate," "Benedic," by Hogofge; each 10 cents. Each canticle consists of Easter Music.—"He Is Risen," Hymn, 10 cts. "He Lives Who once was Slain," Anthem, by Schonacker, 25 cts.

Carols.-"Days Grow Longer," Trott; "Vision of Angels," Warren: "Merry Easter Chimes," Lyon; "Look ye Saints," Fillmore; "King of Glory," Kings ley. Each 5 cents.

Address Geo. D. Newhall & Co., Cincinnati, O. LYON & HEALY, Chicago, Ill.

JUST PUBLISHED. FOSTER'S CYCLOPÆDIA OF SACRED POETRY. Comprising Poems on the Scenes, Incidents, Per-sons and Places of THE BIBLE. One vol., cloth, $5. Sheep, $6. THOS. Y. CROWELL, & CO., 13 Astor Place, New York.

FOR EASTER.

ANSON D. F. RANDOLPH & CO., New York, publish for the EASTER SEASON:

EASTER CHIMES. Poems by various authors. A new compliation, appropriate to the season, and Not INCLUDED IN OTHER COLLECTIONS. Cloth, gilt edges, $1.00.

Bills drawn on the Union Bank of London. Tele-graphic transfers made to London and to various and with silk fringe borders. De etc. Prices from 5c. to $3.00 each. places in the United States. Deposits received subject to check at sight, and interest al-lowed on balances. Government and other bonds and investment securi-BIRTH-DAY CARDS, IN GREAT VARIETY. JANSEN, MCCLURG & CO., Booksellers and Publishers, 117 and 119 State St., CHICAGO.

NINE to TWELVE per Cent. Interest On long time loans, with best security in the world.

DAKOTA WHEAT LANDS,

Loans negotiated without charge by the Valley City Bank to $12 per acre. Selections made from official survey potes and certified examinations. Write for reference and particulars.

HERBERT ROOT, Valley City, Barnes Co., Dakota

In the famous valley of the Red River of the North constituting what is known as the "Golden North-

hoice lands are also offered for sale at from $1.75

SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS.

Scholars Received at Any Time.

For information apply to Dr. STEVENS PARKER. Warden.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

CAMBRIDGE, MASS. ALL DEPARMENTS OPEN WITHOUT EXAMIN-ATION TO STUDENTS NOT CANDIDATES FOR A DEGREE.

BY THE Western Farm Mortgage Co. Lawrence, Kansas, Erist Mortgage Productive farms in the best localities in the

It is publicly stated that the remains of the late Dr. Washburn, which were temporarily deposited at Woodlawn Cemetery, are to rest permanently beside those of his friend, the Rev. Dr. Muhlenberg, at St Johnland. The interment will take place soon after Easter.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

It is very difficult to deal with the statements of an anonymous correspondent, especially when he cries "enough." The LIVING CHURCH, by publishing an item a year old, and saying that it appeared "recently," has caused an unnecessary amount of correspondence regarding the ability of the Board of Missions to care for the interests of the Church in the management of their publications. No one would be more ready to correct a wrong than myself. The only statement I have ever made is, in substance, that The Young Christian Soldier was published at a loss, and that it was a wasteful extravagance on the next of the next Now, an anonymous correspondent writes about "inaccuracies" corrected. I want to say once the part of the Board of Missions to continue it. for all, that no "inaccuracy" has ever yet been corrected either by private letter to myself, or in any public way that has come to my notice.

If the Secretaries would themselves make a statement, all could be settled at once. The impression is given in the communication in the LIVING CHURCH of the 9th inst., that the loss on the Soldier was for one Wear code year only, and that the paper now pays expenses. I went to Dr. Twing himself at least ten years ago, after consultation with Bishop Armitage about the reckless extravagance of the Board in this matter, and he (Dr. T.) told me that he "never expected it to pay expenses." If it does pay expenses now, he must be sorely disappointed; and if it does, I will print the statement in the Young Churchman whenever he will furnish it over his own signature. It does seem strange that an anonymous correspondent is the only authority that can be found to make "corrections." L. H. MOREHOUSE. Ed. Young Churchman.

[It is due to Mr. Morehouse to say that the paragraph quoted by the LIVING CHURCH from the Young Churchman, as "recently" appearing, was really a year old. This fact was not known to the LIVING CHURCH, and we regret that the oversight was the means of opening a question that has been discussed and laid aside. We are glad, though, that it has resulted in publishing the information that the Board of Missions has taken steps to avoid what seemed to many a needless waste. -- EDITOR L. O.]

TOR SALARIES, 10; Graduate of Nashotah, 34.64. TO BE PUT AT INTEREST.--Rev. E. A. Renouf, $30: Mrs. E. A. Renouf, 20. FOR THE CLOTHING ROOM .-- One package, Ladies

FOR THE CLOTHING ROOM.—One package, Ladies of St. Peter's, Cazenovia, N. Y.; one package, Mrs. E. S. Squiers, Buffalo, N. Y. May the Lord open the hearts and hands of His people, to carry on this great and good work. Money Order, Post Office, Oconomowoc, Wis. A. D. COLE, President of Nashotah House.

Nashotah Mission, Wauke ha Co., Wis., April 4, 1881.

Miscellaneous.

The Fifty-Seventh Anniversary of the American Sunday School Union, will be held in Music Hall, Chicago, Thursday evening, May 12th. Addresses will be made by Rev. John Hall, D. D., of New York. Rev. F. A. Noble, D. D., of Chicago, and Daniel R. Noyes, Esq., of St. Paul, Minn.

A TWENTY MINUTES WORKING SOCIETY. There is A TWENTY MINUTES WORKING SOCIETY. There is started a society, the members of which pledge them-selves to work twenty minutes a day, or two hours a week, for missions, similar to one already established in England. Members are earnestly solicited. Any one desiring further information will please address Miss H. TURNER, 228 Beacon street, Boston, Mass.

WANTED .- A position in church choir by a soprano N. W. Corner State singer. Reference given. Address L, LIVING CHURCH. WANTED.—Liddell and Scott's Greek English Lexi-on. Late edition. Tragelles' Heads of Hebrew frammar. Buy or Exchange .Address P. B., Peabody, con. Grammar. Faribault, Minn.

A Priest of the Church would like assistance in A lady of much experience as a teacher in the Eng-lish Branches, sister of a clergyman who has con ducted a Church School, desires a position in a young ladies' school, or to instruct pupils privately. Please address M. E. M., LIVING CHURCH Office.

In another column of the LIVING CHURCH will be found an adv't of Paas Dyes for Coloring Easter Eggs. They are the surest and most reliable dyes in the market. They are manufactured by the Paas Dye Co., of Newark, N. J., and are for sale by all Druggists. Don't fail to give the children the enjoyment of colored eggs for Easter morn.

BOYS' AND YOUNG MENS' EUROPEAN EXCURSION, BOYS AND FOUND MENS LUNGPEAN EXCURSION, --Under the guidance of an experienced teacher, (Churchman) will sail from New York July 2d, and be back in time for school or college in the fall. Send for circular and references to JOHN A. HOWE, 19 Myrtle Ave., Albany, N. Y.

Subscribers to the LIVING CHURCH, desiring beau-tiful Easter Cards, or Eggs, or Birthday Cards, can have them sent by mail to any address, by sending to Edward Lovejoy, 88 State St., Chicago. Easter Cards from 5c upwards. City subscribers are invited as usual to call and examine stock. Each package makes a pint of Dye. Price 5 cents each color; 6 for 25 cents. At all first-class druggists.

The Easter Egg Dyes, advertised in another col-umn by C. H. Strong & Co., are just the thing. So simple to use, and make such decided colors. Any one sending money to Strong & Co., may be assured of receiving prompt attention to their orders.

of receiving prompt attention to their orders. Mr. F. H. Revell, Publisher and Bookseller, has purchased the entire stock of the late W. G. Holmes of 77 Madison Street, and in addition to his store at 150 Madison Street, Mr. Revell will continue the store at Mr. Holmes' old stand, where Bargains in Books can be found for the next 30 days. Mail orders have prompt attention. Art Worker, and Designer in Wood, Marble and Metal. prompt attention.

MEMORIAL TABLETS NOW IN PROGRESS OF EXECUTION, prompt attention. The only Easter Eggs painted by the celebrated Flo-ral Artist-KEY - are at Geo. P. Sexton's, 118 N. Clark St. Also a full line of Prang's Easter and Birthday Cards. Orders by mail have prompt attention.

the and man to do with

Productive farms in the best localities in the West. Coupon Bonds, Interest and principal paid on day of maturity at the Third National Bank in New York. No losses. No long delays in plac-ing funds. Investors compelled to take no land. Se-urgity three to give the amount of law. ing tunds. Investors compened to take no fand. Se-cusity three to six times the amount of loan. Our facilities for making safe loans re not excelled. We solicit correspondence. Send for circulars, refer-ences and sample documents. F. M. PERKINS, Pres. L. H. PERKINS, Sec. J. T. WARNE, Vice-Pres, C. W. GILLETT, Treas. N. F. HART, Auditor.

JUDSON

& Rn

SPRING STOCK OF

NOW OPEN.

Latest Designs.

LOWEST PRICES.

DAAS

DYES.

FOR EASTER ECCS

Easily Used, Beautiful Colors.

Church Furnisher.

For St. Luke's Church, New York, St. Paul's Church, Sing Sing, N. Y.

SEND FOR CIRCULAR.

R. GEISSLER,

35 Bleeker Street, New York,

May 1, 127 Clinton Place, near 6th ave.

Furniture

Carbets,

Curtains,

and Washington Sts.

Coverings,

struction received, but are in no cust less that to so or more than $150 a year. Graduates of other colleges are admitted to the professional schools without examination, as candi-dates for a degree, and graduates with high rank may be admitted to the Senior Class at Harvard College without examination. Women are admitted only to the summer courses Women are admitted only to the summer courses of instruction in science and to University lectures. The next Academic year begins Sept. 29, 1881. For lists of the courses of instruction and for further in-formation address F. W. TAUSSIG, Secretary.

CARDKEMPER HALL, Kenosha, Wisconsin, a School or Girls, under the charge of the Sisters of S. Mary.

Easter term commences Wednesday, April 20th. Fall term, Wednesday, September 21st. Terms, $300.00 per year.

Seabury Divinity School, Faribault, Minn. FULL THEOLOGICAL COURSE. Also PREPARA-TORY DEPARTMENT. For catalogues and for scholarships, address Rev. GEORGE L, CHASE, D.D., Warden. St. Agnes' School, Albany, N.Y. The Diocesan Church School for Girls, under the direction and care of Bishop Doane. Sister Helen, Miss Boyd and twenty other teachers have chaige of the school. The building accommodates one hun-dred boarding pupils. Terms $350 per year. Music, Painting and Entrance Fee of $25 for new pupils the only extras. For circular with full terms of admis-sion, address ST. AGNES SCHOOL, Albany, N. Y. St. Helen's, Brattleboro', Vt. A Family School. Large and commodious house, finely located. School of Languages in session dur-ing the summer months. If desired, children re-ceived for the summer only, and with or without tu-ition. For Circulars and particulars address Mrs. E. ition. F

PRAYER BOOKS

Stained

ALSO A NEW SUPPLY OF

ALSO A NEW SUPPLY OF EASTER DAWN. Poems by various authors, ap-propriate to the season, and NOT INCLUDED IN OTHER COLLECTIONS. Bound in calf, with floral decorations, by hand, on the cover. $2.00 EASTER LILIES. 16 beautiful Easter Poems, beautifully printed, with card-bord cover, tied with a ribbon, and floral decorations, painted by hand, on the cover, 75 cts. "HEART OF CHRIST MY KING!" and other Anci-ent Christian Hymns. Translated by Edward A. Washburn, D.D. Card board cover, ticd with a ribbon. 50 cents.

ribbon. 50 cents. Also the following books, bound in canvas, with floral decorations on the cover, painted byhand: THE PALACE OF THE KING $1.75 UNTO THE DESIRED HAVEN. $1.75. THE BEAUTIFUL GATE. $1.75.

These Volumes of Religious Poetry were compiled by the editor of the "Changed Cross," etc. BY MISS HAVERGAL. KEPT FOR THE MASTER'S USE. $1.50 THE ROYAL COMMANDMENTS. $1.50. THE ROYAL BOUNTY. $1.50. MY KING $ $1.50

MY KING. $1.50. ALSO A NEW EDITION OF EASTER VOICES. A collection of verse and prose for the Easter season. In card-board, tied with a ribbon. 30 cts.

900 BROADWAY. COR. 20th ST., NEW YORK.

Sold by booksellers, or will be sent by the publish-ers, prepaid, on receipt of the price. Fractions of the dollar may be remitted is postage-stamps.

A new Easter Token in the form of an Anchor, The Easter Heritage.

Sixteen pages of appropriate, selections in verse, cut in the form of an Anchor, with highly illumi-nated covers, tied with a ribbon, 50 cents.

ANSON D. F. RANDOLPH & Co., 900 Broadway, Cor. 20th St. New York.

Sent by mail prepaid on the receipt of 50 cents, re-mitted in Postage Stamps or otherwise.

Bright and Melodious Poems.'-Independent

Madge, the Violet Cirl, AND OTHER POEMS.

By MARY D. BRINE,

Authoress of "Somebody's Mother," and "The Home Concert," both of which highly popular poems are included in this collection. Price $3. A Exquisite Easter Present.

"A boquet of poems as sweet and fragrant as the violets of 'Madge,' from whom the book takes its name."-The Churchman.

"The volume is a sumptuous one, appealing in all its details to the cultivated, aesthetic, artistic class of buyers."—The Evening Post.

"Force and poetic fancy."-New York Tri

"Gracefully and sweetly told, and cannot fail to be popular,-Harper's Weekly. "Daintily and exquisitely bound. No more charm-ing gift can well be found for a birthday or surprise to some dear one at home."-The Christian Intelli-gencer, N. Y.

Sent, post-paid, and carefully boxed, on

GEO. W. HARLAN, Publish

Bishopthorpe,

Class. Manufactured by Geo. A. Hash 217 East Washington Street, Chi-A Church Boarding School for Gir. Degins September 14, 1880. Number of ted. Address Miss FANNY L WALK

F. H. REVELL, Successor to W. G. Holmes, 77 Madison St., CHICAGO,

EARPHONES make the DEAR, hear,

LARGE DISCOUNT.

We have a large line of all styles, from the finest down to the cheapest, including beautiful sets suit-able for presentation, which we will offer AT A VERY LARGE DISCOUNT, to close them ont.

AND HYMNALS.

For Churches.

Calendar. APRIL, 1881.

v after Easter. St. Mark Fast N. B.—The Forty Days of Lent, beginning with h-Wednesday, are, by the ordinance of the Church, bays of Fasting, on which such a measure of Abe is required, as is more especially suited to rdinary Acts and Exercises of Devotion."

Easter Voices.

The shade and gloom of life are fled, This Resurrection day; Henceforth in Christ are no more dead, The grave hath no more prey; In Christ we live, in Christ we sleep, In Christ we wake and rise; And the sad tears death makes us weep, He wipes from all our eyes. Then wake, glad heart! awake! awake!

And seek thy risen Lord, Joy in His resurrection take, And comfort in His word; And let thy life, thro' all its ways, One long thanks giving be, Its theme of joy, its song of praise, 'Christ died and rose for me."

-Monsell.

city, Paris!"

The Easter praises may falter, And die with the Easter day; The blossoms that brighten the altar, In sweetness may fade away; But after the silence and fading, There lingers untold and "unpriced. Above all changing and shading, The love of the living Christ. For the living Christ is loving, And the loving Christ is alive! His life hidden in us is moving Us ever to pray and to strive. Alas! that even in our striving, We labor like spirits in prison, Forgetting that Jesus is living, Forgetting the Saviour is risen -Dickenson

We must therefore so rise as Christ that our resurrection be not a returning back to the same life, but a passing over to a new. The very feast puts us in mind of as much; it is not a coming back to the Land of Egypt, but a passing over to the Land of Promise.—Bishop Andrews.

> O Jesus! when I think of Thee, Thy manger, cross, and throne, My spirit trusts exultingly In Thee and Thee alone. For me Thou didst become a man. For me didst weep and die; For me acheive Thy wondrous plan, For me ascend on high.

O let me share Thy holy birth, Thy faith, Thy death to sin! And strong amid the toils of earth, My heavenly life begin. Then shall I know what means the strain Triumphant, of St. Paul: "To live is Christ. to die is gain;" 'Christ is my all in all. -Bethune.

Arise! for He is risen to-day! And shine, for He is glorified! Put on thy beautiful array. And keep perpetual Eastertide.

-Havergal. O Risen Christ! Thou art the door, The ever shining way, The blessed Easter gate of life,

That opens to the day. All praise, our risen Lord, to, Thee, r love that conquer

Ubi Miser, Ibi Christus.

[From the Spectator.]

- It was the eve of Easter Day, Her heart within was sad; They have taken away my Lord, she said, And how should I be glad?
- I see the thorns, the cross, the grave, The dead hands wounded sore But the risen form of the Crucified Is lost for evermore.
- Why say you so, the answer came, When you this very day Have seen the Christ for whom you mourn, And wiped His tears away?
- He suffers with his people still; Who binds the broken limb Or fills the aching heart with hope, Has done it unto Him.
- A sign, she cried, that this is so, Thou hast it in thy breast:
- The token is the peace of Christ, M. W. M. Know this, and be at rest.

The Speech of White Cloud,

Head Chief at White Earth Reservation.

[From a native Indian Missionary at White Earth, we have received the following interesting document, which we publish with much pleasure.-Editor L. C.

"On the 9th day of January, 1881, we are gathered here by our young men. The Indian was placed here to occupy this continent, and the Indian (the speaker holding up a picture made of straw and full of feathers) was dressed in this manner; his head was full of feathers. We saw some white men coming to us, and how

It is a subject of marvel to most people that so great the white man is! I, Indian, began to be many children die in infancy, but to an observ- afraid, knowing that he was going to tread on me, killed or injured. A war of races broke out ing mind the wonder is that any children live to and I knew not how to do, or how to escape out lately in the valley of the Caneta, in Peru. Two

You know the addresses to the kind-hearted they reply to a similar process from the hand of whites), my friends, that I went to your place people. We now rejoice to say our young were made to serve the Lord; and the Great Spirit has I want to say a few words about our young men. by depression, and probably by indigestion and The Great Spirit has made our young men walk and can sing: and now, they have commenced

When these young men knew it, they came and get native help skilled enough to work upon the took my hand, and raised me up to where I stood finest gold cases .---- Gordon, the business manbefore. My young men are brave fellows, and ager of the New York Tribune, has the best au-Dr. Bolles communicates to the Standard of they have a sharp sword to fight with. They are tograph collection in the country. It contains

THE PREMIER OF ENGLAND .- In Mr. Gladstone's household at Hawarden, there was an old female servant whose son was inclined to go wrong. Advice, remonstrances, pleadings, and arguments alike were thrown away upon him. He seemed bent on following the road to ruin. His mother, at last, caught the happy idea of laying her trouble before her master, confident that if he only could be persuaded to take the boy in hand, he might be reclaimed. It took considerable rallying of her courage to appear before Mr. Gladstone, and make known her desires. But he responded at once, though the affairs of a kingdom were pressing heavily upon him. He sent immediately for the lad, spoke to him, pointing out the evils of the course he was pursuing, and, For though in the quiet evening finally, knelt down with him, and prayed that a higher power would aid in the work of his redemp. tion. The talk and the prayer together were effectual, and the boy became reformed.

If you want knowledge, you must toil for it; if For harsh words spoken, food, you must toil for it; and if pleasure, you must toil for it.-Ruskin.

None are more restless and depressed than people who take their full liberty in all things which are not sin.--Cardinal Manning The poorest waif of humanity is in the infinite thought of God.

GLEANINGS.

Spain is suffering again with severe floods. The loss is estimated at several millions.--The Island of Scio, in the Grecian Archipelago, has been visited, for two days, with earthquakes. It is said that about eight thousand persons were thousand Chinamen were murdered by negroes and Cholos, and property valued at millions deremedy for nervousness or other ills; but baby is in heaven had took my hand and told me: 'Stand stroyed. ---- West and South the floods continue, trotted, bounced, "ketchy-ketchied," chucked up, my child! and go to that land (White Earth).' and much damage is done, besides the interrupunder the chin, poked in its cheeks, or some- In a short time after I arrived here. He said to tion of travel and traffic.---- Three distinguished body's thumb is thrust into its toothless mouth, me again: 'Take your feathers away from your Spaniards are in this country, examining the educational system of the United States .---- The British budget shows an expenditure for the past year of £83,108,000. Gladstone proposes that like the motion of a mouse across its breast And that time I went to the man called 'a man £60,000,006 of the national debt be paid in the and up into its fat, sensitive neck-wrinkles, of God, that is-Bishop Whipple, to whom the next quarter of a century.----German immiis another mode of amusing baby. Of course Lord gave a kind heart; also the kind-hearted grants continue to arrive; many of them have proficiency and provided with situations. A gone to Charleston, S. C. Of these last, a number have already spent a winter in Minnesota. The Old Toombs mansion, at Woodside, Ga., was burned on the 4th inst. ---- Italy's financial condition this year is better than in many years. In the recent budget a surplus of two millions continually given us understanding. My friends, and a half was shown.---By the death of Oscar de Lafayette, which took place the other day at Paris, Edward, the younger brother of the late together: that is, to do the work which they are marquis, is the only surviving male descendant now doing. They made up their minds to help in the direct line of the celebrated general. Edthe servants of God. Some of them can read ward is a grandson of the Revolutionary hero. -The Emperors of Austria, Germany, and their fellow Christians, and raising up the fallen large Newport, Ky., watch-factory has forty Swiss ones. My friends, I was one of the fallen ones. families en route from Europe, as they cannot autograph letters and documents. There are two rooms, in which the visitor can scarcely pick up ery is driven out of all the Spanish colonies .--The last reports from Lord Beaconsfield were that he was considerably better.----Mrs. B. H. Buxton, the English authoress, is dead.----The evacuation of Candahar began on the 10th .--England, Italy and Turkey have recognized the new kingdom of Roumania.----The Russian Philosophical Society has determined to provide for the families of those killed in the assassination of the Czar. ---- It is said that the voice of Greece is "still for war"; but most of the Powers have again united in a note which requires Greece to accept Turkey's proposal.----The London school-board has decided that women to dry. When using, make a sud of it, but do are eligible for appointment as school inspector, a position held heretofore exclusively by men. Beecher. -The northern portion of the Gulf States has suffered considerable damage from severe frosts. -Jules Noel, the French painter, is dead.--Russia is having trouble with the Poles. It was determined that they must go to the Greek priests to swear allegiance to the new Czar. The Poles are mostly Romanists, and, naturally, prefer their own priests. Hence the trouble and much talk their clothing or their persons. of oppression.---The plague has appeared at Kufa, ninety miles south of Bagdad, The mortality in Nedjib is increasing .----- A growing demand is reported in England for American books; and their sale is much greater than is generally supposed.----Edison has been elected professor of dynamic electricity at Oberlin College, Ohio. -Greece expends more than five per cent. of he revenue for educational purposes.—The over the nose of the tea-kettle when the steam is Rev. John Jasper, of Richmond, the colored has created a demand for his lectures, and raised thereby $800, with which he has paid off the filled with glucose, and then smeared over with hot iron.----Kossuth, who is now 79 years old, enjoys not only good health, but perfect elastici-Turin, surrounded by a handsome garden. Natural science is one of his favorite studies.

told in the Book of God, to fight the evil one. not less than 25,000 bound volumes, 60,000 pam- ful. These can be laid quietly on the fire, and, They believe the Great Spirit, and that is what phlets, 50,000 steel plate portraits, and 75,000 as the paper ignites, the coals will softly settle in High Churchman and a Puseyite-and his sym- the day they commenced their work last year. a book that is not a treasure. One room conpathy with the Church of the Advent, Boston, They are here to thank and praise to their God. tains only town and local histories; of these and stretch their hands to the Lord, for more there are 2,500. Another room is devoted wholstrength and understanding. The reason we ly to autographs and steel portraits, and is appointed for his ordination to the priesthood in send this to you is, to show to the kind-hearted packed full on shelves and tables. ---- A large whites, and those who sympathize with the In- and enthusiastic anti-slave-holding meeting was dians. We want you to print this. All the old held recently in Madrid. It is intended to conboys and the Chiefs like the work of our young tinue this agitation, till the last vestige of slav-WHITE CLOUD, WM. MAJIGIZHICK. That the Lord is alive and near. Dickenson. Service commences. I hope my coming in late last year by his very funny astronomical lectures, Rector:-"Not at all. On the contrary, I am very glad to know that not only yourself, but debt on his church. ----Out of 850,000 cattle in other members also, have advanced so far in Colorado, 22,000 have died during the past winholy living, as to have no need to make general ter.--Bogus honey and honey-comb is manuconfession of sin, and to receive Absolution." factured. The cells are made from parafine wax, the army is fitted out with cork helmets, it will ty of intellect. He has a very pleasant villa near

The Household.

All communications for this Department should be ad dressed to THE HOUSEHOLD, 225 East 19th St., N. Y. City

Our Own.

If I had known in the morning How wearily all the day The words unkind Would trouble my mind said when you went away, I had been more careful, darling, Nor given you needless pain; But we vex "our own" With look and tone We might never take back again. You may give me the kiss of peace, Yet it might be That never for me The pain of the heart should cease. How many go forth in the morning

And hearts have broken The sorrow can ne'er set right. We have careful thoughts for the stranger. And smiles for the sometime guest,

But oft for "our own" The bitter tone, Though we love "our own" the best. Ah ! lips with the curve impatient, Ah ! brow with that look of scorn, Twere a cruel fate Were the night too late To undo the work of morn.

That never come home at night.

-Selected.

The managers of the New York Cooking School, under the presidency of Mrs. Robert L. Stuart, this season extended their scheme of training to cover all branches of housework. In order to carry out their system of instruction they took the house No. 22 East Seventeenth street, where they received applicants for training. These applicants were required to be of good character, over fifteen years old, willing to bind themselves to the service of the school for one year, and to take places as domestics when the year expired or before, at the discretion of the management. In return they received thorough training, board, and lodging, two suits of clothes, and a small compensation. At the end of the year they were given certificates of public lesson was given to ladies every Wednesday afternoon at 2 P. M. Classes were also formed for cooks and nurses. Miss Corson was at the cooking school from 10 A. M. to 12 M., and 2 to 4 P. M. daily, except Saturday, to receive applicants for admission.

The school is now closed for the season, but will reopen in some other part of the city, early next October. Miss Corson's address during the summer will be Station D, New York City.

You know what a racket is caused, even by the most careful hand, in supplying coals to a grate or stove, and how, when the performance is undertaken by the servant, it becomes almost distracting. If you do not remember, take notice the first time you are ill, or you have a dear patient in your care, or the baby is in a quiet slumber. The remedy we suggest is to put the coals in little paper bags, each holding about a shovel-

APRIL 16, 1881.

APR

A

In

It wa

sre left

nicatio.

tion, w

love to s beau

show.

The

our M custon

fell up

white were richly

nousl

form of the in eve

the fo

of sn other spotle

name

Mary

whic!

beyo

porce

ofa

It sig

from be h touc

ings

Evel

natu

the

ered

oper

wrea

flore

gard

and

8 pt

Hol

win

the

you

ple

par

8 1

wit

spe

and sta the bra and wa the syn

The Chicago "blow" is nothing to it. Thus he spoke: "I greet Paris. I greet the immense city. I greet her not in my own name, for I am nothing, but in the name of all that lives, thinks, reasons, loves, and hopes, here below. Cities are blessed places; they are the workshops of divine labor. Divine labor is human labor. It remains human so long as it is individual. Once it becomes collective, once its aims are greater than the individual worker, it becomes divine. The work of the fields is human; the work of cities is divine. From time to time history marks a city with her seal. That seal is unique. In four thousand years, History has thus stamped three cities, which embody the whole work of civilization. What Athens has been for Greek antiquity, Paris is now for Europe, for America, for the civilized universe. Paris is the city; Paris is the world. Who speaks to Paris addresses the whole of mankind, urbi et orbi. So I, the humble wayfarer, who have but my own small share of that right which belongs to all in the name of all cities-of those of Europe, America, and the civilized world, from Athens to New York, from London to Moscow, in thy

A Plea for the Baby.

name, O Rome! in thy name, O Berlin!-I glorify with love, and greet with adoration, the sacred and comprised almost every well-known personage in Paris. Of course, he made a speech, and it is very funny to us. It sounds as if he were "poking fun" at his sentimental countrymen: but we assure our readers that it is quite serious.

maturity. When you and I feel miserable we of the white man's hand. want to be left in quiet. Repose is the sweetest I now perceive and understand that our Father irrespective of a need of ablution, and then if a head, and cut your hair off: then take this pantababy isn't happy, it is reputed very irritable. loon and hat. You see, while we were in a poor Tickling the baby's feet, creeping the fingers condition, He pointed to a good way for us. the child laughs, and the idiots who torment it clergymen looked and helped the Indians. forget that it is the same expression with which some mischievous but torturing friend; and yet and begged your assistance for the sake of my we all know that this laugh from a man is a hysterical outcry of nervous irritability. When the laugh ceases, wearniness brings weeping, or perhaps a restless and unrefreshing sleep, followed colic. Nothing should ever be done to startle a child; even too frequent playing of bo-peep, if violent, has been known to bring on St. Vitus's dance. All surprises are dangerous to the nervous system, just as all sudden or dietetic changes are very unhealthy, and sometimes fatal. If music is selected to please a child's ears, it should be gentle and soothing.-Sanitarian.

An Anecdote of Dr. Washbnrn.

the Cross, the following interesting reminiscence

For faith that maketh quick to hear One word that Jesus saith. M. K. A. S.

Reflections upon an Inkspot.

While sitting at my desk in the school-room, casting my eyes around in search of some object on which to "observe and reflect," my glance falls upon a blemish on the floor. This blemish has three characteristics: 1st. It is ink. 2d. It is a spot. 3rd. It is dim and faded.

The first of these characteristics brings to my mind the various uses to which this ink might bishop, that unless Mr. Washburn could be orhave been put, had the well that held it retained dained, the church should not be opened to the its equilibrium. Perchance it might have been used by Miss Hitchcock when she was writing the cues of H. M. S. Pinafore in the merry month of June, 1879. It might have taken its and in some way to mark the event, he used the place on the pages of a little book, whisperingly described to awe-stricken new girls as the "Doomsday." Or perchance it might have flowed from the pen of Dr. Leffingwell in kindly words of instruction.

The second characteristic calls to mind the queries: Who was it spilt the ink, and under writer of this article is quite confident, from unwhat circumstances did the accident occur? Did some member of the Rhetoric class in days "lang syne" become excited over a composition or exercise in Prosody, and in her scribbling fervor an authority which was the Bishop's favorite in overturn the ink-well? Or is the blame to be ecclesiastical matters. laid to some grave and reverend senior who at the time was engaged in writing her last essay in the classic halls of St. Mary's ? The spot does not tell us, and we are left in doubt.

Thirdly, it is faded and worn, as with the tread of many feet. Its appearance makes me think of the many girls whose busy feet have trod over its dark outline. Preparatories, Juniors, Junior Middlers, Senior Middlers, and Seniors have, for a time, helped to dim its blackness, and then have passed out of St. Mary's doors forever. Yet the spot does not "out."-Palladium.

The French never hide their shining lights under bushels. Just as, a hundred years or so ago, they honored Voltaire, so now they are honoring Victor Hugo, who is just eighty. M. Jules Ferry, attended by the chief functionaries of his department, waited upon M. Hugo, and begged the poet's acceptance, as an offering from the Government of the French Republic, of a superb vase from the Sèvres factory. The Comédie Franceise presented to him an immense wreath of white roses, on which were emblazoned the names of the pieces he had brought out there. ture, trade, and commerce sent multifarious deputations, which assembled at 11 o'clock in the avenues adjoining the Place de l'Etoile, is the humorist of the period.

It is well known that Dr. Washburn commenced his ministerial life in the Church as a drew down upon him the suspicions of Bishop Eastburn, in whose diocese he resided, and who ordained him to the diaconate. The time was Newburyport, where he was settled. When on the eve of the event, word came from the Bishop that he would proceed with the ordination of the other candidates, but could not ordain Mr. Wash-the dead. Then the vestry met and determined ordination of any one else. The explanation which followed was amusing enough. Washburn on his way to church, a Sunday or two before, had heard of the death of General Jackson, Commendatory Prayer, in the Office of the Visitation of the Sick.

According to one account, in an excellent memorial sermon by the Rev. Dr. Drown of Newburyport, just printed, Mr. Washburn, finding out his mistake, preached the following Sunday against prayers for the dead, and so the doubted testimony, that Washburn defended himself, as using "the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free," and quoted the authority of Bingham for the use of pravers for the dead-

In the house of the future the bedroom will be dedicated to sleep, and the bed, with, perhaps, a chair or two, will be the only furniture. There will be no hangings, no papered walls, no carpets, nothing to catch and hold the dust, and the bed will stand in the middle of the room, where the air can circulate freely around it. The result will be health .-Boston Transcript.

"Is your wife a Democrat or a Republican?" asked one Rockland citizen of another in a store this morning. "She's neither," was the prompt response, and then glancing cautiously around and sinking his voice to a hoarse whisper, he explained, "she's a Home-Ruler."-Rockland Courier.

A play writer takes to a well known manager a drama founded on the history of Lady Jane Grey. The manager takes it to read.

The next time the author calls, the manager

"Your piece is very interesting, but it ends too sadly. Is it necessary to have Jane Grey die?"

A new robe for a Philadelphia belle is described as "in the classic style with a graceful lambrequin effect in the back." Truly, the fashion reporter makes them brave.

To-day, we are here in this house to celebrate burn, having heard that he had lately prayed for men. The leader, who is Wm. Majigizhick, will say a few words."

Head Chief at White Earth Reservation.

"We have started to follow the way which our Head Chief has obtained from the Whites. We went to Leech Lake, and to Red Lake, and saw the good seed which was from heaven, and to tell our tribe how we felt the Word from heaven. We went to Leech Lake first, and found a great many Indians who are in the 'shadow of death.' Also, we found great many at Red Lake. The men who are working with me had good health when they first started out, and now they are still Bishop, after a while, was pacified. But the having good health. We believe that the Lord had preserved us. The party consists of twentyone men. Five hundred people were present at our meeting."

We join in the Easter rejoicing, And echo each gladdening strain, While a pitiful minor is voicing Our own secret doubting and pain; We weave Him a shroud of our sadness, We cover His smile with our gloom, And drive back the angel of gladness, Who waits at the door of the tomb.

We know not our own hearts have hidden Our Christ, in a grave of our own. We know not our own hands are bidden To roll from the threshold the stone; While our tearful eyes drooping and weary With watching in sorrow and fear, Might see with the heart-broken Mary

Member:-"It seems to be impossible for me to get to Church on Sunday mornings, before does not disturb you."

There was punctual attendance afterwards.

A Philadelphia paper suggests that now that be necessary to furnish the Indians with coskscrews instead of guns.

place. You may fill a coal scuttle or box with such parcels, ready for use. For a sick-room, a nursery at night, or even for a library, the plan is admirable. Besides, it is so cleanly. If you do not choose to provide yourself with paper bags, you can wrap the coals in pieces of newspaper at your leisure, and have them ready for use when occasion requires.-Housekeeper.

Brushes should be washed every week. Pour a little ammonia into the water, enough to soften it. Dip the bristles of the brush into the water several times, wetting the handle as little as possible, then rinse in clear water. Wipe the backs and handles, but not the bristles (it makes them soft) and put them in sun to dry, bristles down.

Ox-gall soap is an excellent article to use in cleansing woolens, silks, or fine prints liable to fade. To make it, take one pint of gall, cut into it two pounds of common bar soap very fine, and add one quart boiling soft water. Boil slowly, stirring occasionally until well mixed, then pour into a flat vessel, and when cold cut into pieces not rub on the article to be washed. - Mrs.

Suppose the children do soil and tear their clothes, cross words and peevish tones won't cleanse nor mend them, and are a thousand times more to be avoided than a garment tattered and dirty. If their souls are kept spotless, soap and water will very soon remove every stain from

Clothes that are worn or torn should either be mended before going into the wash or roughdried and sent up stairs to be mended before being starched and ironed. There is economy in this. Clothes are much less destroyed in the wearing than by the washboard.

TO CLEAN LAMP CHIMNEYS .- Hold them free and hot. One or two repetitions of this propreacher who attracted quite a little attention cess will make them beautifully clear and bright. Wipe upon a soft, dry cloth.

> "Learned in gracious household ways, not less than in the circles of science and art, women may become truly accomplished."

As a rule it is not in good taste to give to children the names of distinguished persons. Their station in life may afterwards make the contrast ludicrous.

Lord, at the last, when all shall wake who sleep, Made like to Thee, in raiment white and fair, O, bid us welcome to Thy home, to keep One endless Easter there!

APRIL 16, 1881.

A Beautiful Marriage Service In St. Stephen's Church, New York.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

It was a private wedding, and individualities sre left unnoticed. The object of this communication is, to suggest something easy of imitation, with more or less expense, to those who love to see, in church decorations, a fitness and beauty, which are significant, and not mere show.

The ritual was not differed t from that to which our Mother, the Church, has for ages been acenstomed. On entering the sanctuary, the eve fall upon the words, in large letters formed of white immortelles, "The Lord bless you." These vere arranged on movable frames of light wire. richly bordered with smilax, and hung conspicnously in front of the ornamental divisions which form the chancel recess. This suggestive prayer of the congregation was expected to find an echo in every heart On one side of the recess, stood the font with its pyramid of luxuriant green, and of snowy, fragrant flowers; a sweet reminder of other days, when the fair young bride, in her spotless baptismal robe, received her Christian name at the waters of Regeneration, the name of Mary, which was not to be lost to her now, but which she was to retain forever, even, in the life hevond. On the opposite side of the chancel, a man as suitable in themselves to produce a moral porcelain vase of exquisite design, in the shape of a star, displayed the best skill of the florist. It signified that the Star of Bethlehem, her Leader every from the Font through all the past, was still to ment. Christ seals His gracious covenant by be her guide in the future journey of Life-a touching gift from the Pastor's wife. The hangings were of white, embroidered in color of gold. in the sovereign and ever-present personal Everything was white and golden, except the natural green of the foliage. A garland entwined the lectern, and the pulpit frontal was embroidered in fresh leaves, with drooping clusters of opening buds. The marble Altar-cross was wreathed with ivy and white roses. This, in foral language had its meaning.* as had also the garden at its base, which was fringed with ferns and gemmed with carnations. Above the cross, a pure white dove, Heaven's own symbol of the Holy Spirit, was seen descending with expanded wings, and bearing, in letters of gold and white, the message from above-"My Peace I give unto you." This was the answering note to the people's prayer-"The Lord bless you;" and was ap- Sleep, baby, sleep. parent to every observer. The memory of such "Sleep, baby, sleep; a pleasing and hallowed scene is fitly associated The sky is full of sheep; with a time when some of the most sacred responsibilities of life are assumed, too frequently, with frivolity and thoughtlessness.

*The Tvy expresses woman's love and constancy The Christ Child owns a sheep; *The Tvy expresses woman's love and constancy and dependence, and the Rose, which in its natural state has five petals, was regarded by the ancients as the conjugal or wedding number. In Berkley's cele-brated "U topia," we read that the offer and accept-ance of a full blown rose, by the simple Mezzoranians, was considered as an engagement for life, to "love on through all ills, and love on till they die." Forms emphalize the union of usofulness with beauty. "The symbolize the union of usefulness with beauty. The roots of a certain species furnish a mild, sweet mu-cilage, which in times of scarcity has been resorted to for nutriment, and from the larger species is man ufactured a potash of commerce. The ebony fern of our Western wilds has a grace and delicacy which art cannot initiate. Curvations were used on festive occasions. Spencer writes it Coronation. It implies a pleasing attractiveness.

From my Note Book.

Prepared for the Living Church by W. J. P.

THE LIVING CHURCH.

C. "That is no objection. The same force times indicated, bacon and tansy-cake always which is in the wheat-grain was evolved from forming a part of the treat. The tansy was snpthat fluid mass. You have often said you thought posed to represent the bitter herbs formerly eatevolution accounted for many things."

en with the Passover Supper, of which Easter A. "So I do. But there is evolution and was the successor. In the course of centuries evolution. When you say there is a force in all these cakes came to be made of all sorts of pleasthings, which plans and wills and energizes, I ant ingredients, honey, cream, raisins, and the admit it, but I call a power which thinks and like, and the "tansy" was retained only in name. wills and developes one thing out of another, In some parts of England, the chief Easter God. You do not change a fact by giving it a amusement consisted of foot-races around a different name. You must make a theory from smooth green meadow, the winner receiving an the facts, not facts from a theory. There must elegant decorated cake, of which two were probe a force which makes a grain of wheat repro-vided, respectively for the girls and boys. The duce itself. There is ample and trustworthy pace was not a run, but a fast walk, and hence testimony that loaves of bread reproduced them- may have originated a custom still p revalent selves, and that Jesus Christ was the force which among the population of the Southern States, reproduced them. Now, if I simply study the called "Walking for a Cake." facts, and make a theory to cover them, it is in-

In the town of Evesham originated the wellcredible for me to say that the same force which known game of "Open the Gates as High as the accounts for the reproduction of a grain of Sky", which was played by the children only on wheat, accounts also for the reproduction of the Easter Monday and Tuesday, and was supposed to contain an allusion to the "Lift up your heads, O, ye gates", of Psalm 24.

"Clipping the churches" is a very curious, an-Confession of Faith, shows himself by the fol- tique ceremony performed by the children in the lowing language to be in one accord with the west of England, especially the manufacturing towns. One or two children entered the churchyard on Easter eve, and joining hands, stood with their backs against the wall; others followed till the whole building was thus surrounded. The moment the chain was complete, they broke up and rushed to the next nearest church, and repeated the process till every church in the city had thus been visited. Hymns were sung, and, in some instances, doles of cake, coin, etc., were distributed by the church-wardens.

English boys have always enjoyed to the utmost the prerogatives of Easter. Besides the school holiday, and complete freedom from study and labor, which the season brought them, they enjoyed certain rights which nobody thought of disputing. In Durham they were allowed to stop every passenger, take off his or her shoes, and demand a penny for the restoration of these important articles; and this "shoe money" sometimes amounted to a considerable sum. In some northern countries it was customary at Easter, to fix a beam upon a movable spindle, a bag of sand being hung to one end, a piece of board being affixed to the other. Mounted on ponies, the boys rode at the board with a spear; and the fun was that the sand-bag flapped around, and gave them pretty heavy blows unless they were expert enough to get out of the way in time. Ball-playing has, however, always been the great Easter game. Everybody played it, even the bishops and great dignitaries of the Church. The balls were of every conceivable variety; soft, hard, made of iron, wood, stone, cotton, or eggs! These latter, boiled hard, decorated or dyed, were in great requisition; the favorite color being red, to represent the blood of the crucifixion. They were thrown at targets, rolled down hill, and a variety of games were invented for their employment. The chief of these, "cracking eggs", has come across the ocean, and in the A dreadfully rash and profane act, that ought writer's young days, was very popular among American boys and girls. Great skill and experience was exercised in the choosing of an egg, which the boy then placed firmly in the hollow the decrees of the King of kings. He might have of his hand, closing his fingers around it; anothcounsel of one of the prophets of the Lord, had er boy then struck the end with another egg similarly held, and the owner of the hardest became

he Church League Tracts.

1. The Real Presence; 2. Prayers for the Dead; 3. Catholics and Roman Catholics; 4. One Religion is as Good as Another; 5, Outward Reverence; Its Logic and Its Law; 6. Anglican Orders and Jurisdiction; 7. The Bible and the Prayer-Book on Confession; 8. The Bible and the Prayer-Book on Confession; 8. What Church Service Must I Attend; 9. The Christian Priesthood; 10. Plain Words on Confirmation; 11. What is Public Worship; 12. Our Own Advantages; 13. Baptism Scripturally and Historically Consider-ed; 14. The Scriptural Proof of Episcopacy; 15. Doctrine and Ritual; 16. The Holy Ghost the Life of the Church; 17. Spiritual Communion; 18. Why the Anglican Church Rejects Transubstantiation; No. 19. The Necessity and Nature of Public Worship; No. 20. Reasons for Receiving the Holy Communion No. 19. The Necessity and Nature of Public Worship;
No. 20. Reasons for Receiving the Holy Communion Fasting; No. 21. A Card of Private Devotion; No. 22. I Have no Time; No. 23. But I Have Tried; No. 24. I Am no Worse Than Others; No. 25. I Can Read my Bible at Home; No. 26. I Cannot Afford to go to Church; No. 27. Family Relations and Church Going; No. 28. A Method of Assisting at the Celebra-tion of the Blessed Sacrament; No. 29 How to Keep Lent; No. 30. The Lenten Call; No. 31. Suggestions for Lent; No. 32. Mid-Lent; No. 33. Good Friday; No. 34. Easter. . 34. Easter.

No. 34. Easter. Complete set of the Tracts, (including 21) will be sent to any address on receipt of 40 cents. Price of Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, and 17, 19, 20, 31, and 34, fifty cents per hundred, of Nos. 3, 4, 11, 16, 18, 22, 27, thirty cents per hundred, and of 23, 24, 25, 26, where the set of t twenty cents per hundred. Nos. 12, 21, and 28, by mail, 5 cents each. 29 and 30, 32, and 33, 30 cents per hundred. No. 13, $1 a hundred. No. 14, $150 a hundred.

Address JOHN F. CABOT, Secretary, 18 Liberty Street, N. Y.

ESTABLISHED 1836.

AND

Catalogues and bulletins of novelties sent free.

Instantaneously at

Please send postal.

Battle House,

MOBILE, ALABAMA.

Manhattan Life Insurance	e Company
OF NEW YC	RK.
Assets, January 1, 1880, Assets, January 1, 1881, Income, year 1880, Claims paid, returned premiums, etc All other payments, taxes, etc., Liabilities, New York Standard,	$ 9,706,101.65 10 151,289.28 1,998,383.03 ., 1,300,966.25 252,229.14 18,45,454.38

909 Grand Ave., MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, C. A. Buttles, Prop'r. Hotel contains 90 rooms, w th dining room 40 ft.square. New and elegantly furnished and surrounded by a large lawn. All the home comforts can be had which could be desired by tourists or travel-Terms $2 to $2,50 per Day Or special rates made by the week or month. Applications by parties de-siring a delightful Summer Home should be made early.

"The trouble is that I am in a hurry, and him not to do the sacrilege to which his wicked was usually played "for fair", and some boys of the Lord is not." The eagerness to realize re- heart impelled him. sults before we pass away, and our names perish, The deed was accomplished with the hope of has effected much for the Kingdom of God; but thwarting the designs of Providence, but this sin this feeling needs to be tempered with the faith brought upon its author still greater ills and punwhich waiteth long, and is brave to the end. The shment. Church does slow, but thorough work, when it builds from the bottom. People are pitched in here from all quarters, and their main purpose in life is to make money, and spend it on bodily comfort and luxury. They have few shreds of religion to cover themselves with, and are not burial was he buried? ashamed because they are naked. In this press of business and pleasure-seeking, the pastors must look the fact in the face, that few of those who have reached middle life will be influenced. by religion. What then ? Sink the foundation deeper. Lay the bed-stones of the future Church with the young; yes, as early as babyhood, at the font. It is a hard but a grand thing, for a being whose life-lin it is so short as man's to pit himself against time; but he generally conquers when he does. Moses let one whole generation die off in the wilderness, because they were not worth taking into Canaan. He took their children, and made them fit to enjoy what the Lord had promised.

A. "What's that you said ? You don't believe that Jesus fed five thousand persons with five loaves of bread and two fishes ?"

C. "Yes ! It is an incredible story; because, if it was not a delusion of the nerves, but those The Children's Easter in the Olden people were really fed, it implies a reproduction and multiplication of the substance of the loaves, which is past all belief."

A. "You believe that a grain of wheat reproduces itself many times ?"

C. "Certainly, but that is an ordinary process of nature; the reproduction is according to a law of nature."

A. "Don't you throw dust in your own eyes, and try to throw it in mine, by such an explanation? An ordinary process of nature is merely a process of nature you have observed. You surely would not limit the possibilities in nature to what you have observed. Besides, a law of nature is not a force, but only a mode or form of nature's working to which we are accustomed. You must have something beside words and phrases back of this reproducing grain of wheat. You must have a force.'

C. "Of course there is a force. The force is in it and developes."

"You don't mean to say there is a selfsubsisting force in the wheat grain, do you ? Reinember, this earth was once a molten, fluid mass.

Horace Mann once said to a friend who asked he not preferred his own evil ways. Three othhim how he was getting on with his great plans: ers of his faithful friends had in vain besought

Who was the man?

loaves of bread ?"

Church:

longs.

The Rev. Dr. Hodge, in his commentary on the

"The efficacy of the sacraments depends (a) upon their divine appointment as means and channels of grace. They were not devised by impression. But they were appointed by God, and we are commanded to use them as means of grace, and hence God virtually promises to meet them, and hence in their use invests with the grace of that covenant every soul to which it be-ments as his instruments and media of operation.

The Spirit is the executive of God. He takes of the things of Christ and shows them unto us.

Through Him even the humanity of Jesus is by His sacrifice are revealed and applied."

Sleep, baby, sleep;

Sleep, baby, sleep.

Sleep, baby, sleep;

Your father tends the sheep;

virtually omnipresent, and all the benefits secured

FOR THE CHILDREN.

Cradle Song.

Your mother shakes the branches small,

Whence happy dreams in showers fall.

The stars the lambs of heaven are.

He is Himself the Lamb of God;

The world to save, to death He trod;'

Bible Studies.

NO. XI.

Written for the Living Church.

It was committed by a man who had to bow his neck to two foreign yokes, yet who dared to defy to have made the perpetrator afraid.

For whom the shepherd moon doth care;

soul who uses them rightly in the sacra-

(b) The efficacy of the sacrament resides

What was the act?

To what foreign yokes did he submit? What wise counsellors had he despised? How did his days terminate, and with what F. B. S.

Answers to Bible Studies.

Norman C. Susan, of Berlin, Wis., gives the orrect answer to No. 7, viz.: "Bethlehem"; also to No. 8: "Capernaum". And Miss E. J. Brown, of Rochester, N. Y., replying to No. 7, says: "The 'House of Bread' is the city of Bethlehem, sometimes called Ephratah. It was the home of David; also of Ruth and Boaz. Our Saviour was born there (S. Luke ii. 7). The 'Church of the Nativity' was built by the Empress Helena, mother of Constantine the Great, and was in the form of a cross. The choir once heard on the plains near by, was composed of the angel who appeared to the shepherds, and a multitude of the heavenly host, who sang the words in S. Luke ii. 14th verse.

We are wont to think and speak of the nineteenth century as the children's millennium, and of this country as the earthly paradise of the little folks, and in a sense we are right, for never were there so many appliances for their comfort, amusement, and instruction as now. Yet the children received some consideration in the days gone by, and the festival of the Resurrection, in its social aspect, provided largely for their recreation. The first children's parade of which we read, was held for many centuries, and, until quite a recent date, annually, at Berwick-upon-Tweed, on Easter Monday, there known as "Children's Day". "In many of its features it prefigured our Sunday School anniversaries." The children dressed in their gayest attire, the girls especially brave in colored ribbons, met in the largest church, and organized into squads, marched to the playing of the military and civil bands, and with banners flying, all through the Photographs of the possessor of both. As in marbles, the game The almost universal employment of eggs in Easter festivities is due to an early assumed resemblance between the emergence of a chicken from its confining shell, and the rising from the grave of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our ideas of Easter have gradually become less sensual, and we substitute, where the day is celebrated at all, flowers and music, for bacon, tansy and eggs; but though customs vary, principles never change, and we cannot but hope that while our "children at home" are amused and interested by these glimpses into the olden time, they are also learning the real Easter lesson, that Christ is risen from the dead in order that we may rise from all evil and bad habits into the newer and better life, which alone can make us happy or glorify Him.-S. S. Times.

A Japanese girl, receiving Bible instruction, upon being told that man was formed of the dust of the ground, scornfully replied: "That may do very well for foreigners, but the Japanese are made from better material."

The ignorance of the Japanese in things divine is sad indeed. One little girl who lately entered our Osaka school, was asked, "How many Gods are there?" and replied, "One". When asked, "What is God?" she replied, "The Mikado". The Japanese call the Mikado, "The Son of Heaven".

HOLIDAY GOODS VERY LOW.

Pure Cod-Liver Oil made from selected livers, on the searshore, by CASWELL, HAZARD & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others. Phy-sicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in market oils in market.

Grand Avenue Hotel, Milwaukee. Grand Avenue Hotel, Milwaukee. 909 Grand Avenue, C. A. Buttles, Proprietor. Hotel contains 90 rooms, with dining room 40 feet square. New and elegantly furnished, and surroun-ded by a large lawn. All the home comforts can be had which could be desired by tourists or travellers. Terms $2.00 to $2.50 per day, or special rates made Terms $2.00 to $2.50 per day, or special rates made by the week or month.

KENOSHA WATER CURE, Kenosha, Wis., a quiet home-like resort for Invalids. Chronic Diseases, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of women. For Circulars, address N. A. Pennoyer, M.D., or E. Pennoyer, pro-prietor. References: The Bishop of Minnesota, the prietor. References: The Bishop of Min Sisters of St.Mary, Kemper Hall, Kenosh

oity, to a "pleasaunce" on the outskirts, and there singing hymns and playing games, were dismissed with such refreshments as the fashions of the

208 E. Ohio St., W. H. WELLS & BRO., THE Stained Glass Works 48 & 50 Franklin St., Chicago. A. H. Abbott & Co., 147 State St., Painting and Drawing Material. E. R. P. SHURLEY & CO., WATCHMAKERS AND EWELERS J Removed from 55 S. Clark St., to No. 103 Randolph Street, Chicago. (Round the corner.) THE DINGEE AND CONARD COMPANY'S Beautiful Ever-Blooming

Liabilities, New York Sumary, 10,00,012,00 Surplus, 2,006,314.90 Solid, conservative, economical. See new form of Policy—plain, liberal, incontesta-ble, non-forfeitable. Non-participating, very low rates, fixed premium policies issued, as well as the ordinary participating, ordinary rate policies. Its liberal published tables of surrender values for the time point. Children taken

ESTABLISHED A. D. 1870.

YOUNG CHURCHMAN Will enter upon its Twelfth Volume with the April number. The Young Churchman has reached a large circulation, and is now distributed regularly in near-ly four hundred Sunday Schools. The Young Churchman is handsomely illustrated; is the largest child's paper in the American Church; contains a greater variety of matter, and is as use-ful in the family as in the Sunday School. The Young Churchman is mailed, postage free, to single subscribers at 25 cents per annum. In quan-

single subscribers at 25 cents per annum. In quan-tities of ten or more copies to one address, at the rate of 16½ cents per copy. per annum, advance payment. Specimen copies sent on application. Address

The Young Churchman, Milwaukee, Wis.

For Sale by F. HATHAWAY,

38 Clark St., Room 1, up stairs,

The Stock of the late

CHICAGO CHURCH BOOKSTORE, Consisting of

BIBLES, PRAYER BOOKS, and HYMNALS, SUNDAY SCHOOL and JUVENILE BOOKS, &c., &c.

The attention of the Clergy and Sunday School Officers is directed to this stock, which will be sold at a great reduction on former prices.

BOOK ON CONFIRMATION AND COMMUNION BY REV. T. W. HASKINS.

The Lord's Supper and Plea for Children.

Bound, 50 cts. Paper, 20 cts.

Also by same Author

The Second Advent Pre-Millennial. Paper, 25 cents.

For sale by CLAREMONT PUBLISHING CO., Claremont, N. H.

For Lent.

The Land and the Life, or Sketches and protest again

Devotes, as for years past, special attention to the Homoeopathic treatment of

The Best in the World.

Dr. PEIRO.

The Best in the World. Our Great Specialty is growing and distributing these Beautiful Hoses. We deliver Strong Pot Plants, suitable for immediate bloom, safely by mail, at all post-offices. 5 Splendid Varieties, your choice, all labeled, for $1; 12 for $2; 19 for $3; 26 for $4; 35 for $5; 75 for $10; 100 for $13. Send for our New Guide to Hose Culture (60 pp. ele-gantly illustrated) and choose from over Five Hum-dred Finest Sorts. Address THE DINGEE CONARD CO., Rose Growers, West Grove, Chester Co., Pa,

THE LIVING CHURCH.

APRIL 16, 1881.

APR

[An chrom

They My cl They When

"Com

Every

My ch And s

"With

In th

And Shall

Your Ye sl

The

Jesu

Oh t

How

Tis And

Ea

recti

the cere

iod

beca

pen

agre

Chr

M

day

cup

and

zen

clot

con

of act

ust

yea

ed

thi

by ere lo

8U

81

Cash

meres, Etc.

Opening of Spring Novelties. THE GOLDEN EAG Easter Morning Hymn. idents of St. James' College, Md. 136 and 138 Madison Street. 144 and 146 Clark Stree. O filii et filiae! ex cœlestis, Rex gloriae, MARSHALL FIELD & CO., Morte surrexit hodie, Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Et mane prima Sabbati, State and Washington Streets, Chicago, ium monumenti Accesserunt discipuli, Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! FOR Announce the arrival of their SPRING IMPORTATIONS, which comprise a variety of exclusive and select "NOVELTIES" in SILK and FINE CHILD Beati qui non viderunt, Et firmiter crediderunt! Vitam mternam habebun BOYS DRESS FABRICS. in colorings and designs exceedingly artistic Vitam æternam habebunt, Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! and attractive. PARENTS OR CUARDIANS In hoc festo sanctissimo, Costumes, Mantles, Cloaks, Wraps, and Shawls, Sit laus et jubilatio; Benedicamus Domino! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! In want will find the largest Stock and the Lowest Prices at Ex quibus nos humillimas OUR The very latest production of most popular foreign makers. Devotas atque debitas Deo dicamus gratias Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! NG DRESS TRIMMINGS, INCLUDING General Theological Seminary, N. Y LACES, EMBROIDERIES, PASSEMENTERIE, FRINGES, RIBBONS, BUTTONS, and Is replete with all the novelties of the Season. Correspondence of the Living Church. ORNAMENTS in great profusion. A dispatch from Meadville, Pennsylvania, cast HENRY L. HATCH, Manager. NEW LINES IN FRENCH, ENGLISH AND GERMAN a gloom over the Seminary to-day, by announc-HOSIERY. ing the death of our classmate, who, but a short J. & R. LAMB. 59 CARMINE St., N.Y time ago went home, as we supposed, to recruit Chas. Gossage RARE NOVELTIES IN and join us again soon; but a malarial fever had too CHURCH FURNISHINGS HOUSE-KEEPING LINEN, FOREIGN WHITE GOODS. firmly taken hold on his system, and we are now forced to believe what our matron so feelingly Polished Brass Altar Vases. Embracing all that is new and beautiful in Fine Dress Muslins, Sun Umbrellas. & Co. expressed: "Our Mr. Mosier is dead!" Our's he Parasols, Fans, Etc. ALTAR COVERS, DESKS, Etc. was, as friend and brother, and the more so, the FAIR LINEN. Corporals, Sacra-mental Covers and Hand-Made Linen Fringe. EXAMINATION INVITED. longer we knew him. 1/1(+))) At a meeting, this evening, the class delegated N. B.—There will be no day set apart this season for a "Grand Opening" in Costume Department. We shall put on sale "Novelties," as they arrive daily. Dry Goods Retailers,' two members to attend the funeral, and appointed BREAD CUTTERS OF OAK. a committee whose words are given below. CHICAGO. Special HeavyLinen for LinenCloths WHEREAS, Our loving Father has called to the Rest of Paradise our beloved brother and class-Send for hand book. Free by mail. Our Importations of mate, Gideon Homer Mosier. Therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the middle class of the MADE TO ORDER. McCULLY & MILES General Theological Seminary do deeply mourn Directions for measuring, samples our separation. Resolved, That, in our intercourse with him, of materials, styles of garments with prices, sent free upon application by In Great Variety and of the Choicest MANUFACTURERS OF we early felt the genial warmth and enthusiasm Pieces for Mending sent with each suit. A great saving of trouble, and an economical way to clothe your boys. Address Ouality. of his nature, and soon learned to love the purity For Spring and Summer. STAINED, ENAMELED, EMBOSSED, CUT AND COLORED and sweetness of his Christian life. The Finest Productions of Europe Resolved, That we tender our heart-felt sym-NOW OPEN GLASS, pathy to the bereaved family; and that we wear POOLE & CO., the usual badge of mourning. 182 & 184 Adams St., | CHICAGO. Royal Chinas, LATEST NOVELTIES IN 54 and 56 Duane St., N. Y. FRANK A. SANBORN, Committee. Rich Dinner Sets, ELISHA B. JOYCE, Mitchell, Saratoga Waves, JOHN HERBERT EDWARDS Satin and Gold Striped Side Band Wigs, Coquettes. Combs & Ornaments, Dark Real Bronzes, New York, March 28, 1881. Vance & Co. Pinafore Croquinole Dark Secillian and Venetienne. Wavelets, Frizettes, Faiences, &c., and 836 & 838 Broadway, N. Y. It is publicly announced that the Rev. Dr. Light Roman Braids. Switches, Curls, &c. Hair Wash. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. Send for Price List. Handsome Designs in Flowered, Designers and Manufacturers A SPECIALTY. Stephen Tyng, Jr., is to retire from the Rector-Ecclesiastical ship of the Church of the Holy Trinity, New Striped, Plaid, and Beaded THOME'S HAIR BAZAAR. Gas Fixtures & Metal Work. York, on the first of May, and to be suceeded by 157 STATE ST., NEAR MONROE. the Rev. Wilbur F. Watkins, D. D., now Rector Clocks and Bronzes, Metal and Porcelais Brocade Grenadine. Lamps, and Artistic Gas Fixtures foof Christ Church, Baltimore. The cause of Dr. GIOVANNI CARETTI, Dwellings. Tyng's retirement is, the fact that he has been long suffering from the effects of over-work, and llecorative H NEW FABRICS CLINTON H. MENEELY BELL CO. is now in a very seriously impaired state of health. He purposes resting utterly, until a return of In Silk Serges, Crepes, Bareges. Etc. MENEELY & KIMBERLY, 146 State St., Chicago. strength, when he may possibly recommence PARIS. FULL LINES BROOKLYN. 140 La Salle St., & Room 44 Otis Bl'k, Chicago. BELL FOUNDERS, TROY, N.Y. work in some part of the city. The Vestry have Churches, Halls, and Private Residences decorated in the best style. Estimates and Designs of every description furnished upon application. Of Henrictta Cloths, Drap de Alma, Tamelected Dr. Watkins on the nomination of Dr. Manufacture a superior quality of BELLS. Tyng, and he has accepted. ise Cloth, Nun's Veeiling, and Special attention given to CHURCH BELLS. The Rev. Dr. Watkins, who is a native of other fabrics suitable Baltimore, received Orders at the hands of John Stevenson & Co., RESCOPAINTER Bishop Williams, of Connecticut. He resigned THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE FOR MOURNING. Importing Tailors, the Rectorship of the Church of the Epiphany, 243 WABASH AVE CHICAGO. MENEELY BELL FOUNDERY, Black Camelette, Shoodas,

tion, succeeding Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky. Dr. Tyng's family will continue their connection Keble School, with the parish of the Holy Trinity.

Washington, in order to accept his present posi-

Illinois .- On the evening of the 5th Sunday in Lent, Bishop McLaren visited St. Mark's Church, Cottage Grove, Chicago, of which the Rev. B. F. Fleetwood is Rector; preached to a large congregation, and administered the Holy Rite of Confirmation to seventeen adults, of whom nine were men.

We believe it will be gratifying to those of our readers who, because of their every day surroundings have a preference for making their purchases where refined taste and good order is exhibited, to have their attention called to the 'Superb hat establishment which has been created in our midet by Durlan & Co. the celebrated (N V) establishment which has been created in our midst by Dunlap & Co., the celebrated (N. Y.)5th Avenue hatters, and manufacturers (under the Palmer House). Such, is in reality a dup-licate of, and contains in the same variety the is worth visiting by those whose desire, and will have, the very best goods which can be produced. In addition to their superior stock of Gentlemen's head dress, Messrs. Dunlap & Co. exhibit for ladies' wear, Walking and Riding hats, an elegant of England Young Men's Institute for Bickey Auguland at an expense of assortment of Round hats, as well as fine Silk Umbrellas of the celebrated "Lyon" manufacture. The immediate conduct of this complete and elegant establishment is entrusted to Mr. Wm. Buckley for many years in charge of the 5th Av. establishment and a gentleman of large and experience in the hatting art, and Mr. James P. Brewster who was the introducer of their productions into this market, and for the past fifteen years has acted as their Chicago Agents. Patrons can feel assured that their interests will be care-fully watched, and faithfully attended to, by these gentlemen. Extensive preparations have been made for the coming Easter, and a cordial invita-tion is extended all our readons to yield this model tion is extended all our readers to visit this model M. P. hat establishment and examine the splendid offerings

There will be a Memorial Window on exhibition, until Easter, at the establishment of W. H. Wells & Bro., 48 and 50 Franklin St. This window was manu-factured for the Episcopal Church at Salt Lake City. The work was competed for by foreign artists, and reflects great credit on Messrs. Wells & Bro. It is hoped that many will see it before it is sent away.

Dr. Peiro, 83 Madison St., Chicago: Dear Sir:-I write you to say that you have done me great good in curing me of Bronchitis, and my family of Catarrh. Very respectfully yours, NELSON THOMASSON, 176 Dearborn St., Chicago.

From our own experience we can confidently commend to all nervous and debilitated persons n. CROBBY'S Brain and Nerve Food, The Vitalized hosphites, because largely prescribed by Physicians. I much taken by Clergymen, School-teachers, ars. Students, and all who over-use the brain. ures nervous disorder, especially where it ex-ity, it prevents Consumption. been great sufferers with Nervous-s and Neuralgia, speak of it in the r to the mental and bodily growth of makes a less fretful and a happier druggist in the U.S. buys it in

The eleventh school year will commence on Wednesday, September 14th. 1881. For Circulars ap-ply to MARY J. JACKSON, Syracuse, N. Y.

The first Roman Catholic funeral in the Llandaff Cathedral burialground took place the other day, under the regulations of the new Burials Act.

A Mrs. M'Carthy, of Canton, Cardiff, having died, her relatives desired that she might be interred at Llandaff. cross-bearer, and acolytes bearing can-dles and holy water. The service was read outside the gate, and the proces-sion passed through, the bell tolling. The service was then completed at the grave

The Bishop of Durham has intimated his intention to erect a Church Bishop Auckland, at an expense of  $\pounds 1,800$ . The new structure will be called the Bishop Lightfoot Institute.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has sanctioned a special form of prayer, for use in his Diocese at this time, having reference to the disturbed condition of the country, and the wars in which England is engaged.

We regret to hear of the recent death, at Nice, of Lady Mildred Hope, wife of that staunch Churchman and able statesman, Mr. Beresford Hope,

Within the last few weeks, the Bishop of Worcester had a narrow escape from serious injury, at his resi-dence, Hartlebury Castle, Over the door of the library was a massive marble tablet, erected there some seventy years ago by Bishop Cornwall, in memory of his predecessor, Bishop Hurd. This suddenly fell to the ground, upon the very spot where Bishop Philpott happened to have been standing but a minute before. Happily, his Lordship had just moved out of reach of the falling mass, and sustained no injury.

At midnight, on the 6th inst., the shock of an earthquake was experi-enced at St. Paul's Bay, Quebec, suf-ficiently violent to awaken people from their sleep.

Nearly $50,000 has been raised in London, for the relief of the sufferers in the Island of Scio. Accounts from the scene of the great calamity are ex-ceedingly distressing. Nearly all the survivors on the island are homeless and helpless.

ESTABLISHED 1826. Bells for all purposes. War Established 1864 BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Under the supervision of the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, S. T. D. BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Under the supervision of the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, S. T. D. BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Under the supervision of the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, S. T. D. BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Under the supervision of the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, S. T. D. ranted satisfactory and durable. Honore Block.

WEST TROY. N. Y.

MENEELY & CO.,

Michigan Avenue and Congress Streets; Entrance on Congress Street.

SUBSCRIPTION TICKETS.—Three admissions, $1.00; 10 admissions, day or evening, $2.50. Use of skates at all times, 15 cents; skates DAY.—Single admission, 25 cents; Children, 12 years and under, 10 cents. EVENING.—Single admission, 50 cents. not transferable. Single admission Saturday, 25 cents. Doors open from 10 to 12 A. M., (Morning sessions exclusively for ladies), from 2.30 to 4.30 P. M., and from 7.30 to 10 P. M.

The management, in behalf of patrons, reserves the right to refuse admission, or use of skates, to any objectionable person. NOTICE.—Our first season will close on the 3d day of May, at 10 P. M. Second season will begin on or about the 12th of September. Please leave your address for an invitation to the opening of our second season.

M. W. FERCUSON, Manager.

APRIL 16, 1881.

The Libing Church.

April 16, 1881.

"As the Wings of a Dove."

[An Easter Poem, suggested by Prang's exquisite Written for the Living Church.

They are hidden away in the deep of the earth: My children, for whom I have travailed in birth. They are hidden away, but there cometh a day When my voice they shall hear, and shall quickly lift him up aloft two or three times, and often "Come forth!" Every body the summons shall heed:

Every body shall throw off its cerements with speed;

My children shall mount up with wings as a Dove, And soar to the regions of Infinite Love.

"With wings as a Dove;" for, although ve have lain

In the dust, ye shall plume you, and rise up again, And a glorious sheen, that is joy to behold, shall cover you over as bright yellow gold.

Your Lord, He is risen, ye also shall rise; Ye shall mount up with wings to the uppermost skies:

The tomb cannot hold you, the closely sealed door.

Jesus opens, and Satan can shut it no more.

Oh the beautiful Dove, with its plumage of snow! How it flits through the clouds near hope's radi ant bow!

Tis the Bird of the Spirit; how sweetly he sings And yet ye shall be as the Dove's pearly wings! F. BURGE SMITH.

Easter, 1881.

About Easter.

Easter, the festival of the sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus, was, in ancient times and up to the 11th century, celebrated with great pomp and over a few weeks. Terms end in the universiceremony by all Christian nations, during a period of eight days. The festival is a movable one. because it has to follow the full moon which happens upon or next after the 21st of March, as was agreed, after much controversy, among the early London, on Easter Monday, may be seen the Christians.

Maundy Thursday, or Shere Thursday, the day immediately preceding Good Friday, was occupied in preparing for Easter. The churches and altars were washed and decorated; the citizens trimmed their hair and beards, and bought clothes, so that they might appear good and piers along the Thames; all are seemingly bent comely against Easter. On that day, in imitation of our Lord, kings and emperors performed the act of humiliation of washing the feet of beggars, usually to the number corresponding to the or the British museum. years of their age. In 1572, Elizabeth, surrounded by her court, washed and kissed the feet of thirty-nine beggars; and in 1873 it was performed by the Archbishop of York as High Almoner. James II was the last English king who observed the custom in person. In the Greek Church the Archbishop washes the feet of the Apostles.

Among the ancient Easter customs was the "creepynge to ye cross," observed by the sovereign and his court, and subsequently by the lower classes; the "adoration of the cross," observed by the sovereign and his court, and subsequently by the lower classes; the adoration of the cross in the Roman Church is its modern substitute. Into all these ceremonies the giving of a soul without a stain, and in whose tearless eyes heaven's own light shall shine,-what a glorious and glorified thing will that resurrection body be! The love-light will never vanish from eyes then, and hands that clasp will never grow cold!-Christian at Work.

THE LIVING CHURCH.

Legend of the Easter Eggs.

[A constant reader of the Living Church, sends this for publication. It is taken from an old paper.] is performed by two men or women joining their hands across each other's wrists; then making the Cathedral bells with their hollow lungs, person to be heaved sit down on their arms, they Their vibrant lips, and their brazen tongues, Over the roofs of the city pour carry him several yards along a street. The Their Easter music with joyous roar, Till the soaring notes to the sun are rolled penalty or forfeit for non-compliance is a kiss or As he swings along on his path of gold. a money fine. With quite as much reason is the Dearest papa," says my boy to me, As he merrily climbs on his father's knee Why are the eggs, that you see me hold, Colored so finely with blue and gold? And what is the beautiful bird that lays Such beautiful eggs, on Easter days?

the Easter season, that in old days it was actually Tenderly shine the April skies, believed that the sun danced, and Sir Thomas Like laughter and tears in my boy's blue eyes, Browne, of Norwich, in his Vulgar Errors, in And every face on the street is gay; serious earnest, sets about to refute the idea! Why cloud the child by saying 'nay' So I cudgelled my brains for the story he begs, In Russia, every one who meets another on And tell him this tale of the Easter eggs Easter, from the Emperor downward, offers the

'You have heard, my boy, of the One Who died Crowned by keen thorns, and crucified, And how Joseph the wealthy, (whom God reward) Cared for the Corpse of his murdered Lord, And piously tombed It within the rock. Then closed the gate with a mighty block.

"Now, close by this gate a fair tree grew, With its pendulous leaves, and its blossoms blue;

And deep in the green tree's shadowy breast A beautiful singing bird sat on her nest, Which was bordered with mosses like malachite, And held four eggs of an ivory white.

Now when this bird, from her dim recess, Beheld the Lord in His burial dress, And looked on the Heavenly Face so pale. And the dear Feet pierced with the cruel nail, Her heart nigh broke with a sudden pang, And out of the depth of her sorrow she sang.

"All night long till the moon was up, She sat and sang in her moss-wreathed cup, A song of sorrow as wild and shrill As the homeless wind when it roams the hill, Whitechapel tram-car, full of holiday folk, got So full of tears, so loud and long, up in their best; cabs crammed with parents and That the grief of the world was turned to song.

'But soon there came, thro' the weeping night, decked with bunting, and full of happy faces; A glimmering Angel, clothed in white, And he rolled the stone from the tomb away, Where the Lord of earth and Heaven lay, And Christ arose from the cavern's gloom, And in living lustre came from the tomb!

'Now the bird that sat in the heart of the tree, Beheld this celestial mystery; And its heart was filled with a sweet delight, And it poured a song on the sobbing night; Notes climbing notes, till higher and higher They shoot to Heaven, like spears of fire.

"When the glittering white-robed angel heard The sorrowing song of the grieving bird. And heard the the following chant of mirth, That hailed Christ risen from the earth.

But Jesus has lightened the dark valley of sorrow, Lift then your glad voices in triumph on high;

The eggs of that sweet bird changed their hue, And burn with red and gold and blue, The Easter greeting "Christ is risen", is not Reminding mankind, in their simple way, always well received. One Easter morning, the Of the holy marvel of Easter Day.

FITZ JAMES O'BRIEN.

An Easter Offering

For the Young Readers of the Living Church.

Feasting.

and the mastery of the body.

feasting as about fasting.

resurrection.

of prayer. Not anything like all this.

Feasting is something higher and better than fasting. Feasting aims to lift up the soul to heaven and to give it some foretaste of eternal joy. Fasting is of the nature of humiliation and penitence. Feasting recognizes our high dignity as children of God, and our joyful right to use all His good gifts with fearless and thankful ceive." Feasting enters into this blessedness. It offers our Heavenly Father the grateful tribute of our care for His creation, redemption, regeneration of our souls and bodies, and for our hope of Feasting means that we eat and drink with gladness, because all food is the gift of our loving and merciful Maker. Feasting means that we forget the things that we have not and remember discontentment, envy, jealousy, and sense of loss or want, we look into our Father's face with, adore Him with praises rather than with prayers.

Eastertide is the time when the multitudes of the faithful should be crowding God's sanctuaries and crowning His altar with their thank-offerings.

One glad alleluia should be ringing through the gladness and hear songs of thankfulness.

hearts. "It is more blessed to give than to re-

EASTER OFFERINGS. A short time ago we took occasion to complain that Christian men of this nineteenth century of grace needed to be taught that fasting meant A VERY ELEGANT ASSORTMENT fasting. We were careful to distinguish fasting, from mere dieting, from self-denial, and from of the above goods may be seen at moroseness and gloominess. We made it as 76 Washington Street, Chicago. clear as we were able, that fasting is holy dis-S. D. CHILDS & CO. cipline for the glory of God, the increase of faith Prices range from 5 cts. to $3.00. Easter brings us to a season of feasting, and now we have occasion to lament that Christians EASTER CARDS. of our times seem to know almost as little about Christian feasting is not eating and drinking immoderately. It is neither indolence nor rev-

PRANG'S, DELARUE'S, and HAMBURGER'S Easter Cards are "perfectly lovely" this year. Noth-ing finer to beautify your homes. Call and see them at the CITY NEWS DEPOT, 65 State Street, Central Music Hall, Chicago. elry; not dancing and laughter and abandonment Elegant embossed cards, single and double, with perfumed silk fringe and tassels, 25 cents to $1.00 each. Without fringe, 5 cents to 50 cents each. Also Birthday Cards in similar style and prices. Finest assortment of Scrap Book Pictures and Silk Ornaments in America. Catalogues free. J. A. PIERCE, 75 Madison St., Chicago.

FINER THAN EVER!

EASTER CARDS Our New Cards for this year are far beyond anything ever before offered. The assortment and the designs are marvelous and the prices low. Do not Fail to Examine our Line at both Stores. the things that we have, and putting aside all F. H. REVELL, 148-150 Madison St., Farwell Hall Bldg, Opp. McVicker's Theatre grateful love, offer Him smiles, not tears, and CHICAGO. JUST RECEIVED A Beautiful and Complete Assortment of PRANGS EASTER & world all these great forty days. In every Christian BIRTHDAY CARDS home, words of peace and love and hope should be spoken. Everywhere should we see tokens of Ranging in Price, from 15 cents to $2 each, WALDEN & STOWE The Lord is risen, is risen indeed, and our poor hearts are risen with Him. We shall have 57 Washington Street. sins and sorrows enough to beat them down to FINE STATIONERY, Standard Theological and Miscellaneous Books. Church and Sunday School Periodicals, Libraries, and Requisites.

Prayer Books and Hymnals. EASTER CARDS. We have selected a very choice assortment of Easter and Birthday Cards, INCLUDING THE VERY LATEST DESIGNS More Beautiful than Ever Before. From the list of L. Prang & co., J. H. Hamburger, and other publishers. We can please our friends in every particular. AMERICAN S.S. UNION. 73 Randolph Street. CARDS. EASTER CARDS sick child, the only son of a couple whose parents EASTER are regular attendants at my Sunday morning

easth. Let them for awhile see the sunlight. hear the music, and taste the peace of heaven. Sometimes we must fast. At Easter let us keep the FEAST.-Bishop Brown. The sweet spring flowers seem to bloom more brightly. The April sunshine falls with fairer ray, The lambs in yonder meadows skip more lightly. For earth herself must smile on Easter Day.

He said, 'Sweet bird, be forever blest, Thyself, thy eggs, and thy moss-wreathed nest. "And ever, my child, since the blessed night. When death bowed down to the Lord of Light, and eating of eggs entered largely, and the egg was accepted by the Christian as a fitting symbol of a future life, and by the pagan of the revivification of nature. Eggs are also served with the Paschal lamb. In the accounts of the household of Edward I is an entry, "four hundred and a half of eggs, eighteen pence;" these were purchased for the purpose of being stained in boiling dye, or covered with leaf gold, and distributed in the royal household. In many countries presents of eggs are made. In Russia, where Easter day is devoted to the interchange of visits, the visitor enters the room with the salutation, "He is risen;" to which the reply is, "He is risen indeed!"

In Scotland and the north of England, the finding of eggs on Easter day is thought to bring luck, and the young folks diligently search for them on moor and hills. They are, when found, boiled in various dies, of which the manufacture and dyeing of cloth in the Scottish homes has given them considerable knowledge, and used by the children as playthings. The boys in Christian Europe had a custom of challenging blow for blow with the hard Easter egg. The eggs were struck on the open hand, and the broken one became the prize of the breaker. The French, who are so clever in the creation of delicate trifles, first introduced the modern Easter egg, made of sugar or wax, bound by ribbons, and filled with various pretty creations adapted to supplement the efforts of St. Valentine. The Germans substituted an emblematical print upon which three hens were represented holding a basket in which were three eggs ornamented with illustrations.

The building of sepulchres and watching by them until a supposed resurrection had taken place, was another ancient Easter custom. The modern Greeks in their celebration of Easter construct a small bier and deck it with orange and citron buds, and jasmine flowers and boughs; a figure of the dead Christ painted on a board is laid upon this, and placed in the church. On the succeeding day bonfires are lighted, and general rejoicings made in honor of the Resurrection, and presents of eggs are made.

Watching for the sun to dance on Easter day, was another custom, and one still practiced among the ignorant and superstitious of Ireland. To do this the folk would rise before the dawn, and look earnestly for the rising sun; one writer says it is best seen by looking upon tremulous water no which the sun shines. -- Christ'n Union.

Those who hope for no other life are dead even for this. - Goethe.

The Bible without the Spirit is a sun-dial by moonlight.—Coleridge.

"Father! no. he is not." "Christ is risen," repeated the Emperor. "No, he is not," the sentry replied. The latter was a Jew; and not even to oblige the autocrat of all the Russias, would he acknowledge that Christ had risen.

Curious Easter Customs.

Different customs linger in different parts of the country. In Luncashire, Cheshire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire, and other counties, among the peasantry, the ridiculous custom of "lifting" or "heaving" is practiced. On Easter Monday

the men lift the women, and on Easter Tuesday

the women lift or heave the men. The process

Pope borne aloft, shoulder-high, in his chair, in St. Peter's, as part of the Easter ceremonial

So much joy did the popular mind attribute to saiutation, "The Lord has risen," and they then kiss each other. At this season miracle plays, full of the most absurd anchronisms, are still performed at Ammergau, Monaco, and other places on the Continent of Europe, These used to be common in England, but were put down at the Christmas Day and Good Friday are two of the days on which the English banks and public offices are always closed, and on which all business is suspended in England. At Easter, young folks, leaving school, get home for the holidays, which, in their case, generally extend ties. So do the Hilary Law Sittings, in the courts. Members of Parliament, in as much need of rest and recreation as their youngsters, now adjourn to their homes. On the streets of children; excursion or picnic wagons, gaily crowds of pedestrians, drifting gregariously to the various railway stations or to the steamboat on making the best of their day's outing-whether it is to be spent at Richmond, or Greenwich, in the Zoological Gardens, the Crystal Palace.

Glory to God in full anthems of joy!

our end:

Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow

And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend.

For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, said to a sentry who was guarding a palace door, "Brother!

Christ is risen." The soldier answered firmly

The being He gave us death cannot destroy!

If tears were our birthright and death were at Rome.

Reformation.

The Resurrection.

Immortality was dreamed of by the ancients: the Assyrians held to it; the winged globe of the Egyptians symbolized it; Socrates rejoiced that he was about to be freed from the prison-house of his body; but only Christ has brought Life and Immortality to light in the Gospel; only He chicks," though they were prettier and sweeter denominations. One, in particular, sent the "boys" demonstrated that Immortality is a fact, not a theory-an established verity, not a vague hypothesis. "Because I live ye live also"; because He triumphed over sin, the believer, too, shall triumph; because He conquered Death, the believer, too, shall spoil the spoiler. Is there any truth grander than that-and does the Christian need any nobler incentive to Christian progress than the truth that the sum of his life-work shall be a blessed Immortality beyond? which too often denies the Resurrection? If it Jesus loves with an especial tenderness, will be boys rattled their money but couldn't spare any." were not so, should we meet with so many professing Christians who wonder if they will have bodies in heaven, and who even doubt if heaven be a locality? Or would so many ministers be in heaven? or would so many books be written buried their friends with more of sadness, but trouble not only to give them books, but to point requested to preach on the recognition of friends to establish the fact, which stands or falls with the glorious doctrine of the Resurrection, the doctrine which was the pivotal truth of apostolic Jesus had opened the sealed door, and walked preaching? Is a body necessary to the soul?— in the garden among the plants and the blos- needed money then, but he did remember the "This mortal must put on Immortality." Is heaven a locality?" "I go to prepare a place for you." Shall we know each other there ?-"Ye shall sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven."

"There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body." Do we all realize what is meant by "spiritual body,"—that it does not mean an intangible body, a ghost-like covering, as some other emblem, for from the dry, senseless chrysa-"seem to imagine; but that a spiritual body is a lis, there comes the beautiful winged object that seem to imagine, but that a splittual body is a sine solution of a sin fected spirit ? Whether or not it have flesh and hover among the blossoms. blood, it will, without doubt, be a glorified likeness of the human form, possessing the power of revealing the inward by the outward in a manner at once complete and perfect. It will be a offerings of flowers for His Altar, and gold for body free from decay or deterioration;-that His treasury? Yes, because these are the outbody conforming to, and informing outwardly of give Him "ourselves, our souls, and our bodies, the inward peculiarities, mental and emotional, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice which distinguish man from every other man;- unto Him." Then even these poor shells of pressing, as it will, the thoughts and emotions daisies.

[Suggested by Prang's pretty Chromo.]

beautiful picture! Did ever such a thing hap-Spring flowers ?

I will tell you something more wonderful than him." etc.

this, which will surely occur some day, we do not know exactly when. I remember two little Aurora, Nev., and, during his stay, the place had darling children whom their mother called "my been frequently visited by ministers of various than any of these soul-less creatures could pos- invitations to be present at a Service in the Court sibly be. There came a day when they sickened House. They went, after arraying themselves in and died, and the parents had to lay them away their best, including a white shirt each; and, in in a little grave under the willows. So deep it due time, the minister appeared, bearing a numwas, and shut in from the sky, and the air, and ber of hymn-books, which he distributed among the flowers, you would think they could never all the members of the congregation except my get out again. But our dear Lord says, in His friend's immediate group. They wondered at the Book that tells us such happy, hopeful truths, gratuitous slight; but remained throughout the that "the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall come forth," and the little chil-Is there not a practical atheism of the heart dren who have done no wilful sins, and whom had; and when he came round with the hat, the permitted to roam in that blessed world where the flowers are always blooming, and where Bishop Whitaker was coming, and they all nothing dies, and there is no gloom nor sorrow. Before our Lord rose from the dead, nobody was sure that such a thing could be. People the Bishop himself spoke to them; took the since that first glad Easter morning when the out some of the places, and treated them "as disciples found the tomb empty, and knew that soms, they knew that they and their friends also text and a good deal of the sermon; and more would not forever lie in the grave, but that their than this, there was not one of all "the boys" who bodies would receive new life, and joined again thought of giving silver, but all contributed gold. to their spirits, would be always with their Lord So much for the material gain; besides which in glory and blessedness: You know an egg is a symbol of the Resurrection, because out of the seeming death, the "Truth in love" and to "be courteous." emerges a living creature. The butterfly is an-hope of a bright Resurrection? Shall we bring to his name and work.

that marks its spiritual periodeness, and not pos-sessing the seeds of one unlawful passion, ex- the wealth and beauty of the bright summer ula? Is the friendship of the world no longer Mission Service, and who themselves are ular as the cares of young parents will at all ad-Two little golden feathered chickens drawing mit. During the afternoon, which I spent with an egg shell filled with white daisies; what a them, conversation turned upon the "far West," where both the child's father and myself had had pen as that these tiny creatures got out of their some experience; and, as I offered him some shell and went with it in search of the bright tracts, with which my Bishop had a few days before supplied me, he remarked that "it reminded

Shed sunlight of Thy grace, O risen Saviour,

In fresh spring vigor on my heart's dull clay! Warm into life fair flowers of pure behavior,

So I, with earth, shall keep my Easter Day.

Bishop Whitaker in Nevada.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

Some few weeks ago, I was called to baptize a

LANCELOT.

He had been for some years in the mines at Service, "to show him that we had not forgotten on application. how to be gentlemen, if he had, or thought we Some months afterwards, they heard that turned out as they had done before, "just to see how he would do." Before the Service began, gentlemen." My friend did not remember what was the precise object for which the Bishop there is the moral gain, that those whom the Church of God sends out, know how to speak The story did me good; may it encourage the good Bishop, as through that Service at least one was so attracted to the Saviour that he would not

What thanks shall we give to our gracious and and for no other reason; and I trust the subject loving Lord at this sweet Easter time, for the of it will not be offended at the prominence given

Is the Church to take her tone and colour marks its physical completeness. It will be a come of grateful hearts. But above all, let us from the world? In a pleasure-loving and frivto run to the same excess of riot? Is the baptismal renunciation of the world, no less than that marks its spiritual perfectness; and not pos-ours, will be rich toward God with more than of the flesh and the devil, an unmeaning form-

10

The Land of the Rising Sun-A Letter from Japan.

ace of the Living Church. Corresponden OSAKA, Feb. 25th, 1881.

Do Churchmen in America know that the Church does not take the lead in Mission work. in Japan? That the Romanists have three Bishops in this field, with a strong force of Priests? That the Greek Church has twenty converts where we have one? That the Congregationalists, the Presbyterians, and the Methodists, have each more Missionaries in this land, than our grand "Missionary Church"?

We are the oldest Mission in Japan (except the Roman), and are also among the weakest. We have two Mission stations; one at Tokio, with a force consisting of the Bishop, two Priests, a Deacon, and two teachers. The other at Osaka, having a force of three Priests, a Medical Missionary and a teacher. These places are three hundred miles apart. Communication between the two being made by a thirty-six hours' seavoyage, the Missionaries, in these cities can be of no assistance to each other. It would seem the part of wisdom to concentrate all our force, and have a flourishing Mission at one point, instead of struggling on as we now are.

There is much good seed already sown at both Tokio and Osaka: and it would be sad to leave the work, so well begun, to take care of itself. There is one other way in which the needs of both places may be met; and that is, to reinforce both stations, and send an additional Bishop.

But. whether we concentrate or not, our work will never succeed as it it ought until we have a native ministry; a ministry whose native tongue is this wonderfully complex language; a ministry acquainted with the traditions, modes of thought, and present religious systems of the people; a ministry of the people, who would not be considered as representing a religion peculiar to nations stronger than Japan, and using their strength to oppress her and humble her; a ministry who can penetrate into the interior, where foreigners are not permitted to go.

All Missions here realize this need, and are trying to meet it. The Greek Church already has native Priests; so has the Roman. The Presbyterians and Dutch Reformed Missions in Tokio have united in sustaining a successful Theological School. The Congregationalists have a large training school in Kiyoto, which has already sent out a number of preachers. And we have not even one native Priest. To be sure we have started a Divinity School in Tokio, in which there are now five students, and we could undoubtedly have many more; but, up to the present time, the Mission has neither had the necessary buildings nor a sufficient number of instructors. The buildings we hope to have within the present year, but the teachers are still needed. The Faculty at present consists of the Bishop and Rev. C. T. Blanchet, of our Mission, and the Rev. Mr. Wright, of the English Church Mission. Each of these men, without the aid of text books in the vernacular, endeavors to teach what is required of two Professors in our home Seminaries. In addition to this Seminary work, each has his own Evangelistic and ministerial labors. You will not be surprised when told that the health of each is giving way under the load he has to carry; one being at present away on sick leave, and the Bishop himself slowly but surely breaking down. Both Seminary and Evangelistic work, however, must be carried on; neither can be dropped, and men are instantly needed for both. The Evangelist should give his whole time to his peculiar work, and the instructor devote his attention principally to teaching. The Foreign Committee know our needs, and are doing all in their power to meet them, but their hands are empty, and nothing more can be done until the Church comes to their assistance. In addition to the work of preaching and training of a Ministry, the young must be taught to know and follow the Good Shepherd. Who commanded His servants: "Feed my lambs." For this, the most successful work in building up a Christian nation, what is the Church doing? Until the present year, nothing was done for the Japanese youth by the Church, except what could be given by the already overtaxed clerical Missionaries. Within the last six months, a teacher has been sent out; a gentleman well qualified by education and experience for his position. In Osaka, also, a school was opened last year, and would be very successful if we had suitable buildings. As yet we have no lay teacher, the work being done by the clerical Missionaries. Given the buildings and the teachers, schools are very successful in Japan; we should never want for scholars. What is the Church doing for the girls of Japan, in the work of training them for Christian mothers? She has at Tokio, about fifteen girls crowded into close, inconvenient quarters, wholly unsuited for school purposes. One lady-teacher is sent out for this school, situated in a city containing more than a million of souls! In Osaka, a city having a population equal to that of Chicago, is a school of seventeen girls, with one lady teacher.

THE LIVING CHURCH.

The letters of the Swiss Old Catholic Bishop,

(in the Berner Catholik,) who has been received with so much honor by the General Convention of the United States, exhibit a grand and beautiful picture of Christian and Churchly activity.

We had scarcely any idea of it, and it is calculated to inspire our Church activities with new hope and courage. The American Episcopal Church, the sister-Church of the English, ex-political construction of the Church.

cousness from warming and healing this people, The Old Catholics in Switzerland. great will be their blessedness and ours! [The following letter, under the initials F. M., (Rev. Professor F, Michelis,) appeared in the Deutscher Merkur of November 20, 1880. It is translated for the LIVING CHURCH by a correspondent in Baden-Baden.

The need for vigorous and immediate effort is most urgent. No nation known to history has undergone in so short a time the changes that have taken place in Japan within the last twentyfive years. Only a few years ago, she was almost a terra incognita. The foot of the barbarian was not allowed to profane the sacred soil of the Country of the Gods". The Feudal System obtained. Death was the penalty for being a Christian. Everything foreign was looked upon with suspicion.

What a change has taken place! Japan rapidly taking a prominent position among the nations; the Feudal System overthrown without a revolution; Western ideas and customs rapidly adopted; foreigners admitted to certain ports; Christianity tolerated; the old religions gradually losing ground. When the next step in advance shall have been made, and the whole country opened to foreigners, will the Church be ready to seize the opportunity, and to meet the demands which will be made upon her from all quarters of the Empire? JOHN MCKIM.

The Free Church Reform.

A movement is making to extend the slowly but steadily widening interest in the Free-Church potentiality for the development of mankindthat she advances in all directions, spiritually system. The Free-Church Reformers are so profoundly convinced of the truth and importand organically, towards Catholicism, towards a ance of the cause they advocate, that their words really comprehensive fellowship. The reason why this has not been realized lies in the heretihave something very like a missionary ring about them. The genius of the Church is on their side, cal pretensions of the Vatican. I do not say, in holding firmly the thought of a primacy (which and, we think, her interests as well. Not every one admits this, as yet, but the number who do not only coincides with Episcopal Order, but so, is growing yearly larger, and will grow.

New York has, as many of the readers of the LIVING CHURCH know, a Free Church Guild; not dentical, but in friendly relations, with the Free Church Association. At present, they are holding a series of popular meetings. The first was held on March 24th, at All Saints, Henry Street. Besides the Rector (the Rev. William M. Dunnell), there were present, in the chancel, the Rev.

Drs. T. M. Peters and Thomas Gallaudet, the Rev. Messrs. F. C. Putnam, of St. Paul's, Jerneed not be scared by these rights of history. sey City, and the Rev. J. H. Appleton, of St. Barnabas'. The Rev. Mr. Dunnell, after prayers were said, addressed the congregation on the subject of the Guild's work. In the course of his remarks, the reverend speaker stated, that the organization had been begun ten years ago, and that, by means of sermons, addresses, pamphlets, etc., it had been constantly bringing the Free Church system before the public. It could now be said of the results of the movement in general, that 70,000, or one-third of the Church's entire number of communicants, belonged to misconception is the heresy of the Vatican. The self-sustaining free Churches. The total amount of the Offerings of these Churches averaged $1,183,616 per annum, or $17 to each communicant.

A paper from the President of the Guild (the Rev. Dr. Geer), was read in his absence. The systematic free-will offering was, he claimed, the main issue, to point out certain evils. In this matter of raising revenue, there must be some thing, and it showed the life that exists in Gerconscience. Fairs, lotteries, raffles, etc., are out man Old-Catholicism. But it is only a step of the question, because they are a way of pulling down with one hand, what we try to build up with the other. Unless our methods have an

A Sermon and a Lecture.

Heavenly Citizenship.-St. Patrick. From our Baltimore Correspondent.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 22, 1881.

On Thursday evening last, the Rev. Dr. F. C. Ewer, of St. Ignatius Church, N. Y., preached at Mount Calvary Church. He took for his text those words of St. Paul, "Our conversation is in heaven;" and during the whole time of the delivery of his sermon, which occupied nearly three quarters of an hour, riveted the attention of the large congregation which was present. He preached entirely without notes, and with un-tends its organization, in a truly Christian sense, usual freedom and fluency. He said that the not only over the North American Continent, word "conversation" meant literally-a turning (from the extreme limits of which, as Bishop with, a walking with, a daily walk with those Herzog writes, some have come a longer journey around us-a citizenship. What does this than he did from Switerland to New York,) but citizenship require of us? First, a uniformityeven as far as Asia and distant lands. As not a Chinese uniformity-that may be Romish; they rest upon Episcopal order, and hold firmly but certainly not Catholic. The uniformity of the presence of Christ in the Sacraments, like the Catholic Church is not that of the blade of the English Church, there are undoubtedly here grass, but of the trees. Our citizenship requires the real conditions, not only for intercommuncourage and patriotism. In foreign countries ion, but for a truly Christian reunion. I fancy there were different classes of citizenship; but in that for us Old Catholics in Germany such a farthe Church we are all nobles, aye and of royal reaching thought would not be too far-reaching. blood; for are we not brothers of the King, The Catholic Cnurch has attained her goal put members of His flesh, and of His bones? Our truth in comprehensiveness. Herein lies her citizenship calls for sanctity on our part; and of that sanctity the preacher wished particularly to Holy Eucharist without any communicants but speak. Sanctity is as pure within as it is without. As we walk along the street, how many hundreds do we meet, with all their cares, and the sins which they have committed, -so lately committed that the bell of conscience is still tolling and reminding them of them. We leave these wayfarers, and return to our homes; and, bounding would even be furthered by it); but the fault lies to meet us, their fair hair flying, their arms outin the pretensions of the Roman Bishops and stretched, and with bright faces, come the chil-Popes, who have become heretical through the dren who have known no sins. Fair innocence ! Yet innocence is not sanctity. Innocence is as We see, in this vast outlook of the American brittle as a glass shade; sanctity is as tough as Church, that we are face to face with the queswrought iron. Innocence has never resisted tion-Whether we, as in general matters so in temptation; but sanctity is strong in its victories Church affairs, can enter into the conception of over temptation. Take a japonica, what could the recovery of the Old World by means of the be more pure in its external beauty? but when New, as some imagine. History will always recut, and examined with a microscope, we find it tain her rights, but the real Old-Catholic idea full of cells, veins and sticky juice. But walk out in a lane in winter, and examine a drift of The position of the Papacy of the Middle Ages snow. It is pure without, and if you dig down is founded not only in a corruption of the into it you will find that it is pure within also. Church, but essentially in the course of history. This is sanctity. Sanctity is not a mere exterior; For a time it welded together the purely moral it is not going to Church, and using your prayer idea of a Church primacy, with the concentrated books; it is not a frequent reception of the Holy the Litany, I should think it was a matter of inempire of Rome over the world, an empire Eucharist, or going to missions, or retreats; but which closed one period of the Christian era. it is what a man is in his own home; it is what he That time is gone by. Not to have perceived does when out of church. Sanctity is charity. this is the sin of the Papacy since the time of There are two things which I would have you Boniface VIII., and to hang eternal truth on this remember this Lent-that charity is sanctity, and sanctity is charity. task of Old Catholicism, and above all of Old

A lecture of an entirely different character was Catholicism in Germany, is to oppose to this delivered at the chapel of the Church of the Romanism the pure idea of the Church as a Catholic and spiritual Body-not a political in-Ascension, on the same evening, by the Rev. Stuart Ross, of Belfast, Ireland. It was the stitution. That is the lofty ideal of Old Catholievening of St. Patrick's day, and the subject of cism, and it ought to be distinctly understood. the lecture was the life of St. Patrick, the The signs of the times knock loudly at the door only true Christian method of supporting public of our consciences, and bid us not hesitate to great Apostle of Ireland. A large audience was Worship. He went somewhat aside from the grasp this subject in its greatness and truth. present, and the "True Blue, Loyal Orange The recent Congress at Baden-Baden was a good Lodge, No. 95," occupied the gallery. The first Church (Rev. Dr. Hodges, Rector) on Sunday morning, and confirmed a class of thirty-two persons. On Sunday evening, he confirmed fifteen in St. James' (colored) Church.

The Rev. George D. E. Mortimer, who for some months past has been acting as assistant minister of the Church of the Ascension, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning last. Mr. Mortimer has accepted a call to St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia, where he will fill the position of Associate Rector with the Rev. C. George Currie. Ρ.

What Service should be used at Mid-Day.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

A correspondent, in your issue of March 26th, asks: "Suppose the practice of Early Communion becomes general in a given church. what Service would be said at mid-day?" He adds: "Surely not Matins, for that, as its name indicates, is an Office to be said early in the day," etc. I should say in answer, that, without doubt the proper Service for mid-day on Sundays, is the Holy Eucharist, for it is the Service of our Lord's own institution, while Matins and Evensong are Services of man's institution. The difficulty that your correspondent has, in reconciling the practice of a Celebration of the the Priest, with the language of Article XXI.. arises from a misconception of the meaning of that Article. No one would suppose that the Sacrament was ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, because a congregation of reverent Christians comes to worship a present Lord at midday, when they have already received Him fasting early in the morning. That a Celebration without any Communicants but the Priest is not contrary to the mind of the American Church appears from a comparison of her rubrics for the Eucharist with those of the Church of England. The English rule requires two or three Communicants to receive with the Priest, but our Prayer Book has simply left out that direction. On the principle of "Omission is Prohibition." the Priest in our Church is forbidden to require the presence of any Communicants to receive with him. And we do "duly use," the Sacrament of the Eucharist when we "do this," i. e., "Offer this" in remembrance of our Lord.

With regard to your correspondent's other question about the use of the "Let us pray," in difference to the rubric whether the words "Let us pray," were used before the prayer "We humbly beseech Thee," or not. On general principles, it is always right to say "Let us Pray" before a Collect, after versicles and responses have been used. A. R.

History of the Biblical Revision.

The new Revision movement originated nearly twelve years ago, with the Convocation of Canterbury, by the appointment of a Committee of eminent Biblical Scholars and dignitaries of the Church of England, with power to revise for public use the authorised version of 1661, and to with them representative Biblical scholars of other religious bodies using the authorized version. To enlist the sympathies and the active cooperation of all Christians speaking the English language, the movement became international and interdenominational, for not only was the American Church invited by Convocation to cooperate, but also the denominations of English Christians, by means of representative Biblical scholars of eminent competency. Cardinal Newman as well as Dr. Pusey were both asked to join it, but both declined, and amongst the revisers we find the names of Dr. Moulton (Weslevan), of Dr. Vance Smith (a Socinian), and of Dr. Angus, (the President of the Baptist College). By such a representative character of the revision Company, three advantages were hoped for. Firstly, that it would prevent any objection, taken on the ground that the revision is the work of one body of Christians only, with a sinister view to support its own distinctive interpretation of Scripture as a distinct Church. Secondly, that it would bring to the practical work of revision all the talent and learning necessary for its complete success, not only from inside, but also from outside the pale of the Church; and, thirdly, that it would secure for the revised Bible a claim on the acceptance of all Churches, as the common work of all. The principles laid down by Convocation for the guidance of the Revision Company show very tian world an entirely new version, but a more completely revised version of a revised version, 'Confessions of St. Patrick," a work written by erally known as King James'. These principles are consistently with faithfulness. 2. To limit, as It would therefore seem that the Church of Rome time finally. 4. That the text to be adopted be is in a dilemma. She has canonized St. Patrick; that for which the evidence is decidedly preponand yet, according to the Creed of Pius the IV., derating, and that when the text so adopted diffor the next meeting. 7. To revise the headings The Rt. Rev. Bp. Pinkney visited St. Paul's of chapters, pages, paragraphs, italics and

APRIL 16, 1881.

the

for

Here again, the Church compares unfavorably with other religious bodies. There are four single ladies connected with the Congregational Mission in Osaka, and three Sisters with the Roman Mission. The contrast is even greater between the Missions at Tokio.

In this letter I have only attempted to show, in a general way, what the Church is and is not doing for the cure of souls in Japan. In a future letter, I may describe our work, and the methods of doing it. Never was a field more promising, more ready for laborers, than this Land of the Rising Sun. If we can but have help in scattering and driving away the clouds of superstition and ignorance away the clouds of superstition and ignorance that now hinder the rays of the Sun of Right-have blossomed on slimy, stagnant waters.

ethical and spiritual aspect, the Church will fail Grace Chapel, and though little known to the of doing its work. Make-shifts and expediency will not do.

would continue to do so in the future.

sion to Deaf Mutes, stated his belief that the practicable. He believed, from his observation would be increased ten-fold. This way of giving was in keeping with the mission of the Holy surrounding neighborhood. In becoming free, the Churches would gain vastly in power.

Another and similar public meeting was announced to be held on Thursday evening, April the Beloved Disciple, and the Rev. Dr. Schenck, of Brooklyn, were to speak. In this connection, it must be interesting to the readers of the LIVING CHURCH to know, that since St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn, became a Church Parish, and Dr. Potter is himself the free Church, it has more than doubled the size President of the Board of Managers. This is of its ordinary Sunday congregations; and, what will be more to the purpose in the eyes of some charities in the city. The morally healthful and critics of the system, it has proved a financial success, enjoying a larger income than it did as a Missions have also increased. The congregation life, and in that life which is to come. is a wealthy one, and the experiment of doing without pews was interesting, because in our own land free Churches have heretofore been usually identified with parishes of comparatively humble pretensions. But in the new order of things (which is, in truth, the old and primitive), the rich and poor meet together, as they ought in God's House, and as they will in heaven. No inconvenience nor special unpleasantness-so far as we know-has resulted, but quite the reverse. We do no believe this parish would voluntarily return to the old system, if it could.

Beautiful lives have grown up from the dark-towards something greater and better.

Grace House in 13th St., N. Y., is in the rear of community at large, is doing a great deal of good among the surrounding poor. It is a kind of

The Rev. Dr. Peters, of St. Michael's, said, Day-Nursery, where mothers who are obliged that when he began his ministry there were but to leave their homes during the day to labor for three or four free Churches in New York; but a livelihood, can take their little children, and they had continued to grow in number, and know they will be kindly cared for in all respects, till they return for them at the close of The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, of the Church Mis- the day to take them home again. These little ones are from 10 months to 8 years of age, and only argument against the system, in the minds | the average number left here, daily, is seventyof the clergy at large, was the idea that it was im- five. As soon as they arrive in the morning, which is at 7 o'clock, they are carefully of facts, that if all Churches were free, their gifts | washed and a clean gingham apron it put upon them, and they are taken to the nursery-rooms on the second floor, where are toys and every-Catholic Church in this land, which was yet des- thing needed to make them comfortable and haptined to possess the land. We don't want half py. One room is provided with cribs, where measures. We want every seat free. The peo- the younger ones take their daily naps. There ple are tired of waiting to be seated. Strangers is also a school in the building, where all over are repelled rather than attracted. We want 5 years of age are taught for a short time each them to come in. Large free churches are need- day. The babies are fed in the nursery, but the ed, with guilds and organic charities to work in the larger children eat in the dining room. A blessing is asked on their food, which is of a suitable and excellent quality; and they are taught all the rules of good breeding. A competent physician visits the House, three times a 7th. at St. Ann's, Eighteenth Street, near Fifth week, and he is called in case of any sickness. Ave. The Rev. Mr. Warner, of the Church of Advice, and also assistance in many ways is give en to the mothers, when they need it. Moreover, garments are frequently provided; and, as a rule, the mothers seem grateful for all these helps. It is supported by the ladies of Grace certainly one of the most beautiful and desirable Christian influences which surround these little children of the poor, at such tender and impewed Church. Its charities and offerings to pressible ages, will continue with them in this

A thoughtful tenderness of each other's known weak points, a genial encouragement of each tastes, a self-restraint upon sharp criticisms or idle curiosity, all of these will grow naturally out of a genuine kindly respect for that something in another which he calls, himself. If such an element could be rooted in the character under the fostering influences of a happy home, it would be a potent aid in making the next generation less irreverent, unscrupulous and reckless. A. L. F.

authentic account of St. Patrick, said the lecturer, was the narrative of his capture by the Irish kings, when sixteen years of age, and of his having been held in captivity for six years. Having made his escape, he received an education in France, and studied the Canons of Germanus. His vision, in which he was called to labor in the cause of Christ among the Irish people, was vividly described, as also his subsequent great work in Ireland, in Antrim and Armagh, in the latter of which he founded the great cathedral. As to St. Patrick's being a Roman Catholic, Dr. Ross said he should be a recreant if he did not labor to rescue St. Patrick from such an association. The doctrines taught by St. Patrick were not those of the Roman faith, and to prove this assertion, many prominent authorities of the Roman Church were quoted from, none of whom mentioned St. Patrick as a Roman Catholic Bishop. The Irish Church existed free and unshackled for centuries; and it was not until the Council of Cashel in 1172, that King Henry, and the then Pope of Rome, combined to bring it under the Roman yoke. Brilliant in its history up to that date, it then-said the lecturer-lost its glory and its power. If then Romanism was unknown in Ireland until the twelfth century, how could St. Patrick have been a Roman Catholic ? Had St. Patrick been sent from Rome, his mision would have been mentioned by the Roman historians, as was that of Palladius, who was sent from Rome in the year 342, and whom the people of Ireland would not receive, but clearly that it is not intended to give the Chrisdrove out of the country. St. Patrick commenced his work in 343, but these historians make no allusion whatever to this fact. In the for such in reality was the version of 1611, genhimself, he distinctly sets forth the Articles of as follows:--1. To introduce as few alterations as his Faith, in which there is no mention made of possible into the text of the authorised version purgatory, transubstantiation indulgencies, invocation of saints or of anything else which is far as possible, the expression of such alterations distinctively Roman. And yet the Roman Church, to the language of the authorised or earlier verin the Creed of Pope Pius the IV. declares that sions. 3. Each company to go twice over the pornone can be saved who do not hold this Creed tion to be revised—once provisionally, the second

Not only between parent and child, but be- he is lost. Referring humorously to the legend fers from that from which the authorised version tween all the members of the family should a that St. Patrick had driven all the reptiles from was made, the alteration be indicated in the courteous recognition of eatch other's individ- Ireland, the lecturer went on to say, that the only margin. 5. To make or retain no change in the reptiles now in Ireland, are political agitators, text, on the second final revision by each comand he wished another St. Patrick would arise pany, except two-thirds of those present approve other's peculiar excellencies, a good natured in- and rid the land of them. He did not want to of the same; but on the first revision to decide see them injured, but would like to see them by simple majorities. 6. In every case of proplaced in dungeons until they learned common posed alteration that may have given rise to dissense. It was to them in great part that the dis- cussion, to defer the voting thereon till the next tress in Ireland was due. Mr. Ross was followed meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by the Rev. Campbell Fair, D. D., Rector of the by one-third of those present at the meeting; Parish, who made an address on the "present such intended vote to be announced in the notice condition of Ireland."

unctuation. 8. To efer, on the part of each ompany when considered desirable, to divines. scholars, and literary men, whether at home or sbroad, for their opinions."

After all, however, the issue is only tentative: and will be, as it ought to be, subjected to the everest ordeal of free and open criticism, and to the unprejudiced tribunal of public opinion, before it is accepted as a final settlement, at least for some considerable epoch, of a grave and weighty problem.

Conway, Arkansas. Correspondence of the Living Church.

The accounts furnished in the LIVING CHURCH. Church is what the people need.

by a Missionary of a southeastern diocese: "The Church needs to have patience with her Mission- President; Mrs. James Gilfillan, Treasurer; Miss aries." And to no part of the country will this Nannie Braden, Secretary; Rev. Henry Kittson, remark apply better, than to the diocese of Ar- Chaplain. kansas. It has often been observed by persons living here, that the people of this State do not take very well to the Episcopal Church; while the fact is, that most of the people know nothing whatever of the Church, The general impression they have of it is, that it is a second edition of ment of the General Theological Seminary, New immediate duties, is thus neighbor to those who the Roman Catholic body. And they judge this, by seeing, or hearing from others, that the minister wears a white garment, and uses a Form of Public Prayer.

no doubt, been much preaching through the brother and sister, contributed $50,000, and the stone rectory, to be completed in the spring. country, and most of the people hold to some father $25,000. It gives us pleasure to mention kind of belief. As they class themselves under such gifts, and we may here remark on the value persons at Wyandotte, and one at Trenton. the name of some denomination or other, very of such an Institution. There is a staff of seven few are inclined at first to come at all to our Professors, and a theological course covering quiet Services; but when they do come, they seem three years. This course is taken after young to be impressed and interested. Many are men have left college. Three years are not too heard to say that they are tired and dissatisfied long for theological studies. How much more livered in the sign language, and read audibly by with sensational preaching, and they do not go valuable is such an Institution to collect candi- the Rev. Dr. Worthington. Bishop Harris then any more, although they used to belong to such dates from various Dioceses for thorough training, confirmed three of Mr. Mann's deaf-mute cateand such a denomination.

There is to be noticed a special want of rever- Universities, or small Divinity Schools in each ious interest. The tolling bell is heard for a fu- everything, and where the few students receive of St. John's. neral, and bodies are interred without any regu- a narrow and necessarily imperfect training. lar religious Services. I hear that it is only when Would that the means could be found to endow a person has belonged to some Society or Order, a similar institution in these Provinces, and that that any Burial Service is expected. The Mis- the Dioceses would combine on some one instisionary cannot but feel a great interest in his tution with a staff of Professors, where the difteaching and order of the Church will ere long taught. There is no greater safeguard against success

Roman Catholics have but lately built a church, brew and Greek Exegesis, under which we suf-

St. Luke's Hospital, St. Paul. Correspondence of the Living Church.

The Annual Meeting of the Trustees of this excellent institution, was held in St. Paul. March 25th. The Reports of its officers show that it has been doing a good work. The Trustees are the owners of a fine property, upon which they have paid several thousand dollars; their present indebtedness upon it being $3,000.

The number of patients during the past year was 119, of whom 97 were pay-patients; the re mainder, charity. 79 were male, and 49 female patients.

The Hospital was organized in 1873, and ha cared for 683 patients in all. The cost of maineach week, of Parish and Missionary work going tenance for the past year has been $3,563, of on in all parts of the country, are of great inter- which sum $1,910 was received from private paest to its readers. It is an encouragement to all tients; $345, cash donations from Christ Church; who are interested in the good work, to learn by $681 from St. Paul's Church; and $645 from dothe recorded experience, that the teaching of the nations and entertainments. The year closes with a balance of $33.95 in the Treasury. The In a late issue of your paper, it was well stated officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Mrs. Henry Hale, President; Mrs. S. D. Barton, Vice-

Munificent Endowment. From the Church Guardian, Nova Scotia.

An appeal was made in New York about a year ago for $25,000.00 to supplement the Endow-York; the oldest and most honourable of the live miles away, Theological institutions in our sister Church. We are glad to chronicle that $118,000 have than the system of having Divinity Chairs in chumens.

England nor here can theology be studied with | ly with his rector, the Rev. Wm. J. Roberts.

The town of Conway, the County-seat of an Arts Course. One or the other must suffer. Faulkner County, is on the Little Rock & Fort While, therefore, rejoicing over the prospects of ington, as Dean of Convocation, ministered to Smith R. R., about thirty miles northwest of the Seminary, we lament the lack of larger op- the congregation of St. Matthew's Mission Little Rock. Both town and country are fast portunity for acquiring systematic and thorough Detroit, and baptized fifteen infants and children. settling up; people from other States and foreign instruction in Dogmatic Divinity, Pastoral The- The Sunday-school has reached an average atcountries, are coming daily to make homes. The ology, Ecclesiastical History, Canon Law, He- tendance of more than seventy persons. fer here in these Lower Provinces.

THE LIVING CHURCH.

Michigan.

Correspondence of the Living Church.

The Rev. Chas. De Lancey Allen has resigned the rectorship of St. Paul's Church, EastSaginaw, and taken letters dimissory to the diocese of Missouri. The vacant parish, now happily free from debt, will doubtless become one of the strongest in the diocese.

On Sunday, March 13, the Rev. Milton C. Dotten formally assumed charge of the mission at Greenfield, on Woodward Ave., about two miles beyond the city limits. There is a fine brick chapel there, entirely free from debt. The temple of "living stones" is very small. Mr. Dotten will minister at this mission-point on alternate Sunday afternoons. His attractive and growing city-parish occupies the quarter nearest to the Greenfield mission; and his Greenfield parishioners have daily occasion to pass by Emmanuel Rectory on Woodward Ave. Mr. John B. Price, a Detroit business-man living at Greenfield, will officiate as lay-reader on the alternate Sundays. Mr. Dotten presented himself before the mission congregation with dignity and tact, and has already taken a warm place in their hearts. After Service, the congregation remained, to take their new pastor by the hand. He has evinced his willingness to be a pastor indeed, by visiting the sick, carrying with him the Good Samaritan's oil and wine. Honor is due to the city rector, who, without neglecting his more

Bishop Harris visited Ann Arbor on March 13th, confirming a class of ten persons. The been subscribed, all but $2,000 of which have students attended the Service in very large num-I cannot learn that the Services of the Church been paid. Of this, $75,000 have been given by bers. The new stone chapel is enclosed, and have been held in this County (even in the Coun- the Hoffman family. The present Dean is the awaits milder weather for the completion of the ty-seat), until the past few months. There has, Rev. Eugene A. Hoffman, D. D. He with his interior. The foundation has been laid for a At recent visitations, the Bishop confirmed two

> On the evening of Sunday March, 20th, a special Service for deaf-mutes was held at St. John's Church, Detroit. The sermon, by Rev. Mr. Mann (the deaf-mute missionary), was de-

The Rev. L. S. Stevens has returned to his ence, and a need of a higher standard of relig- Diocese, where one man is supposed to teach home at Saginaw City, and resumed work as rector

The Bishop visited the parish at Hudson, on Monday, March 21, conferred with the vestry, presided at a parish meeting, and arranged for the reorganization of the Sunday-school. The Services are suspended. The parish has a very work, as he has reason to believe that the holy ferent branches of theology could be properly handsome church, and finds its debt some $2,500, a very heavy load to carry. It has lost much in take effect. He finds the need of going about narrow and one-sided views than such a course the removal of its devoted Senior Warden, Mr. from house to house; and as the people are kind of Divinity. We often wonder how our younger Wm. J. Mosher, who, by a strange coincidence, and well-disposed, he thus hopes for ultimate clergy know as much as they do. Neither in became a resident of Detroit almost simultaneous

On Sunday, March 20th, the Rev. Dr. Worth-

Brooklyn, Long Island.

And may our Heavenly Father who has tractive Services are drawing numbers from the taught us, in His Holy Word, that he does not other religious hodies around. She herself und willingly afflict or grieve the children of men, look upon her with love and mercy, sustain her in her affliction, comfort her in her sorrow, and at last bring her to His everlasting Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen. Resolved, That these Resolutions be placed upon the records of St. Thomas' Church, Am-Watson

REV. N. W. HEERMANS, Rector. FRANCIS HUDSON, Sr. Warden. E. M. TRAVERS, W. D., Jr. Warden. JOHN GUNNING. Sect., Vestry.

Church Work.

Quincy.-The history of many of our smaller parishes has greatly changed, with the division three years ago, he found it in debt and much of our State into three dioceses, and with the disorganized. Under God's blessing, he has better supervision of Church-work thereby afforded to our spiritual Fathers.

State and Diocese, Zion Church, Mendon, through no fault of its own, has grown but little since it was organized more than forty years ago. A few faithful Church families, old residents of the town, have continued loyal to the Church of their baptism, through many trials and discouragements, and long years of a vacant pastorate. With the beginning of life in the new diocese of Quincy, however, this little parish, like many others, has renewed its strength. Under the faithful ministrations of that laborious Missionary, the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, the parish enjoyed a year of semi-monthly Services, in connection with its sister parish, Warsaw. For a year and a half, it has been served twice a month from the Cathedral in Quincy; and results are beginning to show themselves. A new church building has taken the place of the little old structure, which, for oddity and inconvenience of arrangement, had perhaps but few equals in the diocese. The new building is much larger than the old, and in every way better fitted for divine Service. The friends of the parish are but waiting for the advent of settled weather, to put the finishing touches upon the almost completed building. To the self-denial of the small handful of Church-people composing the congregation, and to the liberality of friends, both within and without the town itself, the project of building has been carried to a successful issue. We hope to chronicle, for the benefit of those of your readers who care for home news, an early account of the full completion and Consecration of this second church in X. the diocese of Quincy.

On Friday, March the eighteenth, the Rt. Rev. Geo. F. Seymour, D. D., Bishop of this Diocese, visited Trinity Church, Jacksonville, for the purpose of administering Confirmation. After Evening Prayer, the Bishop preached to a large congregation. His sermon was an eloquent presentation of the power of the Church Year, and full of instruction for this holy Lenten season. After the sermon, our Rector (Rev. J. D. Easter, D. D.) presented to the Bishop, for the rite of "Laying on of Hands," a class of seven adults. After the ceremony, the Bishop addressed the candidates with some earnest words of counsel and exhortation, words, which we hope, will not be forgotten.

It may interest your readers to know that this sides at the organ, and leads the choir, which her skill and patience have trained with such excellent results.

We are pleased to learn that St. Paul's parish, Leavenworth, of which the Rev. F. W. Barry is boy, and also a copy be furnished the LIVING Rector, has decided to build a Rectory; five lots CHURCH for publication, and a copy to Mrs. having been purchased for the purpose, immediately opposite the church. "The Rev. Mr. Barry," says the Leavenworth Times, "has taken hold of the matter with his characteristic energy; and the completion of the building is now only a question of time." It is pleasant to note the cordial and kindly feeling which manifests it elf toward the church and its representatives in this city. When our reverend brother came to the parish, succeeded in freeing it from its financial burden; and its membership is large and united. We Within a few miles of the city of Quincy, in bid both pastor and people a hearty "Godone of the oldest parochial organizations of the speed." in the work which they have on hand at present.

> Pennsylvania.—Parish Year-Books and Registers are coming into such general use, that all we can undertake to do, is, to note any peculiar features which may present themselves. Their multiplication, if we judge rightly, is a favorable indication, as it goes to show that our parochial organizations are not ashamed to make known what they are doing. It is, to our mind, a very legitimate way of letting our light so shine before men, that they, seeing our good works, may glorify-not us, but-our Father Which is in heaven.

This train of thought was suggested by the receipt of a modest little Year-Book, containing a record of the work for 1880-81 at St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, Pennsylvania, of which the Rev. Robert Evans Dennison is Rector, and Messrs. J. Vaughan Merrick and Wm. P. Stroud are respectively Rector's Warden and Accounting Warden.

In this Report of Work, we notice some gratifying features, which, we are thankful to say are becoming less and less exceptional, as year follows year. For instance, we find mention of Daily Morning Prayer, besides other work-day Services; weekly Celebration (on every Sunday, at 7 A. M.,) and a second either at 9 or 10 A. M.; Celebration also on all Saints' Days and Holy Days. During Lent two Services, daily, together with a third on Wednesday evenings, and an early Celebration on Thursdays, at 7 A. M.

The church is open daily throughout the year, from sunrise to sunset, for private devotion; and all the seats are unappropriated. The entire work of the parish is sustained and carried on. by means of the offerings collected during the Service. In this connection, and in view of the recent discussion upon the "Free Church System," the tables which are appended have a peculiar interest; in which there is a comparison of the results attained under the two systems respectively, for so long a period as seven years under each. The following is-in part-the outcome:-During the seven years ending with 1873, under the Pew System, the net gain in the number of Communicants was 24. During the seven years ending with 1880, the net gain was 141. Again, during the first named period, the aggregate of pecuniary contributions for all objects, was and a commodious school-house, and they are now at work on an Orphanage. They have also another establishment at the next County-seat, west. There are several Priests and a Sisterhood regularly and actively at work.

Last October, a number of the people here applied to Bishop Pierce, to send a Minister to the place, or at least to have occasional Services held here, as the Episcopal Church was needed. The Bishop complied with their request, and a parish was organized. Since that time Services have been held in the Court House, every Sunday morning and evening, and Sunday School in the afternoon. When the Bishop first came seven were confirmed. He came again in a few weeks, to supply the place of the Missionary while he went away for his family.

The regular seasons of the Church have been duly observed. There was much interest taken in the Christmas Festival. There are but few members of the Church, but there is a good will to work together, and to take direction from the Pastor. A Ladies' Aid Society has been formed, two for Confirmation, within the space of ten and meetings have been held at private houses. An entertainment was held at the Court House, from the proceeds of which, lamps, lately pur chased for Evening Services, were paid for. The Missionary recently visited Little Rock, and procured contributions from different Church families. A Festival, including the sale of fancy and useful articles, was held in the large Town Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Society, and a sum amounting to at least $40, was realized, which, with other contributions, was devoted to the purchase of an organ.

The work is encouraging. A great many tracts and books have been procured and circulated; and a great many more are needed. Any books or other appropriate gifts, will be thankfully re-P. A. JOHNSON, Missionary. ceived.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

laid on both hands; then marked the cross an "approach to" it. upon the forehead, with oil; and then gave the C. B. A. blow upon the cheek.

New London, Ct.

A writer in the Interior attributes the lack of growth in the Presbyterian Communion, to the alienation of the children of believers from the Church. The cause of this he finds in the neglect of home training and the substitution of common schools for parochial schools, the change "from a religious to a godless education".

Champaign Associate Mission .- During the last two weeks, the Bishop of the Diocese has addressed, with all his usual power, large congregations in Sadorus, Philo, Sidney, Homer, Thampaign, and Monticelly. Nine persons were Sidney, and two in Homer. Sidney and Monti- alone is worth the price of the paper for a year. cello had never before listened to a Bishop. In Monticello, the number present was comparatively small, on account of a mistake about sending a ready reason to give for the faith that is in them. notice. The congregations at all these points The printing is done by the Orphans' Press of hold their own, and gain somewhat, although the Church Charity Foundation. The Orphans' only able to have one Service per month, and Press has also recently printed the Eighth Annual that nearly always on a week-day. The organist Report of St. John's Hospital, and of the Atlantic mud in order to attend. The Rev. W. C. Hopkins, with these six congregations on his hands, is hoping to be relieved ago, and is still unfinished. It is, however, proof several, as soon as an efficient priest can be secured. They have together presented thirty-months.

L.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

Laying on of Hands," in the case of those who see this noble building, which is founded on the have been nominally confirmed in the Church of plan of St. Luke's Hospital, New York City, fin-Rome, I once convinced a very intelligent and ished and occupied. well informed Romanist, that it was her duty to be confirmed, by showing her from her own lantic Ave. Dispensary. This Institution is sus-Catechism that just as the Church of Rome had tained by appropriations from the city. It rethe Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, she had, by The services of the most skilful physicians and supreme power, robbed her children of the essential sign and seal in Confirmation, by taking away the laying on of the Bishop's hands. "The slap on the Cheek," mentioned by E. P.

error, when he says "It is notorious that there is believe, to symbolize the candidate's exposure to Preamble and Resolutions were acted upon and no laying on of hands in the Roman Catholic the buffets and assaults of the world; aud there- passed: confirmed a class here, in the Summer of 1879, he substitute for the Laying on of Hands, nor even Illinois, has given into the hand of our Rector,

A device has been introduced in the sleeping rooms of some of the fire-engine houses in New York, by which the bedclothes are automically pulled of the beds and lifted up towards the ceiling on a night-alarm of fire. This should be utilized in families where there are growing boys. It is undoubtedly a long-felt want. There's millions in it.

Floods in Nebraska have destroyed a large amount of stock, and the bodies of several persons have been found.

In St. Mary's parish, Brooklyn, a little paper of done, and a variety of organizations, rarely to be contains a historical tract, copyrighted by the Rev. E. A. Bradley, of Christ Church, Indianap-The clearly outlined facts and dates can easily be committed to memory by those who desire to have and choir in Homer came seven miles in deep Ave. Dispensary, on the Church Charity Foundation. The new Hospital building, which is large and commodious, was commenced four years gressing according to the means furnished. Women and little children, scattered through the diocese, give their small but precious offerings, amounting in the aggregate thus far to more than $40,000; while individuals of financial ability, from time to time, have made generous endow-In this matter of the administration of "The ments. It is to be hoped that another year will Bound up with this Report is that of the Atassumed the authority to change the Saviour's lieves the needy who call at its doors, and also appointment by refusing the cup to the laity in those who apply for treatment at their homes. the same arbitary and unlawful assumption of surgeons are freely given without charge. It is a blessed charity for the sick and suffering poor.

At a meeting of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Thomas' Church, Amboy, held on W., in your issue of March 12th, is intended, I the evening of January 19th, 1881, the following

WHEREAS, Mrs. M. Watson, of Tonica, (One Thousand Dollars), toward building a Rectory for St. Thomas' Church, Amboy, Illinois, Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Rector, Wardens, and Ves-trymen of St. Thomas' Church, duly convened, that we accept this munificent gift; and in ap-preciation thereof, we extend to Mrs. Watson our sincere and grateful thanks. And furthermore, we wish also to extend to her our sympathy and Christian love in the recent sad bereavement she has sustained, by the death of her husband.

one of the oldest parishes in the State, seems to eight pages has been started, called St. Mary's be deepening its spiritual life. The attendance Parish Record. It shows an amount of work at the Lenten services, which are held every afternoon, and Wednesday evening, has increased found in one parish. The last leaf of the Record from the beginning, and is larger now than it has ever been in the history of the Parish. There is also a revival of interest in the parish Guild, confirmed in Champaign; three in Philo; three in olis. It is "The Church in a Nut-shell", and it and the outlook is bright for the future, which, we are sure must encourage the heart of our faithful Rector.

> Albany.-Zion Church, Morris, is one of the historical parishes of the diocese, having been in existence more than a century, and admitted into the Convention of New York in 1793. It will perhaps be remembered by some as the only parish ever administered by Bishop Tuttle during his ministry, before going to Utah. A rural parish with 250 communicants, two stone churches (Zion Church itself, and the Morris Family Memorial Chapel, three miles distant) and a Rectory. may be considered "phenomenal"; and the more so, as they are held without debt, and with partial endowment. The present Rector is the Rev. Edwin Coan, late of the Cathedral Chapel in Albany. The Lenten Services (daily, and frequently twice daily) are largely attended, the Rector always giving an Address, an Instruction, or a Meditation, except at Litany Services. At afternoon Services the subject has been the Holy Gospel according to S. John; on Wednesday evenings, Church Polity, and on Friday evenings, the Penitential Psalms.

The musical Services, on Sundays and Holydays, are rendered by a large Antiphonal Choir, and sustained by a noble organ.

Kansas .- A young Churchman, who went from the East to make his home in Kansas, where there is no church, is working hard to build up a Sunday-School which shall be the germ of a future Church. He writes that the school is in a flourishing condition. As to the weather, "Such a severe winter was never known in Kansas before." We read about the suffering there, but have very little idea of its intensity. Horses in a sheltered stable, shook like aspen leaves, though they were covered with woolen and rubber blankets. Chickens, sheep, cats and dogs, though under shelter, all were more or less frozen. This, in a more Southerly latitude than Philadelphia. One earnest Churchwoman from New York city, who went to live in Chatauqua county, where were no Church Services, has set her sister a good example, by taking the not expect any pay. For Church with her to that border land. In less than a year, she has succeeded in organizing real a parish and building a church, where the at- nothing.

$30,715; during the latter period, $57,497. There are other interesting facts connected with this feature, which want of space forbids us to enlarge upon, but which are well worthy of investigation by those who may be interested in the subject. For four years past, there has been a surpliced choir; and a daily parish school has been in existence since 1872, which, for between four and five years, has been free. There are no fewer than thirteen organized branches of Church work, under the name of Guilds or Wards, each representing a good practical a.

North Carolina.-The Rev. John K. Mason. the efficient Rector of St. Peter's Church at Charlotte has been obliged to resign, his charge on account of failing health. His place will be temporarily supplied by the Rev. Lucian Holmes. In this parish is a converted Jew, from New York City, who, several years ago, received a most careful preparation for Baptism, in Trinity Infirmary, where he was baptized by the Rev. P. A. H. Brown, of St. John's Chapel, and was subsequently presented by Dr. (now Bishop) Seymour to Bishop Potter, for Confirmation, at a special Service in the Chapel of the House of Mercy, of which Institution Bishop Seymour had pastoral charge for twelve years. This devout and conscientious Israelite can be pointed out as genuine case of true conversion to Christianity, and as one having remarkable faith and steadfastness. His gratitude is unbounded towards those who were instrumental in bringing him into the Church where he is so happy. His pastor was so much pleased with his purity of life and Christian deportment, that he wrote to friends of the converted Hebrew, in New York, to express his gratification at such a rare and beautiful example.

Minnesota.—The new Parish to be or-ganized in St. Paul, at Easter, is to be called St. John the Evangelist; the Rev. Henry Kittson, Rector. Lots have been purchased for the site of a chapel, to cost $2,500, with accommodation for two hundred persons. It is to be immediately.

The following statistics are given by a contemporary diocesan paper in the issue current month:

"One thousand copies have been pri-month, of which about 700 are circula Diocese, and a considerable number a exchanges, and to friends of the Dioc our institutions in other parts of the For those which have been sent abro Of the 700 in 540 have received the 1. South The State State

John Wesley's Prayer Book.

To the Editor of the Living Church:

Some time ago, I found in a little book entitled, "A Methodist in Search of the Church," an allusion to the Prayer Book compiled by John Wesley, and sent by him to the Methodists in to present an extended review of the book; I will this country; but which the Methodists did not therefore note but a few particulars. allow to be very extensively used. It soon became practically unknown; and now I think there are very few who know that such a book contained a copy of this interesting relic, I have compared it with a copy of the Church of England Prayer Book, noting the changes and omissions throughout. Mr. Wesley seems to have aimed principally at brevity; but, in obtaining it, after Trinity, instead of the Absolution. he has sacrificed some things that we hold to be of great importance. On the fly-leaf of this time-stained, leather-bound volume, I find the following note:

America in sheets, by Dr. Coke, in 1784, and Rulers of the United States, Prayer of St. Chrywas used by the Preachers for a short time. The letter, (dated Bristol, Sept. 10, 1784,) was printed in this country; and, together with the ing Prayer is essentially the same, the Cantate nrst Methodist Discipline, bound up with the the Deus Misereatur being the anthems. Liturgy. See Bampton Lectures, "Religious The Athanasian Creed is omitted. The Enthusiasm considered in eight sermons;' by G. F. Mott, Oxford, 1803, 8vo. Also "History and Mystery of Methodist Episcopacy," by Alexander McCain, Baltimore, Md., 1827, 8vo.

THE LETTER FROM MR. WESLEY.

BRISTOL, Sept. 10, 1784. To Dr. Coke, Mr. Asbury, and our Brethren in North America:

1. By a very uncommon train of providences; many of the provinces of North America are totally disjoined from their mother-country, and Services that are retained, the rubrics are so erected into Independent States. The English government has no authority over them, either civil or ecclesiastical, any more than over the States of Holland. A civil authority is exercised over them, partly by the Congress, partly by the Provincial Assemblies. But no one either exercises or claims any ecclesiastical authority at all. In this peculiar situation, some thousands of the inhabitants of these States desire my advice; and, in compliance with their desire, I have drawn up a little sketch.

3. Lord King's account of the primitive Church convinced me, many years ago, that Bishops and Presbyters are the same order and consequently have the same right to ordain. [Lord King is said, on good authority, to have changed his own opinion on this point .- ED.] For many years, I have been importuned from time to time, to exercise this right by ordaining part of our travelling preachers. But I have refused only for peace' sake; but because I was determined as little as possible to violate the established order of the National Church to which I belonged.

3. But the case is widely different between England and North America. Here, there are Bishops who have legal jurisdiction. In America are none to baptize or to administer the Lord's Supper. Here, therefore, my scruples were at I violate no order, and invade no man's rights by appointing and sending laborers into the harvest

4. I have accordingly appointed Dr. Coke and Richard Whatcoat and Thomas Vasey, to act as elders among them, by baptizing and administering the Lord's Supper. And I have prepared a liturgy, little differing from that of the Church of England, (I think the best constituted National Church in the world,) which I advise all the travelling preachers to use on the Lord's Day

Good Friday, Easter, Ascension and Whitsun day. All Fridays, except Christmas are "Days of Fasting or Abstinence." There is no calendar of Daily Lessons, and no means of finding Easter

It would take too much of your valuable space

Of the Sentences, Wesley retains only the following: "When the wicked man," etc. "The sacrifices of God," etc. "To the Lord our God," ever existed. Finding that the Seminary Library etc. "I will arise," etc., and "Enter not into judgment," etc.

In the Exhortation, he omits from "And although" to "Wherefore;" and after the Confession, inserts the Collect for the 24th Sunday

Then follows, The Lord's Prayer, Versicles; Gloria Patri, Psalter, Gloria Patri; First Lesson. Te Deum, Second Lesson, Jubilate, Apostles' Creed, etc., Collects, For the Day, For "This Prayer Book was brought out to North | Peace and For Grace, Prayer for the Supreme sostom, "The Grace," etc. The order for Even-

> The Athanasian Creed is omitted. The Litany remains with but a few verbal changes, to suit the change of government; so that the good Methodists were supposed to pray, "From all false doctrine, and schism," etc., "Good Lord deliver us." Our "Prayers and Thanksgivings" are cut down to "A Collect or Prayer for all Conditions of men," and "A General Thanksgiving. (See English Prayer Book.) In the occasional changed as to speak of Minister, Elder, or Superintendent, instead of Priest or Bishop. The Psalter is considerably mangled; some passages showing a retranslation. "A collection of Psalms and Hymns for the Lord's Day," published by John & Charles Wesley, follows; and the volume is closed by a series of conversations between Dr. Coke and others, which constituted > the first Methodist Discipline in America. T. [It will be seen by the above, that John Wesley did not pretend to ordain any Bishops. They were simply "Superintendents." When and by what process did they become Bishops? Methodist historians and theologians will please investigate.-EDITOR.]

Confirmation in the Roman Church. To the Editor of the Living Church:

I imagine from what your correspondent, "E. P. W." says on this subject, that he has never there are none, neither any parish ministers. So seen a Confirmation by a Roman Bishop. I have; that, for some hundreds of miles together, there and, in addition to the "slap on the cheek," the brow of each candidate was marked with the Sign an end; and I conceive mys lf at full liberty, as of the Cross, I suppose, with Chrism. Is this not "laying on of hands", and consequently Confirmation? If so, where the necessity for a repetition, any more than of Roman Baptism or Or-Mr. Francis Asbury to be joint Superintendents dination? But if the "slap on the cheek" were over our brethren in North America. As also all, is not the Administration complete? There is no direction in the Scripture or Prayer Book, as to how or on what part of the head the "Laying on of hands" shall be administered.

It is well to remember that all the Confirmation the English Reformers received, was by the Roin all their congregations, reading the Litany man form of Confirmation; and if Cranmer, Latonly on Wednesdays and Fridays, and praying imer, Ridley, and all the people of the English extempore on all other days. I also advise the elders to administer the Supper of the Lord on confirmed, are we not requiring rather more than

THE LIVING CHURCH.

The Resurrection.

Written for the Living Church. In a quiet garden

At the close of day, From the Cross they bore Him To the tomb away. And, with prayer and weeping,

The three Marys strove To recall His teaching And His dying love.

Through the long, still Sabbath Patiently they wait, Till the next bright dawning Shall unbar the gate.

Then the two sad Marys Hasten to the tomb,

Guarded by the sentries Of proud heathen Rome

Now the grave is open, And the soldiers flee, Christ the Lord is risen And from death is free See Him, meekly standing By the darksome grave! Christ, the great Redeemer,

Born to heal and save! Past the days of mourning,

Past the sacrifice! On this Holy East r Let your souls arise Alleluia! sing it Over earth and sea! Christ the Lord is risen,

And from death is free! ALICE GRAY COWAN.

Randolph, N. Y.

American Mission in China. Written for the Living Church.

wisely chosen by Bishop Schereschewsky, as the the manger. This cave, within, is all covered with central point of his work in China, adds greatly rich marble. Over the place where our Lord is to the interest one feels in the Mission; and it said to have been born is the great Church of St. aids in the attempt to comprehend the vastness Mary. and importance of that wonderful harvest field. Entering the city of Jerusalem, on the north It is well to speak, first, of the immense river on side, the first place to be visited, according to which his mission is situated. Some writers the disposition of the streets, is the church of count it second in length to none in the world, Constantine, called the Martyrdom. It was built not even our own Mississippi and Missouri com- by the Emperor Constantine, in a royal and bined; though by others, that might be ques- magnificent manner, on account of the cross of tioned. In importance, however, and in breadth our Lord having been found there by his mother and volume, the Great River of China far sur- Helen. From thenc , to the westward, appears passes our American River, and, if regard be had the Church of Golgotha, where is also to be seen to its tributaries, and in the cities to which its the rock which once bore the cross with our waters give access, to the richness of the soil, Saviour's body fixed on it; now it bears a large and the variety of products along its banks, and silver cross with a great brazen wheel hanging above all, to the vast population scattered far and over it, surrounded with lamps. Under the wide over the valleys and plains and hill-sides, place of our Lord's cross, a vault is hewn out of drained by it, and its confluents, the Yang-tze the rock, in which sacrifice is offered on an altar, has no equal on the globe. It rises in the moun- for honorable persons deceased, their bodies retains of Thibet, and pursues a tortuous course in maining meanwhile in the street. To the westa general northeast direction, till it enters the ward of this is the Anastasis, that is the round Yellow Sea, after having traversed a distance, in- Church of our Saviour's Resurrection, encomcluding its sinuosities, of about 3,000 miles. passed with three walls and supported by twelve The magnitude of this stream, even near its columns. Between each of the walls is a broad source, in the upper regions beyond the Bayen space containing three altars, at three different Khara mountains, must have been considerable, points. In the midst of it is the round tomb of for it was here, in the year 1845, that the our Lord, cut out of the rock, the top of which Missionary traveller M. Huc, saw a herd of wild a man standing within can touch. The entrance oxen that had perished by being frozen up in is on the east. Against it is still laid that great the ice while attempting to cross the river. stone. To this day, the tomb bears the marks of When it first starts on its winding way, it bears the iron tools within, but on the outside is covthe name of Mura Ussu, or Tortuous Waters. ered with marble to the very top. The roof is Later on in its journey, it is know as the River adorned with gold and bears a large golden cross. Later on in its journey, it is know as the River adorned with gold and bears a large golden cross. of Golden Sands. Then again it flows under In the north part of the monument the tomb of the name of Ta-Kiang, or Great River, and lastly, it is known as the Yang-tze-Kiang, Son of the feet in length, and three palms above the floor, merchants aimed. But this "Mouth of Commerce," as it is called, is rapidly rising from its ashes, and promises to be one of the greatest commercial centres in the world; and it is, because of the unobstructed communication by ship and steamer between this point and S han hai, at the mouth, of the Yang-tze, that Shanghai is engrossing the commerce of the emp re In Han-Kou, the London Society, the Romanists and the Wesleyans have their Missions; while across the River, in Wuchang, is our promising American Mission, with its energetic Bishop and his earnest, efficient wife, and their worthy assistants.

Holy Places. Written for the Living Church.

In the year 704 an interesting account was written of the places with the most important events in the life of our Lord. The description was written by Adamnan, a priest and abbot of the Monks that were in the Isle of Hu. The materials were furnished him by a French Bishop, who had gone to Jerusalem for the purpose of visiting the holy places. "Adamnan presented this book to King Alfred, and through his bounty it came to be read by lesser persons."

Bethlehem, the city of David, is seated on a narrow ridge, encompassed on all sides with valleys, being a thousand paces in length from east to west. The wall is low, with towers built along the edge of the plain on the summit. In the east angle thereof is a sort of natural half cave. The outward part thereof is said to be the place A thorough understanding of the locality so where our Lord was born; the inner is called For Young Men.

Great River or Son of the Sea; though it is said the entrance being in the north side, where

STEMARY'S SCHOOL

A Church School For Girls,

Founded 1868. Enlarged 1872.

Rev. C. W. LEFFINGWELL, D.D., Rector. THE EASTER TERM

Begins Monday, April 11th, and continues ten weeks. It is the pleasantest season of the year, and a good time for pupils to enter for review and preparation for a regular class next year. The term closes June loth, with the exercises of Graduates' Day. Two or three vacancies in rooms are now to be filled and early application should be made to the Rector, by letter to Knoxville, Ill., or in person at the office of the Living Church, Chicago, on Tuesday of any week.

Shattuck School.

Faribault, Minn. Offers the following advantages: It is a Church Boarding School. It has daily Services and positive Church teaching. It has both a Classical and an English Course of Study.

It employs only teachers of experience Its discipline is strictly watchful and just. It has a most beautiful and healthy location. Its grounds are large, comprising ninety acres. It gives all boys daily military drill. It has a first-class Gymnasium, Bowling Alley, Drill Hall, Reading Room, &c. Send for catalogue, with full particulars.

Rev. JAMES DOBBIN, Rector.

Female Seminary

Cleveland. Ohio. Next term begins Sept. 1, 1881. A healthy and pleasant location; ample and attractive accommoda-tions. Music in all its branches. Drawing and Paint-ing. Freach and German taught by masters. For catalogues or information, address S. N. SANFORD, President, Cleveland, Ohio.

College of St. James.

Grammar School. Diocesan School of Maryland. Bishop Pinkney Visitor. Re-opens on Wednesday, September 14th. For Circulars and information address HENRY ONDERDONK, College of St. James, Washington Co., Md.

The Misses Nisbett.

43 East 41st Street, New York. Two English ladies, the daughters and sisters of clergymen, receive a few boarding and day pupils. Instruction based on sound Church doctrine. Resi-dent Parisian governess. The best professors and teachers engaged.

Brook Hall Female Seminary, Media, Pa.

APRIL 16, 1881.

Vo

And

Wit

Of

of The pate and the pate and the cov wh He gr gas on old Fl every Lord's Day.

If any one will point out a more rational 5. At present I cannot see any better brace it. method than that I have taken.

6. It has indeed been proposed to desire the English Bishops to ordain part of our preachers | Confirmed. The custom of one of my Bishops for America. But to this I object: (1.) I desired the Bishop of London to ordain only one, but could not prevail. (2.) If they consented, we know the slowness of their proceedings; but but, upon hearing my reasons, was convinced, the matter admits of no delay. (3.) If they would ordain them now, they would likewise expect to govern them. And how grievously would this entangle us! (4.) As our American brethren are now totally disentangled both from the and compare it with Roman Confirmation. K. State and from the Hierarchy, we dare not entangle them again; either with the one or the other. They are now at full liberty, simply to follow the Scriptures and the primitive Church. And we judge it best that they should stand fast in that liberty wherewith God has so strangely made them free. JOHN WESLEY.

Then follows the title of the book: "The Sunday Service of the Methodists in North America; with other Occasional Services. London. Printed in the year MDCCLXXXIV."

PREFACE.

I believe there is no Liturgy in the World, either in any ancient or modern Language, which breathes more of a Scriptural, rational piety, than the Common Prayer of the Church of England. And tho' the main of it was compiled considerably more than Two Hundred Years ago, vet is the Language of it not only pure, but strong and elegant in the highest Degree.

Little alteration is made in the following Edition of it (which I recommend to our Societies in America,) except in the following instances:

1. Most of the Holidays (so-called) are omitted, as at present answering no valuable end.

2. The Service for the Lord's Day, the Length of which has been often complained of, is considerably shortened.

Some sentences in the Offices of Baptism and for the Burial of the Dead are omitted; and 4. Many Psalms are left out, and many Parts of others, as being highly improper for the mouths of a Christian congregation.

JOHN WESLEY BRISTOL, Sept. 9, 1784.

Going on to the Table of Lessons, I find that, having omitted most of the Holidays, he changes the names of the Sundays accordingly. Hence, from Christmas to Easter, the Sundays are all high as sixteen. The Collects, Epistles, and still read in our Protestant churches. Gospels, however, for the various Sundays of our Calendar are retained :---e. g. the Services for Septuagesima remain the same, though it is called "The eighth Sunday after Christmas." (Our second Sunday is ignored.) He also notices, besides Christmas, Good Friday and As- and provide homes for them in good families pect, but because the Chinese have, as it were, cension Day. He has adapted the table of Proper near by. Psalms (with a few omissions) for Christmas, we ought, if we require re-Confirmation? Situand Scriptural way of feeding and guiding those poor sheep in the wilderness, I will gladly em- Obedience I receive a great many into the Com-Obedience, I receive a great many into the Communion of our Church; but they add no units to the parochial report, in the item of the number was like that of Bishop Whitehouse, and based on the same reason. He objected to my custom; and gave up the point. I would advise E. P. W. to read in Blunt's Annotated Prayer Book, how Confirmation has been administered in England,

A Wide-Spreading Abomination.

The Rev. Rufus Clark, Jr., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Detroit, in a sermon preached the Sunday after the call of the Mayor, for a meeting of citizens to aid in the suppression of vice in that city, said:

With the ravages of drunkeness you are all familiar, and its terrors hardly a family circle in our midst has not been made to feel. One hundred thousand in our land slain every year, to say nothing of beggary and untold misery. But drunkeness is not the wide-spreading evil of our time. It is unwilling, unloving, unsanctified motherhood that in her recreancy defies all law, the law of God and man, and numbers among her victims all told, far more than alcohol. The which Marco Polo found in Central China, in President of the State Medical Association tells us, that in Michigan one mother to every ten is a China million and the state as having a circuit of one hundred China million and the president of the State Medical Association tells as having a circuit of one hundred them. The Plasters are greatly sought after and highly praised by all. murderer! And in this destruction of prenatal life six thousand mothers in our land find every year their graves. And all this not among those from other lands and of the Roman faith-for here is a vice over which, with its sister vice, divorce, Rome with her confessional holds a most salutary check-but in our Protestant homes, and not among the poor and uneducated, but among those in fashionable society. And not fashion. Mrs. Schereschewsky speaks of them ten thousand miles away in India, bear in mind. The Ganges knows no such tales to-day as have and supported on pillars with arches, in the been heard from a physician upon his death-bed in Eastern style, which always have a good effect." this city. Twenty-five hundred were the crimes In about two years after the port was opened, a of his-of one man's-abetting. It is a wonder called Sundays after Christmas, and number as that the command, "Thou shalt do no murder,"

To the Editor of the Living Church:

Mr. Dobbin wishes to know if there is any Church school for young children? We shall WM. POPE, Rector Church Good Shepherd, St. Paul.

that critics in the Chinese language claim that twelve lamps burn day and night. The stone Yang-tze does not mean Son of the Sea, but that was laid at the entrance of the monument something else. It is also called the Girdle of is now cleft in two; nevertheless the greater part China, from its connecting together all the cen- of it stands, a square altar before the door of the tral provinces of that mighty empire. The tide monument. The lesser part makes another ascends 450 miles from the sea; and, according square at the east end of the same church, and is to Chambers' Enclyopedia, it is navigable for covered with linen cloths. The color of the ships of the largest size, 900 miles from its monument and sepulchre appears to be white mouth, and for smaller vessels, 1,500 miles to and red.

Ichang. Its width, where it enters the sea, is 30 miles; but, eighty miles distant, it shrinks to a breadth of only one mile, and beyond that, it is variable. Sometimes it spreads out into magnificent lakes, with an area of hundreds of miles, and again it contracts to a stream 60 feet deep, at its highest, and only half a mile in width, flowing between towering cliffs on either side. Eight hundred and fifty English miles from its mouth, it receives a large tributary, known as the Han, which is, to the Yang-tze, what the Missouri is to the Mississippi. At the conflu-They are practically one city with a population of European invasion, at 8,000,000. Since its destruction during their civil war, Seward puts Electro Magnetic Co., destruction during their own war, so many part the population at one million, and those whose homes are afloat on the waters, at one hundred thousand. This is said to be the same city which Marco Polo found in Central China, in which Marco Polo found in Central China, in Chinese miles. At the treaty of Tien-Tsin, in 1861, the port of Han-Kow was declared open by James Hope and Sir Harry S. Parkes, C. B.; and there were great expectations of an immense trade, of which foreigners were to have the benefit. The site for a British settlement was selected, the building area was divided into lots, and houses were erected after the Shanghai as being "very handsome and substantial looking; great embankment and roadway had been completed along the river, which sometimes rises as high as fifty feet above its ordinary level, and lays a large part of the town under water. But after all this immense outlay, and splendid anticipations, the success of the foreign settlement has not been so great as was expected; and that, be glad to receive them at the Parish School, not from any misestimate of the trade in prosoutwitted the foreigners, and have secured to themselves the advantages at which European

The sun that rose on Easter has never set. It flooded the world with new hopes and glory, and marked a bright and shining way through all the shadows of death. We see that life is worth living, because life is endless, and life will at last be holy and happy.

Rejoice, believing hearts! For you the mighty Man rolled away the heavy stone from the tomb. For you, He clothed Himself again in the flesh. For you, he pleads and waits in Heaven.

Rejoice, ye ransomed! With carols greet this joyous morn. Press with glad step to the holy ence of these streams, we find three large cities, courts of your risen King, Worship Him in the namely, Han-Kow, Han-yang and Wu-chang. solemn Feast. Give Him of His own best gifts to you. Give Him, best of all, your hearts .-Bishop Brown. which M. Huc estimated, before the dark days

Chillicothe, O., April 1, 1881.

ed by all. Respectfully yours, Miss S. V. Briggs.

Brushton, N. Y., March, 29, 1881.

Brushton, N. Y., March, 29, 1881. J. C. Cushman, Esq.: Dear Sir—It bothers me to get good agents. I got one to work four weeks ago, at Madrid. I run on to him at Norwood, selling the self English Pad, calling it the Electro Magnetic, but he did not sell one. I sold seven of the Electro Magnetic one. I sold seven of the Electro Magnetic, but he did not sen Your friend, CHAS, A. GRIFFIN, Ag't for Franklin, St. Lawrence and Jefferson coun-

Fowlerville, N. Y., April 1, 1881.

Fowlerville, N. Y., April 1, 1881. J. C. Cushman, Esq.: Dear Sir—In every case where I can get the Electro Magnetic Pads on a fair test, they have given good satisfaction. It is mail time and I cannot say much about them now. I will write again soon. In haste, WM. M. CUSHMAN.

Lawrenceville, Gwinnett Co., Ga., March 31, '81 Ele-tro Magnetic Co.:

I have been wearing your Pad and would like the agency. If you wish me to handle the Pad please send me your terms. C. A. Cook.

Sparta, Wis., March 31, 1881.

J. C. Cushman,: J. C. Cushman,: Dear Sir—I am still satisfied that our Pad and Plas-ter are the best before the public. Whenever a Plaster seems necessary, ours is used, and scarcely Plaster seems necessary, ours is used, and scarcely ever fails to give complete satisfaction. A gentleman opposite my house, an invalid, from New York, with disease of the lungs, or bronchitis, came here for his health. He is improving, under the Pad and Plaster. Hope it may continue. Truly yours, S. W. DUNN, M. D. Gen. A'gt for Wisconsin.

St. John Baptist School, 233 East 17th St. New York.

Under the charge of the Sisters of St. John Baptist. Terms, $275 per school year. Address the Sister Su-perior, as above. erior, as above. ECCLESIASTICAL EMBROIDERY. Address: Church Workroom, 233 East 17th Street.

St. Margaret's Diocesan

School for Girls, Waterbury, Conn. The sixth year will open (D. V.) on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, 1880. Instrumental music under charge of J. Baier, Jr., a private pupil of Plaidy, of Leipsic Conservatory. French and German taught by native teachers. The REV. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, M.A., Bertor Rector.

Trinity College,

Hartford, Ct. Examinations for admission will be held at Hart-ford, on Monday and Tuesday, June 27th and 28th, 1881; also on September 13th and 14th. Commence-ment is Thursday June 30th, 1881. For Scholarships and for Catalogues application should be made to the President the President, T. R. PYNCHON, D. D., Hartford, Ct.

De Veaux College,

Suspension Bridge, Niagara Co., N.Y.

FITTING-SCHOOL for the Universities, Wagurd CO., M. I. Annapolis, or business. Charges, $350 a year. No extras. Competitive examinations for scholarshipe at the beginning of College Year, first Wednesday in September; applications for the same to be filed ten days previously.

Rev. GEO. HERBERT PATTERSON, A.M., LL.B., Prest.

The Selleck School,

Norwalk, Conn. The academic year of this school commences on the third Wednesday of September, and closes on the last Thursday of the following June. Pupils received at any age, or prepared for College, for the United States Military and Naval Academies, or for business. Terms: for board and Tuition, $350,00 per annum.

School of St. John.

THE EVANGELIST, Boston, Mass. Visitor, Rev. C. C. Grafton, S. S. J. E. For Terms apply to CHARLES HILL, 69 Pinckney Street, Boston, Mass.

St. John's School.

21 and 23 W. 32nd St. New York. Between Broadway and Fifth Avenue, New York.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LA DIES AND CHILDREN.

Rev. THEODORE IBVING, LL. D., Bector,

The Theological Department of the University Ne Ineological Department of the University OF THE SOUTH, by its presence and influence, attracts into the ranks of the ministry a fair propor-tion of the best graduates of an institution which is attended by the best class of Southern young men. For this reason, if for no other, it is a necessity to the Church. This department of the university, which is fully organized, is entirely dependent upon the voluntary contributions of the Church. We beg those who recognize its claims to be reminded of its needs. Who recognize its claims to be reminded of its needs. W. P. DU BOSE. Treasurer Theological Dep't. Sewanee, Tenn., Feb. 7, 1881.

EUROPE, Persons wishing to visit kurope in study. will find unequalied advantages offered in my "Tour Program for 1881," sent on application. Prof. de Potter, Female Academy, Albany, N.Y.